> HAPPY GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRA-TION .- At least one day in the long wedded life of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller, at the Toll Gate, was strewn with gold and flowers, and that was last Saturday when they celebrated their golden wedding, Potted plants and cut flowers, done up in white and gold paper, were literally showered upon them, and the wonderful profusion served as a part of the beautiful decorations of the house. The flowers came from friends in Philadelphia Lock Haven, Tyrone, Clearfield and other places. About one hundred guests were present including Mrs. Fleisher and daughter Margaret, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stine, Mrs. J. B. Williams and Mrs. John B. Bell. of Tyrone, and Miss Mary Lytle, of Clearfield. Mr. and Mrs. Miller received a large number of valuable presents, among them being $150.00 in gold, a set of gold band china, several pieces of crystal glass inlaid with gold, various pieces of china. linen, aluminum ware, etc. The refreshments served were choice and elaborate in character.

RED CROSS SEALS SALE APPRECIATED. -Miss Overton is in receipt of the following letter from R. F. Smith Ur., executive secretary of the Red Cross society for Pennsylvania, which speaks for itself: PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12, 1915.

DEAR MISS OVERTON:-We are pleased to acknowledge receipt of your check for $153.00 as returns from the recent sale of Red Cross Christmas seals in Bellefonte. Surely a sale of over three seals per capita is one that calls for cordial acknowledgment and congratulation.

We note with gratification the hearty and effective local support accorded you and hope that the sale has been a matter of stimulus and education in the prevention of tuberculosis in your

We plan to send later a report showing Red Cross Seal returns from the more important communities in the State, which report we trust may prove of interest to you and to the other members of the Woman's Club. We should be glad to send educational literature regarding tuberculosis and its prevention whenever such would be of assistance to the social welfare work in Bellefonte. Mr. Risley also notes with pleasure the fine results of the sale.

Please extend our thanks to each member of your committee for their active co-operation in With appreciation of your own effective work and renewal of thanks for this substantial support in the work of preventing tuberculosis in Sincerely yours,
