ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

BELLEFONTE ACADEMY NEWS.—The annual declamatory contest for the W. D. Furst prizes took place at the Bellefonte Academy last Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, and proved the most interesting and probably the closest contest ever held.

The speakers and their subjects were as follows:

"Toussaint L'Ouverture," Lewis Neilson, of Pittsburgh.

"Ingersoll's Oration at an Infant's Grave," Melvin Bassett, of Philadelphia.

"Citizenship," Gardiner Somariendyk, of Scranton.

"United in Death," Bradley Downing, of York.

"The Danger of Treating," Jesse Jacob, of Morgantown, W. Va.

"War," Clark Jackson, of Binghamton, N. Y.

"Lasca," Melvin Locke, Bellefonte.

"Spartacus to the Gladiators at Capua," Surgeon Fulcomer, Bellefonte.

The judges were Rev. W. C. Charlton, Col. H. S. Taylor and J. Kennedy Johnston and they awarded first prize to Bradley Downing and second prize to Melvin Locke.

The Academy baseball squad, accompanied by coach Vogel, manager Miksch and headmaster James R. Hughes departed on Tuesday morning on its eastern trip. The team was scheduled to play Perkiomen Seminary on Wednesday, a Philadelphia school on Thursday, the Princeton Freshmen today and the Princeton Preps Saturday.

The Academy boys have been practicing for weeks on a very interesting vaudeville which they will present at Garman's some time during the month of May, the date to be named later. The introduction of the vaudeville this year instead of the usual minstrels ought to prove an innovation that will draw large audiences. The musical feature will be as interesting as ever.

CENTRE COUNTY POMONA CORN CLUBS.—The Centre County Pomona Grange, co-operating with the Agricultural Department of State College, has mapped out plans for the organization of corn clubs throughout Centre county for the purpose of interesting the boys and girls in the growing of corn. Only boys and girls between the ages of ten and twenty-one years will be eligible.

Pomona Grange has adopted a constitution and by-laws for the government of such clubs and embodying the rules for all contestants. A copy of these with any further particulars desired can be had upon application to John S. Dale, State College. Other counties have had boys and girls corn clubs for several years and they are proving a great incentive to the young people to show what they can do with an acre of ground.

THE VARNEYS WILL SOON BE HERE.—The program for the Varneys Welfare week will be as follows: The preliminary meeting will be held on Tuesday at 3 p. m., in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. Tuesday at 8 p. m., at the High school building. The other meetings of the week will all be held in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

Wednesday at 8 p. m.—Peace night. Thursday, "Joy Night," a humorous lecture by Mr. Varney.

Friday, Woman's night. Saturday, Big Brother's night.

Sunday at 3 p. m., a mass meeting will be held in the court house, Mr. Varney giving his great lecture, "The Dying Giant."

At the 3 o'clock meeting each afternoon an address will be made by both Mr. and Mrs. Varney. Everybody is cordially invited to all of these meetings.

I. C. S. STUDENTS ORGANIZE.—A meeting of the students—past and present—of the International Correspondence Schools at Scranton was held in their rooms in the McClain block, opposite the Bush house, last Friday evening, and the Bellefonte Chapter of the Fraternity organized with the following officers: President, Nevin Cole; first vice president, George T. Bush; second vice president, Paul Mallory; secretary, Harvey Steele; treasurer, Luther Crissman. The object is mutual instruction and training. The Chapter will meet every Friday night and all students of the International Correspondence Schools in Bellefonte and Centre county are invited to join.

The Fairbrook Country Club at Pennsylvania Furnace have leased the fishing right for a distance of four or five miles along the headwaters of Spruce creek. They have stocked the stream during the past two years and anticipate having fine sport there during the trout fishing season.

Our Weekly Summary of Legislative Activities.

Of course there is plenty of gossip and speculation about CUNNINGHAM but the only thing that can be definitely learned is that he is a protege of Senator GEORGE T. OLIVER. When BRUMBAUGH was arranging for his big local option demonstration here some time ago he invited Senator OLIVER to preside at one of the mass meetings contemplated. The Senator replied that he would like to oblige him very much but it would be impossible on account of plans previously made. Then CUNNINGHAM became a candidate, OLIVER's plans were smashed and he presided at the meeting.

Dean LEWIS, the Bull Moose candidate for Governor last fall, was here yesterday trying to revive interest in the dead bill providing for a constitutional convention. The Dean is convinced that there is something wrong somewhere and wants to find a remedy. "The times are out of joint," he imagines and the antiquated fundamental law of the State is to blame. Even ROOSEVELT can't stir up much enthusiasm and the Bull Moose is "a gonner." But he didn't make much impression here yesterday. There will be no constitutional convention bill this year.

In the House yesterday fifty-five bills were reported from committee. Most of these will be lost during the process of legislation but they will all be read "the first time" and help to swell the expenses of the session. A dozen of these related to the Public Service Commission, some of which are worthy. A bill repealing the personal registration act for third class cities passed the House finally yesterday and a bill providing that when a candidate for Mayor of cities of the third class gets fifty-one per cent. of the total vote cast at the primary "he shall be the sole candidate at the general election." This dangerous measure has already passed the Senate and will now go to the Governor for approval.

The "dickering" for votes on the Local Option bill is still the principal industry of the Hill and it has become as public and almost as exciting as a stock exchange. Results may justify this innovation in legislation but there are a good many thoughtful citizens who will "have to be shown." The reports current in the corridors to-day are that several Philadelphians have been won over to the option side, and there is a rumor that there is some "stringing" of the Governor's emissaries. Be that as it may the issue will be drawn next Tuesday and at this time "no fellow can find out" what the result of the vote will be. Everybody will be glad when it's over, however.

RISHEL.—Mrs. Emma May Rishel, wife of Alfred M. Rishel, died suddenly at the Bellefonte hospital at seven o'clock last Saturday evening. She was taken sick the Sunday night previous and it was several days before her illness could be diagnosed as an obstruction of the intestines. She was brought to the Bellefonte hospital on Saturday and operated upon, but her death followed shortly afterwards.

Deceased was a daughter of Peter and Sarah Shuey Schreck and was born at Lemont on March 10th, 1866, at her death being 49 years and 1 month old. She was married to Mr. Rishel on August 25th, 1887, and all their married life was spent on the Rishel farms in Spring and Benner townships. She was a member of the Methodist church and a lovable woman in every way.

Surviving her are her husband and two children, J. Walter and Sarah Emma, both at home. She also leaves two sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. Ellen Ludwig, of Ebensburg; Mrs. Sarah Moore, of Philipsburg, and William Schreck, of Lemont. Funeral services were held at her late home at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon by Revs. E. H. Yocum and C. C. Shuey, after which burial was made in the Rishel lot in the Union cemetery in this place.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were Dr. and Mrs. Ludwig and Mr. and Mrs. Fern Ludwig, of Pitcairn; Mrs. Ellen Ludwig, of Ebensburg; Mrs. Sarah Moore and daughter Elizabeth, of Philipsburg; Edward McBath, of Kylertown; Frank McBath, of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. Hoy Rishel, of Philadelphia; Alvin Stover and Mrs. Helen Stuart, of Altoona.

ORBISON.—Miss Agnes Louise Orbison died quite suddenly of heart failure last Saturday morning, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Sylvester W. Beach, at Princeton, N. J. Miss Orbison was a daughter of Rev. James H. Orbison, a missionary to India, and she was born at Ranil Pindi, India, in 1864. Her mother was Mrs. Nancy D. Orbison. They returned to this country in 1869 when Rev. Orbison died. In 1890 Miss Orbison went back to India as a missionary, living for a time in Lahore and then going to labor in her birthplace in the Punjab. She was there six years when her health broke down. She then went to Italy to join her mother, who was spending the winter in Florence. After some time they went to Switzerland and returned to America in the spring of 1896. Much of her time of late had been spent with her sister at Princeton. In addition to her sister she leaves two brothers, Dr. J. Harris Orbison, of Lahore, India, and Dr. Thomas J. Orbison, of Los Angeles, Cal. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, burial being made at Princeton.

HECKMAN.—Centre county friends of Rev. Isaac Heckman will sympathize with him in the loss of his wife, who died at her home in Sunbury on Sunday, of a complication of diseases. Rev. Heckman was at one time pastor of the Pennsylvania charge of the Methodist church and was also well known in the western part of the county. His son, Rev. Edward R. Heckman, is now pastor of one of the Lock Haven churches. In addition to her husband and son Mrs. Heckman is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Hayes W. Mattern, of Johnstown, and Mrs. J. W. Hinebauch, of Sunbury. Burial was made on Wednesday at Mifflintown.

WITMYER.—Jacob Witmyer, a former Sugar Valley resident, died at his home near Milton on Friday morning, following a stroke of paralysis sustained on April 4th. He was sixty-two years of age and is survived by his wife and five sons, one of the latter being William Witmyer, of Bellefonte. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, burial being made at Eastville, near Milton.

GARBRICK.—Robert Bruce Garbrick died quite suddenly on Saturday evening at the New Crawford hotel, Jersey Shore, of acute indigestion. He had not been well for several days but was able to attend to business up until five o'clock Saturday evening when he was taken violently ill and died within a half hour.

Deceased was a son of John (deceased) and Mary E. Garbrick and was born at Coleville forty-five years ago. His entire life was spent in Bellefonte up until last summer when he went to Jersey Shore as clerk for W. E. Hurley at the New Crawford hotel. When Mr. Hurley retired from the business last fall Mr. Garbrick managed the hotel for the owners and this spring he leased it and was running it for himself. He was a member of the Undine fire company of this place and the Royal Order of the Moose, being steward of the latter organization some months prior to leaving Bellefonte.

He is survived by his wife who before her marriage was Miss Catharine McMahon; his mother, Mrs. John Garbrick, of Coleville, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Laura Stevenson, of Niagara Falls; Curtis Garbrick, of Mill Hall; Harry, of Coleville, and Mrs. Edward Nolan, of Bellefonte.

The remains were brought to Bellefonte on Monday afternoon and taken to the home of his mother at Coleville where funeral services were held at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning by Rev. A. B. Sprague, of the United Brethren church, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

McLAUGHLIN.—Mrs. Anna McLaughlin, widow of Michael McLaughlin, died at her home in Snow Shoe on Friday of last week after eight days illness with pneumonia. She was born in County Galway, Ireland, a little over sixty-nine years ago. She grew to womanhood on her native heath and shortly after her marriage to Mr. McLaughlin the young couple came to the United States. The first few months of their life in this country were spent in New York after which they came to Snow Shoe where they lived their permanent home. Mr. McLaughlin died about ten years ago but surviving the deceased are eight sons, namely: John, of Kansas City, Mo.; Michael, an employee at the Mountain house, Snow Shoe; William, James, Joseph and Thomas, of Snow Shoe; Andrew, of Tyrone, and Patrick, of Beech Creek. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church at Snow Shoe at ten o'clock on Monday morning by Rev. Father Connelly, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

HUTCHISON.—Following a general breakdown in health Mrs. Mary Jane Hutchison, widow of the late William Hutchison, died at her home at Warriorsmark on Saturday evening. She was a daughter of John and Mary Patterson and was born at Pennsylvania Furnace on May 22nd, 1833, hence was almost eighty-two years old. She was married to Mr. Hutchison in 1852, and he died thirty-two years ago. Her surviving children are Hon. Geo. G. Hutchison and Mrs. Elizabeth Curry, both of Warriorsmark; Lewis A., of Pittsburgh, and Edwin G., of Lancaster. She was reared in the Presbyterian faith but after her marriage transferred her membership to the Methodist Episcopal church. She was a kind-hearted, hospitable woman and was loved by all who knew her. The funeral was held from her late home on Tuesday morning, Rev. E. C. Keboch officiated and burial was made in the Warriorsmark cemetery.

CONFER.—Mrs. John Confer died quite suddenly on Monday afternoon, at her home near Jacksonville, after only a brief illness with acute indigestion. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Lucas and she was born in Howard township seventy-three years ago. She was twice married, the first time to a Mr. Mitchell and the second to Mr. Confer. The latter survives with no children. Burial was made in the Sandhill cemetery yesterday morning.

QUIGLEY.—The very sudden death of James Edwin Quigley, at his home in Pittsburgh at an early hour on Sunday morning, was quite a shock to his many friends who did not even know of his illness. In fact his death came very unexpectedly even to his family. He contracted a cold early last week and by Thursday pneumonia in a mild form developed. His condition, however, was not considered serious and up to Saturday evening he was believed to be improving. Along toward midnight he grew suddenly and alarmingly worse and his death occurred about 2.20 on Sunday morning.

He was the second son of Capt. James A. Quigley and was born at Blanchard forty-two years ago. His boyhood life was spent in that place where he received his preliminary education in the public schools. In 1890 he entered the Freshman class of The Pennsylvania State College, graduating from that institution in the class of 1894. During the ensuing five years he held positions in Buffalo and Philadelphia and in 1899 he went to Pittsburgh as district manager for the B. F. Sturtevant company. This position he held until 1902 when he resigned to become manager of the insulation department of the Armstrong Cork company. From the beginning he made good and was not only made a director of both the Armstrong Cork company and the Armstrong Cork and Insulation company but was sent abroad once or twice to look after their interests on the continent.

Mr. Quigley was well known among the leading business men of Pittsburgh and was a member of the Duquesne club, the University club, the Machinery club of New York, the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity, the Ross Mountain Park association, the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the Masonic fraternity. From the date of his graduation up until his death he took a deep interest in the welfare of State College. Since its organization he was a member of the alumni athletic advisory board and for eight years or more had been a member of the board of trustees of the College. Only recently he was made a member of the executive committee of the board of trustees.

Socially Mr. Quigley was of a most genial and democratic nature. With all his business interests in Pittsburgh he loved to come back home to Centre county and to mingle among the friends of his boyhood days, and hardly a year passed that he did not spend a week or two in a summer camp, on the banks of Fishing creek. He was a member of the Calvary Episcopal church of Pittsburgh and a man whose life was worthy of emulation.

On October 16th, 1901, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah B. Good, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Good, of Lock Haven, and she survives with five children. He also leaves his father, Capt. J. A. Quigley, residing at Beech Creek, and the following brothers and sisters: Henry C. Quigley, Esq., of Bellefonte; Richard S. Quigley, of Lock Haven; Mrs. William D. Horne, of Yonkers, New York; Mrs. George F. Hess, of Beech Creek; Miss S. Gertrude Quigley, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Catharine at home.

The remains were taken from Pittsburgh to the D. F. Good home in Lock Haven on Tuesday and funeral services were held there at eleven o'clock Wednesday morning by Rev. Lewis Nichols, after which private interment was made in Highland cemetery. A number of Bellefonte friends attended the funeral.

EWING.—Samuel Ewing died at his home at State College on Wednesday night of last week following an illness which extended over a number of years. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ewing, pioneer residents of Spruce Creek valley, and was born at Graysville on August 26th, 1843, making his age 71 years, 7 months and 12 days. He was a farmer by occupation and most of his life was spent in Ferguson and College townships until a few years ago when he retired to a comfortable home in State College.

On July 26th, 1864, he was united in marriage to Rebecca Elizabeth Corl, of Pine Grove Mills, and she survives with three children, Mrs. Edward Tyson, of Zion; Mrs. George M. Fulton, of State College, and Orvis Ewing, of Lemont. He also leaves one brother, James Ewing, of Pennsylvania Furnace, and a sister, Mrs. Ella Leech, of Mt. Union. The funeral was held at two o'clock last Saturday afternoon, burial being made in the Branch cemetery.

BECK.—Mrs. Rachel Wright Beck, wife of Isaac Beck, died at her home near Warriorsmark at 7.30 o'clock on Saturday evening aged 68 years and 9 months. She had been confined to her bed for two weeks with a dislocated ankle but the end came suddenly from diabetes. Funeral services were held at the house at two o'clock on Monday, after which the remains were taken to Adams county, her former home, where interment was made in the Friends burying ground near Flora Dale.

Mrs. Beck was a member of Bethany Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, and an exceptionally well read bible student. Her earlier years were spent in teaching, she having taught twelve years in the public schools of Centre county. She took an active interest in the work of Halfmoon Grange and for the last three years served as secretary of that body. Her only survivor is her husband, who is in his eightieth year.

BRENNAN.—The venerable Robert Brennan was found dead sitting in his favorite chair at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John H. Garman, at State College, at five o'clock last Thursday evening. Heart disease was assigned as the cause of death.

Deceased was eighty-eight years old and was born in Ireland, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brennan. He came to this country fifty-five years ago and shortly afterwards located in Bellefonte. During his residence here he followed both plumbing and masonry. Thirty-four years ago he went to farming near Fillmore and lived there until a few years ago when he moved to State College. He was a member of the Fillmore Methodist church and in politics a most enthusiastic Democrat.

His wife, who prior to her marriage was Miss Ellen Clark, died on the 23rd of last September but surviving the deceased are the following children: Mrs. John H. Garman, and Robert J. Brennan, of State College; Mrs. George Herkheimer, of Houserville, and William Brennan, of Fillmore. He also leaves two half-brothers and a half-sister. Funeral services were conducted at his late home at 10 o'clock last Saturday morning by Revs. Reilly, Lawson and Shuey, after which the remains were brought to Bellefonte over the Bellefonte Central railroad for burial in the Union cemetery.

HEPBURN.—Mrs. Nancy Elizabeth Hepburn, a well known resident of Jersey Shore, died on Tuesday following a few days illness with pleuro pneumonia. She was born in Ireland and was seventy-seven years old. Three children survive, namely: Mrs. E. T. Hepburn, of Flushing, L. I.; Matthew and William Hepburn, of Jersey Shore. Mrs. Hepburn was a cousin of Mrs. D. G. Bush and she and her children frequently visited in Bellefonte. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, burial being made in the Jersey Shore cemetery.

COXEY—ROTHROCK.—Harold Coxe, a son of Mrs. Nancy Coxe, of Boalsburg, and Miss Marjorie Rothrock, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rothrock, of the same place, motored to Bellefonte on Wednesday morning and after securing the necessary license went to the Lutheran parsonage where they were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. W. M. B. Glanding. They had luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Coxe, on Bishop street and later left on a brief wedding trip. Both young people are well known and popular in their home community. They will reside at Boalsburg.

MUSSER—SOLT.—Dale S. Musser and Miss Clara C. Solt, both of Bellefonte, were married by the Rev. E. Fulcomer, of the United Evangelical church, in their newly furnished home on east Bishop street, on Thursday of last week. The beautiful ring ceremony was used. Quite a number of guests were present from Millheim and Bellefonte.

BAUM—EDWARDS.—Maurice Baum, a son of Mr. A. Baum, of this place, and Miss Catharine O. Edwards, a daughter of Mrs. Mary Edwards, of State College, were married in Baltimore on Tuesday of last week. They will reside at State College where the bridegroom is manager of Sim the Clothier's store.

SMITH—FETTERS.—On Friday of last week Edgar H. Smith, formerly of Columbus, Ohio, and Miss Margaret E. Fetters, of Bellefonte, were united in marriage at the parsonage of the United Brethren church by the pastor, Rev. A. B. Sprague. The couple will reside in Bellefonte.

The WATCHMAN last week contained an item regarding the robbery of liveryman J. P. DeHaas, of Mill Hall, by Mr. and Mrs. Seam Royer, former Millheim residents. Since that time the authorities have unearthed the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Royer robbed the store of S. A. Wilt, at Mill Hall, and had a portion of the loot hidden in a trunk in their home. Mr. Royer was also charged with highway robbery for grabbing and getting away with the handbag of Miss Florence Kessinger, a Renovo school teacher, while she was in Lock Haven last October. The Royers were given a hearing last Saturday, Mr. Royer being held under $3,000 bail for trial at court on three charges and Mrs. Royer being held under $1,000 bail for trial on one charge. Being unable to furnish bail they were remanded to the Clinton county jail.

Two young men from Orviston were brought to Bellefonte on Sunday morning and landed in the Centre county jail on a rather serious charge. Said young men went to Beech Creek on Saturday evening and hired a horse and buggy from the livery of the Confer brothers, stating that they wanted to go to Howard. Instead of stopping there, however, they drove on up the valley and about a mile this side of Howard the horse, which was being driven very fast, dropped dead. In falling to the ground the buggy was overturned badly breaking the top and doing other damage. The accident was witnessed by another traveler and he informed the owners. B. J. Confer went to Howard and swore out a warrant for the arrest of the two men and at a hearing before Squire Hayes Schenck, they were held for trial.

They are all good enough, but the WATCHMAN is always the best.

TROUT FISHING BEGAN YESTERDAY.—The opening of the trout fishing season yesterday brought fishermen galore from various parts of Pennsylvania to try their luck in Centre county streams. Altoona, Tyrone, Milton and one or two other places furnished quite a number of expert anglers who came to Centre county on Wednesday in order to be on the ground bright and early yesterday morning. Several parties spent the night in camp on Fishing creek and were out with the first streaks of dawn.

The conditions, however, were not as good as they might have been. The morning was quite cold and the water rather lower than normal and unusually clear. These reasons are assigned for a catch that was not as big as usual on the opening day. In Bellefonte fishermen strictly observed the notices prohibiting fishing from the pavement on Water street but a dozen or more men braved the cold and waded the creek. A number made fair catches but such old-time anglers as T. Clayton Brown and Joseph Thal did not get a strike. Among the catches made were the following:

Henry Miller caught the biggest one of the day below the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania bridge. It measured 24 inches and weighed 4 1/2 pounds. Craig Grassmire, of Milesburg, caught near the black barn on Logan's branch five trout, one measuring 22 inches, one 15, two 13 and one 10 inches in length. Cyril Moerschbacher got 16 at his morning's fishing; James Clark got 10, Thomas E. Mayes 6, John Bower 10, Kline Woodring 6, William Hull 9, and F. W. Crider 1, but it was over a foot long and he was as pleased as any fisherman could be. Harry Breon, of Axe Mann, caught 8; William Ryan 4, John Curtin 2, Jack Montgomery 5.

A few Bellefonters journeyed down Fishing creek but they would probably have fared better either on Spring Creek or on Logan's branch. The banks of Fishing creek were lined with men and no unusually big catches were reported. Boyd Carner, of Hubersburg, got 8, and this was the biggest catch heard of on that stream.

GROCERY STORE CHANGES OWNERS.—The deal was closed on Monday whereby Claude Herr and Alfred Heverly became the purchasers of the Robert Morris grocery store on Allegheny street, taking charge of the same yesterday. Mr. Morris retired on account of his health, the confining indoor work being too much for him. Mr. Herr, of the new firm, has for several years been timekeeper for the American Lime & Stone company at the Armor Gap plant. He is an energetic, progressive young man and is well liked by all who know him. Mr. Heverly has had years of experience in the grocery business, first with C. C. Shuey and of late with Hazel Bros. With their knowledge and business experience they will no doubt get their share of the business of Bellefonte and vicinity.

HUNTINGDON PRESBYTERY NOTES.—The spring meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery was held at Winburne on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The following officers were elected for the ensuing six months: The Rev. William C. Thomas was elected moderator; the Rev. Walter K. Harnish permanent clerk and the Rev. Homer Frontman, reading clerk.

The Rev. John Marshman, of State College, was received from Marion Presbytery. The Hon. John Hamilton, of State College, was elected a trustee of Presbytery to succeed Mr. Budd Thompson whose term had expired.

At the April meeting of the Bellefonte Chapter of the D. A. R., held at Miss Rhoads' last Friday evening, and at which Miss Rhoads and Mrs. R. C. Weston were hostesses, the annual election of officers was held. Mrs. John Porter Lyon was made regent; Mrs. G. G. Pond, of State College, vice-regent; Mrs. John I. Olewien, recording secretary; Mrs. John Van Pelt, corresponding secretary; Miss Mary S. Thomas, treasurer; Mrs. James A. Beaver, registrar, and Miss Eliza Egbert Morris, historian. The members of the board of management being Mrs. A. O. Furst, Miss Overton, Mrs. Sparks and Mrs. Hastings.

GOLF CLUB ORGANIZED.—The golf enthusiasts of the Nittany Country club have organized a golf club and elected the following officers: President, Dr. David Dale; secretary, Edmund Blanchard; treasurer, John Curtin; chairman of the committee on greens, J. Norman Sherer. Last summer the original course was increased to six holes, making a very sportsmanlike course. More work will be done this spring to put the course in good condition and then the club members expect to make some low scores.

One day last week Jacob Bechdel, of Romola, made a trip to Beech Creek to do some marketing. From Beech Creek he went to Blanchard and there discovered that he had lost a roll of bills amounting to fifty dollars. He immediately went back to Beech Creek but failed to find the roll, either along the road or in any store in Beech Creek that he had visited.

Dr. Henning, of Pittsburgh, has leased the stone residence of Mrs. Frank Warfield, on Curtin street, and with Mrs. Henning will come to Bellefonte next Monday to take up their residence. Dr. Henning will be associated with the Bellefonte Engineering company.
