—Isaac Shawver, landlord of the hotel at Millheim, is so seriously ill with a complication of diseases that his friends are very much concerned over his condition.

—The county auditors are making good progress in auditing the accounts for the year 1914 but it will be several weeks yet before their work is completed.

—About two weeks ago a young son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robb, of Marsh Creek, died with diphtheria and now two more of their children are seriously ill with the disease.

—Delicious ten cent cakes of the most popular flavors, are being put on the market by the Ceder bakery. Send in your order early before the day's supply is exhausted.

—With wild geese flying northward and the big Barnum & Bailey show already booked for Altoona on Wednesday, May 5th, it would seem as if Spring would soon be here.

—Norman Wright has leased the Hoover property on Spring street now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Barr, and with his family will move there from the Gardiner house on April first.

—A little son arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dale, at Oak Hill, on Tuesday, the first addition in nine years. Mr. and Mrs. Dale's family now includes two sons and two daughters.

—A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Katz, of Lewistown, on Thursday of last week, and it has been named William S. Katz 2nd., in honor of his uncle, William S. Katz, of Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Connerly, of Tyrone, are the happy parents of a nine-pound baby boy, which arrived on Wednesday. Mrs. Connerly before her marriage was Miss Louise Armor, of this place.

—Mary Elizabeth Casebeer is the name of the little daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Casebeer, at the Bellefonte hospital last Thursday afternoon. Both mother and babe are getting along splendidly.

—The Heinele property on east Bishop street was not sold on Saturday. The highest bid offered was $2,850, and the heirs refused to leave it go at that. The property will again be offered for sale in the near future.

—The furniture and household belongings of Rev. and Mrs. John Hewitt, which have been stored in the McClain block since their departure from Bellefonte, was shipped to them at Coldwater, Mich., this week.

—George J. Behrers, of Patton township, recently purchased the farm belonging to the Brockerhoff estate at the top of the Roopsburg hill adjoining the Witmer farm. Mr. Behrers will occupy the farm after April first.

—James G. Bailey, the barber, recently purchased the property of John F. Barnes, on Bishop street. This is the old Amos Mullen property and in addition to the residence includes the tailor shop occupied by George W. Sunday.

—Light lunches, consisting of coffee, tea or chocolate with sandwiches, cake or pie, are being served at Ceder's, to accommodate out-of-town business people, or those who are down town in the shopping district, and in need of light refreshments.

—Mrs. Catharine Monsel this week bought the Stitzer property on east High street now occupied by Joshua Folk and family, and is having it remodeled into a model residence for her own occupancy; expecting to move there as soon as the repairs are completed.

—Mrs. Henry Robb, with her son, J. H. Robb and daughter, Miss Helen Robb, moved to State College on Wednesday forenoon. The Robbs went to the College on the train while Thomas Beaver with five teams moved their furniture and household belongings.

—Mrs. Maria Miller, of near Stormstown, had a bad fall one day last week and tore the ligaments of her right thigh. Owing to her advanced age her injury is likely to prove quite serious. Her daughter, Miss Jean Miller, of Tyrone, is now at her old home helping take care of her mother.

—Allen Shelden this week packed and shipped to his home in Stamford, Conn., all the furniture and personal property of his mother, the late Mrs. Nora Shelden. Miss Julia Curtin, who made her home with Mrs. Shelden, will continue to occupy rooms at the Bush house and will have with her Gregg Shelden, Mrs. Shelden's grandson.

THE ORR-CULVER MEETINGS INCREASING IN INTEREST.—The evangelistic meetings being conducted by Dr. W. W. Orr in the Bellefonte armory are increasing in interest daily and over one hundred people have walked down the aisle and pledged themselves to lead christian lives. Not only are meetings held in the armory but every morning at ten o'clock a twenty minutes prayer meeting is held by the men in some business place around town while a number of prayer meetings are held at the homes by the women. These latter have an aggregate average attendance of about seventy-five. The men's prayer meetings are also largely attended, the complete list and average daily attendance being as follows:

On Monday morning of last week at C. C. Shuey's grocery store, 35; Tuesday morning at The Index, 28; Wednesday morning at Yeager's shoe store, 52; Thursday morning at Blair's jewelry store, 62; Friday morning at the Potter-Hoy Hardware store, 115; Saturday morning at J. Kennedy Johnston's law office, 87; Monday morning of this week at Twitmore's stove store, 82; Tuesday morning at Mingle's shoe store, 73; Wednesday morning at Finkelstein's, 99; Thursday morning at Miller's stove store, 72. At noon on Tuesday prayer meetings were also held at the Bellefonte Engineering company's plant and the Bellefonte Central railroad company car shops, 50 being present at the first named meeting and 15 at the latter.

Real interest in the meetings began last Saturday night which was young people's night. The Bellefonte High school attended in a body, with the High school band. One hundred members formed the choir for the evening. There were three services on Sunday, the evening meeting being the largest yet held. Fourteen hundred people were present and many turned away.

Monday night was railroader's night and thirty-one men were present in a body. Tuesday evening the Bellefonte Academy attended in a body and fifty-one walked down the aisle. Last evening was the Bellefonte Engineering company meeting and it is estimated that seventy-five of that company's employees were present.

On Wednesday evening a special effort was made to raise the balance of the money needed to defray the local expenses and it was entirely successful, as over seven hundred dollars have been raised. All the expenses having been provided for there will be no more collections until the last Sunday when the free will offerings for Dr. Orr will be lifted.

Some of the best services of all are promised for Sunday. At eleven o'clock a "Say-so" meeting will be held at which Dr. Orr's subject will be "The Breaking of the Alabaster Box." Sunday afternoon's meeting will be for women only, and the Doctor's subject will be "The Ideal Woman." At the 7.30 meeting in the evening the subject will be "The Greatest Love Story of All Ages."

Monday night will be firemen's night and all the firemen in Bellefonte are invited and urged to be present.

The singing of the big choir under the direction of Prof. Culver is very inspiring and a greatly appreciated feature of these meetings. The meetings will be continued all of next week and close on Sunday, March 7th.

MINISTER IN TOOLS OF LAW.—Rev. H. A. McKelvey, for three years pastor of the United Brethren church at Bellwood, was arrested last Friday on a charge preferred by a fourteen year old girl; the warrant being sworn out by the girl's mother. Rev. McKelvey is well known in Centre county, having been stationed at Port Matilda a number of years. Three years ago he was transferred to Bellwood. The Bellwood congregation is divided as to the guilt and innocence of the pastor, one faction claiming it is a scheme on the part of the other faction to oust the minister from the church and destroy his reputation. Rev. McKelvey is under two thousand dollars bail for his appearance at the March term of the Blair county court to answer to the charge, and some of his parishioners declare they will stand by him to the end. In the meantime he has tendered his resignation as pastor of the church.

TO GIVE CONCERT FOR HOSPITAL BENEFIT.—The State College glee club, numbering forty students, will give a concert in Garman's opera house on Saturday evening, February 20th, for the benefit of the Bellefonte hospital. The glee club managers requested the privilege of giving the concert as a slight remuneration for the consideration, care and kindness always shown college students who have had treatment at the hospital, and when they are so generous as to do this, the people of Bellefonte ought to patronize them to the extent of a crowded house. Tickets will be fifty cents.

MCCOY & LINN IRON CO. AGAIN IN OPERATION.—The charcoal furnace of the McCoy and Linn Iron Company at Milesburg was put in blast early last week and the Company's mines at Gatesburg will later be put in operation. The improvement in the charcoal iron market, and a demand for the McCoy & Linn iron was promptly met by members of the company putting the plant in operation. The resumption will give work to a number of men, the company's old employees having been given the preference.

—Mrs. Charles Robb has purchased a home at State College and expects to move there from east Lamb street in the near future.

—The indoor baseball games at the Y. M. C. A. have been discontinued until the termination of the evangelistic meetings in the armory, when they will be resumed as per original schedule.

—Bellefonte automobile dealers are contemplating a big season the coming summer, as already they have lots of sales in prospect. Owing to the heavy snow still on the ground buyers are a little backward in placing orders, but Col. W. F. Reynolds recently purchased a 1915 model Hudson car, and Harry Baum has placed an order for one of the new Dodge runabouts.

—A civil service examination will be held at the Bellefonte postoffice on Saturday, February 13th, for the positions of clerk and city carrier in the postoffice service. Clerks and carriers are divided into five grades, the salary ranging from $800 to $1,200 per annum. Each applicant will be required to submit to the examination a photograph of himself taken within two years.

—Miss Erintrude Bricker, a student at the Bellefonte High school, was slightly burned in the face last Friday afternoon. She was about to take a lesson in the domestic science course and turned on the gas at the range. When she applied a match there was a slight explosion and the gas flames burned her face. The burns are all superficial, however, and will soon heal.

—On Friday of last week Judge Harry Alvan Hall, of Lock Haven, sentenced Rev. F. A. Luning to not more than three years nor less than two in the western penitentiary. Luning is the man who, giving his home as Altoona, went to Lock Haven with a young woman and used illegal methods in collecting money. Before going to Lock Haven, he tried Bellefonte but had no success here.

—Miss Henrietta Winn, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Winn, of Altoona, who is a student at State College in the Senior class, is the first young woman at that institution to be elected to the Phi Kappa Phi fraternity. This is an honorary fraternity, membership in which is only conferred upon students who take a four years course and who stand high on the honor roll during the four years.

—Bellefonte will be represented during the present session of the Legislature with at least one appointee, Fred Thompson (colored) having been appointed a custodian in the House at a salary of $6.00 a day. He left on Tuesday for Harrisburg to assume the position and there is no doubt but that he will size up to the situation. Fred recently has been working for Robert Morris, at his grocery store.

—The contracting firm of Bush & Stewart, of Williamsport, was last week incorporated as the Bush and Stewart Construction company. The members of the firm are George Bush, of Williamsport, and Dr. D. G. Stewart, of Bellefonte. They are among the largest construction companies in Central Pennsylvania and do most of the street paving in Williamsport as well as lots of state road work.

—Manager T. Clayton Brown says that anybody who is not a regular attendant at the Scenic is missing some good pictures, as he is now showing the best pictures ever shown at the Scenic, and he ought to know. The Scenic is open every evening at 6.30 and the daily offering is from four to eight reels. The regular price of admission is five cents, with ten cents for the big features. Drop in for one of the shows during the evening and you'll be pleasantly entertained.

—On Saturday twenty-three men were laid off at the new penitentiary. All of them were native Americans and most of them residents of Bellefonte. These men had been in the employ of the State excavating for buildings and grading for roadways. The continued cold weather and deep snows are given as reasons why the work has been curtailed. Only a few foreigners who live out near the penitentiary grounds have been kept on the job to complete the work now under way.

—Next Tuesday, February 2nd, will be groundhog day. Some weatherwise prophets are predicting that there won't be enough of sunshine on that day for Bre'r Hog to even imagine a shadow, and that the backbone of the winter is already broken. That may be so, but taking into consideration that winter really began on Thanksgiving day, and it has been going right along without a let-up, it is hard to believe that the backbone is anything more than slightly bent and the ribs of winter are still with us.

—Harold B. Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Gardner, has accepted a position in the laboratory of the Pennsylvania railroad company at Altoona as a chemist, and will report for duty next Monday morning. Harold is a graduate of State College class of 1913, and had recently made an engagement to go to the College as an assistant in the chemical laboratory under Dr. G. G. Pond. When he got the offer of an appointment with the Pennsylvania railroad company Dr. Pond released him of his engagement to teach.

GOV. BRUMBAUGH STRONG FOR STATE COLLEGE.—Governor Brumbaugh was in attendance at the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of The Pennsylvania State College held in Harrisburg on Tuesday and was quite emphatic in expressing his views of the need of the college for the utmost support it is possible to give it. The trustees did not decide upon any amount for the state appropriation which will be asked for, but left the matter to a committee composed of President E. E. Sparks, H. Walton Mitchell, of Pittsburgh, and H. V. White, of Bloomsburg.

The appropriation the Legislature will be asked to provide will be for buildings, equipment and maintenance. While no definite decision was reached it is probable that the college will ask for money for a general chemistry building, a building for poultry, an animal husbandry building for the accommodation of cows, sheep and hogs, a general recitation building for the agricultural students and laboratories for the domestic science students. The building the girl students are now occupying was built when there were but 35 girls in college; now there are 105.

The resignation of Prof. Jackson as dean of the school of engineering was accepted. Prof. Jackson obtained a leave of absence more than a year ago when Governor Tener placed him at the head of the Department of Labor and Industry. The acceptance is taken to mean that he will be reappointed.

The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, H. Walton Mitchell, Pittsburgh; vice president, J. G. White, New York; secretary, Dr. Sparks; treasurer, D. K. Peet, State College.

The executive committee, elected for one year, is as follows: E. S. Bayard, Pittsburgh; M. W. Lowery, Scranton; Vance C. McCormick, Harrisburg; H. Walton Mitchell, Pittsburgh; Ellis L. Orvis, Bellefonte; J. E. Quigley, Pittsburgh, and H. V. White, Bloomsburg.

A CENSUS OF BELLEFONTE'S UNEMPLOYED.—In December the Woman's Club of Bellefonte, received an urgent appeal from the State Federation of Women asking for co-operation in ascertaining the industrial conditions in Pennsylvania. Each club was requested to report on the percentage of unemployed in their own locality.

In the first week in January a committee of the Woman's Club was organized, and in ten days they canvassed the town of Bellefonte, Pleasant View, the Forge, Prossertown, and the old glass works district. The summing up was as follows: Fifty people asked for employment, of these eight were women wanting house work, and forty-two were men out of work.

Since this census there has been a report of twenty-three Americans (mostly citizens of Bellefonte) being laid off from work at the penitentiary.

Mrs. Richard S. Brouse, of Thomas street, chairman of the committee, keeps a list of the names of people wanting employment and will be glad to receive the names of any more who are in need of work; she is also desirous of assistance in procuring employment for these people.

In this investigation it was found that there are sixteen families (consisting of from four to eleven members) needing immediate help in shoes, underclothing and coal.

A number of families were found that are living on reduced wages but who did not ask for assistance.

Mrs. Brouse will be glad to receive clothes or money to supply those in need of necessities.

MARY MILES BLANCHARD, President Woman's Club, Bellefonte, Pa.
