

Russ Army at Bay on Bukowina Line

Czar's Forces Lost 50,000 Captured in East Prussia and Many Cannon and Machine Guns.

The Russian army in Bukowina has been enveloped by the Austro-Hungarian forces between the Pruth and Sereth rivers, a correspondent of the Berlin Tageblatt says in a dispatch from Bistriz.

One Austrian army, pushing the Russians from the south, now has reached Storozhinetz, while another Austrian force, having advanced eastward from Moramos against Wislicz, now stands in the vicinity of Czerno witz.

A general battle may be expected therefore south and east of Czerno witz. The Russian army has halted twelve miles from that point, having met reinforcements.

A dispatch from Koenigsburg to the Lokal Anzeiger states that German troops have reached the great Russian fortress of Kovno and have thoroughly invested it.

Kovno is a fortress of the first class, fifty miles from the Russo-German frontier, at the junction of the Niemen and Villya rivers. It has a population of 90,000.

Fifty thousand prisoners, besides many cannon and machine guns, were captured by the Germans when the Russian Tenth army was defeated in the Mazurian lake district, in East Prussia, according to a statement issued by the general headquarters in Berlin.

The text of the communication follows:

"In a nine days' battle in the Mazurian lake district the Russian Tenth army, consisting of at least eleven infantry divisions (132,000 men) and several cavalry divisions was utterly defeated at almost every point, only the remnants of the army managing to reach the woods east of Suwalki and Augustow, where they are being pursued. The number of prisoners taken has not been ascertained, but certainly exceeded 50,000. More than fifty cannon and sixty machine guns beside an unknown quantity of war material, were captured.

"Emperor William was present during the decisive fighting in the center of our line. The victory was won by veteran East Prussian troops, assisted by other troops, who were young for such work, but they proved their worth.

"The achievements of these troops under fearful weather conditions marching against such a stubborn enemy are beyond all praise."

Petrograd Admits Reverses.

The following official statement from the general staff of the Russian commander-in-chief was made public in Petrograd:

"In the region of Augustow, north of Poland, our troops on Feb. 15, 15, which a dangling rope had become entangled. The air vessel was later sighted minus its gondola.

Riot For Bread in Bohemia.

It is reported in Venice, Italy, that bread riots have occurred in Bohemia. A dispatch from Carlsbad says that at Altrouhau, near there, no bread has been procurable for several days and that 400 women, bringing their children, came into Carlsbad to beg the authorities for food.

40 Aviators Shell Germans in Belgium.

Forty British and French aeroplanes and seaplanes attacked the German positions at Ostend, Middlekerke, Ghistel and Zebrugge, in Belgium, and according to the official report, with good results.

Bombs were dropped on gun positions, trawlers and barges and an aerodrome. The official statement concerning the air raid says:

"The air operations of the naval wing against the Bruges, Ostend and Zebrugge district were continued. Forty aeroplanes and seaplanes bombarded Ostend, Middlekerke, Ghistel and Zebrugge.

"Bombs were dropped on the heavy batteries situated on the east and west side of Ostend, on gun positions at Middlekerke, on transport wagons on the Ostend-Ghistelle road, on the mole at Zebrugge to widen the breach made in former attacks, on the locks at Zebrugge, on barges outside Blankenburghe and on trawlers outside Zebrugge.

"Eight French aeroplanes assisted the naval machines by making attacks on the Ghistel aerodrome, this effectively preventing the German aircraft from cutting off our machines. It is reported that good results were obtained.

"Instructions are always issued to confine attacks to points of military importance, and every effort is made by the flying officers to avoid dropping bombs on any residential portions of towns."

Killed by Buzzsaw.

A terrible fate befell Alden Koch, twenty-one years of age, an automobile dealer of Allentown, Pa. Young Koch decided to take a day off to visit his father, John Koch, a rich farmer, several miles from town. The farmer was preparing to operate his saw mill, and while tuning up Alden was caught by the flywheel and hurled into the buzzsaw.

The Iowa senate adopted a constitutional amendment providing for statewide prohibition by a vote of 39 to 10. The measure now goes to the house.

French Repulse Ten Onslaughts During the Night.

The war office in Paris issued the following:

"The Belgian artillery has carried out some effective shooting against gatherings of troops and shelters.

"In the Champagne district ten of the enemy's counter attacks were repulsed during the night.

"In the Argonne district there was considerable activity. Near Fontaine aux Charnes we have destroyed a block house and 100 meters (yards) of trenches. A German attack, launched by at least three battalions (3000) between Four de Paris and his 263 west of Boureuilles, has been very severe. We have entirely repulsed it, inflicting on the enemy huge losses and taking some prisoners.

"More to the east, in the forest of Melancourt, we have captured 100 meters of trenches. From the Meuse to the Vosges nothing noteworthy has occurred."

The German Statement.

The statement issued by the war office in Berlin follows:

"Western theater: Obviously induced to do so by our great successes in the east, the British and French began especially stubborn attacks at many places. In their unsuccessful attempts to recapture positions which they lost on the 14th of February, the British lost in prisoners four officers and 170 men.

"Northwest of Rheims the enemy's attacks were repulsed. Two officers and 179 Frenchmen were captured. Especially strong advances, made against our lines in the Champagne district, frequently led to fierce fighting at close quarters. With the exception of certain separate sections, where the battle still continues, the troops of the enemy were repulsed everywhere. About 300 Frenchmen were taken prisoners.

"In the Argonne we continued our offensive and captured further portions of the enemy's main positions, taking 350 prisoners, two mountain cannon and four machine guns. In Priesterwald, north of Toul, small successes also were recorded. On this occasion two machine guns were captured."

BIG AIRSHIP GOES WILD

Flies Over Amsterdam Unmanageable, Apparently From Gun Damage.

A big airship, believed to be of the Parseval type, apparently damaged by gun fire, flew over Amsterdam, says a dispatch from that city to the London Reuter Telegram company.

The airship was flying at a height of about 600 feet, and its crew was able to keep the vessel in a horizontal position. Assuming a vertical position, the aircraft drifted in the direction of the Zuider Zee, an arm of the North sea, carrying with it telegraph wires which a dangling rope had become entangled. The air vessel was later sighted minus its gondola.

Germans Begin Submarine War

French Steamer and British Collier Are sent to Bottom by Under Water Foe.

Germany has begun her war upon ships which are not men of war, in the waters which the Kaiser has designated as a "war zone."

Without waiting until the "war zone" decree was supposed to go into effect, German submarines have torpedoed two boats, at least one of which could not be considered in any sense a naval vessel.

Official announcement was made at the ministry of marine that a submarine had sunk the French steamer Ville de Lille, off Barfleur, while the vessel was on her way from Cherbourg to Dunkirk. The commander of the submarine gave the crew of the vessel ten minutes in which to leave her.

Several hours before this announcement it became known that a submarine, without warning, had destroyed the British steam collier Dulwich, bound from Hull to Rouen, twenty miles northwest of Cape de la Heve.

The German submarine was the U-16. The Ville de Lille tried to escape when she was hailed by the submarine, but was compelled to stop. According to the ministry of marine, the submarine after sinking the French steamer, attacked a Norwegian ship. French torpedo boats came up from Cherbourg while the submarine was pursuing the neutral vessel, and compelled her to dive beneath the surface. This is the first time that an attack by a German submarine upon a neutral vessel has been reported.

When the crew of the Dulwich took the boats, the submarine which had torpedoed the ship was seen speeding away. The Dulwich sank in twenty minutes.

Twenty-two members of the crew of thirty-one men were picked up by the French destroyer Arquebuse and brought to Havre. Seven others rowed to Fecamp. The fate of the other two is unknown.

Big Signs on Dutch Ships.

When the Holland-American line steamships Nieuw Amsterdam and Veendyk sail from the port of New York on Feb. 20, for Rotterdam, their names and port of registry will be painted on their sides in letters four feet high. The work is being done by painters at Hoboken.

Maritime men heard that to protect its shipping the Dutch nation had gone so far as to change the color of its flag. Hereafter, according to report, the flag will be composed of red, white and light blue, instead of dark blue. The Dutch flag, with its horizontal stripes might be mistaken for the black, white and red German ensign. By using a light blue stripe it was said that the Dutch hoped to avoid confusion.

American Surgeon Dies in Serbia.

A dispatch from Nish states that Dr. Albert S. Cook, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has died at Valemevo, where he was serving with the Serbian hospital corps. A number of other Americans are attached to the Red Cross in Serbia.

THE WILD WOMAN.—A wealthy man on a transatlantic steamer agrees to take care of a young girl when her mother dies in the steerage. He knows nothing of her ancestry, and his friends think his act foolish, if not dangerous. How the thing turns out is told in a stirring love story entitled "The Wild Woman." This fascinating story is complete in next Sunday's issue of the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

It is the third of a series of complete stories that the Dispatch publishes every Sunday. You don't have to wait several weeks to finish reading them by instalments, but they are all printed in one issue. Read them every Sunday in the Pittsburgh Dispatch.
