

With the Churches of the County.

Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.

Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m., 9½ E. High street.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH NEWS.

The Rt. Rev. James H. Darlington, Bishop of Harrisburg, will confirm and preach in St. John's Episcopal church on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

The Holy Communion will be celebrated at eight o'clock. The evening service will be omitted.

An informal reception will be held in honor of the Bishop in the parish house on Saturday evening at 8:45 prompt.

The Laymen's club will hold their first meeting since Lent in the parish house on Tuesday evening. As each member is to bring either his wife or lady friend, and with the excellent program provided, President Valentine should see an uncommonly large attendance at this meeting.

NEXT SUNDAY AT LUTHERAN CHURCH.

During the services of five successive Sunday evenings at 7:30 o'clock in the Lutheran church, the pastor, Rev. Wm. M. B. Glanding, will speak on "Profanity."

The topic of the first sermon next Sunday evening, April 25th, will be "Our Country noted as a Nation of Swearers." The subject of the morning sermon at 10:45 o'clock will be "Gossip." Watch the bulletin board in front of the church.

WM. M. B. GLANDING.

The Bellefonte Lodge of the I. O. O. F. will attend service Sabbath morning at the Presbyterian church. The pastor, Dr. G. E. Hawes, will preach a special sermon. The wives and members of the families of the order are invited to attend with the men.

During Tuesday afternoon's storm the wind blew the chimney off of the Presbyterian chapel. Old Boreas seems to have it in for our Presbyterian brethren. A roof was blown off of a building in Crider's lumber yard and on Logan street fifty feet of boardwalk were lifted by the wind and carried as neatly as possible up onto the terrace in front of the house.

The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church will hold a sale of bread, cakes, pies, etc., as well as plain sewing, in the room in Bush Arcade recently occupied by Eckenroth, all day tomorrow, April 24th. Your patronage is solicited.

Miss Margaret Walsh after completing her course in training as a professional nurse, has located in New York city, where she has accepted the position as night Supervisor of the Misericordia hospital on 86th street.

General manager S. C. Long, of the Pennsylvania railroad company, and a party of railroad officials made an inspection trip over the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad yesterday.

ADDITIONAL COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

EAST BRUSHVALLEY.

Norman Zeigler is at present nursing the mumps.

Howard Weaver spent last Saturday in Spring Mills.

Miss Mary Stover is at present sewing at Geo. H. Showers.

Pasture is short, feed being exhausted, cattle looking hard.

Our farmers are through sowing oats. Hurrah for the corn!

Mrs. Mary Miller, we are glad to hear, has greatly improved.

Commencement exercises on Friday evening in Rebersburg: Dont forget.

Many bare spots are seen in the wheat fields. The frost raised the wheat and clover.

C. C. Mallory and O. F. Stover have sent for incubators. The old biddy turns traitor.

Our end was well represented at the baccalaureate services in Rebersburg on Sunday evening.

The lime pit built by Robt. Meyer will be ignited as soon as more moisture saturates mother earth.

Mrs. Wm. Tarbert, of Pittsburgh, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mallory, living at Shady Side.

A light bay horse named, "Ephriam Ebenezer" was placed in a barn in this section on Sunday and seemed somewhat tired. Whose was it?

Several of D. F. Stover's horses contracted severe colds last week and were under the veterinary surgeon's care from Sunday up to this time.

The Rebersburg carpentering crew is busy roofing one of the largest barns in the valley. It is owned by H. H. Royer and tenanted by Samuel Mowery.

If President Wilson is to be given all the honor for the fine fertility of the soil, this spring, as has been stated last week; who keeps it so dry? Is that local option?

Tom Harter and Jacob Winklebich inspected Jas. T. Corman's timber tract last week. This is one of the finest tracts standing in this section but was greatly damaged by December's ice and snow.

AARONSBURG.

Prof. C. E. Edmunds, of Frieland, was the welcome guest of his mother.

John D. Bower, of Northumberland, was the welcome guest of Thomas Hull, on north Second street, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. E. J. Desher is quite ill at her home on Front street. She is being cared for very well by her niece, Miss Mary Stahl.

Mrs. George McKay and daughter Florence, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Mrs. McKay's mother, Mrs. N. H. Phillips.

James Roush is slowly improving from a serious illness, namely, blood poisoning. We hope to see him about town soon again.

Mrs. J. G. Eisenhauer has returned home from Montandon, where she had gone to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Hannah Reed.

Messrs. Al and Wm. Stumpf, of Altoona, were in town for a day, paying their aged brother, E. H. Stumpf, a visit. Mr. John Stumpf, of Altoona, was also a guest over Sunday under the parental roof. We are glad to hear of the improvement of Mr. Stumpf, who has been in a critical condition for a few weeks. May he soon be able to assume his former duties and customs.

On Sunday forenoon the mountains north of town in some way were set on fire, followed by a strong wind which carried the fire still further in various directions. A goodly number of men from the town hid themselves mountainward and nobly fought against the flames. They, however, could not do the impossible, so there was a great loss to a number of people who owned wood-land. There is still fire but unless a strong wind arises it can be kept under control.

REBERSBURG.

"Brevity is the soul of wit."

Full report next week of the High school graduation.

The mumps still linger lovingly to the throats of spring beauty.

Lloyd Walker is a visitor at the parental home, and looks his best.

Forest fires rage and the state fire-bug commission affords no protection.

Farmer Nevt. Weber has been in the field with two teams by sun-up, the past week.

Wilson Cole returned home from Huntingdon county to attend to his spring horticulture.

Mrs. Lottie Mallory, of Pittsburgh, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mallory.

Miss Grace Brungart and Miss Verna Reish were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brungart the past week.

Prof. Samuel A. Bierly has planted five acres of potatoes. It took more than thirty bushels of seed potatoes.

Three times the surveyors have stuck stakes into our roads and yet we have as good roads as the best state roads!

"Hacky" spent this week at home, having made enough the past few weeks on the road to last over the rainy season.

Ad Wolf was one of the heroic fire fighters to help surround the brush fire which got away from Jerome Brungart's.

Many fair ones visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frank the past week. Wait until the roses and lilacs bloom again.

The Winklebich contract of sawing on the Dan Royer tract was completed this week, the last timber sawed being hickory planks.

Harry Hubler has re-taken his old position with the Electrical Mastodon at Wilmerding, and expects to remove with his wife and daughter to Pittsburgh.

C. Mac Granley started in his auto Monday morning to make a tour of Athens, Lawrenceville, Elmira, Corning and other Empire State Granges for the I. H. Co.

Thomas Walker, who has been an invalid for several years, has shown great improvement the past two weeks, as the vernal breezes blow and inspire one with fresh vigor.

Miss Mattie Douty, having finished a successful term of teaching at Pine Grove, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Yearick, of Avis, to which Jersey Shore is the ancient suburb.

Some man with a generous heart as big as that of a horse, one night last week dug the garden of Mrs. Abbie Woodling, so that she can now plant it with rejoicing and hope.

This (Friday) evening our schoolatics will give a treat of what they dipped deep from the Florian Spring, and we will expect a flow of rhetoric like the waters that murmur over the golden sands of Pactolus!

The great music house of Heppes, Chestnut street, Philadelphia, has not only made a noble endowment of $50,000 for charity, but they will soon give away one hundred pianos to as many worthy families. Send us one by parcel post.

James Harbaugh has been busy remodeling George Miller's residence and attachments the past week. When George was asked why he was putting a tin roof on his wood-house, he replied: "you-to keep dry what's under of course."

Many bundles of fruit trees have come to this valley the past week. W. R. Bierly has received over three hundred apple, pear, peach, plum, cherry and quince trees, with abundant roots, which augur well for their growth, when properly planted.

The funeral services over the remains of W. J. Condo were held in the Lutheran church on Tuesday. Deceased was a son of Joseph Condo and was born in Rebersburg about 63 years ago. He died at Danville, after some years of mental affliction.

On Sunday evening Rev. Metzger, the pastor, preached the baccalaureate sermon for the High school class of 1915, in which David preferred the woman as the corner stone. The sermon was a well-studied effort. Mr. Gault, of Chicago, sang artistically a suitable baritone solo, accompanied by Mrs. M. C. Haines, as organist.

Miss Alberta Stover and her sister Blanche report having had an enjoyable visit in Philadelphia. Miss Stover took special instructions from a master at Coombs' Conservatory. When she showed her music phrased by Prof. Karl Reeo Bierly, of Harrisburg, he was surprised and asked who did it. When told, he remarked that her tutor understood his business.

Charles H. Small conveyed Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Bierley to Lock Haven a week ago to visit Mrs. Bierley's sister, Mrs. John Brown. They stopped en route at Mackeyville and visited Prof. Thomas Jefferson Small, the patriarch of merchants, a native of Brushvalley. Mr. Small, although past 81 years old, is a lively up-to-date business man, his store vying with the old curiosity shop, described by Dickens. He treated the men to the best cigars.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

J. Herbert Ward, of Trererton, was greeting old cronies last week.

A gent's gold finger ring can be had by calling on your correspondent.

James Keller, farmer and lumberman, of Stonevalley, transacted business here Friday.

Mrs. L. H. Osman is suffering from a bilious attack but is now somewhat improved.

Misses Kate Dunlap and Nancy Pearson went to Altoona Monday on a shopping tour.

Oscar Rishel is handling the yard stick behind the counter in the E. C. Ross store Lemont.

Frank Homan is having his barn re-roofed with galvanized iron. Sim Ward has the job.

Mrs. John Coleman, of Altoona, is here for a two week's visit among friends at Houseville.

Major Snyder spent part of last week with his old friend, Capt. J. A. Quigley, at Blanchard.

Mrs. Alice Williams is visiting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Annie Williams, in Altoona, with hopes of regaining her health.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gates and Mr. and Mrs. George Irvin autored down Spruce Creek valley on Sunday in the former's Reo car.

The Walker family express their appreciation of the kindness shown them by many friends during the illness and death of Mrs. Walker and child.

W. S. Ward Jr., left Friday for Elizabethtown, N. J., to engage as traveling salesman during the next few months, after which he intends entering college with an M. D. in view.

Hon. J. T. McCormick has signed up for a five passenger Reo machine, and Bert Musser for a five passenger Metz car. J. D. Dreiblebis is manipulating a brand new five passenger Buick machine.

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. J. A. Cramer, of State College, gave a dinner and party for nine little girls in celebration of the ninth birthday anniversary of her niece, Elizabeth Miller. The little Misses had a very pleasant afternoon.

During his sermon in the Presbyterian church last Sunday Rev. Samuel Martin suddenly lost his speech and was unable to finish his discourse. He is now improving and it is hoped will soon have his voice back with its old time vigor.

During the Walker funeral on Wednesday the streets were crowded with vehicles of all kinds and in some way J. M. Hubler drove his automobile into the rear end of E. C. Musser's new Cadillac car. Musser's car was damaged but very little but the windshield on Hubler's car was broken and the front axle bent.

Our popular young divine, Rev. L. S. Spangler, has accepted a call to Everet, and handed in his resignation last Sunday, to take effect the first Sunday in May. Rev. J. I. Stonecypher resigned the Boalsburg charge the same day, to take effect the first Sunday of May. He has accepted a call at Jonestown, Pa.

Little Gertrude Bowersox came near being killed on Sunday. She was with her father in the barnyard and in an unguarded moment a vicious cow rushed at the child knocking her to the ground and making a desperate effort to gore her. Her screams attracted her father who, with a pitchfork drove the enraged animal away. A few bruises about the head and face were the only injuries.

A delightful birthday surprise party was given Frank Homan, at his home at White Hall last Saturday evening. The affair was planned by his wife, Mrs. Mabel Homan. Early in the evening she induced her husband to go with her to Pine Grove Mills and when they returned they found their home thronged with friends. It was Mr. Homan's twenty-fifth anniversary and he received quite a number of remembrances. Refreshments were served during the evening and all present had an enjoyable time.

The commencement exercises of the Ferguson township High school were held in the I. O. O. F. hall last Friday evening. The hall was appropriately decorated with flowers and the class colors and a large crowd was present. The State College orchestra furnished the music. Miss Naomi Stover was the class valedictorian, while each of the members orated in a very creditable manner. The commencement address was delivered by Rev. John Marshman, who gave the graduates some very good advice.
