Service Sunday 10:45 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m., 9 1/2 E. High street.

PROFANITY III.
The third sermon on Profanity will be given next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Lutheran church, by the pastor, Rev. W. M. B. Glanding. "What Does Satan Pay You for Swearing?" "Nothing." "You Work for the Devil very Cheaply."

The topic of the morning sermon will be, "Mother's Day." Wear a flower in honor of mother.

W. M. B. GLANDING, Pastor.

White carnations! Or some other white flower will be worn on Sabbath by every person in Bellefonte. It is Mother's Day. And every person will want to show honor to mother, and her religion, by attending church service. At the Presbyterian church the service in the morning will seek to extol the volume, mother prized most. "Mother's Bible" is the theme selected by Dr. Hawes. Put on a white flower; get a clean mind; and go to this church and worship Mother's God. The Home Department of the school will be in evidence.

UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH.
Mother's Day will be observed on Sunday in the United Evangelical church of Bellefonte. The mothers are cordially invited to be present, and the families and friends of the church and congregation.

On May 18th to 20th the Ministerial, Sunday school and K. L. C. E. convention of Centre District of the United Evangelical church will be held in the United Evangelical church of Bellefonte. Papers on the church, Sunday school and Christian Endeavor will be read and discussed by the ministers and delegates. The public is cordially invited to all these services.

BOOKS, MAGAZINES, Etc.
If you live within one hundred miles of Philadelphia you live in Philadelphia Record territory just as surely as if you resided within reach of the shadow of Billy Penn on top of the City Hall. This is to say that the Philadelphia Record has its eye on what is going on in all the communities in which you are particularly interested.

You can get a circumscribed view of your immediate surroundings from a neighboring hill-top. You can see a little farther from a captive balloon. Through the columns of the Philadelphia Record, however, you can get a bird's-eye view of a thousand or more of cities, towns and villages in four thickly populated States.

Of course, the city newspaper reaches out all over the world for the news. But in the sifting of news in the Record office its value to people in Record territory is kept constantly in mind. The handling of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland news in the Record is an important factor in making that paper the favorite in those States. Another factor is the ability with which its feature departments are conducted and their value in the suburban and rural home. Still another and not the least important is the accuracy, fairness, cleanliness and wholesomeness of the Philadelphia Record from the first page to the last.

The Sunday Record is a bigger and better daily Record, with magazine and comic supplements and a still greater volume and variety of reading matter for leisure hours. The daily and Sunday issues of the Philadelphia Record ought to be in every home in their territory, not to supplant, but to supplement, the excellent local papers with which this part of the country abounds.

"STOP, LOOK, LISTEN!"

A Lawyer received $10,000 for suggesting these words to a railroad. The sign, "Stop, Look, Listen!" saved the road many thousands of dollars in damages. It's a good sign. It's worth $10,000. Wise people are often warned by a similar sign on the road of extravagance. They stop in time. How about yourself? Think this over seriously. A bank account is the Best Kind of Security at any time.
