

ADDITIONAL COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

REBERSBURG.

In drought all signs fail.
Bradford sands have been struck by the oil augur.
Mr. John Rupp spent Sunday with Jerome Moyer.
Aily Breen's lime stack smoketh curling towards the clouds.
Mrs. H. K. Smull has been under the doctor's care the past week.
Wm. Mitterling, of Centre Hall, was a Saturday visitor at Sam'l S. Shaffer's.
Millheim hatters and clothiers are overwhelmed with Rebersburg trade.
Russell Auman was slightly afflicted with tonsillitis the fore part of the week.
Harvey Corman and son Harry spent the week end at Houston, visiting Solomon Peck.
Dr. and Mrs. Kelley, of State College, spent a few days visiting at the home of Hon. Henry Meyer.

Added to oil and gas on Jake Gephart's farm, is the reputed find of gold and silver on the Schroyer ranche.
On Monday a new star spangled baby boy came to the home of Wilbur Diehl. Mother and child are doing well.
Numerous residential improvements are being made in this valley, which keeps our dandy carpenters hopping.
Mrs. Ida Harter and Mrs. Ethel Hubler have erected a modern iron fence along their handsome residential properties.
The Girl's club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of P. Diehl, Gladys Hackenberg. Subject, Josef Hoffmann.

A good story, apropos, is told by "Hackie" in which an amorous swain, who dotes on married dames, figures abnormally.
Mrs. Ammon Hazel, accompanied by her daughter Gladys, was a visitor of her many friends here on Saturday, returning on Monday.
The horse sale on Friday did not pan out as well as the Kansas sale. Farmers are too busy attending to the stock they have already bought.

Norman Douty made a business trip to the county town on Saturday and incidentally visited his sister, Mrs. Breen, at Coburn, over Sunday.
One who has not as yet had an attack of spring fever is Ernest P. Bierly. He arises every morn at four A. M. How long will it hold out, Ernie?

Wesley J. Hackenberg has planted a large plat of strawberries with a benign intent of having crushed fruit to flavor his ice cream in the sultry summer eves.
We will soon have to rebuild the asphalt pavements, if the walking in the stary evenings does not slacken up a little, especially on Saturday nights.

Norman Douty, an excellent and energetic young man, will be in charge of the subscription department of the WATCHMAN. Give him your subscription and aid a worthy cause.
We have not heard of any very great trout catches this season, whereabouts. The best trout stream is Fishing creek, in Sugar valley, and last summer the State fisheries let millions of trout perish therein.

After the funeral services of James Miller, on Monday, Mrs. Robert Hackenberg, became suddenly faint and ill at the church vestibule and was conveyed to the home of her son, W. J. Hackenberg, suffering intensely.
Miss Mary Bright, who has pursued her musical art at Temple University, Philadelphia, so strenuously and successfully, returned home for the commencement at which her twin sisters graduated with honors. She will remain here for some time to recuperate her vitality.

Now it would be a surprise to the present generation of college bred eaters if the day dreams of our plain ancestors would be realized and both gold and silver be found in paying quantities in these mountains. Let the State College send one of its puero professors of mineralogy down to examine the rocks and gullies.
On Monday morning the funeral services over the remains of the late James Miller, of Smulton, were conducted in the Lutheran church by pastor Metzger, in the presence of a large assemblage of mourning friends.
He and his good spouse, who survives him, raised a large family of children, some of whom preceded him to the Home Supernal. Among them are Rev. Luther Miller, George Miller, the latter of Lock Haven, and Elmer, of Rockville.

The funeral of Mrs. William Meyer, of Logan, was held at the Reformed church on Saturday morning, by Rev. G. A. Stauffer. Mrs. Meyer was a daughter of John Weaver and sister of Danl. Weaver of Wolf's Store, where she was born about sixty-eight years ago. She is survived by her husband, a daughter, who married Roland Frantz, of Tyersville, and two sons, who reside near Logan. Mrs. Meyer had been an invalid for several years, following paralysis, and required constant care.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

A general store will soon be opened up in the Tate block.
—George Smith is now driving around in a new Ford car.
Funeral director A. J. Tate has received an up-to-date funeral car.
The stork was busy in this neighborhood on Monday, leaving nice little girls at the homes of Frank Fishburn and Harry Musser.

A Lawyer received $10,000 for suggesting these words to a railroad. The sign, "Stop, Look, Listen!" saved the road many thousands of dollars in damages. It's a good sign. It's worth $10,000. Wise people are often warned by a similar sign on the road of extravagance. They stop in time. How about yourself? Think this over seriously. A bank account is the Best Kind of Security at any time.
