ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

AIKENS-SMITH.—Rev. Dr. Charles T. Aikens, president of Susquehanna University, Selingsgrove, and Mrs. Carrie E. Smith, of Beaver Springs, were married at Hagerstown, Md., on Wednesday, by Dr. S. W. Owen, president of the board of directors of the Susquehanna University. Dr. and Mrs. Aikens left the same evening on a wedding trip through the South and will be at home at Selingsgrove after February 20th. Before leaving Selingsgrove Dr. Aikens announced a gift of $100 to Susquehanna University by a Centre constituent, though the name was not mentioned. Dr. Aikens is well known in Bellefonte and throughout Centre county. Prior to going to Susquehanna University he was pastor of the Lutheran church at Pine Grove Mills. This is his second matrimonial venture.

SPROUL-FOGLEMAN.—William Francis Sproul, a son of Mrs. Samuel Sproul, of Hecla, and Miss Annie B. Fogleman, a daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Fogleman, of Lemont, went to Clintondale last evening where they were united in marriage at the Evangelical parsonage by the bridegroom's pastor, Rev. Mr. Ertle. They were accompanied by Miss Vernie M. Sproul, who officiated as bridesmaid, and John Deitrick, who took the part of best man. They returned the same evening to Hecla where a delicious wedding supper was served at the Sproul home by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Samuel Sproul. Mr. Sproul since the death of his father has had charge of the Sproul farm and it is there the young couple will make their home.

WOOD-MCCORMICK.—Word has been received from Los Angeles, Cal., of the marriage there on Friday, January 29th, of Melvin Wood and Miss Nellie McCormick. The bridegroom will be remembered as one of the twin sons of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Wood Jr., who were residents of this place several years while Rev. Wood was pastor of the Methodist church. When they left Bellefonte about eight years ago they went direct to Los Angeles, Cal., where they have resided ever since.

MORRILL-KERLIN.—A wedding that will be of interest to a number of people in Centre county was that of Fred Morrill, of Amesbury, Mass., and Miss Nellie E. Kerlin, a former Centre Hall young lady, the marriage having taken place on Wednesday of last week at Haverhill, Mass. Rev. Arthur A. Derbyshire, of the North Congregational church, officiated, the two-ring ceremony being used. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Sarah Kerlin, of Centre Hall.

KNAPP-GROVE.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Grove, near Lemont, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Thursday of last week, when their daughter, Miss Minnie Grove, became the bride of Merrill Knapp, of Bellefonte. The ceremony took place at twelve noon and was performed by Rev. Foss, of Centre Hall. The bridegroom is employed in the John Meese store and the young couple will go to housekeeping in Bellefonte.

BANEY-FETTEROOF.—Elmer Baney and Miss Ruth Fetteroof were married in Altoona on Thursday of last week. Immediately after the ceremony they returned to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Fetteroof, near Warriorsmark, where a reception was given them. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. David Baney and formerly lived in Ferguson township. He is now farming in Huntingdon county.

JODON-SHUEY.—Andrew C. Jodon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Jodon, of Spring township, and Miss Gertrude I. Shuey, daughter of George Shuey, of near Shiloh church, were married at the Lutheran parsonage in Boalsburg on Thursday evening, January 21st, by the pastor, Rev. J. I. Stonecypher. The young couple will go to housekeeping on the Wian farm near Nigh bank in the Spring.

LEE-BILLET.—A quiet wedding took place at the United Evangelical parsonage on Thursday of last week when Charles B. Lee and Miss Helen C. Billet, both of Coleville, were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. E. Fulcomer.

HENRY-GENSIMORE.—Sherman Henry, a former Pine Grove Mills boy, and Miss Elsie Gensimore, of Eden Hill, went to Cumberland, Md., last Thursday where they were quietly married.

Delicious ten cent cakes of the most popular flavors, are being put on the market by the Ceader bakery. Send in your order early before the day's supply is exhausted.

SHUGERT.—Mrs. Fannie Alricks Shugert, widow of the late Samuel T. Shugert, died at her home on North Spring street on the evening of January 29th. Three years ago she fell and fractured her hip and she had been confined to bed ever since, though her fatal illness lasted only about ten days.

Deceased was a daughter of Ovid F. and Jane Alricks Johnson and was born at Harrisburg in 1840, making her age about seventy-five years. Her father was an eminent lawyer and at one time Attorney General of Pennsylvania. Some years after his death Miss Fannie took charge of a fashionable boarding house in Harrisburg and it was while conducting the same that she met Mr. Shugert. They were married during the early seventies and spent most of their married life in Harrisburg, moving to Bellefonte a few years before Mr. Shugert's death in 1886. After his death Mrs. Shugert spent a few years in Harrisburg and later lived in Wilmington, Delaware, finally coming to Bellefonte about seven years ago with her sister, Miss Hannah Johnson, and her brother, Ovid F. Johnson, taking up their residence in the old Shugert home on Spring street. Another sister, Miss Martha Johnson, came to Bellefonte later and the four of them lived together until Mr. Johnson's death four years ago. Miss Hannah Johnson died in December, 1913, and now Mrs. Shugert's death leaves Miss Martha Johnson as the only immediate survivor. Mrs. Shugert also leaves one step-daughter, Mrs. Ellis Burchfield, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Funeral services were held at the Shugert home on Sunday evening by Dr. G. E. Hawes, and on Monday morning the remains, in charge of Hard P. Harris, and accompanied by Miss Martha Johnson, were taken to Harrisburg where burial was made in Mount Kalmia cemetery.

KLINE.—Miss Sarah Kline died quite suddenly at noon on Sunday at her home in Aaronsburg. She was in fairly good health up until Sunday morning when she was stricken with apoplexy, dying within a few hours. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kline and was born in Union county on April 17th, 1834, making her age 80 years, 9 months and 14 days. When a girl her parents moved to Brush valley where they lived for many years. Miss Kline was the last of a family of twelve children and her only survivors are a number of nephews and nieces, among whom are Dr. D. K. Musser, of Bellefonte, and Dr. Andrew Musser, of Aaronsburg. Miss Musser was a life-long member of the Lutheran church and Rev. W. D. Geesey officiated at the funeral which was held at 9.30 o'clock on Wednesday morning, burial being made in the Aaronsburg cemetery.

HASSINGER.—Harriet Cecelia Hassinger, wife of Alfred D. Hassinger, of Pleasant View, died at noon on Tuesday as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained that morning. She was a daughter of William and Sarah Hannah Ruggles and was born at Williamsburg, Blair county, on July 15th, 1850, making her age 64 years, 6 months and 17 days. She was married to Mr. Hassinger in 1868 and most of her life since was spent in the vicinity of Bellefonte. She is survived by her husband and the following children: William, Charles, Harry, George, Herbert, Robert and Viola. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Musser Jones, of Julian, and Mrs. William Peete, of Philadelphia. Funeral services were held at her late home at two o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. Fulcomer, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

LYNN.—Mrs. Ellen Lynn, widow of Charles Lynn, died at her home in Altoona, last Friday afternoon, following an illness of some weeks with asthma and other diseases. She was born in Ireland seventy-nine years ago, coming to this country when a child. Sixty-two years ago she was married in Bellefonte to Charles Lynn and for thirty-one years they made their home at Stormstown, this county. Since that time they lived in Altoona. Mr. Lynn died twenty-three years ago, but surviving the deceased are two daughters. Burial was made in St. John's Catholic cemetery, Altoona, on Monday morning.

LYTLE.—Mrs. L. E. Lytle died at South Phillipsburg on Tuesday morning after several weeks illness with blood poisoning. Her maiden name was Miss Alice Walk, and she was born near Phillipsburg almost thirty-one years ago. In addition to her husband she leaves three small children; her mother, Mrs. John Walk, a brother and one sister, all of Phillipsburg. Funeral services were held on Thursday evening and yesterday morning the remains were taken to Curwensville for burial.

BOTTORF.—Miss Elizabeth Bottorf was found dead in bed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Barto, in Phillipsburg, on Tuesday morning. Death was due to heart trouble. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bottorf and was born in Milesburg sixty-two years ago. Her only survivor is one brother, Michael Bottorf, of Tyrone. Funeral services were held in the Baptist church at Phillipsburg at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, burial being made in the Phillipsburg cemetery.

SCOTT.—Miss Jessie Scott, a Presbyterian missionary, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Rhoda Wentzel, in Bellwood, on Monday morning. She suffered a stroke of paralysis some time ago and never rallied therefrom.

Deceased was a daughter of Samuel J. and Mary Harmon Scott, deceased, and was born in Maryland November 8th, 1862. She came to Centre county with her parents thirty-five years ago and located in Phillipsburg. Eighteen years ago she decided to become a missionary and went to South America under the direction of the Presbyterian Board of Missions. Most of her life since had been devoted to mission work. She is survived by the following brothers and sisters; R. L. Scott and M's. Clay Wentzel, of Bellwood; Walter, Ickesburg; Howard, of Jersey Shore; Joseph and Albert, of Phillipsburg; E. R. Scott, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. S. M. Miller, of Beckley, W. Va. The remains were taken to Phillipsburg on Wednesday morning where funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church by Rev. R. P. Miller, after which burial was made in the Phillipsburg cemetery.

LONG.—Following an illness of some weeks with a complication of diseases Edward S. Long died at his home near Snow Shoe Intersection on Sunday evening. He was born at Albany, N. Y., on February 7th, 1837, hence had he lived until next Sunday he would have been seventy-eight years old. He served during the Civil war in a company of New York infantry and was a gallant soldier. He located in Centre county shortly after the close of the war and for many years past has been engaged in gardening and truck farming, first near Runville and later near Snow Shoe Intersection.

Mrs. Long died in April, 1914, but surviving him are the following children: Mrs. Andrew B. Young, of Bellefonte; Albert C. Long, whose whereabouts are unknown; Mrs. Jergenson, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Aaron Long, at home. He also leaves one brother, Aaron Long, of Albany, N. Y.

Funeral services were held at his late home at one o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. M. C. Piper, after which the remains were taken to Unionville where they were buried in the Stover cemetery.

EMERICK.—John S. Emerick died at his home at Smullton on Wednesday morning of general infirmities. He was born at Clintondale on May 22nd, 1838, making his age 75 years, 8 months and 11 days. When a young man he learned the milling trade, an occupation he followed a number of years. Later he embarked in the mercantile business at Madisonburg with Andrew Ocker, and several years later he sold out his interest and started a store at Wolf's Store. In 1900 he sold his store and moved to Smullton, where he lived ever since. For a period of eight years he was assessor of Miles township.

In 1866 he married Miss Rose Rider, of Lewistown, who died eleven years ago. Surviving him, however, are the following children: Charles, of New York; R. Lynn, of Coudersport; Forest M., of Bellwood; William, of Punxsutawney, and Miss Marion, at home. Funeral services will be held at his late home at ten o'clock tomorrow morning by Rev. J. L. Metzger, after which the remains will be taken to Rebersburg for interment.

RAYMOND.—James Raymond, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. David Raymond, of Muncy Station, died at a private hospital in Williamsport on January 25th, after a two weeks illness with pneumonia. He was born at Centre Hall and was nineteen years old. Funeral services were held at the Raymond home on Tuesday evening of last week by Rev. Garves, of the Lutheran church, and on Wednesday the remains were taken to Centre Hall for interment. Among the relatives who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. White and Mr. and Mrs. Summers, of Axe Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Confer, of Centre Hall.

ROGERS.—C. C. Rogers, a former resident of Walker township, died quite suddenly at his home in Pittsburgh last Saturday night. He was born near Snyder town and spent his early life in that section of the county. He was married to Miss Frances Emerick, a daughter of the late John Emerick, who survives with two sons and one daughter. The funeral was held on Tuesday, burial being made in a Pittsburgh cemetery.

Another competitive membership campaign for the Y. M. C. A. will be launched next week. The Association has a debt of $1,000, but most of the money has already been provided and it is to raise the balance and also increase the membership in the Y. M. C. A. that the campaign will be waged. There will be two teams of twelve men each to be known as the Reds and the Blues. Earl Orr will captain the Reds and Charles Keichline the Blues. Each captain will select a dozen men and the campaign will open Monday morning and will continue for a week. H. C. Chesley, of Harrisburg, will be here to lend whatever assistance he can in the movement. A large clock in front of the Association building will tell daily how the contest is progressing. The winning team will be given a banquet.

BADLY BURNED BY FLUE EXPLOSION.—Samuel W. Glenn, son of Samuel Glenn, of Lemont, and who is a machinist in No. 1 boiler shop of the Pennsylvania railroad company at Altoona, was badly burned in a flue explosion on Sunday afternoon. He and the gang foreman, William B. Snyder, were engaged in cleaning a flue in one of the engine boilers. The hot coals and cinders had been raked from the grate and Mr. Glenn was using a water hose to extinguish the fire. While so doing one of the flues in the boiler exploded throwing the red hot coals over Mr. Glenn. His clothing ignited and Mr. Snyder at once went to his rescue. Every stitch of clothing except his shoes and stockings was either burned or torn from Glenn's body. Both he and Snyder were rushed to the Altoona hospital where it was found that Glenn had suffered first degree burns over his entire body and while his condition is considered quite serious it is expected that he will recover. Snyder was badly burned on the hands and arms in his efforts to rescue Glenn, but his condition is not serious.

CENTRE COUNTIANS BANQUET.—The Centre county association of Philadelphia held their tenth annual banquet at the Hotel Walton, Philadelphia, last Thursday evening when eighty-one members and guests gathered around the festive board. That the feast was good and up-to-date is evidenced by the fact that the menu included "roast stuffed squab chicken" and "potatoes tango." Music was furnished by the Hotel Walton orchestra. The principal after dinner speaker was Dr. Edwin Erle Sparks, president of The Pennsylvania State College, who talked on "Education of Centre County." Others who responded to toasts were Roland S. Morris Esq., and James R. Hughes, headmaster of the Bellefonte Academy, while Miss Lydia M. Underwood favored the gathering with readings. It was a joyful gathering and brought back to all present the days when they lived among the Centre county hills.

AROUND THE SOCIAL TABLE.—Miss Stella Daley entertained a few of her friends at cards last Thursday evening. On Friday evening a shed load of young people from State College were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lambert. Saturday afternoon Miss Sara McClure took her school on a sled ride to the Mendis farm down near Jacksonville. A kitchen shower was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shuey, on Bishop street, on Tuesday evening, in honor of Miss Edna Martin who will be married within a week to Frank Gross, of Axe Mann.

TWO SUNDAY FIRES.—Early Sunday morning fire destroyed the store and residence of John Matulevich at Osceola Mills. When the flames were discovered they had made such headway that it was impossible to save any of the contents of either the home or store. The loss is estimated at $6,000, which included $400 in cash, with an insurance of $4,000.

The same morning fire destroyed the store of Daniel Milson and the blacksmith shop of George Baumgardner at Allport, entailing a loss of $8,000, on which there was a partial insurance.

A big charity ball will be held in the armory on Monday evening, February 15th, under the auspices of Troop L and the Associated Charities committee. Tickets will be $1.50 a couple. The ball will be open to the public and the committee in charge hope for a large attendance. The proceeds will be divided between Troop L, and the Associated Charities committee for the relief of the poor of Bellefonte.

Congressman Richard Pearson Hobson, of Alabama, is scheduled to be in Bellefonte over Sunday, February 14th, and under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. will deliver one of his able and interesting lectures. Congressman Hobson is the great temperance advocate of the South and is a lecturer of considerable prominence.

For the fourth time within the past few months the store of H. B. Lykens at Scotia was burglarized on Sunday night. The thief gained entrance by forcing one of the shutters. There was no money in the store but the thief got away with three sacks of flour. Each time the store was broken into was on a Sunday night.

The condition of Mrs. Agnes Moore, of Milesburg, who was stricken last week with paralysis, is unchanged. Miss Belle Hoover and her niece, Miss Katherine Hoover, both relatives of Mrs. Moore, have been with her constantly since she became ill.

Marriage Licenses. J. Holloway Crouse, of Aaronsburg, and Aida M. Boob, of Millheim. Merrill Knapp and Minnie Grove, both of Bellefonte.

Lawyers and Farmers Predominate in Capitol.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 1.—Lawyers and farmers lead among the members of the General Assembly this year. There are 15 lawyers among the 50 State Senators and in the House 46 of the 207 members are lawyers. Five of the Senators give their occupations as farmers and 19 of the Assemblers are tillers of the soil. The manufacturers are more evenly distributed between the two branches, seven occupying seats in the Senate and eight in the House.

Only two of the Senators are merchants, but 17 merchants are in the lower branch. The professional or business complexion of the two branches is: House—Lawyers 46; clerks, 13; retired, 3; salesmen, 9; confectioners, 2; civil engineers, 2; dentists, 2; druggists, 4; teachers, 2; representatives, 2; managers, 11; physicians, 6; contractors 7; real estate, 5; miners, 4; publishers, 2; creamerymen, 2; Justices of the Peace, 2, with the following represented by one each: Superintendent, lather, book-keeper, plumber, well-driller, mechanical dentist, school superintendent, mine superintendent, dealer, trustee, detective, theatre proprietor, author, laborer, policeman, secretary, engineer, wheelwright, minister, chemist, general superintendent, sawmaker, draftsman, switchman, machinist, broker, inspector, auctioneer, coal operator, liveryman, railroad agent, plasterer, blacksmith, undertaker, lumberman and barber.

Senate—Lawyers, 15; manufacturers, 7; farmers, 5; physicians, 4; publishers and printers, 3; contractors, 2; merchants, 2; general agent, 1; banker, 1; retired, 1; lumberman, 1; laundryman, 1; druggist, 1; coal operators, 2; insurance, 2; conductor, 1; oil producer, 1.

SPRING MILLS.

Miss Katie McCord, made a visit to Centre Hall last Sunday. Frederick Rockey, of Bellefonte, made a visit here over Saturday and Sunday last. William Diehl, of Millifinburg, was here over Sunday, a guest of Miss Blanche Dunlap. Harry Brown, emergency employee of P. R. R. Co. at Sunbury, spent Sunday here with his parents. William Hannah, of Renovo, formerly of this place, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. C. E. Royer. Charles Hagan says that since he opened his tonorial parlor he has no reason to complain of business. Miss Helen Bartholomew, of Centre Hall, was the guest of Miss Martha Gramley on Saturday and Sunday last. Charles Murphy and C. J. Elliott, of Buffalo, formerly of this place, were visiting relatives and friends here last week. Miss Sarah, daughter of Frank Fisher, of Penn Hall, a student at West Chester, was obliged to return home on account of illness. Monday, was decidedly a "mush-mally" day. It required two pairs of gum boots to get over the slush puddles and have dry feet. The railing on the foot bridge over Penns creek below the postoffice is in a very shabby, if not dangerous, condition. Why is it not repaired? During these moonlight evenings sleighing parties are out every night. The jingling of sleigh bells and the merry laugh can be heard at all hours. Lottie McCool, of Centre Hall, was here over Sunday on a visit to her father, David McCool. Mr. McCool has been very seriously ill for the last three weeks. The Spring Mills Grange had a very elaborate dinner last week, which was largely attended. The Grange is in a very flourishing condition, financially and otherwise. After an illness of over two months, Mrs. Daisy Beatten, daughter of the late Thomas Kenneley, died at noon on Sunday last at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Kenneley. C. A. Krape has just gotten rid of all the old postoffice fixtures and has fitted up the store room very handsomely and will be able to make a fine display of his new stock of spring clothing. Ezra Finkel has opened a restaurant between the hotel and iron bridge over Penns creek, a fine location for the business. Mr. Finkel has been doing a lively business since he commenced operation. Quite a number of improvements in our town are in contemplation for early spring. A knitting factory is again reported, and parties are trying to get it in proper shape to start right. We have had about enough fizzes on that subject. Autos run up and down our main thoroughfare at a senseless rate of speed. Let the autos take a slip on the icy roads, what might be the ending? If the driver would be the only one to break his neck, there would be simply one verdict—served him right.

Better Flashlight Powder. European scientists have devised a new and better flashlight powder. It is made of peroxide of lanthanum, to which are added substances similar to those used in gas lamp mantles. It gives an excellent light and produces less than one-tenth of the smoke and fumes which make other powders so disagreeable and often dangerous to use.

Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY. Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m. 9 1/2 E. High street.

Special revival meetings will be carried on at the United Brethren church commencing next Monday evening, for the following reasons: First, for the benefit of those who have preferred to join our church. Second, for the salvation of those who have been aroused and interested in the Dr. Orr campaign. God has come to Bellefonte in a wonderful way. Melted down conventionalism, formality and denominationalism, and in their place left a real warm hearted love for souls which is pleasing to God and very gratifying to the unsaved man in Bellefonte. Church of God, awake! Put on thy strength, as the hottest part of the battle is just before us, and that victory may come to Zion let the men's prayer meetings continue, and the workers continue the hand to hand work that has told so grandly for God. All who have preferred the United Brethren church will please be at the Sunday school at 9.30 a. m.

Runville has been blessed with a spiritual up-lift. A meeting has been in progress for several weeks in charge of Rev. S. J. Wilson, the regular pastor, and it has resulted in more than forty conversions and renewals. The interest continues to increase. A remarkable feature has been the steady attendance of the oldest member of the church, Mr. Charles Lucas, who is now in his eighty-second year. This should be an incentive for the younger men to waken up and do likewise.

NEXT SUNDAY AT THE LUTHERAN CHURCH The pastor, Rev. W. M. B. Glanding will preach at 10.30 a. m. the fourth sermon on the Life of St. Paul, under the topic, "Called Christians First at Antioch." In the evening at 7.30 o'clock the subject of the sermon will be, "The Fifth Chapter of the Prodigal Son—Home, Sweet, Sweet Home." You are welcome.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Claude Harpster is housed up with an attack of the grip. J. F. Sausserman Sundayed with friends in the Mountain city. Mrs. Samuel Elder is among the sick with a very heavy cold. Mrs. J. A. Decker has been visiting relatives in Altoona the past week. John H. Decker has been enjoying the sleighing down Spruce Creek valley. Electric light has been installed in the Reformed church at Boalsburg. H. L. Dale and Paul Houser have been in the clutches of the grip the past week. A heavy snow fall Sunday followed by rain made the roads almost impassible. Farmer Ed. Harpster has been fast in bed the past two weeks with kidney trouble. Farmer Will Mothersbaugh is recovering from a two week's illness with throat trouble. Dr. G. H. Woods underwent a slight operation on Thursday and his recovery is assured. Frank Fisher and family, of Altoona, have been visiting old home folks in and about Boalsburg. George M. Williams, James Miller and John Mattern are courting at Huntingdon this week. Miss Edna Archev is aiding her friend, Nora McWilliams, with her tape measure and scissors. Clyde Detrow, one of Pennsvalley's progressive farmers, greeted old-time friends here last week. Frank Gates was a Tyrone visitor Saturday, where his wife was a visitor at the C. H. Lykens home. Will Stuart, of Oklahoma, has been visiting his old home at State College, mixing business with pleasure. Mrs. Austin Johnson gave an old-fashioned quilting party to a number of her lady friends last Thursday.

Mrs. Isaac Woomer, who visited relatives over in Jersey, returned home last week very much improved in health. Hugh McAfee, of Stormstown, was here Tuesday and took away a ton of 9/2 cent pork for the Phillipsburg market. J. B. and M. E. Heberling came over from State College and spent Sunday with their mother on east Main street. The village of Guyer has a new blacksmith in the person of Ephraim Dodd. This a good stand and Mr. Dodd should make good. Hereshel Harpster and wife and Mrs. Devore, of Warriorsmark, and George Bell and mother were stormstaid several days in the beginning of the week. Last Saturday Will Corl and Mack Fry, each with a sled load of Grangers, went over to Halfmoon to participate in the installation of officers of Halfmoon Grange.

Mrs. Alice Weaver, of Minneapolis, Minn., has been greeting friends of her youth in this section the past week. She was a daughter of the late Prof. J. A. Weaver.

Comrade Ira Lyle is recovering from a bad tumble in which he broke three ribs and inured his left thumb, confining him to the house several weeks, but the old veteran is now able to be about.

A host of neighbors and friends invaded the Harry Musser home on the Branch last Wednesday evening to remind Mrs. Musser that it was her 23rd anniversary. She was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. A supper was served and the evening spent in games and music.

One evening the past week Ernest Henry and John Kelley met by chance on the Oliver hill as they were driving along the road. Henry stopped, and stopping Kelley's team informed him that he was going to give him a good thrashing. Kelley was disposed to be peaceful but Henry would not have it that way and finally they came together. The young men are about of equal size and the fight proved a rough and tumble. Finally Henry sued for peace after he had a leg broken in two places and an ankle dislocated. Kelley sent him home and now he is under the doctor's care.

Remembered Prohibition.

Three-year-old Dorothy, who was allowed to play on the parkway, was told by her mother she must not get acquainted with strange people. One day an organ grinder with a monkey stopped to play and Dorothy made friends at once. As the organ grinder moved away Dorothy followed, her mother called to her, and she paused long enough to say: "I've yest gettin' acquainted wif monkey, not man's."
