—Judge Ellis L. Orvis is dignity personified when sitting on the bench in any court, but the attorney who unthinkingly addressed him as "Reverend" on Tuesday must have had a very pious feeling just at that time or his mind had flitted to gatherings of another kind.

—Centre Lodge No. 153, I. O. O. F., celebrated their sixty-ninth anniversary last Friday evening with a big banquet. About two hundred and fifty members partook of the feast which was prepared by the members of the Lodge of Rebekahs. Music was furnished by the High school orchestra.

—It can't be said that March came in exactly like a lamb, notwithstanding the fact that the weather has been clear. With the mercury hanging below the freezing point all day long and regular March winds blowing a gale every day would seem more like a lion than a lamb. But cheer up. It's only sixteen days until the beginning of Spring and two weeks later will be Easter, while harvest time and the Fourth of July will be here before we realize what's happening.

DR. DORWORTH HONORED.—Yesterday was the fiftieth anniversary of the day on which Dr. E. S. Dorworth began the practice of medicine in Bellefonte and in celebration of the event the Centre County Medical society tendered him an elaborate luncheon in the private dining room at the Brockerhoff house. Plates were laid for twenty and although the guest of honor is the nestor of the Society and has passed the four score year mark, he enjoyed the occasion as much as any of the M. D.'s present. The society also presented the doctor with a large box of flowers.

Dr. Dorworth was born at Emanus, Lehigh county, on February 19th, 1834, hence has reached the advanced age of 81 years and 13 days. He is a graduate of the medical schools of the University of New York and University of Pennsylvania, and it was on March 4th, 1865, when he first hung out his shingle and began the practice of medicine in Bellefonte. At that time doctors were "fewer and further between" and Dr. Dorworth's clientele extended for miles throughout the surrounding country. Of late years his practice has been confined mostly to Bellefonte, but he has been active in his profession for half a century.

KILLED BY FALLING LIMB.—William Ruble, a well known young farmer of Potter township, was killed by being hit on the head by a falling limb on Tuesday. The young man was cutting wood on the James Kimport farm. Failing to go to the house for his dinner a search was made to see what was wrong. Ruble was found lying unconscious at the foot of a tree and a nearby limb was evidence of how he had been injured. He was carried to the Kimport home but died at seven o'clock the same evening without regaining consciousness. Deceased was a son of the late William Ruble and was born at Tusseyville thirty-six years ago. He was an exemplary young man and his untimely death is deeply regretted by all who knew him. For a number of years past he had been a member of the Reformed church and his pastor, Rev. R. Raymond Jones, of Centre Hall, had charge of the funeral services which were held at nine o'clock yesterday morning, burial being made at Tusseyville.

—Residents of Beech Creek are becoming quite enthusiastic over a proposition for the erection of a plant in that town for the manufacture of motor trucks, according to a new invention of a Galeton gentleman. All Beech Creek is asked to do is to raise money enough to build and equip the plant, and probably a hundred or more thousand dollars for operating capital. Looks easy, doesn't it?

—The Lock Haven Express entered its thirty-fourth year on Monday, March first, and there are few papers that come to our desk that deserve greater success than the Express. Always full of live news, covering the local field as well as the whole world, it gives its patrons the best of the happenings of the day. It is ably edited and neatly printed and we hope the publishers may continue to meet with the success they so well deserve.

—The Scenic is easily in a class by itself when it comes to motion picture shows in Bellefonte. Motion picture patrons in Bellefonte know this as well as they know the difference between a picture show and a patent medicine show. You run no risk of seeing the same picture two or three times, or something a year or more old. The Scenic changes programs every evening and always aims to give an up-to-date exhibition. Big, ten cent features two or three nights a week. Regular programs five cents.

—A young foreigner was standing at the Pennsylvania passenger depot Tuesday afternoon as the Snow Shoe train backed in to discharge its passengers. When the train started for the yard the foreigner evidently thought it was leaving for Snow Shoe and he attempted to jump upon the rear steps. He got a hand hold all right but couldn't get his feet up with the result that he was dragged along the brick platform to the crossing where he was forced to let go his hold and he rolled over and over in the dusty street. The left sleeve of his coat and his trousers were badly torn but he escaped bodily injury.

—James Boyd, colored, of Philadelphia, did not expiate his crime of wife murder this week, because he is too ill and weak with tuberculosis to stand the journey from Philadelphia to Rockview. Rocco Tassone, the Italian who was convicted at Lancaster of an accessory in the murder of a fruit dealer, was taken through Bellefonte to Rockview on Tuesday afternoon in charge of a sheriff and deputy. On the way from Bellefonte to Rockview he talked and laughed with his guards and fellow passengers, but when he left the train at Peru and saw the execution building and prison van in waiting he turned pale and a shudder convulsed his body.

"Damaged Goods," Eugene Brieux's startling and intense drama, as presented by Richard Bennett's co-workers, will be the attraction at Garman's Thursday evening, March 11th. This play, which was first presented at the solicitation of the Medical Society of the city of New York before being offered to theatregoers in general, was given a special performance in Washington, D. C., for the members of the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives, cabinet members, foreign diplomats, leading clergymen of the capital and vicinity, social workers and officers of the Army and Navy. The success of the performance was a distinct triumph for Mr. Bennett, and "Damaged Goods." Prices, $1.50, $1.00, 75, 50 and 25 cents.

—In our notice last week of the marriage of Frederick B. Brachbill, of Lancaster, and Miss Lillian R. Gable, of Lititz, we were unable to give a correct report owing to lack of information. Brosius, pastor of the United Evangelical church, the ring ceremony being used. The bride wore a gown of crepe de chine, and immediately after the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Bellefonte lovers of basket ball will be pleased to learn that the Bellefonte Academy's opponents, in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, on Wednesday night of next week, March 10th, will be the strong DeNeri team of the Eastern League, Philadelphia. The same team, man for man, that was here last year will be here next week and all those who saw last year's game will want to see this one. Being professional players it is only natural to conclude that they have the best chance of winning the game, but at that the Academy will endeavor to hold them to a reasonable score. The price of admission for this game will be 50 cents. Game will be called at 8.45 o'clock and those desiring seats should go early as there is sure to be a big crowd in attendance.

SNOW SHOE BANK OPENS FOR BUSINESS.—The First National bank of Snow Shoe opened for business on Tuesday morning in the new brick building recently erected and equipped for its occupancy. As a preliminary to the opening of the bank the stockholders tested themselves to a big banquet at "Larry" Redding's famous hostelry, the Mountain house, on Monday evening. Thirty-two gentlemen gathered around the festive board and at the conclusion of the feast after dinner speeches were made by Thomas B. Budinger, Joseph Knapper, of Philadelphia, and William Boyce, of Clearfield. The new bank started out under very auspicious circumstances, and as Snow Shoe is in the zenith of prosperity there is every reason to predict for it financial success. The cashier of the bank is Mr. L. A. McDowell, late of the Clearfield Trust company, and the board of directors is made up as follows: David Chambers, John Boyce, H. P. Kelley, Thomas B. Budinger, William Knapper, Thomas B. Kelly, R. E. Kech, W. C. Snyder, James F. McGonigal, of Portersdale, and D. R. Thomas. W. C. T. U. PRIZE ESSAY CONTEST.—The third annual W. C. T. U. prize essay contest will be held this (Friday) afternoon at 2.45 o'clock in the new High school auditorium. Interest in this contest has grown immensely, as evidenced by the fact that about one hundred essays on the subjects of alcohol and narcotics were written by the first and second year students of the Bellefonte High school this year, whereas only seventeen were submitted two years ago. A competent committee has selected, with great care, from this great number the ten best and these ten will be read by the writers of them at the public contest this afternoon. A prize of five dollars in gold will be awarded by the Bellefonte W. C. T. U. for the best essay written by a boy and a similar five dollar prize will be given to the best girl contestant.

It is to be hoped a large audience will greet these young people and encourage them in their efforts to portray one of the most vital questions before the world today. Mrs. Beach, Prof. Sloop and one of Bellefonte's attorneys will be the judges, while music will be a part of the program. No admission charged and everybody invited.

CELEBRATED SILVER WEDDING.—Mr. and Mrs. Clement S. Fortney, of Altoona, celebrated their silver wedding with an elaborate reception last Friday evening, which was attended by about seventy-five guests. On entering the Fortney home the guests were received by Roland Musser, of Pittsburgh, and Miss May Rhone, of Harrisburg, groomsmen and bridesmaid for Mr. and Mrs. Fortney twenty-five years ago. A six course dinner was served during the evening as a big feature of the celebration.

It was on February 26th, 1890, that Clement S. Fortney and Miss Carrie M. Musser were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at White Hall, by Rev. C. T. Aikens. Shortly afterwards they went to Altoona to make their home, Mr. Fortney being employed in the railroad shops. Among those who were present at the celebration last Friday evening were Col. D. F. Fortney, of this place, an uncle of Clement Fortney, and Mrs. M. F. Rossman, of Tusseyville.

A PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT.—One of the finest weddings of the season took place last Thursday evening at the Lutheran church when Tom Thumb and Miss Jennie June were "united in the iron bonds of padlock." The play was a beautiful performance by sixty or more children from the different churches of the town, and was witnessed by a large audience. Other features of the entertainment were several choice selections of music and readings. Every person present was delighted, and so numerous have been the requests to have it repeated that the ladies of the church have decided to do so shortly after Easter. The total receipts for the evening were $59.00, and as the expenses were but $3.15 it left the ladies net receipts amounting to $55.85.
