Bellefonte, Pa., December 18, 1914.

To Correspondents.-No communications ed unless accompanied by the real name

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

No Paper Next Week.

No paper will be issued from this office next week, as all of the WATCHMAN force prison board; architect John T. Windrim, it at your dealers. 25c. and 50c. sizes. will take their usual holiday vacation. of Philadelphia, with his consulting engi-The office, however, will be open to all neer, I. H. Francies; C. Walter Grange, callers, whether on business or pleasure, and everybody is welcome to call. The WATCHMAN goes to you today in its charge of the construction of the buildcustomary holiday attire, presenting the ing, and John P. Buchannan, who had compliments of the season and wishing charge of the installation of the electrical for all its friends a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

-For a mild smoke try Board of Trade cigar, 5 cents at Brockerhoff house cigar stand. 2t*

-Huylers, Reymers, Apollo candies, plain and fancy boxes, for X-mas, at Ceader's. 49-2t

---Orvis Keller had a minor operation performed on his foot, at the Bellefonte hospital, on Tuesday. -Will Noll, the taxi man, has trad-

- Fresh cut flowers for bouquets, florist shop -A little son came to the home of

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Daggett, on Sunday night, and he will be christened Ellis Orvis Daggett. --- Candyland is exclusively a candy store and that is the reason you can always get fresh candy there and cheaper than anywhere else.

every afternoon until Christmas in the take place. No announcement has yet season, and plenty of them. This is an usual place in Petrikin hall.

Cigar holders and cases. See our window.-Bush House Cigar Store. ---- A victrola was placed in each of

-William H. Bottorf has been quite sick since last Saturday as the result of catarrhal inflammation of the gall bladder, but yesterday he was slightly im-dren's party on Saturday in honor of her She was an over Sunday visitor at the daughter Mary's seventh birthday. Four- Curtin home and went to her room to teen of the little girl's playmates were retire shortly after ten o'clock. It was present, and all had an enjoyable time.

who handle only candy can give it more blowing out the lamp there was an exattention than those who handle it only plosion with a report like a gun. as a side line. That is the reason everything is right up to the minute at Candyland.

- Why not buy fresh home made candy at the price you pay for stale? We make no common candy, yet we charge common price. We manufacture and give the middleman's profit to you. CANDY-LAND for the best Xmas presents.

--- Rev. James P. Hughes was eightyeight years old on Tuesday and while he had no special celebration of the event he was kindly remembered by those who knew it was his natal day. Rev. Hughes still enjoys remarkably good health.

-The installation of the machinery at the new laundry building at the hospital was completed Wednesday and the first washing was done. Everything worked splendidly and the ladies who purchased the equipment were exceedingly gratified.

steam will play the Big Five of the Belle- also sustained burns on the front part of cents. Last Friday night the local five not burned at all. Her condition, howdefeated the State Collegians by the ever, is regarded as extremely serious score of 26 to 19.

-The annual football dance of the Bellefonte Academy was held last evening in the Bush Arcade hall. Letters ficial burns. The force of the explosion were awarded to all members of the football team entitled to the same. The erally blown to atoms, the largest piece Academy will close at noon today for the two weeks holiday vacation,

--W. W. Wood, who played centre on the State football team this year, has been elected captain for the 1915 season. Wood is a Junior, and he was acting dramatic organizations on the road today ing at the Municipal hospital and J captain of the team while Tobin was out of the game on account of the burns he received at a bonfire explosion.

school, gave an oyster supper and Christmas entertainment last evening for Miss Alice Bowdish, Joseph Angell, the first squad of letter carriers appointhis pupils and their parents. Presents were distributed to the pupils and, in will give a Christmas matinee next Fri- established and has been in the postal brief, it was one of the most enjoyable day when the entire cast will appear to service ever since. He is a faithful and occasions ever held at this school.

----Mrs. W. H. Hall and daughter, of Snow Shoe, came to Bellefonte on Monday to see her sister, Mrs. Murtoff, on east High street. She lost her watch between the depot and Murtoff home. It was a gold watch with the initials "M.

of the western penitentiary made an of- cember 30th. ficial inspection of the death house at the new penitentiary in Benner township on Monday and were unanimous in conceding that the State has one of the most complete buildings of its kind in the country.

In the inspection party were: Warden manager of the Pittsburgh branch of the Thompson-Starrett Construction company; Henry Keep, superintendent in Warden Francies and the members of the prison board came to Bellefonte Satur--85 brands of cigars to select from day evening from Pittsburgh and spent the holiday trade.—Bush House Cigar Sunday at the warden's residence. The in neat attractive boxes for the X-mas other members of the party arrived on trade.-Bush House Cigar Store. Monday morning.

It had been the intention of the prison snowfall on Sunday and Sunday night attention and assured satisfaction. Her work was confined to an inspection of be well for those anticipating buying the death house Monday afternoon. Dur. greens to communicate with Miss Jones ing the inspection the big gas engine and as early as possible. ed his Ford car for a 1912 Franklin which machinery tested for voltage. It was State's football team, who was injured in he expects to have in service in the near found to be of ample capacity to meet the Harvard game, developed water on the the week end with Mrs. VanDyke and their all the requirements of the law. On ac- knee and who was in the Bellefonte hos- daughter Mary. count of so much bad weather recently pital two weeks or more undergoing funeral designs, and all other purposes, the surroundings of the death house treatment, was on Monday taken to the at reasonable prices. Candyland's have not been entirely completed so far University hospital, Philadelphia, for as grading is concerned, and the serpen-further treatment. So far his case has tine driveway from the building to the not responded to the treatment given, railroad depot is only about half finished. hence the change to Philadelphia. If this kind of weather continues it will be impossible to complete this work before spring. The death house is now officially the property of the State. Just when it will be first used is not definitely known, as —The woman's exchange, conducted no official notification from the Governor up to this time warden Francies has had by Mrs. Charles T. Noll, will be open as to when the first electrocution will been made of the warden who will have -Fine line of pipes, all kinds and charge of the death house, or who his asshapes. Cigarette holders and cases. sistants will be; and so far no official electrocutioner has been appointed. The latter will have to be an expert electrician and it is said there are a number of apthe public school buildings this week, not plicants for the position. If, as is genermerely as a source of entertainment for ally understood, the first electrocution evening as another of the famous numthe pupils, but as an educational feature. will take place early in January, the bers in the Y. M. C. A. Star course. Mr. made in the near future.

VERY SERIOUSLY BURNED.-Mrs. John Furey Larimer was very seriously burned at the Curtin home at Curtin, on Sun--- Mrs. S. Kline Woodring gave a chil- day night, by the explosion of a lamp. about 10.30 o'clock when she was ready -It stands to reason that people for bed and while she was in the act of 'Squire H. Laird Curtin was in his room across the hall taking an alcohol rub. When he heard the report of the explosion he realized at once what had happened and grabbing the rug he was standing on ran out of his room into will be shown throughout the evening. the hall. As he did so Mrs. Larimer ran out of the room she occupied into the hall, a veritable numan torch. Mr. Curtin threw the rug around her and suc-Mrs. Larimer also went back into the lapsed.

The Tyrone Y. M. C. A. basketball was burned deep into the flesh. She Monday night, at 8.30. Admission 25 hair was badly singed but her face was yesterday. and up to yesterday no improvement was apparent.

Mr. Curtin sustained only a few superof the lamp was so great that it was litfound being the handle. The cause of the explosion is inexplicable.

the reputation of being one of the best Catharine A. Bair being a nurse in trainopera house all of next week. They store. Mr. Bair came to Bellefonte over -Luke Musser, teacher of the Forge plays rarely acted by popular priced com- were in operation and worked there panies. They feature such talent as until they closed down. He was one of Frank Root and Harry Foster. They ed in Bellefonte when free delivery was another play of unusual dramatic inter- and his family from this community. Alest. It will be given on Friday even- fred J. Nealie is the name of the young column for the full week's program.

PRISON BOARD INSPECTED DEATH -- Watch for "September Morn," at House.-The board of prison inspectors Garman's, on Wednesday evening, De-

-This is Candyland's first Christmas season in Bellefonte. It is here to supply all your Christmas needs just a little better than they have ever been catered to before. Try it.

John Francies, superintendent of con- must be prepared for emergencies. Many bridegroom is a native of Bellefonte, struction of the new penitentiary; Col. diseases develop suddenly, particularly A. C. Rook, chairman; Thomas B. Foley, croup or asthma. Rely on "OIL OF secretary, and Charles Dahlinger, of the GLADNESS," it is almost infallable. Get MOYER BROTHERS, Bloomsburg, Pa. -The Associated Charities committee announces that it has prepared and will distribute to those families needing the same an emergency basket containing groceries, etc., to the amount of one dollar, and would ask all persons willing cate with the secretary, Mrs. R. S. Brouse.

-We have cigars 10, 12, 25 and 50 turned to her home in Altoona Monday.

--- Miss Ella Jones is soliciting orders board to take a trip over the prison for holly wreaths and garlands for use grounds on Monday morning and see during the Christmas season, and all orthe work that is being done, but the big ders placed with her will be given prompt

-- Rowland & Clifford's big sensation, "September Morn" will be the attraction at Garman's on Wednesday evening, December 30th. The most satisfying compound of music, beauty and fun on the road today. Tangoesque ensembles, superb chorus effects, a riot of color in and returned to Bellefonte. costumes, etc. The best song hits of the attraction you don't want to miss.

-Tobacco in one pound humidors-Cigarettes, 50 and 100 to a box. All X-mas packing.—Bush House Store

---Elias Day, characterist, will appear in the opera house this (Friday) above appointments will undoubtedly be Day is not only an author of note but he comes to Bellefonte highly recommended the proud old southern characters, Tommy Atkins, Dennis McCarthy and even the sons of sunny Italy are unusually true to nature. Don't fail to see and hear Mr. Day.

> --- Centre county school teachers will be able to enjoy an hour's entertainment at the Scenic next week before the regular evening institute entertainment. as that popular motion picture show will open at 6.30 o'clock. Manager Brown has arranged a program of unusually good pictures for the teachers benefit. The general public will also have the advantage of these good pictures, which Watch the bulletin boards each day for announcements.

-Dr. David Dale had a rather unceeded in smothering the flames imme- usual experience on Sunday night. He diately. He then ran into the room and was called on a case near the Penitenwith the rug beat out the fire but not tiary and struck drifts so deep that he before the rugs in the room had been had to abandon his car. There he got burned, chairs and bureau badly charred into a field afoot and the snow became and the bureau furnishings destroyed. so blinding that he lost his way. After yelling about ten minutes he saw a lanroom and assisted in putting out the fire tern in the distance and following the and when this was accomplished she collight he came to the house he had been hunting, but was so nearly exhausted A physician was summoned as quickly that he had to rest quite a while before as possible and an examination disclosed he could attend to his professional the fact that Mrs. Larimer's right arm duties. His Ford car stood out in the storm all night and the next day the farmer pulled it into his barn. But he fonte Y. M. C. A. in Association hall her body, her back and left arm. Her could not get it back to Bellefonte until

-Mr and Mrs. John C. Bair with their daughter, Miss Helen M. Bair, will leave Bellefonte on Tuesday, December 29th, to make their home in Philadelphia. Mr. Bair has arranged an exchange of positions with a clerk in the West Philadelphia post office, who wants to come to the country on account of his health, so that when he goes there his position will be similar to the one he has STOCK COMPANY ALL OF NEXT WEEK. here. Mr. and Mrs. Bair's son and -The Angell Stock company, which has daughter are now in Philadelphia, Miss playing week stands, will be at Garman's Montgomery Bair being a clerk in a drug come to Bellefonte with a repertoire of thirty years ago when the old nail works -Miss Mollie Haas is quite ill at her three year old daughter, and when they.

BAUER-RHOADS.-Vincent J. Bauer and Miss Bertha Rhoads, a daughter of visiting his aunts in Bellefonte. Mrs. Emma Rhoads, of Somerset, were quietly married at Somerset on Wednesday morning of last week, by the Catholic priest of that city. They came to Bellefonte on Thursday evening and Bellefonte friends. after spending Friday here left on Saturday for Seward, Cambria county, where -When you live in the country, you Mr. Bauer has a good position. The WATCHMAN extends congratulations.

> -Ceader's all flavors ice cream and ices for X-mas. Get your orders in early for specialties. 49-2t

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rumberger will go to Unionville Christmas to be guests at the family reunion of the Brugger family.

-Thomas Farrow will come from Virginia to equipment including the death chair, to contribute to this cause to communible a guest at Christmas time of Miss Helen Wetzel, at her home on Thomas street. -Mrs. Mary Renner, who has been visiting

Mrs. F. P. Bartley for the last five weeks, re--Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Griffith, of Axe Mann, will go to Philadelphia today, expecting to visit for an indefinite time with relatives in that city. Atlantic City for the winter, was in Bellefonte

-The Misses Anne and Caroline Valentine re-

Wednesday, looking after some business inter-

-Albert C. Hoy, of New York, will visit during the Christmas vacation with his sisters, the Misses Anna and Mary Hoy and Mrs. W. F.

-George N. Van Dyke, with Anderson Bros.,

-Allen Sheldon will come to Belleforte Christwith his mother, Mrs. Nora Sheldon, who is ill at the Bush house. -Dr. J. M. Brockerhoff is planning to spend the most of the winter in the southern part of California, expecting to leave Bellefonte about the middle of January. -Zeb. Bathurst, of Huntingdon, will come to

Bellefonte Sunday to spend the Christmas season with his sister, Mrs. Sarah Miller, and other relatives in Centre county. -John Hines, who went to Columbia, S. C., six months ago to take charge of the machine of J. Witmer McCormick, has given up the position

-Miss Frances Elmore, of Pittsburgh, and Walter Rankin, of Harrisburg, will come to Bellefonte next week to be with William B. Rankin and his family at Christmas time.

-Mrs. Christian Thomas, of Port Matilda, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Washington Irvin, at her home on Reynolds Ave. Mrs. Thomas will be in Bellefonte until after the Holidays. -Miss Florence W. Love has arranged to spend her Christmas vacation next week with her sister at Tussevville and friends at Centre Hall: going over on Monday and returning on Satur--Mr. and Mrs. George Beezer are arranging to attend the automobile shows in New York and Philadelphia, and from there go to Baltimore as an entertainer. His impersonation of and Washington, where they will spend a short time sight seeing. -Mrs. Thomas Todsock and her son, Thomas Todsock Jr., will go to South Bethlehem, Saturday of next week, to visit with Mrs. Todsock's daughter, Mrs. Black. Mr. Todsock will join them there for New Years. -Miss Rebecca Rhoads and her brother Joseph, who had been in Bellefonte for a short visit, left here Wednesday for Philadelphia. Miss Rhoads will visit with her brother and his family at Media and from there go to New York.

-John C. Larimer, of Philadelphia, joined his brothers Robert and Fred in Bellefonte yesterday. Mr. Larimer came here on account of the illness of his mother, whose condition has not changed since the accident Sunday night. -Clair Seibert, who since leaving the P. R. R several years ago, has been with the Cambria Steel Co., at Johnstown, will come from there Thursday of next week, for a Holiday visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Seibert. - Mrs. Howard Gearhart, whose husband is in charge of the Adams Express office at Easton, is ipating coming here next week and during her stay will be a guest of her mother, Mrs. Joseph -Mrs. Theodore Kelley, who has been for the past two weeks in New York, returned Wednes. day, accompanied by her niece, Miss Katherine Heinle. Miss Heinle, who is a teacher in the St hart's very busy season. Mrs. Gearhart is antic-

Elizabeth convent at Madison, N. J., will visit with her aunt and other relatives in Bellefonte during her vacation. -Mrs. Thomas Rishel, who is planning for a family party on Christmas Day, expects to have open. as her guests: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bat, of Mc Keesport; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gessner and their daughter, of Arnold, Pa.: Miss Sallie Gess-ner and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rine and their family, of Bellefonte. -Mr. John Spearly, of Benner township, one of he Democrats in that baliwick who is always looked too to see that the Democratic vote is gotten to the polls and who always does his full share to have it there, was in town on Wednesday to make sure that his WATCHMAN tab showed payment away in advance. -Rev. Robert Reed, now of the University of Illinois, will return to Centre county Tuesday to be for Christmas with Mrs. Reed and the children at Mrs. John Olewine's before they leave for their new home in the west. From Bellefonte they will go to DuBois to visit for two weeks with Mr. Reed's parents and from there leave for Champaign. Miss Ella Bottorf, Mrs. Reed's sister, will go with them to Illinois, expecting to remain until spring.

-Among the girls and boys away at College returning to spend their winter vacation in Bellefonte are Mary Schad and Helen Hawes, who came from Oxford, Ohio, Wednesday; Anna Taylor from Goucher College, Baltimore, will come today; Martha Barnhart from Holyoke Wednesday; Margaret Steward from New Jersey; Martha Shoemaker from Mt. St. Vincent; Charles Scott and Frederic Reynolds from Prince ton: Philip Reynolds and Elliot Morris from St. uke's and Charles Smith from Bucknell.

-The Allison family will meet in Bellefonte Thursday of next week in anticipation of spendgreat advantage in "Thorns and Orange courteous gentleman and his many and with Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Allison. In ing Christmas together at Mrs. Frank McCoy's Blossoms." "The White Squaw" is friends will regret the departure of him the party will be Mrs. J. F. Alexander, of Centre Hall; Edward Allison, of Potters Mills; Hon. William Allison, his daughter, Miss Mabel Alliing. See advertisement in another man who will come here to take Mr. Charles Allison, of Toronto, Canada, and Mr. Bair's place. Mr. Nealie has a wife and and Mrs. William Allison Jr. of New York city. They all will be guests of Mrs. McCoy Thursday Will the finder please notify home at Roopsburg, as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained last week. house to be vacated by the Bairs.

Will the finder please notify home at Roopsburg, as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained last week. house to be vacated by the Bairs.

Allison. for supper, and will celebrate Christmas eve and

-William Flack, of Media, spent last week

-Miss Anna Miller will go to Salona the after and Lewisburg. part of next week, for her Holiday visit at home with her parents.

-Miss Blanche Gehret, of Williamsport, spent several days the latter part of last week visiting

-Raymond P. Lingle, of DuBois, was in Bellefonte several days the fore part of the week attending court. He returned home on Wednes-

-Miss Barbara Levi will be a guest of her well and favorably known here and the brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Levi. Bellefonte next week for a short Holiday vaca-Mr. and Mrs. Levi have recently gone to housekeeping in Lock Haven.

-Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beck will come from Wilkinsburg Thursday, to spend Christmas and fonte visitor over Saturday and Sunday, on his the week-end with Mrs. Beck's mother, Mrs. way home from a business trip to New York

John Harrison, of Bishop street. -Miss Elizabeth Cunningham will go to Washington next week, where she will spend her division of state constabulary located at Greens-Christmas vacation with her sister, Miss Helen burg, was a Bellefonte visitor over Tuesday Cunningham, a professional nurse of that city. night.

spend two weeks in Bellefonte at the Holiday at Orviston. son with the child's grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Hammon Sechler.

next week.

-Mr. and Mrs. R. Wynn Davis, of Brownsville, -E. H. Richard, who with Mrs. Richard is at Pa., are expected in Bellefonte for Christmas and to make a visit that will extend into the New Year. During their stay they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gettig.

turned to Bellefonte Tuesday, after visiting for after some business interests in Philadelphia, is -G. Murray Andrews, who is now looking made such a trip impossible and their phone number being 241-J, Bell, it would two months in Baltimore, Philadelphia and Hararanging to go to England. Mr. Andrews will came to Bellefonte this week, to complete his plans for an indefinite stay abroad.

-A. B. Cromer will come from Baldwinsville next week to spend Christmas with Mrs. Cromer, who has been visiting with her father, W. Homer Crissman. Mrs. Cromer expects to return with Mr. Cromer to New York State.

-Margery and Ruth, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Meek, of Williamsport, will go to days with her father, Neil Cross, who is just get-Waddle next week to spend Christmas with their mas morning from Connecticut to spend the day grandmother, Mrs. D. L. Meek. The greater part of their vacation will be spent there and at State College.

-Mrs. Matthew McGinnis, of Clearfield, will be a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield, next week. Mrs. McGinnis is coming to visit for several days with her sister, Mrs. Larimer, who has recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital tomorrow.

-Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett, of Centre Hall. and their daughter Miriam, are arranging to spend Christmas and the Holiday week with Mr. and Mrs. William Magee and their young son, at their home in New Jersey. Mrs. Magee is Mr. and Mrs. Huyett's eldest daughter.

-Mrs. Walter Fulton and her little son Joe came in from Pittsburgh on Thursday morning to remain until after Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Daley, of east Lamb street. Mr. Fulton will come to Bellefonte for Christmas and part of the Holidays. -Mrs. Nichols, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cherry, has returned to her home at Beaver, Mrs. Nichols and her small son came here several weeks ago, on account of ill health, but returned very much improved by their stay in Bellefonte. -Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Topelt, of Brooklyn, their son Richard Stuart, and Miss Caroline Harper will all be Christmas guests of Mrs. R. S. Brouse. Mrs. Topelt and the child are expected in Bellefonte late this week, while Mr. Topelt and Miss Harper will not come until Christmas -Mrs. Benjamin Bradley will have with her for a part of the Christmas season Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Riley and Robert Bradley, of Bradford, and John Bradley, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Bradley's guests will spend a portion of the time while in Bellefonte with their niece, Mrs. R. Russel Blair. -Mrs. Thaddeus Hamilton returned Saturday from Philadelphia, where she had been visiting for a month to make ready for her Christmas family party. Her guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Broderick, of State College, and their little daughter; Thaddeus Hamilton, Jr., and Thomas Hamilton, of New York city.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Curtin, of Pittsburgh, and their two children, Betty and Harry and their nurse, will come to Bellefonte Wednesday of next week. During their stay they will visit with Mr. Curtin's mother, Mrs. Harry Curtin, of Curtin, and with Mrs. Curtin's mother, Mrs. George F. Harris, of Bellefonte.

-Miss Grace Mitchell, an instructor in the arranging to visit in Bellefonte during Mr. Gear- Westover school at Middlebury, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell, of Burnham, with their two children; will be Christmas guests whom Mrs. John Porter Lyon will entertain. Miss Mitchell will spend the winter vacation in Bellefonte with her father, Isaac Mitchell.

> -Mrs. Hiram Hiller, of Chester, and her daughter Virginia will be in Bellefonte Sunday, Dr. Hiller and Margaret joining them here Thursday, to have their Christmas with Mrs. William P. Wilson. Dr. Hiller will return to Chester after a short visit, while Mrs. Hiller and the children will remain until the schools re-

> -Mrs. John Harris' Christmas family party will include all of her children, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harris, with their two children and a nurse, will come from Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs Charles Harris and Guy from Washington, and George from Baltimore. Mrs. Harris' daughters, Mrs. VanPelt and Mrs. McCoy, both of Belle onte, will complete the party.

> -The family Christmas party of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boozer, of Centre Hall, will include their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Boozer, a teacher in the schools at Ramey; George, a student at Mercers burg Academy; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boozer, of Chicago, and their baby daughter, and Mrs Ralph Boozer's sister, a student at Wellesley College. The entire party will come to Centre Hall the middle of next week and be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Boozer during the Holidays.

-Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dever, of Lansing Mich., who will spend the Holidays in Pennsylvania, expect to reach Chambersburg the early part of next week, where they will visit for sev eral days with Mr. Dever's parents. From Cham bersburg they will go to Williamsport for a short stay with Mrs. Dever's sister, Mrs. H. D. Meek. then together they all will go to State College Mr. Dever is a graduate of State and Mrs. Dever who was Miss Esther Campbell, lived there before her marriage

-Ex-sheriff Benjamin Schaeffer, of Nittany, than whom no man in the coun ty has, or deserves, more real friends. and than whom we know no county can produce any better or more reliable Democrat, braved the cold on Wednesday to come up to town and attend to some personal matters that needed his oversight and in the meantime make many of us wonder what secret of life the Sheriff possesses that keeps him, at eighty-four, looking, acting and seemingly feeling younger and more vigorous than scores of men who have not yet turned into seventy. If everybody had the dis position that sheriff Schaeffer is blessed with the world would be both better and happier and there would be fewer of us so continuously act-

-William A. Lyon spent from Saturday night until Wednesday on a business trip to Danville

-Edward P. Irvin, of Cherry Tree, will be among those who will return to Bellefonte to spend Christmas day. -Frank Crissman, of Sunbury, will spend Christmas week with his father and sisters, at the family home on Thomas street.

-Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hart, of Brooklyn, will be home guests of Mr. Hart's mother, Mrs. William Hart, during the Christmas season.

tion with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keich--Fred Blanchard, of Chicago, was a Belle-city. -Lieut. William Marsh, who has charge of the -Mrs. Thomas K. Morris, of Pittsburgh, and -Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris are entertainher son, Thomas King Jr., will be in Bellefonte ing, Mrs. Morris' father, Elliot Lyon, of Pittstomorrow, to spend the Holidays with King's burgh, who will remain in Bellefonte during the grand-parents. Mr. Morris will join them here Holidays.

-Henry Keller, who was a Sophmore at State, -Mrs. William Armstrong Kirby, of Balti- has decided to abandon his college course and more, and her son, William Armstrong Jr., will has now accepted a position in the brick works

> -Miss Hazel Lentz, a student at Dickinson minary, came home yesterday for a two week's Holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Lentz.

> -Mrs. Charles Pletcher, of Unionville, and her aunt, Mrs. Taylor, of Spruce Creek, were in Bellefonte Wednesday, visiting and doing their season's shopping.

-Mrs. Katherine Hunter, who has been visiting for the past three weeks with Mrs. Levi Miller, at Pleasant Gap, returned to her home in Pittsburgh Tuesday. -Mrs. John A. Woodcock is expecting to have as guests for Christmas day, her son and her nephew, Dr. Lee B. Woodcock and Byron Woodcock, both of Scranton. -Mrs. H. S. Taylor returned on Tuesday evening from Philipsburg, where she spent a few ting over a bad attack of the grip. -Miss Marie McGowan, a nurse in training in Washington, D. C., will come home next week to spend her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McGowan, of Roopsburg. -Miss Rena Gibbs, of Ithaca, N. Y., a school mate of Miss Anne Keichline at Cornell, has been visiting with Miss Keichline for a part of the past week. Miss Gibbs left Bellefonte Thurs

-Col. and Mrs. James A. McClain, of Spangler, and their daughter Emily, will come to Bellefonte the latter part of next week to be guests during their stay of Col. and Mrs. J. L.

-Miss Elizabeth Bogle, of Pittsburgh, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Norris Bogle, of New York city, will be guests whom Mrs. Bogle and her sister, Miss Norris, will entertain at their home, "The Forge House," during the Holiday week.

-Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Kilpatrick will go to Philadelphia to celebrate Christmas with their son Clayton. Mrs. Kilpatrick and Edna will leave here Tuesday, while Dr. Kilpatrick will not join his family there before Thursday. -Mr. and Mrs. William Wallis, of Crafton, will be among those who are expected in Bellefonte

Thursday of next week. Mr. and Mrs. Wallis will spend Christmas and the week end with Mrs. Wallis' parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Con--Mrs. Edward Cooke, of Baltimore, and her daughter Jeannette, are with Mrs. Cooke's sister, ss Mary Snyder. Mrs. Cooke and Jean who came to Bellefonte Wednesday, will visit here until the opening of the schools in January. -Harry F. Garber, who has been since the first of November with the Motor Sales Co., of Stanford, Conn., is expected in Bellefonte next week to spend a short Christmas vacation with Mrs. Garber, at their apartments in the Bush Arcade. -After visiting for a month or more with her sister, Mrs. Arnold, in Philadelphia, Mrs. Lewis A. Harvey will return to Bellefonte next week. Mrs. Harvey's children have been with their grandmother, Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, during their mother's absence.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

The prices quoted are those paid for produ
tatoes per bushel, new	St 983
Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press. Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Oats.....Flour —Winter, per barrel.... Favorite Brands....

The Best Advertising Medium in Centra Pennsylvania.

Straw.

A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and with ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eightpage form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate: Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year... Paid after expiration of year....

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions discontinued until all arrearages are settled, cept at the option of the publisher. ADVERTISING CHARGES:

A limited amount of advertising space will be d at the following rates: LEGAL AND TRANSIENT. All legal and transient advertising running fo

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS. Per inch, each insertion..

The following discounts will be allowed on advertisements continued for Four weeks, and under three mos...10 per ct.
Three mos. and under six mos........15 per ct.
Six mos. and under 12 mos..........25 per ct.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless accompanied by the cash.