

Bellefonte, Pa., February 12, 1915.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.-No communications ned unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Sunday, February 14th, will be Valentine day.

----Special Valentine flowers, candy boxes and red mints for Valentine day .-CANDYLAND.

----Very little work is now being done at the new penitentiary, owing to the deep snow and prolonged cold weather. ----Don't forget the superior quality of the Board of Trade 5c cigar sold only at the Brockerhoff house. 7-2t* -- Are you worth $2,500 a year, or even $1,500? If either one consult the "Want" ads in this issue of the WATCH-MAN. -Don't overlook the fact that this is the evening for the Penn State glee club right kidney. concert in the opera house for the benefit of the Bellefonte hospital. erect a Friends meeting house at State home when she slipped on the ice and fell, breaking her right arm at the wrist. -The indoor base ball games at the Y. M. C. A. were resumed on Tuesday evening with a very exciting contest between the grocerymen and the P. R. R. score of 10 to 0.

College for the use of the students who are members of that society. -About four o'clock on Tuesday afternoon Mrs. G. O. Benner, of Centre Hall, was on her way to a neighbors'

from the Bellefonte hospital to her rooms paign. The front of the Y. M. C. A. in the Brockerhoff house on Monday. building is covered with banners pro-Her infant daughter is not yet very claiming to every passerby that this is strong and will be kept at the hospital a Y. M. C. A. week, and a large clock few days longer.

-The Pennsylvania Water Supply a bridge over Dix run, 6591 feet south- the team which secures the most memwest of the Unionville passenger station. bers. in Union township, this county.

--- The Western Union telegraph office has been moved from the room in the basement of the Garman building on High street to the room right above it, on the first floor of the building, lately occupied by the late Mrs. Annie R. Long.

-Alfred J. Nealis, clerk in the Bellefonte postoffice and a veteran of the Philippines, desires the name of every man who served in the Spanish-American war, for the purpose of organizing a camp of Spanish-American war veterans in Bellefonte.

----An unknown man was prowling around residences on east Linn street about eleven o'clock on Saturday night for the boys of Bellefonte. Every boy week. Try it. being admitted to the house. The police were finally notified but when they ar-ily will occupy the same after April first a successful climax. The Bellefonte Lodge of Moose have made an offer for the purchase of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. He avers that property on Spring street now occupied young men are given more for their by Dr. Haves.

and Mrs. Wilbur Miles, at the Bellefonte membership fee is but five dollars, but hospital, last Friday. As this is their this week special rates of two and three first born the parents are naturally quite dollars have been made. This will entiproud and happy. The sturdy youngster the the member to a full year of reading enjoys the distinction of having great rooms, games, gymnasium, and swimgrand-parents in the persons of Mr. and ming pool. Then to any so desiring Mrs. W. B. Miles, of Milesburg.

snow have again driven flocks of wild ty and automobiling. turkeys down off of Nittany and Muncy of food. A number of farmers are putting out grain for the birds and it is to be hoped they will survive as the season for wild turkeys will again be open next NIGHT.—Tomorrow night the University be there.

floor, however, and fell, breaking her right arm between the elbow and the wrist. A physician reduced the fracture but Mrs. Woods will have a useless arm for a month or six weeks.

-Word received this week from the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, was to however, feel that Lamb will give a good to Bellefonte. The Bellefonte authorities the effect that Robert Taylor is now account of himself tomorrow night. getting along very satisfactorily and the surgeons there give assurance of a permanent cure. Robert is a son of R. B. Bellefonte for their kind assistance ex-Taylor and is one of the young men who tended to us in our recent bereavement was so badly injured in a coasting accident about a month ago. Miss Celia Moerschbacher, who was also among the badly injured, has completely recovered be out and around.

CHILD SUFFOCATED AND TWO HOUSES ed were that of Mrs. Calvin Green, occu- the judge gave him another chance. pied by Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Thompson and family, and the one owned by the Curtin's and occupied by Mrs. James Carter. The fire originated in the kitchen of the Green home but how is not known. Mrs. Green had gone out to a neighbors and left her two children at home. When the flames were discovered neighbors managed to save the eldest child but could not get to the youngest one. It was finally gotten out without being burned, though life was extinct.

A number of Academy students rushed to the fire and several of them were on the porch of the Green home. Maurice Lowe was leaning against the railing when it gave way and he fell backward. alighting on his head and shoulders. He was rushed to the hospital where later he recovered and it was found that he had suffered only a slight injury over his

The Green house was entirely destroyed and the Thompsons lost all their furni--A movement is now on foot to ture and clothing. The Curtin house was only partially burned and most of the contents were saved. Mrs. Green carried some insurance so that her loss will not

Y. M. C. A. WEEK.-Following close upon the wind-up of the evangelistic services in the armory the Y. M. C. A. is conducting a campaign this week to increase its membership and incidentally pay off a small indebtedness against the Association. Special membership rates are being offered for this week only. team. The grocerymen won by the Mr. H. C. Chesley, who is connected with the Y. M. C. A. headquarters at Harris--Mrs. C. D. Casebeer was taken burg is here and assisting in the camshows the progress made each day by the two teams of a dozen men each, the Commission has issued a permit to the Braves and the Giants, who are working Pennsylvania railroad company to build hard to win the prize banquet offered to

As a preliminary function to the climax of the campaign tomorrow was a four o'clock tea given at the home of Miss Mary Hunter Linn at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mr. Chesley presented the advantages of a flourishing Y. M. C. A. in any town, and also the needs of the Bellefonte Association. Prof. Culver was present and entertained the gathering with some of his splendid singing.

At 12.30 today (Friday) there will be a town are invited. Mr. Chesley and Prof. shown. You can go there and be com-Culver will also be at this luncheon. At fortable in any and all kinds of weather free ice cream social at the Y. M. C. A. to two hours every evening during the over ten years of age is invited to be present.

rived in that locality the man had dis- C. A. day. The officials appeal directly But tomorrow will be the real Y. M. to every man to not only become a mem-—Dr. R. G. H. Hayes has completed ber himself, but let each one resolve to his purchase of the property of the late secure at least one other member. By Dr. Thomas R. Hayes and with his fam-doing this the campaign is sure to reach

Mr. Chesley is enthusiastic over the money here than in any Association he -A nice baby boy was born to Mr. has ever visited. The regular yearly there are educational classes in civil

If you are not already interested you mountains to adjacent farms in search are urged to become so and help push the hands around on the big Y. M. C. A. clock. So get busy.

of Pennsylvania wrestling team will be -An exciting basket ball game will Penn State's antagonists on the latter's be played in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium mat at State College. The big event will tomorrow (Saturday) night at nine be the heavy weight contest between Levi o'clock, when the Bellefonte Academy Lamb, State's unthrown heavyweight, will play the strong Y. M. A. team of and Mike Dorizas, the unthrown Greek Altoona. Game will be called at nine wrestler of the University of Pennsylvao'clock and only 25 cents admission will nia. Naturally the odds are favorable be charged to witness this spirited con- to the Greek, owing to the fact that he test. If you like the sport don't fail to weighs about 210 pounds and is a natural built wrestler. On the other hand ----Mrs. Edward Woods was going Lamb weighs between 190 and 195 down the cellar steps about eleven o'clock pounds, hence is from fifteen to twenty Friday evening with a hard luck tale and on Monday morning and thinking she pounds lighter than Dorizas. Last Sat- on Saturday was given a ticket to Lock was on the last step attempted to step off urday evening the Lafayette wrestlers at the side. She was two steps from the were Penn's antagonists on the latter's was first heard of in Altouna where he mat and the Philadelphia papers claim made his appearance on Thursday. He that Dorizas simply toyed with Becker, claimed that he had lost a leg while work-Lafayette's heavy weight. But then ing in the mills at Columbus, Ohio, and Becker weighs only 175 pounds, and having just been discharged from the Dorizas' extra thirty-five pounds of beef hospital was trying to make his way made a difference too great for the lighter man to overcome. State students, thorities fed him and bought him a ticket

> -We wish to thank the people of through the death of our father. Mrs. Sarah Wagner and children.

-L. H. Musser has taken the agency and is now able to be around as usual. for the Hupmobile and on Wednesday All the others who were injured will soon delivered a new 1915 car to Howard Struble, of Zion.

-In the Blair county court on Friday. BURNED.—Between one and two o'clock Judge Baldridge suspended sentence on Success.—The three weeks evangelistic yesterday afternoon the infant child of Warren Hartsock, the Julian youth who meetings conducted by Dr. W. W. Orr in Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thompson was recently plead guilty of passing bad the Bellefonte armory came to a close on suffocated in a fire which destroyed two checks. Hartsock plead for mercy and Sunday evening with one of the biggest houses on Jail hill. The houses destroy- on his promise to do right in the future gatherings that ever attended a religious

-Light lunches, consisting of coffee, tea or chocolate with sandwiches, cake or pie, are being served at Ceader's, to accommodate out-of-town business people, or those who are down town in the shopping district, and in need of light refresh-

---While M. R. Johnson was bringing Dr. Yocum home from his usual Sunday and the ministers and the church peoafternoon talk to the prisoners at the ple of Bellefonte are jubilant over the it again it back fired and fractured his and pledged themselves to a life of wrist, W. W. Keichline went out and righteousness in the future. Every one Hugh Crider's car, returning afterward church preference or no preference as for Dr. Yocum.

---On Monday Henry and John Ritts, brothers, applied to the Altoona authorities for assistance to get to Snow Shoe, this county. They claimed to have come east over five hundred miles on the promise of a friend in Snow Shoe that he could get them work. In support of their story they produced the letter from the rone, boarded a train over the Bald Eagle for Snow Shoe.

-The big charity ball, probably the last public dance of the season, will be given in the armory next Monday evening under the auspices of Troop L and the Associated Charities committee. The price of tickets has been placed at $1.50 a couple, so that they are within the reach of all who care to attend. There will be good music, with refreshments during the evening. The proceeds will be divided equally between Troop L and the Associated Charities.

-The Basket Shop of this place will be represented at the Pan-American exposition in California by ,a display in the arts and crafts division, at the special request of the management. A consignment of sixty-three baskets and six handwoven rugs of various designs were shipped to California last week and will be placed in the palace of varied industries. The fact that the display was requested is evidence that the reputation of The Basket Shop extends across the continent.

-Every day there's something new every evening something good, and every exhibition something interesting in the motion pictures at the Scenic. Located on High street, one of the principal thoroughfares of the town, it is in sight business men's luncheon at the Y. M. C. of everybody and patronized by the ma-A., to which the business men of the jority. No old or second-hand pictures and be pleasantly entertained from one

-Morton Smith returned from Philadelphia on Sunday where last week he took his son Ralph to the Orthopædic hospital. An X-ray examination there showed that the knee cap had been broken and that the bone and muscles had partially grown together, forming a hard gristle. It was necessary to rebreak the bone and set it properly, after which by baking and massaging it may be possible to greatly improve the knee, though the physicians would give no positive assurance against a permanent stiffness

-This (Friday) evening is the date for the Penn State glee club concert in the opera house for the benefit of the Bellefonte hospital. Forty Penn State artists, most of whom made the coast to coast trip last winter, compose the club. —The long hard winter and deep service, shorthand, typewriting, electrici- They have a continent wide reputation and they will give their best program tonight. The Panama quartette is alone worth the price of a ticket. Everybody in Bellefonte is acquainted with the needs of the hospital. State College students appreciate the consideration shown any of their number who has had treatment at the institution and it was owing to this fact that the glee club volunteered to give this concert for the benefit of the hospital. All the receipts above the actual expense will go to that institution. A special train will be run from State College to bring down quite a number of students who have engaged seats and also to take back the glee club after the

---Thomas Sullivan, who claims Lock Haven as his home, came to Bellefonte Haven by the poor authorities. Sullivan home to Lock Haven. The Altoona aufed him and bought him a ticket to Lock Haven. When he reached Lock Haven on Saturday he became so obnoxiously insistent in his demands for assistance that he was arrested and locked up over Sunday. Monday morning he was released on condition that he leave the city at once and he immediately headed ruary 16th and 17th. As many members for Williamsport, without having been of the Centre county association as posfurnished a ticket by the poor authorities of that place, who claim he is an im- business of considerable importance will postor.

ORR EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS A BIG meeting in Bellefonte. The seating capacity of the armory was between eleven and twelve hundred but the crowd present Sunday evening was estimated at over fifteen hundred. And the closing services were most impressive to all present, while they continued from 7.30 to almost eleven o'clock. Every big movement, be it religious or ping expedition on Tuesday. secular, is judged by the results obtained penitentiary he stalled his motor at the success of the evangelistic meetings, as toll gate and when undertaking to crank just 494 persons walked down the aisle brought the unfortunate man home in of the 494 signed cards giving their a guest for ten days or two weeks of Mr. and follows:

The above number has been increase Snow Shoe resident. They were each this week by others who were impressed given a dollar, and after walking to Ty- during the evangelistic services and have this week given their names to one or the other of the churches in which meetings are now being held every night. There were three services on Sunday and all were well attended, and that Dr. Orr's work was appreciated is evidenced by the free will offering given him on that day as his personal recompense. All told it amounted to $825.00, and every cent of this amount was given without the asking. It was in spirit as well as fonte yesterday between trains on his way to see in deed a free-will offering for the good work done in Bellefonte by Dr. Orr. As stated in a previous issue the actual expenses of the meetings were between seven and eight hundred dollars, and it is probable that by next week treasurer Ray is a brother of Sylvester and Ambrose Ray, nesday, C. C. Shuey will have his accounts all closed and able to give for publication a statement showing how the money was expended

WANTED LOCAL OPTION.—The followng night letter was sent last Monday evening to State Senator S. J. Miller and Representative Harry B. Scott, at Harrisburg individually:

Dear Sir and Brother. At the Dr. W. W. Orr evangelistic meeting at Bellefonte last evening, in a congregation of 1.500 people fully 1,200 by a rising vote registered hemselves against the saloon in all forms. Please take notice and regard same in dealing with local option measures.

Yours respectfully, E. H. YOCUM, pastor M. E. church. G. E. HAWES, pastor Presbyterion church. A. B. SPRAGUE, pastor 1st U. B. church. E. FULCOMER, pastor U. Evangelicai

ary Y. M. C. A.

THE CHARITY BALL.—The Charity ball to be given at the armory Monday, the 15th instant, promises to be the social event of the season.

The same committee which managed the ball given under the auspices of Troop L, during the Holidays, augmented by a committee from the Associated and an enjoyable evening is therefore guaranteed.

The proceeds will be devoted to relief work, of which there is such a pronounced need at this season of the year, and it is earnestly hoped that the committee will receive proper encouragement.

During the course of the evening an exhibition will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell, which will include the latest dances

The price of the tickets has been reduced within the reach of all, and can be purchased from any member of the committee, or at the door, for $1.50 per couple. Extra or unattended women will be charged 50 cents.

SPRING MOVINGS.—Miss Mary Snyder having completed the improvements in her home on Academy hill and the place now being ready for occupancy, the new tenants are expected in Bellefonte this week. The house has been leased by Harry McGirk, of Cresson, connected with the new penitentiary, and with Mr-McGirk will be his wife and daughter. Mrs. Ella McGarvey and her family have moved this week from the house on Bishop street, recently purchased by James C. Bailey, to a flat over Miss Snyder's store, in the Reynolds building. Mrs. Phœbe Mann has moved here from Howard and is now occupying rooms in the Stickler home. Mrs. Mann expects to make Bellefonte her home in the future.

-Democratic county chairman Arthur B. Lee this week moved the Democratic county committee headquarters into the rooms in the Garman house block occupied during the last campaign by the Republican headquarters. In fact when the Democratic headquarters were moved in the Republican headquarters were still there and for a few days, at east, they have had a harmonious time together.

--The Threshermen and Farmers Protective Association will hold their state convention in Harrisburg on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, Febsible should attend this convention as come up for discussion.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. Sara Etters, of Lemont, spent Tuesday

-Mrs. Frank McFarlane, of Boalsburg, was Bellefonte visitor on Saturday.

-Miss Kate Harvey, of State College, was

-Jacob Ray, the well known blacksmith, of

-John Toner Harris, of Harrisburg, was i Bellefonte over Sunday visiting his mother, Mrs. Henry P. Harris.

-Mrs. James Schreck and sister, Miss Blanche Musser, of Lemont, were in Bellefonte on a shop -Mrs. Henry Noll, of Axe Mann, car

sellefonte on Tuesday to have a look through the shops at some of the spring offerings. -Miss Margaret Cooney, a student at the Lock Haven Normal, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cooney. -Mrs. Harry Garber has been spending this week in Altoona, having gone up Saturday, to be Mrs. LeVan.

-Mrs. Frank P. Bartley left on Saturday for Lewistown where her friend, Mrs. Mary Renner, was taken seriously ill last week while on a visi to her daughter. -Mrs. Mollie L. Valentine and Miss Brocker hoff will go to State College today as chaperons to assist Father O'Hanlon at a house party, given -Miss Joe White went to Williamsport Thurs' day of last week to see "The Little Cafe," returning to Bellefonte Friday. While away Miss White was a guest of her sister. Miss Marie -Mrs. Ray Achison went to Altoona Tuesday, and since then has been visiting with Mrs. William Lee. Mrs. Lee is a daughter of Mr. and return to Bellefonte at the end of a week or ten -S.O. Malin in charge of the Federal Agents office P. R. R., Baltimore, was in Bellefonte over night Tuesday, with his brother, W. L. Malin. Mrs. Malin came with Mr. Malin as far as Muncy, where she spent the time visiting with her

-John D. Meyer, of Altoona, stopped in Bellehis mother, who is ill at her home in Centre Hall. Mr. Meyer's aunt, Mrs. C. M. Bower, has been in Centre Hall for a week, owing to the illness of

-Robert Ray, whose home is at Avoca, Iowa, is making his first visit east in eight years. Mr. and coming here Friday of last week, expects to spend the greater part of his time with his broth

-Mrs. Edward L. Rishel and Mrs. Dipple, of Pittsburgh, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Livingstone, of Sunbury, with their two children, have been with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rishel since Wednes day, having come to Bellefonte for the funeral of Edward L. Rishel.

-Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bower, of Aaronsburg. were in Bellefonte over Sunday attending the evangelistic meeting in the armory. While here Mr. and Mrs. Bower were guests of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Eben Bower, at their home on west High street.

-Mrs. Jacob Hoy, past district deputy president of the Order of Rebekahs, and Mrs. Thomas Hazel, the present district deputy president, were in Tyrone on Friday night where they atended a regular meeting of Lady Viola Lodge No. 213. Order of Rebekahs.

-Wm. E. Hoover, a retired farmer and one of day in Bellefonte looking after some busines Mr. Hoover, not having been here for three

-Miss Lillian Walker returned to Philadelphia Tuesday to spend a short time there before reuming her work for the Spring. Miss Walke is a milliner, and has been in Bellefonte with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Miles Walker, during her winter vacation of six weeks. -Mrs. W. E. Hurley went to New Enterprise,

Pa., Tuesday of last week, on account of the illless of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Snyder Charities Organization, will be in charge, Both Mr. and Mrs. Snyder have pneumonia, and on account of their age, much fear is felt by their friends concerning their recovery.

-Frank Smith, his daughter, Miss Nelli Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyer, drove over the mountain Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Eli Smith, who was buried at the Heckman cemetery Monday morning. Mrs. Smith died Thursday of last week at her home near

-Mrs. Charles Rishel and Miss Beatrice Say lor, of near Philadelphia, and Mrs. Michael Russetta, of Punxsutawney, came to Bellefonte in the early part of the week to see their mother, Mrs. William Saylor, who is seriously ill at the me of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Winton, on

-Mrs. Robert A. Miller, of Tyrone, was in Bellefonte Saturday between trains, being on her way home from Spring Mills, where she had been for a short visit with her mother. Mrs. Miller frequently goes over the country, spending an hour at Spring Mills, and is able to return to Tyrone the same day.

-Mrs. Hunter Knisely will leave Thursday of next week, where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. Wanner, until after Easter. It has been Mrs. Kniseley's custom to spend a part of the winter in Reading, but wanting especially to be there at Easter time this year, made it necessary for her to postpone leaving Bellefonte until late

-The five children of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wagner, who were able to come to Bellefonte this week on account of the death of their father, were Mrs. Agnes Neff, of Jeromesville, Ohio; Miss Hattie Wagner, of Philadelphia; Charles, of Iowa; John, of Lebanon, and Ben, of Hershey, Pa. Mr. Neff and their two daughters accompanied Mrs. Neff.

-Mrs. John N. Lane and her son Elliot will leave Tuesday for Florida, expecting to go to Suwanee Springs, where Mrs. Lane, who has been in ill health for some time, will be under treatment. Mr. Lane will remain with his mother for a while, and before coming north wil spend a short time visiting some of the larger cities of the southern States.

-Ex-Sheriff W. M. Cronister, of Huston township, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Sat urday and found time to make a brief call at this office. Mr. Cronister is now devoting practically all his time to his farm in Bald Eagle valley and he is making about as big a success of it as the average farmer in Centre county, and that is doing pretty good these times.

-Burdine Butler, of Howard, is on his way to the Pacific coast to take in the Panama Exposition, providing he is not already there. He left Howard about three weeks ago and the last heard from him he was in Utah. When he left Howard he was not certain how long he would be away but a letter received by his family told them not to look for him inside of five onths. That while in California he was going to look the State over very carefully and if he liked it, he would return, sell his pos here and with his family go to California. Mr. Butler is well known at Howard as well as throughout Centre county, and even his temporary absence is plainly noticeable

-Miss Nancy Hunter was a week-end guest of friends at State College

-Frank E. Naginey has been spending this week on a business trip to Philadelphia and New

-Mrs. Hugh N. Crider was an over Sunday visitor in Tyrone with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

-Miss Anna Sechler is in Philadelphia this week on a business trip, having left Bellefonte

Monday at noon -Miss Greist. of Unionville, spent a part of the week in Bellefonte, being the guest of Mrs. Dave Kelly during her stay. -Mrs. W. Miles Walker and daughter Elizabeth were in Williamsport Wednesday and yesterday consulting Dr. Haskins. -Miss Edwards, of State College, has been visiting for a part of the week in Bellefonte, a guest of Miss Helen Eckenroth.

-Harold Gardner came from Altoona, Saturday, and spent the week-end in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Gardner.

-Mrs. John T. McCormick, of State College, spent the day visiting with her sister, Mrs. Hutchinson, while in Bellefonte Thursday.

-Mrs. Bogle has returned to Bellefonte from Pittsburgh, where she had been visiting for several weeks with her daughter, Miss Sara Bogle.

-David E. Washburn is at White Haven with his mother. Mr. Washburn left Bellefonte Wednesday, expecting to be away for several weeks, -Miss Ruth Barber, who had been in Bellefonte for a short visit with Dr. and Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes, returned to her home at Curwensvi

-John Klesius, of Altoona, while in Bellefonte for several days the after part of last week, spent the time with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hazel

-The Misses Helen and Roxanna Mingle are arranging to go to Philadelphia next week, ex pecting to spend an indefinite time visiting in the Mrs. Charles Schroyer. Mrs. Achison expects to eastern part of the State.

-Miss Mary Hoy is at Crafton, having left Bellefonte Thursday for a visit in the western part of the State with her brother and his wife,

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hoy. -Miss Cordelia Cox, of Altoona, has been in Bellefonte for the greater part of the past week, visiting with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Koontz and their family. -Mrs. John M. Keichline and her daughter, Miss Anna Wagner Keichline, have been at Petersburg this week spending a short time, with Dr. John Keichline and his family

-Mrs. Samuel E. Walker, of Salona, is visiting with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker, at their new home on east Linn street. Mrs. Walker came to Bellefonte Wed

-Mrs. Lide Thomas Gisbon came to Bellefonte Tuesday to make the trip back to Philadelphia with her brother, Isaac Thomas Jr., who is in ill health and anticipates going to the city to enter a private sanitorium for treatm

-Mrs. Edward D. Stewart, who while living in Bellefonte is occupying rooms in the Hurley home on High street, will go to State College to spend next week with her daughter, Miss Stewart, who is a student at Penn State.

-Mrs. Mainard Murch, Jr., of Cleveland, Ohio. is expected in Bellefonte about the middle of next week. Mrs. Murch, during her stay, will be the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wells L. Daggett. at the Bush house.

-Prof. C. M. Culver, who has been in Bellefonte for three weeks or more conducting the music at the evangelistic meetings, left yesterday to join Dr. John A. Mott and his corps of Y. M. C. A. workers at the University of North Caro-

-Put your ad. in the WATCHMAN.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18TH.—Mrs. Ida Witmer, of Runville, will sell one good driving horse, cow, two-horse wagon, two pair bobsleds, buggy and other farming implements, as well as all kinds of household furniture. Sale to begin at one o'clock.

On Monday March 29th.—William Groh Runkle, 2½ miles east of Bellefonte, will sell 12 head of good work horses, consisting of mares, in foal by registered horses, drivers and general purpose horses; 10 milk cows, 10 heifers, will be fresh about the time of the sale, 8 head of young cattle, 2 large fat bulls ready to kill, 16 young ewes, 1 buck, 10 shoats, 2 brood sows; 1 broad wheeled four horse wagon with box; a lot of horse gears. Sale at 9 o'clock a. m. L. F. Mayes, auctioneer.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce.

Potatoes per bushel, new. Bellefonte Grain Markets. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER.

The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press. kye, per bushel..... orn, shelled, per bu Corn, ears, per bushel Oats, old and new, per bushel Barley, per bushel Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Wheat-Red Corn —Yellow..... —Mixed new.

The Best Advertising Medium in Central Pennsylvania.

A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and with ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eightpage form-six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be discontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex-cept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES: A limited amount of advertising space will be LEGAL AND TRANSIENT.

All legal and transient advertising running for BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS Per inch, each insertion......25 cts. nimum Price for advertising by the inch.$100)

The following discounts will be allowed on advertisements continued for Four weeks, and under three mos...10 per ct.
Three mos. and under six mos......15 per ct.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless