REBERSBURG.

who might auto over to Millheim during the calepatics and be done Brown according to the new gospel of St. Paul! The night trips afford an excellent opportunity for spooning, too.

We have the best as well as the worst roads in the world here, notwithstanding the State Highwaymen have gone over them three or four times. But our people pay their taxes in cash and say: "Let Dagoes work on the roads!"

The patrons of Miss Alberta Stover urge her to give a musical recital of her pupils, at the end of this term, in one of the churches; which she is considering, if she can secure certain outside aid in the entertainment. Good project!

Citizens of Rebersburg who pride themselves upon the pretty verdant lawns in front of their residences should get busy now before that State-graft scraper commences work on them up. There will be a chance to vote for supervisors soon again.

The Inn'd Long continues to have its share of trade, but there is still room for summer boarders, where the leanest city steer can be fattened up like a country born cherub before he kicks up his heels and prances home to his city fish bones and chow chow!

The memorial address on Decoration day will be delivered by Henry Meyer Jr., a son of a veteran. The exercises will take place in Union cemetery on Monday forenoon. The patriotic sermon will be delivered on Sunday by pastor Metzger, in the Lutheran church.

The seats in the auditorium of the Lutheran church will be raised gradually towards the entrance so that those who occupy the "sinner's rows" may get an equal share of heavenly incense with the favored and sanctified ones on the front pews. This is scriptural; for, does not God send his beneficent showers alike upon the corn of the unjust as well as the just?

At Rebersburg Saturday evening, June 5th, a meeting will be held in the High school room at 8 o'clock. Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mills Beach, of Bellefonte, will speak on "Woman's Suffrage" and it is to be hoped that both men and women will attend. Hon. C. L. Gramley, who has always stood for Woman's Suffrage, has interested himself in making this meeting a success.

Now, when cultivated flowers are in bloom, it is well to remember that there is a law, passed June 18th, 1895 (P. L. 196) which provides a penalty not exceeding $50, for willfully taking or carrying away, among other things, any fruit or vegetable, plants, nuts or berries, or any fruit or ornamental trees, vines or shrubs, whether or not attached to the soil. Even a shrub that is worth taking is worth asking for.

There will be no constitutional convention. Nobody clamored for it, but a lot of bunco graftsmen from Philadelphia. A constitutional amendment will be submitted permitting the Philadelphia serfs to tax themselves to China and there be embalm in Buddhist bonds or smoked in Shinto sacrifices. When we, up here, want a new constitution we will have a representative body like the convention of 1873, with county delegates.

Our farmers here wonder how many sheaflets of dirt Judge Orvis and the rest of the Bellefonte, Centre Hall and Millheim auto-speeders turned, with beads of sweat rolling down their classic brows, in the case of "Good Roads," on Brumbaugh day, Wednesday! Let the WATCHMAN reporters duly report. Perhaps we may change our sneers for worshipful praise, especially if Brumbaugh himself got a little "Merde" on his pedagogic overalls!

Last week an outing party consisting of J. R. Brungart, James P. Frank, W. S. Miller and A. N. Corman, with Harry W. Royer in his new Leo car, took their annual trip to Lewistown, Selingsgrove, Northumberland, Lewisburg, and Millifield, visiting friends at seventeen different places. Among those visited was our former citizen, Newton Brungart, whom they found in excellent health and spirits, and comfortably installed in his new home. The whole journey, nearly 150 miles, was made in a day and the gentlemen all enjoyed the thrifty sights of prosperous farms and towns en route.

Our antiquarians challenge the main points of Romancer Shoemaker's silly story about the lovers lost in Penn's Cave in 1846. In its descriptive features they say it should have been accurate. For example: The Long Narrows never were over fourteen miles long from Hock's to Stover's. Then there was no postoffice at Stover's. So there could not be a little lithe willow, cerulean eyed and saffron headed Sapho of the post mistress variety whether named Hager, Haggerty or Hopdedoodle Dandy. In 1846, Ruber Stover was hardly old enough to play even a corn-fiddle, though about ten years later, he was a member of the famous Rebersburg string band, it is said. Penn's Cave as a trysting place for lovers and bats was not known to geophiles and "farmavir-unique cano," until long after the Civil war. Try another last, Shoemaker!

LEMONT.

Samuel Stover and family spent Sunday among friends in Boalsburg.

Mrs. Margaret Williams, who has been quite ill for some time, has not improved much.

John I. Williams has been appointed postmaster of Lemont, and will soon take up his duties.

The heavy rains that have fallen within the last week will make vegetation grow providing it gets warmer.

A large wild cat or a Canadian Lynx, was seen by Edward Williams while traveling along Nittany mountain, one day last week.

William Ludwig has come in from Ebensburg to visit his many friends in these parts, it being many years since he visited this town.

Last Sunday night the stable owned by William Shuey was set on fire in some way, and burned to the ground, that being the third building near here that has been burned within the last seven weeks, and it should be looked into, for it is feared that someone may be doing it, and if so, he should be brought to justice.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Farmer Will Wertz and wife have the auto fever bad.

Mrs. Lodie Decker, of State College, was here over Sunday.

Fred Goss' many friends will be glad to learn of his recovery.

Mrs. Maude McCormick, of Scranton, with her two sturdy youngsters, is visiting friends at State College.

Wilson Logan, a former Centre county, now of Manor Hill, was greeting old-time friends here last week.

Mrs. Marion Ilingsworth, with her daughter Ruth, spent Tuesday in Bellefonte on a shopping expedition.

Mrs. George W. Weaver and Mrs. J. A. Weaver, of Altoona, are here looking after the late Mary Hess estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel I. Corl were Baileyville visitors Friday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamill Goheen.

J. E. Reed is building an addition to his barn, in which to store his bumper crops. John McEwen has the job.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Homan, of Centre Hall, greeted old-time friends in the Glades on a motor tour Thursday.

Rev. R. N. Ilingsworth will fill the pulpit in the Presbyterian church the first Sabbath in June, at 7:30 p. m.

William Garner, I. O. Campbell's right bower on the farm, is doing jury work at the Temple of Justice this week.

E. S. Tressler, who is holding down a fat job in the state highway department at Everett, was home over Sunday.

Dr. J. Baker Krebs, of Northumberland, is here whipping the streams and reports a fairly good catch of the finny tribe.

Mrs. Henry Gingerich, of Linden Hall, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday visiting and looking over the summer fashions.

Mrs. James Harpster is suffering with a nervous breakdown, and her son Adam is housed up with a bad gash in his foot.

D. C. Krebs and wife, in their new Ford, motored over from State College and spent Sunday afternoon with relatives in town.

Mrs. Ella Gardner and sister, Bella Goheen, have reopened their house at Rock Springs, to run for the summer season.

Mrs. A. W. Dale and Mrs. Luther Dale, of Boalsburg, were entertained at dinner Thursday at the W. T. Lytle home at Rock Springs.

We are sorry to note the serious illness of grandmother Elizabeth Williams, who suffered a stroke of paralysis at her home at Lemont.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Murphy have been spending the past week visiting friends at New Bloomfield, the home of Mrs. Murphy's childhood.

The stork was busy last week leaving sweet little girls at the homes of Rev. N. L. Horn, Al Bowersox and Chas. Mothersbaugh. All are doing nicely.

Mrs. Berth Smith and little son, of Juniata, who had been at Lemont for a week visiting her mother, Mrs. Emma Dale, left for her home on Tuesday.

Miss Lena Weiland, of Lebanon, has been visiting old friends and neighbors in the valley the past week, and reports that they like their new home very much.

Paul Tate, one of uncle Sam's R. F. D. agents at Philipsburg, with three friends, spent Sunday at the Tate home on Water street. Miss Helen Tate is this week a Philipsburg visitor.

S. D. Neidigh and daughter Mary, and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Neidigh, in the former's new Ford car, autoed to Woodward Friday and were among the mourners at the Michael Hess funeral.

John Reed has purchased the well known Bell home at Rock Springs, to which he and his good wife will retire next spring from a long, active farmer's life, for a well deserved rest.

"Squire Musser and wife, of Bellefonte, spent several days in town last week, looking up old friends. They are arranging to spend several days in Philadelphia visiting their son and other relatives.

In the absence of the regular pastor, L. S. Spangler, who was preaching at Everett, Pa., last Sunday, the Lutheran pulpit was very ably filled by Rev. Shaffer, of Selingsgrove, a very eloquent pulpit orator.

Herman Griffin has been appointed postmaster at Stormstown to take charge as soon as his bond is approved. He is a son of that worthy Democrat, J. H. Griffin, and we feel sure the plum could not have fallen in a better spot.

Robt. Pennington Campbell and wife motored here Thursday for a day's visit.

ing at the home of his birth. Robert is the popular proprietor at that famous summer resort, Penns Cave, the most historic spot in Central Pennsylvania for tourists and travelers to tarry at.

Dr. Marvin Chadman and wife, of Lancaster, registered at the St. Elmo the latter part of the week. They have a son enrolled as a student at State College and are naturally looking after his welfare. The doctor is a former Erbtown boy and his many friends will be glad to know that he has a lucrative practice as an M. D. in Lancaster.

About two weeks ago the remains of Mrs. P. W. Burket were exhumed from Meek's cemetery and laid to rest beside those of her husband in Gray's cemetery. About the same time the remains of Mrs. Ellen Fisher were also raised from Meek's cemetery and interred beside those of Mrs. Mary Hess in the new cemetery at Pine Grove Mills.

The services of the Boal band have been secured for Memorial day at Pine Grove Mills, tomorrow (Saturday) at 1:30 p. m., when the parade will form on the Diamond near the town hall. Rev. John Marsham will preach the Memorial sermon to the G. A. R. Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m., in the Presbyterian church.

The citizens are earnestly invited to be with the old matrons in honor of their comrades who rest in peace.

A letter from a far away Centre county, Daniel McBride, of Oklahoma, has the right ring relative to the proposed Pine Grove Mills Academy reunion during Old Home week. Dan was in the Senior class with James A. Beaver, J. E. Thomas, J. M. Kepler, H. A. Thompson, Robert Meek, Jim Gibboney, Asbury Oaks and a number of others from 1852-'55. Dan seems to be brim full of reminiscences of that early date and says he has not forgotten the girls of the class. He is very anxious for a get-together meeting somewhere and sometime during the Old Home week.

The Centre County Pomona Grange held its spring meeting at Leonard Grange hall, Rock Springs, last Thursday. The meeting was presided over by W. A. Dale, Master. D. S. Peterson, of Leonard Grange, made a brief address of welcome which was responded to by Prof. Neff, of Centre Hall. D. F. Keller, secretary of the Patrons of Husbandry Fire Insurance company, gave an itemized statement of the business of the company for the past year, all of which was very satisfactory.

S. W. Smith, of Centre Hall, reported that the Patrons telephone company was in a flourishing condition, with all obligations settled and a balance in the hands of the treasurer. Hon. Leonard Rhone made a speech in which he thoroughly sifted the present methods of state highway construction. His remarks meeting with the approval of the members present, though they might not be appreciated by the state highway officials. When the noon hour arrived a delicious dinner was served by the lady members of the Grange. Immediately after dinner the visitors were shown around the town, and especially the Rock spring, from which the town takes its name. This spring, by the way, is virtually a small river and flows out of a rock cavern sixty feet in height and about thirty in width. It is the source of Spruce creek, and is one of the most beautiful springs of Centre county.

At the afternoon session the Grange Encampment committee made a report and various questions of interest to the Grange were discussed. A large class was given the Pomona degree and after a vote of thanks to the members of Leonard Grange for the royal entertainment given the meeting adjourned.
