Candyland's ice cream for Easter. We use no gelatine, corn starch, gum arabic or other powders as many ice cream makers do. We use only pure cream, sugar and flavoring in our ice cream.—That is Candyland's real ice cream.

Ex-Sheriff Cyrus Brungart on Monday sold his farm in Potter township to William Bower for $7,500. The next day he went to Aaronsburg and purchased the old Brungart homestead in east Brush valley from Z. D. Thomas. The farm is tenanted by George Smith.

The Senate appropriation committee visited the Bellefonte hospital yesterday afternoon. There were eleven Senators, with two clerks, in the party. They had spent Wednesday at the Huntingdon Reformatory and from there motored to State College, thence to the penitentiary and here.

Twenty or more new houses will be erected at Pleasant Gap and Laver-town this summer, according to residents of those towns. This demand for new houses has been created by the demand for carpenters and laborers at the new penitentiary just as soon as the weather opens up.

A new cemetery has been laid out on the western penitentiary grounds at Rockview to be known as the Cemetery of the New Western Penitentiary. The first interment was that of the remains of Rocco Tassone, electrocuted on Monday of last week, and whose body was not claimed by relatives.

A monster trout, variously estimated by those who have been watching it at from twenty-four to thirty inches in length, has been making his habitation the past ten days in the deep water just below the falls. Many a covetous eye has been focused upon him this week, and more than one fisherman has been wishing for the fifteenth of April.

The National Amusement company has been organized at Pleasant Gap and will give an old-time dance, as well as the up-to-date dances, in Noll's hall, on Friday, March 19th, at 7:30 p. m., and on Friday night of each week. These dances will be open to the public and accommodations have been arranged for fifty couples. Gentlemen will be charged fifty cents, ladies free. You are invited.

WATCHMAN readers in Ferguson township will surely be disappointed this week by the absence of our customary newsy Pine Grove Mills letter, but our versatile correspondent from that locality, Capt. W. H. Fry, has been busy all week moving from the home where he was born and raised and spent all his life so far to his new home at the junction of the White Hall and state roads. By next week he will be properly settled and then he will be able to wield his facile pen as of yore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bathurst gave a quilting party on Tuesday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. Keen, of Roopsburg. Among those present were Mrs. George Seaton, of Linden Hall; Mrs. Ellen Heackard and Mrs. E. Tierney, of Zion; Mrs. Alfred Bezer and Mrs. W. V. Harshberger and daughter, of Roopsburg. Miss Esther Bryan, of Bellefonte, assisted in preparing the big dinner served the guests and the culinary skill of the cooks was emphatically demonstrated by the ladies in the way they appeased their hunger.

A corps of state highway engineers arrived in Bellefonte on Monday and have made their headquarters at the Brockerhoff house this week while making a survey of the state road route through Buffalo Run valley. In the corps are C. B. McClure, R. G. Harmel, J. C. Mullen, H. M. Domart, W. B. Bock and C. H. Buckin, of Clearfield, and Frank Matern, of Spruce Creek. They are surveying the route from Spruce Creek to Bellefonte and are now well down Buffalo Run valley; expecting to complete the survey some time next week.

NEW CAMP SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR VETERANS INSTITUTED.—The Lieut. George L. Jackson Camp, No. 70, United Spanish-American War veterans was instituted in this place on Monday evening with due pomp and ceremony.

A tripartite squad of Troop L, First cavalry, acted as escort for the members of the new camp in their march from the Diamond to the Pennsylvania railroad depot to meet the officiating officers, Waldo P. Breeden, chief of staff of the Department of Pennsylvania, and Herbert H. Mosher, past commander of Hunt Camp, both of Pittsburgh. Upon the arrival of the train these gentlemen were at once escorted to the rooms of Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R., in the Harris block, where, in the presence of a delegation of G. A. R. men and other invited guests, the Camp was properly instituted and the following officers installed:

Commander, A. J. Nealis; senior vice commander, H. S. Taylor; junior vice commander, Milton Reed; adjutant, Samuel D. Gettig; quartermaster, George W. Sunday; chaplain, H. F. Whiting; officer of the day, E. R. Taylor; officer of the guard, James Morrison; historian, N. B. Spangler; surgeon, Dr. R. G. H. Hayes; trustees, David Dale and Frank Smith; sergeant major, Dr. J. V. Foster; quartermaster sergeant, John Morrison; senior color sergeant, George B. Thompson; junior color sergeant, R. Clarence Daley; and musician Toner A. Hugg.

Following the installation of the officers a delicious lunch was served in the library adjoining the Post room, during which Bailey's orchestra furnished some martial music. Following the repast Commander A. J. Nealis acted as toastmaster and the visiting officers both responded with brief speeches.

Mr. Breeden spoke of the object of the present organization which he explained as the inculcation of the principles of patriotism and due veneration for the flag. A mutual helpfulness and assistance to the G. A. R., especially on Memorial day, as well as the social features at the regular meetings, which will be held in Gregg Post rooms on the second and fourth Fridays of each month. Commander S. B. Miller, of Gregg Post, and several others also made brief speeches.

The charter members who were present, assumed the oath of membership and subscribed to the roll were as follows: Alfred J. Nealis, Dr. R. G. H. Hayes, N. B. Spangler, Stewart Hampton, Milton Reed, George W. Sunday, John Morrison, R. Clarence Daley, Samuel Morrison, Frank T. Wallace, Harry H. Ryan, George B. Thompson, John F. Raymond, Frank E. Smith, Dr. J. V. Foster, Dr. David Dale, Samuel D. Gettig and Harry F. McManaway. In order to give all others who may desire to join an opportunity to do so the charter will be held open for sixty days.

DR. HAWES MAY LEAVE BELLEFONTE.—On Wednesday of last week a committee from the Market Square Presbyterian church of Harrisburg came to Bellefonte to interview Dr. George E. Hawes on the momentous question as to whether he would consider a call to become the pastor of that church. It appears that at least on two occasions members of the Market Square church have been in Bellefonte and heard Dr. Hawes preach and went home exceptionally well pleased with him.

Inasmuch as Dr. Hawes was not in Bellefonte last week the committee was unable to interview him, but they were furnished with his address in Florida, and it is understood that they communicated with him and invited him to step in Harrisburg on his way home next week and meet with the committee which has charge of the selection of a new pastor. Of course Dr. Hawes' friends in Bellefonte have no idea as to what he may decide to do, but the call of the Market Square church, if it is officially extended to him, is flattering enough to attract most any minister of the gospel. The church pays a salary of $4,000 a year, parsonage free and other emoluments that amount to considerable.

The church has a membership of two thousand with one thousand members in the Sunday school. It has one of the finest choirs in the capital city, Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris, being the soprano soloist. Rev. William B. Cooke is now the minister in charge.

Of course, as stated above, it is not known here how Dr. Hawes may regard the offer, if tendered him, but even his warmest supporters could hardly find fault with him if he should decide to accept it.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF THOMAS DAVIS, OF FAIRBROOK.—The people of Fairbrook and vicinity have been very much excited this week over the mysterious disappearance of Thomas Davis, a well known laboring man of that locality. Mr. Davis attended the Cramer sale near State College on Tuesday and was in the best of spirits. On his way home he stopped at the home of Ellery T. Parsons, on the old Robert Meek farm near Meek's church, where he ate supper. At the conclusion of the meal he started for home, but did not reach there and at this writing has not been seen or heard of. His road home was entirely through the Barrens and on the supposition that he may have become lost searching parties scoured the Barrens Tuesday night, Wednesday and Wednesday night without getting any trace of him.

Davis is a man about fifty years old, with sandy complexion and hair slightly gray. Any person who may see him or learn anything of his whereabouts is asked to communicate with Ward's store at Pine Grove Mills.

BIG RUSH FOR NATURALIZATION.—Prothonotary David R. Foreman was a busy man on Monday making out papers for foreigners clamoring for naturalization. Davy Chambers, of Clarence, fathered a bunch of twenty-five who came in from Clarence to take out papers. Seventeen of the above number took out papers of naturalization, six took out their first papers declaring their intention of becoming American citizens and the other two could not be attended to that day. On Saturday two foreigners who have been working at the new penitentiary went to the prothonotary's office and took out their first papers declaring their intention to become American citizens. This was brought about by the Act of the Legislature passed last week forbidding the employment of any but American citizens in the construction of the new penitentiary. Naturalization court will be held in June.

Mrs. A. Lukenbach has sold her home on the corner of Willowbank street and Reynolds avenue to Daniel Houser, of Houserville. She expects to make sale of her household goods in the near future and will then make her home with her daughter, Mrs. M. B. Garman and husband. Mr. Houser, who purchased the Lukenbach home, will not occupy the same during the coming year, but rent it; anticipating making it his home after April 1st, 1916.

When you are looking around for a place to get an hour or so of pleasant entertainment each evening nine times out of ten you choose the Scenic. You do so because you know it is an agreeable place to go and also because you feel sure that the program of motion pictures will be worth seeing. The Scenic shows more and bigger features than the average moving picture show, and you can feel assured of getting your money's worth every evening.

The Bellefonte Academy basketball team will play their last game of the season tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, when the Clearfield High school team will be their opponents. Game will be called promptly at 2:45 o'clock in order to get through in time to allow the visitors to return home the same evening. This will be the last chance you will have this season to see the Academy five at basket ball, so you had better take advantage of it.

Something of interest to our readers is the fact that one-tenth of the present capital stock of the Republic Casualty Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, the only casualty company in that great State, is owned by Centre county people. Their advertisement appears in another column with their last statement to the stockholders. Mr. J. H. Weber, of Centre Hall, is one of the directors, and Mr. Chas. D. Bartholomew, of the same place, has been selected to represent the company.

An order was received at the new penitentiary at Rockview last Friday to in the future employ only American labor on all State work being done there. This will mean that during the coming summer all the workmen employed there, whether skilled mechanics or laborers, will have to be American born or naturalized citizens. The prisoners, especially the foreign element, will be used on the farms and road building through the five thousand acres of land owned by the State.

In planning for your spring house-cleaning, do not lose sight of the fact that the week beginning with Monday, 10th of May, has been set aside for Bellefonte's Municipal house-cleaning. Arrange that inside work will not interfere with your joining in this campaign for cleaning our town, then, after the cleaning comes beautifying; remove old fences, bill-boards, posters; use paint, varnish and whitewash freely, so that there will be nothing left to do but keep in order what has been put in order.

Bellefonte friends of Mrs. John N. Lane and son Elliott will be interested in learning that they are now at Hampton Springs, Florida, having gone there from Suwanee Springs over two weeks ago on account of the hotel at the latter place not opening until May first. Hampton Springs is not far from the Gulf of Mexico and Mrs. Lane and Elliott spend considerable time fishing. On Wednesday of last week Elliott shot a large sea gull which he intends having mounted and sent home, as it is a fine specimen. Both he and Mrs. Lane are improving in health and expect to return to Bellefonte in the best of health, Elliott having gained four pounds in four days.

Charles Watson, of Clarence, came to Bellefonte on Tuesday evening to take in the Mutt and Jeff show and when he went to buy tickets for himself and several friends he found his pocketbook containing $84.00 missing. His first thought was that he had lost it on the train and he started down High street hot foot to make a search. On the way he met policeman Dukeman and told him of his loss, but just then a thought struck him. At Snow Shoe he had gone into that new First National bank to deposit some money and it flashed through his mind that he might have left his pocketbook on the desk. Going into the Elks he called up the Mountain house and asked for Cashier McDowell and when he got him that gentleman very calmly told him that he had his pocketbook and money; so that although a little inconvenienced Charlie was relieved to know that his eighty-four was safe.

WAGNER AND GORDON HELD FOR COURT, WYLAND DISCHARGED.—Joseph Wagner and Henry Gordon, of Bellefonte, and George Wyland, of Milesburg, arrested last week on the charge of robbing the Milesburg Store company, at Milesburg, on Saturday night, March 6th, were given a hearing before Squire Henry D. Brown, last Friday afternoon, and after hearing the evidence the Squire discharged Wyland and held Wagner and Gordon without bail for trial at court. Both were remanded to jail.

The evidence on which the two men were held was principally the confession of Wagner, which he practically repeated under oath at the hearing. He averred that the three of them were at Moerschbacher's restaurant and finally decided to go to Lock Haven, by walking to Snow Shoe Intersection and jumping a freight. On the way down to Milesburg, he alleged, Wyland sprung a proposition to rob the Milesburg Store company, but when they got to the old chain works he left them and went with two other men whom he did not know. Wagner claimed he and Gordon went on to Milesburg and after loitering around for some time went to the Milesburg Store company; that Gordon broke open the door with his shoulder and they both entered. He got two watches, a pair of hose suspenders and four or five cigars, but didn't know what Gordon got. Leaving the Store company they returned to Bellefonte by way of the railroad, parting company at the round house below town. He exonerated Wyland from any participation in the crime.

Gordon was also put under oath and after admitting that he had been in Milesburg denied emphatically that he had had anything to do with the robbery. He declared that they had all been drinking and that he had part of a bottle of whiskey with him. After he reached Milesburg he started for Snow Shoe Intersection to jump a train for Lock Haven. On the way he took a drink of water and that made him quite sick, and as his whiskey was running low he decided to return to Bellefonte, and started up the railroad, finally meeting Wagner, and the two returned to Bellefonte. Gordon further stated that he wouldn't be so foolish as to attempt to rob the store, because he "knew they never left much money in the safe at night, and he wouldn't have robbed it anyway."

After hearing the above evidence Squire Brown discharged Wyland and held the other two for trial.

IMPORTANT DECISION BY JUDGE ORVIS.—Judge Ellis L. Orvis on Saturday handed down an opinion in the case of Chester Barnes vs. Centre county, in which he sustained the contention of the plaintiff and ordered judgment entered against the defendant in the sum of $178.00. Mr. Barnes is assessor in the South ward of Bellefonte. When he made his returns for 1914 he demanded pay at the rate of $3.50 per day, in accordance with the Act of the Legislature approved June 25th, 1913, increasing the pay of assessors in townships of the second class from $2.50 to $3.50 per day. The county commissioners declined payment on that basis on the grounds that the Act did not specify boroughs. The assessors in all the boroughs in the county were treated likewise, and in order to get an amicable adjustment of the matter it was arranged that Mr. Barnes should bring a test case. In his decision Judge Orvis pointed out that a former Act had fixed the pay of assessors in cities and townships of the first class, and that all Acts of the Legislature regulating other matters in townships of the second class always included boroughs, and he was therefore compelled to construe the Act of 1913 in the same way; hence his decision in favor of the plaintiff.

The county commissioners the same day entered an appeal from the court's decision, and the question will likely be taken to a higher court for a final decision.

TO CELEBRATE THE FOURTH.—A public meeting of the citizens of Bellefonte will be held in the court house next Wednesday evening, March 24th, at 8 o'clock, to arrange tentative plans for a big Fourth of July celebration. It has been a number of years since Bellefonte has had what might be termed a big Fourth, and while it may seem a little early to begin planning now, it is none too soon to start the ball rolling if the celebration is to be made one of great magnitude. It takes time to work up any kind of a celebration and the bigger the event is to be the more time it will take to prepare for it. It must be borne in mind that a big celebration does not necessarily mean that it will not be a safe and sane Fourth, so that there need be no holding back on this account. Therefore be at the court house next Wednesday evening and do what you can toward the movement.

ORCHARD DEMONSTRATIONS.—The foot and mouth disease in some portions of Pennsylvania has curtailed the orchard demonstrations carried on by the State Department of Agriculture, but such demonstrations will be conducted this spring in those counties of the State in which the disease does not exist. Two such demonstrations will be held in Centre county next week, by T. C. Foster, as follows:

Monday, March 22nd, on the farm of N. C. Neidigh, at State College.

Wednesday, March 24th, on the farm of Miss Elizabeth D. Green, at Fillmore.

They are all good enough, but the WATCHMAN is always the best.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.
