The Natives Are Completely Repulsed.
Leaving 200 Killed and 300 Wounded on Field.

A revolt of 10,000 tribesmen at Tochi, near Simla, India, has resulted in a battle with government troops. The tribesmen were repulsed. The following official statement was issued in London: "Ten thousand tribesmen, composed mainly at Zadraus, collected with a view to attacking Tochi, near the Miranshab post. Government troops under Brigadier General Fane engaged the natives at dawn on the 26th, repulsing them completely, killing 200 and wounding 300. A subsequent reconnaissance showed no trace of the band."

This trouble in India is on the northwestern frontier of the empire. The Tochi is a river which rises in Afghanistan and flows in an easterly direction into the Punjab, where it joins the river Kuram. There undoubtedly is a town or a village called Tochi.

When the Turks declared a holy war the statement was made that this course would bring about an uprising in India, and during the past few months there had been various reports, some of them evidently from German sources, tending to show that unrest in India was increasing.

A dispatch from Delhi eleven days ago quoted a member of the viceroy's council to the effect that it was necessary to arm the military authorities with special powers to nip in the bud any and all manifestations of lawlessness. This same authority declared that activity was showing itself afresh, and that there had been trouble in the western Punjab, or in other words, on the northwestern frontier of India.

Last February an Indian regiment revolted at Singapore and 400 men had to be killed before order could be restored.

AARONSBURG.

Randolph Cori, of State College, paid his grand-parents a short visit, coming to town Tuesday evening and returning Wednesday.

Saturday afternoon the remains of Charles Kreamer, of Beaver Falls, were laid to rest in the Lutheran cemetery. His body was brought here on Friday, to the home of his brother, H. D. Kreamer, from where he was buried. The services were in charge of Rev. M. D. Geesey. He leaves to mourn his death his wife, two daughters by this marriage and an adopted daughter. Also three brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. David Musser moved into the Hess home yesterday. O. P. Adams moved to Millheim, where he has bought a property; Fred Stover will then occupy the Adams house, which he bought last fall. A. L. Keller occupies the Gramley house, south of town.

Grim death has called many from time into eternity within the past week. This community was shocked to hear of the death of Mr. Korman, of Windber, who with his wife came to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stover, some time ago in hopes of a change being of benefit to him. Later on he went to Coburn to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Korman, where he passed away last Wednesday morning at the age of twenty-nine years. He leaves his wife, father, mother, six sisters and three brothers. Funeral services were in charge of Rev. M. D. Geesey, interment being made in the Lutheran cemetery.

Mrs. Sarah Condo passed peacefully away last Friday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Roush, with whom she made her home since coming to this town. Mrs. Condo was a kindly, christian woman and will be greatly missed, both in the homes of her children and in the church. She for many years was a consistent member of the Reformed church and as long as she was able to attend services she was found in her place. Mrs. Condo had reached the ripe old age of 86 years and 4 days. Four sons, two daughters and one sister were left to mourn her departure. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning in the Reformed church. Rev. W. D. Donat, her pastor, had charge of the services. Burial was made in the Reformed cemetery.
