WHENCE THE ILLUSION .- The Johns-

Illusions which quite a few Center county farmers entertained regarding fancy prices their livestock would bring at public sales this spring have been punctured, according to William Jameson, a farmer and stockman, residing near State College, who visited friends in Johnstown yesterday. Center county farmers are especially grieved by the pronounced drop in the price of horses. Good animals, guaranteed to be sound, can be purchased at public auction as low as $135 a head. The price of cows, steers and sheep likewise dropped.

Mr. Jameson evidently didn't attend where horses sold for $180 and cows $70; or the George Irwin sale at Pennsylvaas $250 and cows $95; or the John Behrer sale on Buffalo Run where one horse brought $350 and a team $660; or from $75 to $80; or the Hon. J. W. Kepler sale at Pine grove Mills where horses brought $250 and cows $70.
