—Hatching eggs, S. C. W. Leghorns, Tom Barrow strain. Fertility guaranteed.—H. J. Walkey.

—Let your new Easter shoes be Walkovers. The best assortment of men's shoes in Bellefonte.—AT FAUBLES.

—Dr. Coburn Rogers is now driving a new five passenger Studebaker car purchased through the George A. Beezer agency.

—A little daughter, who has been named Susan, was born Thursday of last week, to Dr. and Mrs. John Keichline, at their home in Petersburg.

—Many of the country schools will close next week, and by the first week in April school days in the country districts will be a thing of the past.

—Everyone is advised to plan their work that they may have a week to spend with the Varney's, as they are coming to Bellefonte very soon.

—This is the twenty-sixth day of March and the north sides of the mountains in Centre county are still covered with from one to two feet of snow.

—John T. Laurie, of Tyrone, is handling the throttle on the shifting engine in the Bellefonte yards this week, owing to the illness of Claude Thompson, the regular engineer.

—The Study Course will meet at the High school building on Tuesday, March 30th, at 8 o'clock. Mr. J. Norman Sherer will read a paper on "Germany and Russia." All are cordially invited.

—Only twenty days more until trout fishing will be in season; and we'll wager half our catch on the opening morning that there isn't a trout fisherman in the country who'll overlook the date.

—See Miss E. T. Cooney's new spring millinery in Easter array. On display Friday and Saturday, March 26 and 27, at Claster's Store, Crider's Exchange building. 60-13-1t

—On April first D. Wagner Geiss will take over the Brockerhoff house stable and conduct a livery, sale and exchange stable, and also carry on his grain, feed and fertilizer commission business.

—The girls basket ball team of the Tyrone High school will play the Bellefonte High school girls in the gymnasium this (Friday) evening, at 7.45 o'clock. This will be the deciding game, inasmuch as each team has won a victory over the other.

—Word has been received in Bellefonte of the marriage in Washington, D. C., on March first of John Huffman and Miss Hannah Dunlap, both of Williamsport. Mr. Huffman is prominent in business affairs of Williamsport and is quite well known in Bellefonte.

—The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will meet in the High school building on Monday, March 29th, at 7.30. The paper of the evening will be read by Mrs. Arthur H. Sloop. Her subject is "Woman Under Pennsylvania Law. Rights in Connection with children."

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hazel entertained the proprietors of the Hazel & Co. store and the employees of Hazel Bros. at a chicken and waffle supper, at their residence on Logan street on Tuesday evening. It is hardly necessary to say that all present had an enjoyable time.

—The final collection of papers, magazines, old books and rubber for the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will be made next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 29-31. Any one who has saved these things and is unable to send them to the Y. M. C. A. will please notify Mrs. J. E. Ward or Miss M. H. Linn.

—Senator McNichol, of Philadelphia, has introduced a bill in the State Senate providing for the consolidation of the eastern and western penitentiaries on the new prison farm at Rockview, to be known as the Pennsylvania State penitentiary. A similar bill has been introduced in the House of Representatives by Representative Hess, of Lancaster.

—William H. Noll, the automobile hackman, has rented Forest Bullock's brick building on Water street and opened up a garage and automobile repair shop. He will also continue in the hacking business. Mr. Bullock in the future will confine himself entirely to his blacksmithing and wagon trade, and will not continue his specialty of repairing automobiles.

—Spring began on Sunday, but there was very little in the weather to indicate it, as it was about as cold and blustery as it has been any day during this month. And Monday's snow storm looked as if the season had gotten twisted and was rolling backwards, but Old Sol is gradually crawling higher and higher in the heavens and before we realize it we'll all be wishing for just one of the many cold days we have had since Thanksgiving.

FOUND DEAD BODY OF THOMAS DAVIS.

—The mystery surrounding the sudden disappearance of Thomas J. Davis, of Fairbrook, was cleared up on Tuesday afternoon when his dead body was found in an open field on the Judy farm, better known as the old Judge McWilliams farm just south of Pennsylvania Furnace. There were no marks of violence upon the man's body and the supposition is that he died of privation and starvation after wandering around for several days in a fit of mental abstraction.

Mr. Davis attended the Cramer public sale near State College on Tuesday of last week. On his way home he had supper with the Ellery T. Parsons family at Meek's church. It was growing dark when he left there but having lived in that section all his life the Parsons family felt no concern about him getting home safe and sound. Failing to arrive home, however, a search was instituted for him on Wednesday, and day and night searching parties literally scoured the Barrens on a hunt for the man, dead or alive.

Failing to get even a trace of the man the searchers on Tuesday had about concluded that Mr. Davis must have wandered out of the county when Willis Weaver, a young man of Pennsylvania Furnace, chanced to come across his body in the Judy field about four o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The place where the body was found is about three miles from his home and in an entirely different direction from the way he started from the Parsons home a week previous. Mr. Davis had not been in the best of health for some time and the supposition is that in the darkness of night he became bewildered and wandered in the wrong direction, finally becoming so exhausted after traveling the five or six miles from the Parsons home to the Judy farm that he fell to the ground and was unable to get to a house or make himself heard. From the condition of the body he had been dead for some days.

The unfortunate man was a son of William and Barbara Davis and was born in the neighborhood of Fairbrook sixty-five years ago, all his life being spent in that locality. He was a laborer by occupation and a good citizen. Surviving him are his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Mary Wooster, and the following children: Mrs. George Rudy, of State College; Mrs. William Post and Mrs. B. F. Hassinger, of Scotia; Foster Davis, of Blue Ball; Raymond, at Bellwood, and Mildred at home. He also leaves one brother and three sisters, B. Frank Davis, in Lehigh county; Mrs. McKelvey, of Clearfield; Mrs. Belle Thomas, of Pennsylvania Furnace, and a sister in Mt. Union whose name could not be learned. The funeral took place from his late home at Fairbrook yesterday afternoon, burial being made in the Gatesburg cemetery.

BELLEFONTONERS START BALL ROLLING FOR A BIG FOURTH.

—With lots of snow still on the ground but realizing how quickly time slips around the citizens of Bellefonte on Wednesday evening formed an organization for the purpose of having a real old-fashioned celebration on the Fourth of July. The organization has been officially designated as the "Independence Day Association of Bellefonte," and all neighboring towns are notified that Bellefonte has pre-empted the right for the one big celebration in this section of the State, and all our neighbors are invited to make a pilgrimage to Bellefonte on that occasion.

The following officers of the organization were elected: President, Burgess Edmund Blanchard; vice presidents, John S. Walker, Charles E. Dorworth, Robert F. Hunter, J. Frank Smith, Lewis Daggett and Donald Wallace; secretary and treasurer, J. Dorsey Hunter. The president was empowered to appoint his executive committee and sub-committees. It was the unanimous opinion of the large number of people present at the meeting that an invitation be extended to the people of State College, Centre Hall, Pleasant Gap, Snow Shoe and Howard to join with Bellefonte in making the celebration one of the biggest ever held at the county seat.

Only tentative plans for a celebration have been made but no definite outline has yet been decided upon as to the character of the amusements, etc. The officers of the organization will welcome any and all suggestions along the line of amusements or anything else that will help to make the day a success. In the meantime let everybody do what they can and Bellefonte will have the big time of its history.

A. A. DALE ESQ. TO ORATE AT GETTYSBURG.

—On Tuesday A. A. Dale Esq., received a letter from the Commander of Corp. S. Kelly Post, No. 9, of Gettysburg, extending him a pressing and highly complimentary invitation to deliver the Memorial day address at Gettysburg on May 31st. Mr. Dale the same day acknowledged the letter with an acceptance of the invitation and if he is in good health on that day he will have the honor of orating on the great battlefield where some of the brightest and ablest men of the country have immortalized the heroes of our great Civil war. And having heard Mr. Dale make an address for Gregg Post several years ago we can assure the old soldiers as well as residents of Gettysburg that he will make an interesting, patriotic and pleasing address.

—Public sale at residence of Mrs. A. Lukenbach, on Willowbank St., a full line of household goods, Saturday, March 27th, at 1 p. m. 12-2t

—Next Thursday will be moving day and also All-Fools day.

—Walkover shoes for men, $4.00 and $4.50. Sold with our guarantee.—FAUBLES.

—W. Harrison Walker Esq., is busy fixing up his new home on east Linn street. A new roof has been put on the house, a sleeping porch in the rear has been increased in size and will be enclosed with glass windows at both ends, while a number of changes and improvements will be made on the interior. A proposed new coat of paint on the outside will add greatly to the appearance of the house.

—Between six and seven o'clock on Sunday evening George Keeler, driving Rerick's Ford car, was coming in Allegheny street and in turning the corner to go up Howard St., toward the Union cemetery the steering gear broke and the car not only climbed the pavement but bumped head-on into Andrews' stone house. Keeler was uninjured but the fenders and front wheels of the car were badly damaged.

—G. Murray Andrews, who had applied to the British War Office for a commission in Kitchener's army has received a letter from the Right Hon. H. J. Tennant, M. P., under Secretary for War, informing him that they could not give commissions for active service to those over 40. It is probable, therefore, that Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will spend part of the spring and summer in Bellefonte instead of going to England.

—Walkover shoes for men, $4.00 and $4.50. Sold with our guarantee.—FAUBLES.

—A record breaker is the Republic Casualty Co., of Ohio, which was organized a little over a year ago in Cleveland, and which has already from the original capital of one hundred thousand dollars been increased to one million. Three hundred and fifty thousand dollars of this amount has been sold to date, and is distributed over ten States. The company has nearly three-quarters of a million of assets, as is shown by their advertisement on another page. Look it over.

—When tired out with the labors and cares of the day, and perhaps feeling blue and somewhat discouraged, go to the Scenic in the evening and you will forget your aches and pains, worry and disappointments, in watching the moving pictures. They distract the mind from what is passing over the screen and after an hour's pleasant enjoyment you are able to go home pleased with yourself and all your neighbors. And the Scenic is the place to try the experiment.

—Let your new Easter shoes be Walkovers. The best assortment of men's shoes in Bellefonte.—AT FAUBLES.

—The new electric fire alarm has been received in Bellefonte and yesterday afternoon was given a test. Located in the plaza between the court house and jail its rather doleful tones could be very distinctly heard at this office but how much further the sound carried we are unable to state. From its volume, however, we should imagine that if located on top of the jail it ought to be heard in all parts of the town, but as to whether it is strong enough to wake up the sleeping populace at night that is a matter that only a night test will disclose.

—The Bellefonte Central Railroad company last week purchased a gasoline motor car, large enough to accommodate twenty passengers and light baggage. The car was bought primarily for service on the Pine Grove Mills branch and when it is received and tested, which will probably be ten days or two weeks, the old schedule that was in force between State College and Pine Grove Mills prior to last October will be re-established. The car will also be used for special service between State College and Bellefonte. The company has also exchanged one of its combination cars for one of the latest Pennsylvania wooden coaches.

—ILLEGAL TRAIN RIDERS ARRESTED.—On Wednesday of last week Capt. Lehman, of the railroad police, of Williamsport, with officers Smith, of Williamsport, and William McClintic, of Lock Haven, arrested Rankin Weaver, of Penn township. He was given a hearing before Squire Brown and in default of paying his fine was sent to jail for five days. The same officers on Monday arrested Charles D. Smith, of Penn township, and he was sent to jail for ten days in default of paying the fine imposed.

—Office Fred Giles, of Tyrone, on Monday arrested James and Michael Rice and William McGovern, of this place, for jumping a freight at Snow Shoe Intersection for a trip to Lock Haven. At a hearing before Squire Brown each of the three young men was fined five dollars and costs, or seven dollars in all, which they paid. The same day Harvey Tressler was arrested for riding blind baggage from Bellefonte to Curtin, and at the hearing he refused to pay his fine and was sent to jail. After one day in Fort Lee, however, he arranged to pay the fine and costs, and so was discharged at noon on Tuesday. A warrant is also out for the arrest of another Bellefonte young man for riding blind baggage as far as Curtin.

—WIFE SHOTS AT HUSBAND.—The State-Centre Electric company has kept Milesburg in a furor of business excitement the past year, but our neighbor borough had a rather sensational airing on Saturday when it became known that Mrs. Charles Sheckler had shot at her husband with a twenty-two calibre revolver, with intent to kill him.

According to all reports the Sheckler home has not been one of the most peaceful, owing mostly to Mrs. Sheckler's inordinate jealousy of her husband. They were married less than a year ago and it was the second matrimonial venture for both. Mrs. Sheckler was formerly a Miss Meyers, of Milesburg. After her first marriage she lived in Pittsburgh with her husband and children, but finally deserted them and returned to Milesburg. Mr. Sheckler has three children to his first wife, the latter dying about eighteen months ago. Mrs. Sheckler secured a divorce from her first husband and within a week married Sheckler.

Everything was lovely for a few weeks then Mrs. Sheckler grew jealous of her husband, without just cause, he asserts. Several weeks ago, it is alleged, she secured a revolver and flourishing the same, threatened her husband's life. He disarmed her, and thus saved a possible tragedy. About a week ago Mr. Sheckler found a bottle of chloroform in the house, and fearing lest the poison might be used on himself he took the chloroform to his parents' home.

The climax came on Saturday just before noon. Sheckler is employed by undertaker Frank Wetzler and was at his home dressing for a funeral. While standing before the bureau mirror adjusting a tie he saw the reflection of his wife who quietly entered the room and pointed a revolver at his head. Sheckler screamed and dropped to the floor just as his wife pulled the trigger. The weapon was hard to discharge and the course of the ball was deflected so that it not only missed Sheckler but missed the mirror and imbedded itself in a door frame. Sheckler grabbed his wife before she could fire a second time and took the revolver. He then went to the home of his parents, where he has been ever since. Mrs. Sheckler wants him back, but so far he has not gone. What the outcome will be remains to be seen.

—PROPERTY CHANGES AND MOVINGS.—Changes in the ownership of real estate in Bellefonte have been more numerous this spring than in a number of years. One of the most important changes was the purchase of the Ceader home on Allegheny street, last Thursday, by Edward Richard. The price paid was $10,000.

The same day Mrs. Ceader purchased the Hoover property on Spring street, adjoining the Presbyterian church, for $3,000. This property had already been leased by Norman R. Wright, with the exception of three rooms, and these rooms Mrs. Ceader will have put in shape for the occupancy of herself and daughter, Miss Helen Ceader. It is her intention to ultimately convert the building into a double residence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Miles Barr, who now occupy the Hoover property, will move to the Lukenbach property on Willowbank street, Mr. Barr having leased the same from D. F. Houser last Saturday. At a public sale at the court house last Saturday of the properties of the late Charles Eckenroth Peter Saylor purchased the house on north Penn street in which he has lived for some years, for $1375. The one-half of a double house on the same street was purchased by Herbert Auman for $300, and a small house on Pike alley went to Wallace Markle for $124.

Charles M. Heisler has had men at work this week building the foundation for a new six room residence he will erect for himself in Bush's Addition. Until the house is completed he and Mrs. Heisler will make their home with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Bartley.

—BEECH CREEK TRUCK AND AUTOMOBILE CO.—Residents of Beech Creek are quite enthusiastic over the outlook for the proposed new motor truck plant in that place. At a meeting held Wednesday evening of last week the Beech Creek Truck and Automobile company was organized and the following board of directors elected: Paul J. Smith and William H. Ward, of Galeton; Israel J. Rohrbach, Dr. P. McDowell Tibbens, Lester H. Stephens, George F. Hess and David M. Packer, of Beech Creek. The directors met on Thursday and elected the following officers: President, Henry H. Salisbury; vice president, William H. Ward; secretary, David M. Packer; treasurer, Israel J. Rohrbach; solicitor, Henry Hipple; superintendent and general manager, Paul J. Smith. The directors expect to announce their plans in the near future. Mr. Smith, the inventor and patentee of the new truck, is anxious to begin work as he has promised one truck for delivery by June first.
