HUSBAND AND WIFE IN TOILS OF THE LAW.-During the past two or three years Mr. and Mrs. John Sucic, an Italian couple, conducted a boarding house and commissary down at the Red Roost. They had a number of boarders who paid $9.50 every two weeks, and in addition they furnished liquid refreshments for their boarders which was extra. Mrs. Sucic was the treasurer of the family and also paymaster. All bills were paid to her and even Mr. Sucic turned his money over to her. On the 28th of March she disappeared very unexpectedly and Mr. Sucic claimed that between $800 and $900 of his money went with her. Of course he did not like to lose all that money so he swore out a warrant for the arrest of his wife on the charge of larceny. It was some days before the authorities got any trace of the woman, but they finally learned that she went from Bellefonte to Isett, Blair county, where she was seen in company with a rather good-looking countryman. She remained there only one day when she went to Altoona.

In the meantime Sucic had been instituting a search on his own hook and learning that his wife was in Altoona went there and endeavored to persuade her to return home with him. She declined to do so and later had a warrant sworn out for the arrest of her husband on the chrage of threatening her life. Sucic was arrested on Tuesday and a short time afterwards Mrs. Sucic was taken into custody in Altoona by constable Horace Musser. The woman was brought to Bellefonte Tuesday evening and her husband came along as a witness

Mrs. Sucic was given a hearing before of years but surviving her are the foljustice of the peace W. H. Musser Wednesday morning and evidence was presented by her husband showing that she got away with all his money, and in addition left a number of unpaid bills in Bellefonte. At the conclusion of the hearing 'Squire Musser discharged the woman for lack of justifiable evidence. Mr. Sucic was returned to Blair county where he will have to stand trial on the State College. Funeral services were held at her late charge preferred by his wife.

Our Weekly Summary of Legislative Activities.

Senator VARE of Philadelphia is "some" reformer. Every Monday evening he comes forward with a resolution which radiates sympathy for the "plain peepul." This week he proposed a probe to ascertain "the cause of the raise in the price of anthracite coal by operators or dealers." His plan is a commission of three and provides for a report in January, 1916, to the Governor and a supplementary deliverance to the Legislature in 1917. There is an appropriation, of course, of $10,000, the standard for transcient commissions, and the "soulless corporations" will be placed on the spit to squirm. It would be hard to dig up more available campaign material for a candidate for Mayor of a metropolis or Governor of a great Commonwealth.

A fight against the Governor's child labor bill in the Senate has been organized and it looks formidable. It opened on Monday with a protest to the Governor by a delegation of Northumberland county manufacturers and continued in a public hearing before the Senate Committee on Judiciary Special, yesterday. After the personal interview with the Governor the Committee sent him a statement which intimated that he not only doesn't understand the meaning of words but that his knowledge of industrial life and conditions is exceedingly meager. In other words the new fight upon the question will be "to the hilt" and however it ends will leave scars that will endure a long time. The public hearing on Tuesday developed nothing except a ruffianly exchange of epithets between Senator VARE and JOSEPH R. GRUNDY, president of the Manufacturers' Association.

The coal miners have been finally brought within the provisions of the workmen's compensation law by an amendment to the CATLIN bill adopted yesterday in the Senate. The House voted yesterday for the bill taking from the Public Service Commission power over municipal affairs and during three sessions passed various other bills some of which had already been passed by the Senate and are now ready for the Governor. In fact both Houses are making such progress with legislation that final adjournment on May 6th is highly probable.

A PECULIAR MARITAL MIX-UP .- About two years ago Foster D. Weaver went from State College to Altoona, where he had secured employment, but his wife refused to accompany him to the Mountain city. On February 16th, 1914, Weaver filed a petition for divorce in the Blair county court on the charge of desertion and M. M. Morrow was appointed a master to take testimony. He subsequently heard Mr. Weaver's statement but desired further evidence. As this was not produced he so reported to the court and his appointment was revoked.
