Democratic Matchman

Belletonte, Pa., May 28, 1915.

TO CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications d unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY. ercises began on Sunday evening with Houser.

----The dish of the hour-Candyland's famous Real Ice Cream.

-Every person in the United States, the doors. ten years old or over, may open an account in a postal savings bank after July Samuel, 3: 9: "Speak, Lord, for Thy Serfirst. Full information may be obtained vant Heareth." The theme of the serat any postoffice.

-Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knisely, who since their marriage have made their subject the rector said that the life of home with Mr. Knisely's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Knisely, on Friday went study and emulation because of the les- of the Iron Industry." to housekeeping on Pine street.

-Dr. W. U. Irwin, of Unionville, has purchased a new Buick touring car. model 1915, which will speed him in looking after his large clientelle and giving his family a lot of pleasure on the side.

-That new coat of paint on the exterior of the Lutheran church improves the apperrance of that edifice one hundred per cent. In fact it gives a spicand-span look to that entire neighborhood.

-A party of a dozen Bellefonte gen- were made to the calls of several of the tlemen have planned a trip to Gettys- great men of the Bible. None received burg on Sunday in Emerick's big motor their calls with greater trust and calmcar. They expect to leave here at six ness than the Virgin Mary and Samuel o'clock in the morning and get back Sun- and this because of their greater innoday night. cence and faith. He reminded the grad-

-While playing with a ball at the uates that God's call to service still Nittany Country club, on Sunday after- comes to men and women. It is the noon, Phil Ray ran into an iron pipe claim of God on the will and choice of used in marking the tennis court and cut man for a free and unconditional service, a bad gash on his forehead, as well as -self surrender. He urged them to folfow Samuel's example and say "my injuring his nose.

bounden duty is to prepare to do my du--A trespass case was tried in 'Squire Musser's court on Wednesday in which ty in that state of life unto which it shall George P. Thomas, of Howard township, please God to call me." was the plaintiff and Ralph Schenck the held on Monday evening in the High defendant. After hearing the evidence sentence of ten dollars fine and costs was school building. Prof. F. E. Whiting preimposed.

-Work was begun last week on completing the state road through Nittany valley, from Lamar to Mill Hall. George H. Yarnell is in charge of the work and has a large force of men at work, with twelve teams and all kinds of "Echoes of the American Revroad making machinery.

----The bill car for Welsh Bros. and Lessig's circus was in Bellefonte on Tuesday billing the town and countryside for their appearance here on Tuesday, June 8th. The circus travels in its in quantity is made up in quality.

-----Twenty more prisoners were brought from the old penitentiary at Allegheny to the new penitentiary at ouise C. Wallace

BELLEFONTE HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCE. standing, $5.00-Eleanor Taylor; great-MENT.-Thirty-two years have rolled est improvement, $5.00-Edgar Shirk. around since the first class was graduat- Mrs. R. S. Brouse biological history ed at the Bellefonte High school, and any prize, $10.00-Luther Miller. Col. W. F. Reynolds Junior declamato- ment of his funeral expenses and any person who witnessed the graduation of the class of thirty-nine young men and ry prizes, first, $10.00-Lee Frazier; sec- obligations that may be owing by him or Pocono, where he will take charge of the Hawwomen this week cannot help but be ond, $5.00-Louise C Wallace. W. C. T. U. temperance essay prizes, trust with the Bellefonte Trust Co., thankful for the educational facilities afforded young Americans today. The ex- $5.00 each to Russell Rider and Sophia which is directed to pay to his sister, Twenty-two prizes of 50 cents each the sum of $200 annually; to his wife is the preaching of the baccalaureate ser-were awarded to members of the sewing to be paid the sum of $50 a month for mon by Rev. W. C. Charlton, in St. John's Episcopal church, which was crowded to class by the Civic club. The Geo. R. Meek book-keeping prize,

$5.00-Irene Gross The rector took for his text first The Geo. R. Meek news article prize, $5.00-William Schmidt. Subject: "State Headquarters of the W. C. T. mon was "Consecration as illustrated in the life of Samuel. In introducing his U. in Bellefonte. The Geo. R. Meek news article prize, Samuel was great and worthy of our $2.50-Betty Taylor. Subject: "Passing The Geo. R Meek news article prize, sons which it teaches, especially those about to take the first steps in life. To $2.50-Lee Lyons,. Subject: "Old Home Samuel was entrusted the two great Week." The week's exercises will end this works, establishing a monarchy with Da-(Friday) evening with the alumni recepvid as the first King and the founding of tion and dance to the graduating class, the long line of Prophets of which he to be held at the High school building. was first. The preacher reminded the Following is a list of the graduates: parents of their great responsibility to Henrietta Child Quigley, Robert Allen Hayes their children, and of the great power Hoy, Ermintrude Catharine Bricker, William they become in the forwarding of civili-Stauffer Schmidt, Louise Josephine Cruse, Gilzation when they are early returned to bert George Mattern, Herbert Gray Williams, Ida Brandman, Eleanor Margaret Taylor, Franthe Lord as the parents of Samuel recis Paul Van Valin, Philip Slayton Barnhart, Helturned him to the Lord. References en Elizabeth Beezer, Kathryn Agnes Conaghan, Charles Garman Cruse, Charles Francis Doll Georgianna Eckenroth, Jared Silas Eminhizer John Wesley Eminhizer, Henry LeRoy Hartswick, Pauline Holt Johnston, John Olewine Kline, Sarah Byers Longwell, Lee Carson Lyon, Luther David Miller, William Henry Payne, Edgar Allen Shirk, Philip Collins Shoemaker, Orvis Vare Scholl, Claire Evelyn Shope, Edna Elizabeth Solt, Charles Stanford Smith, Frances Elizabeth Toner, Ira Beris Viehdorfer, Cecil Andrew Walker. Mary Harris Warfield, Eleanor Marcia Weston, Linwood Albert Williams.

day-eight hours. See advertisement in sixtieth annual commencement of The Pennsylvania State College will begin on George J Gregory, the Senior member af sided and music was furnished by the Friday evening of next week and close on Gregory Bros. and manager of Candy-High school orchestra. Ten young men the following Wednesday. The big event land, is back at his post after two months and women took part in the contest, and on Saturday will be a review of the regi- absence through an attack of typhoid ment of college cadets by Brigadier Gen- fever. He wishes to express his regrets erial A. L. Mills. of the U. S. Army. for any misapprehension or misstatement > will be delivered by Rev. N. W. Waters, occurred during his absence, and will be of New York. There will be sacred con- glad to hear any complaints and make certs Sunday afternoon and evening, good anything unsatisfactory. Mr. The big event of Monday will be the Gregory wishes to make known that the Junior oratorical contest in the evening. policy of Candyland is quality first, every-Tuesday will be alumni day, etc.

Commencement exercises will be held clean at reasonable prices. Mr. Gregory own train of six cars and what it lacks L. Foster, M. A., and George F. Zook, on Wednesday morning, when three comments upon ice cream, as he has Ph. D., of State College, and Arthur H. hundred or more young men and women been asked to explain what he means by Sloop, M. A., of Bellefonte, and after a will be given their diplomas. H. Walton advertising "real ice cream." He said: brief consultation they awarded first Mitchell Esq., of Pittsburgh, president of "As I have been with a large confectionprize to Lee W. Frazier and second to the Board of Trustees, will deliver the ery supply firm of New York as travelcommencement address. The new Liber- ing salesman for over five years I have

-Mrs. Hugh North Crider spent several days BARBER BECK'S WILL .- The will of barthis week with her parents in Tyrone. ber R. A. Beck was probated on Monday -Mr. J. J. McDonough, of Covington, Ky., is a and the principal provisions are as folguest of Mr. and Mrs, James Noonan, at the lows: After making proviso for the pay-Brant house. -H. R. Bell left Bellefonte on Tuesday for Mt. thorne hotel. his family the entire estate is left in

-Samuel I Garner one of the leading citizens of Penna Furnace, spent this week in Bellefonte, as a juryman

Mrs. A. M. Wittenwiler, of Philadelphia, -Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnson had as a guest this week. Mr. Johnson's niece, Mrs. Gray Hartsock, of Altoona the support of herself and two children -Mrs. Louisa Harris is at Evanston, Ill., visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Robert De Golyer. for a period of five years. If at the end

Mrs. Harris left Bellefonte Wednesday. of that time she is still his widow the -Miss Hart, the commercial teacher of the amount is to be increased to $60 per High school, will go to her home at Paoli, Satmonth. In the meantime if there should urday, where she will spend the summer. be any unusual expenses, such as sick-

-Emanuel Eisenhuth, of Coburn, was one of ness and hospital bills, these are to be the good Democrats of Potter township, who was paid by said trustee out of any funds on in Bellefonte for the week, attending court. -Mrs. Sylvester A. Bixler, of Lock Haven has been visiting for a part of the week in Belle-The children are to be educated at the fonte with her mother, Mrs. George L. Potter. public schools and High school and then -Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barnhart, of Renovo, Robert is to be given a four year's course have been guests at the J. K. Barnhart home at State College at a cost not to exceed while attending the commencement exercises. $300 per year while his daughter Mary -Mrs. lames Noonan left on the 1.23 p. m., train yesterday for Corning, N. Y., called there is to be given a course in some girls' by the serious illness of her brother, Mr. M. S. school at an equal expense. If the in-Nevlin come of the estate is not sufficient to

-Miss Mary Stevenson, of Pleasantville, N. J., meet this expense a portion of the prinand Miss Verna Fish, of Atlantic City, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Best within the The entire estate is to be held in trust past week.

-Miss Lucy S. Turner was a guest for several until his youngest child is thirty-five days the early part of the week of Miss Anne Keichline. Miss Turner, who had been visiting at State College, stopped here on her way home to Philadelphia.

-Miss Florence Rhone, daughter of Hon. Leonard Rhone, of Centre Hall, passed through the death of one of the parties interested Bellefonte on Monday on her way home from a seven months visit with friends in Wichita, Kan. and other western cities.

-Mrs. William Jenkins went to Tyrone Tuesday, to be with her daughter, Miss Dorothy Jenkins, during the closing exercises of the Tyrone schools, in which Miss Jenkins is instructor of music. They both came to Bellefonte Wednesday.

-Mrs. Miller Stewart and her daughter, Miss with Dr. Walter Stewart, at WilkesBarre, from there they will go to Hagerstown to spend a short time with Mrs. Stewart's other daughter, Mrs. Miller.

-John R. Decker, with Mrs. Decker and their little daughter Jane, have been visiting for a week, with Mr. Decker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Decker, at Zion. Mr. and Mrs. Decker expect to return to their home at Bay City, Mich- Pittsburgh, he having been sent to California on igan, tomorrow.

-Rev. Dr. Schmidt spent several days last week, including last Sunday, in Hanover, Pa., where he took part in the 150th anniversary of Emmanuel Reformed church, his home congregation. He was one of the nine "sons of the congregation," all ministers, who brought their greetings to the church of their boyhood days.

-Mr. and Mrs. William P. Rothrock, of New York city, arrived here Sunday morning in their motor car, for a visit of several days with Mr. Rothrock's brother and sister, Miss Martha and Frank Rothrock, of Valentine street. Leaving here vesterday they will spend some time in the western part of the State, before returning to New York.

-William Wetzel, of Nelson, Neb., and his son Gilbert, came to Bellefonte Saturday, and are visiting with Mr. Wetzel's father, John Wetzel. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jared Harper. Mr. Wetzel not having been in Centre county for eight years, will spend three weeks or a month,

-Charles Sebold, of Pittsburgh, is in Bellefonte looking up old friends and will remain until after Memorial day.

-Frank Crissman, who has a good position with the Pennsylvania railroad in Sunbury, came up on Monday to spend a few days at the parental

-Miss Fannie Lyon returned to Pittsburgh Wednesday, after a short visit here with her sister. Miss Anne Lyon. Miss Lyon came to Belle fonte Friday.

-Mrs. Ezra Yocum went to Northumberland Wednesday, where she will visit for an indefinite time with her daughter and son. Mrs. Rice and Dr. Paul Yocum.

-Miss Helen E. Overton left here Friday and spent two days at Lewisburg and Sunbury, being the guest of honor at the chapter meetings of the D. A. R., at both places

-Edward A. Courtade has returned to his nome in New York city, after spending several weeks as the guest of his aunt, Mrs. James Noonan, at the Brant house.

-Mrs. Samuel Sheffer and her sister, Mrs. McClellan, came to Bellefonte Friday from Milroy, where they had been for two weeks visiting with Mrs. Sheffer's sons, Lester and Herbert and their families.

-Mrs. Austin O. Furst, Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin and James C. Furst will go to Weehawken. N. J., Friday of next week, to attend the Whittier Furst wedding, which will take place there. Saturday evening, June 5th.

-W. Homer Crissman went down to Sunbury on Saturday morning to attend the funeral that day of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Hendricks who died on Wednesday. Mrs. Hendricks was a sister of the late Mrs. Crissman

-Miss Viola Gehret came in from Beaver Falls last Thursday evening to look after the repairs of her properties on Pine street. Before return ing home she will visit friends at State College, Pine Grove Mills and Baileyville.

-Miss Margaret L. Glanding left last Thursday for Syracuse, N. Y., where she will spend several weeks visiting friends. She will also attend the commencement exercises of Syracuse University, of which she is a graduate

-Miss Mary Sommerville and Mrs. Madge. of Winburne, with Mrs. Buchanan, of Chambersburg, drove to Bellefonte Thursday of last week pent a part of the day with Miss Sommerville's relatives here, returning home the same evening.

-Mr. and Mrs. David Miller went to Philadel phia on Saturday where Mr. Miller, as Grand Commander of Constans Commandery Knights Templar, of Bellefonte, attended the annual conclave of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania, in session there this week.

-Mrs. J. M. Curtin with her two children. Betty and Harry, came to Bellefonte yesterday, to spend the summer with Mrs. Curtin's mother, Mrs. George F. Harris. Their coming here earlier than usual is due to Mr. Curtin's absence from a three months business trip.

-Miss Margaret McFarlane, who recently passed a successful examination as a graduate nurse at the Bellefonte hospital, left for Philadel phia on Tuesday to take an examination before the State Board. She returned to Lock Haven yesterday and will at once take up the practice of her profession in that city.

-Rev. J. R. Woodcock, of Syracuse, and his son William, will come to Bellefonte for a short visit with Mr. Woodcock's mother, Mrs. J. A. Woodcock. Mr. Woodcock is on his way to Bir mingham to preach the baccalaurate sermon at the Seminary Sunday, and to attend the commencement exercises next week.

-Among the jurors at court this week is Mr Peter Smith, of Gregg township, one of the tried and true Democrats of the rock-ribbed South Side. Mr. Smith is now living retired on his farm about midway between Spring Mills and Centre Hill, and he well deserves an easy time of

-First class carpenters can now get policy for $3,000 made payable to his Margaret Stewart, left here Monday for a visit work at the new penitentiary at $3.50 a children. this issue. STATE COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.-The

...John B. Holt The baccalaureate sermon on Sunday to any of his patrons, if any such thing Louise C. Wallace Robert M. Gehret Elinor A. Musser ...William T. Holt Toussaint L'Ouverture"...Margaret G. Noonan 'The Hero of Kettle Falls''.....Robert L. Musser ..Luella Dale Lee W. Frazier The judges of the contest were Irving

The Junior declamatory contest was

Reba M. Krebs

with their subjects were as follows:

"A Second Trick" ...

"Emmett's Vindication"

The Drummer Boy" ...

"The Reply to Hayne"

follows:

Essay ...

Essay

Essay ...

Henrietta Child Quigley

Louise Josephine Cruse

...Modern Interest in Bird Protection Gilbert George Mattern

Herbert Gray Williams

Eleanor Margaret Taylor

"Santa Claus in the Mines"

The Return of Regulus" ...

"The Soldier's Reprieve" ...

thing kept clean, made clean and served years old when, if Mrs. Beck is still living and has not remarried, and both children are living the estate is to be divided into three equal parts and settled up and the trust cease. In the event of the estate is to be divided between the other two. If Mrs. Beck should at any time remarry her interest in the estate ceases. The estate is estimated to be worth from $30,000 to $35,000, independent of an accident policy for $2,500 made payable to his wife and another insurance

hand.

cipal is to be used.

The will was executed on October 18th.

Barnhart and C. C. Shuey.

1911, and was witnessed by James K.

A TALK ON "REAL ICE CREAM."-Mr.

Rockview on Wednesday, which makes eighty-three transferred within a month. From sixty to seventy more will be brought here during the next month.

-The twentieth annual meeting of cluded the work of the class in mechan-Group 6, Pennsylvania Bankers' associa- ical arts-woodwork of all description, tion will be held in the Commerce build- and it was done with the exactness and tion and the Junior farewell reception to compelled to use something to make it ing, Altoona, on Monday, May 31st, at nicety of experienced workmen. The ten o'clock a. m. A good program has exhibition of the classes in home econombeen arranged and the meeting will be ics, which included sewing and cooking, followed by a luncheon at the Logan was also much admired; and in addition house. All the banks in Bellefonte are to the above was the work of the grade members of the association. schools in basket weaving and drawing.

-At a meeting of the board of di-No person who visited the building and rectors of the First National bank of inspected these exhibitions could fail to Philipsburg, held on Wednesday of last be impressed with the fact that the young week, L. W. Nuttall was elected presi- of today are being taught practical as dent to succeed the late George W. Mc- well as theoretical education. And this applications for admission into the sum- goods. Candyland's ice cream is real Gaffey, deceased. Thomas J. Lee and is why a High school education is a very mer course for teachers. Charles R. Houtz were elected vice presi- fair equipment for the average young dents and George H. Barnes assistant man and woman to start out in life with. cashier. John E. Fryberger was continwere held vesterday afternoon and evenned as cashier.

-The WATCHMAN has been requested to suggest to lot owners in the Union cemetery that in their preparation for Memorial day would it not be a good idea to take their flowers there on Saturday evening. Their floral decorations would then be there for the large num-Salutatory. ber of people who will likely visit the cemetery on Sunday, as well as for the Oration services on Monday.

-About three months ago Harry Class History. William Stouffer Schmidt Toner was paroled from the western penitentiary at Rockview and later went to work for J. F. Hoy, on the farm. Sun-Oration day night while the family were at Oration church he stole $25.00 and a bicycle and was found lying west of the Howard station, but up to this time Toner's whereabouts are unknown to the police.

Oration and Valedictory..... The Lure of the Unknow Francis Paul Van Valin -On June first the name of the Lewis-At the conclusion of the class exercisburg & Tyrone railroad as applied to the es the boys of the graduating class preroad between Bellefonte and Montandon sented the School Board with the sun will be abolished and the road as now dial erected in front of the building, and constituted between Bellefonte and Sunthe girls presented a large American bury will be called the Bellefonte Cenflag tral division of the Pennsylvania railroad. No change will be made at present in the management in charge, the Charles Noyes Tyndell, rector of Christ's chief purpose being to do away with a lot of unnecessary bookkeeping. Tyndell made a very impressive address -About three weeks ago Miss Mary Dillon, for a number of years a domestic good advice to the young men and wom- shifting on the track near Gamble, Gheen in the Valentine home at "Burnham en who yesterday completed their public Place," fell down stairs and injured her school work.

At the conclusion of the rector's adleg. At the time she paid little attention to the injury but last week her leg bedress the graduates were presented with came so painful that she was taken to their diplomas and prizes awarded as the University hospital, Philadelphia, by follows: Col. W. Fred Reynolds general excel-Miss Caroline M. Valentine and placed lence prize, $10.00-Francis P. Van Valin. under the care of Dr. Jacobs. Reports received this week say that she is improv-The Harry Keller Mathematical prize, $10.00-Francis P. Van Valin.

ing and that the injury is not unduly serious.

al Arts building will be formally dedicat- observed that nine out of ten ice cream The new High school building was visited by hundreds of people during the ed on Wednesday afternoon.

Of course there will be house parties, other sticky gum powder, to stimulate week to inspect the elaborate exhibition receptions and dances at the various fra- their poor cream. The average percentof handicraft of the students. This internities all week, but the big social age of cream used is from 18 to 20 per events will be President Sparks' recep- cent. butter fat. In that case they are the Seniors Wednesday evening. Already smoothe. But the fine establishments in arrangements are being made for the the cities do not use any preparation; entertainment of one of the largest they use a higher percentage cream, crowds that has ever attended a com- averaging about 25 per cent., which remencement.

Examination for admission to the col- itself. It is rich, smoothe, with a pure, lege next school year will be held on delicious taste. Such is Candyland's Thursday and Friday, June 10th and 11th. Real Ice Cream." Mr. Gregory says And right here it might be added that already there have been over a thousand use the real stuff and you'll have real

-- "Stop, Thief!" is the name of a but 25 per cent. pure cream, sugar, flavor, big feature which the Scenic will show The commencement exercises proper tonight, and it is regarded the acme of success in motion picture productions. ing. The High school auditorium was Bellefonte lovers of moving pictures crowded on both occasions and more should not miss this one, and also keep than the usual interest was manifested. in mind the fact that this is only one of Prof. Whiting presided, the High school many big features that the Scenic is orchestra furnished delightful music and showing right along. You can't go amiss the program of class exercises was as any night in the week at this popular place of amusement. Every five cent show is worth the price and the ten cent Lincoln as An Orator Robert Allen Hayes Hoy shows give good returns for the money.

----The wedding of Miss Phoebe Mildred Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heisley Weaver, of Williamsport, and John Farrell Macklin, of Lansing, Mich., will take place in the Presbyterian church at Williamsport on Saturday evening, June 12th, at 7:30 o'clock. The brideelect is well known by quite a number of Bellefonte people while Mr. Macklin will be remembered as the very gentlemanly and efficient coach of the Michigan Aggies football team which made such a favorable impression in Bellefonte during their day's stay here last November while on their way to State College for the Pennsylvania day football game.

At the evening session the commence-----Stewart C. Cowen, of Tyrone, conductor of the local freight, is in the Bellement address was delivered by Rev. fonte hospital with two badly bruised Episcopal church, Williamsport. Rev. legs but thankful his injuries are no worse. At noon on Wednesday he was which abounded in bright sayings and riding the pilot of the engine which was & Co's mill. His feet slipped from the pilot and the heel of his shoe caught on the guard rail. The engine was going slow and Cowen clung fast with his hands but the guard rail was torn loose and shoved along the track several feet. Fortunately the watchman discovered Cowen's plight and was able to have the engine stopped quickly, other-wise the unfortunate man might have been thrown The D. A. R. history prizes, highest to the ground and mangled to death. eral weeks.

makers in this State use gelatine or some tawney for a week or more. quires no substitute body, but has body time. -there is no adulteration in real ice cream:

and that is how they get the name of or fruit, whatever the flavor may be. Mr. Gregory wishes to assure his patrons that not only in ice cream, but in everything they make' they believe there is nothing too good to use.

-----The Chinese baseball team of Hawaii, which is now touring this country, will play the Bellefonte Academy team, on Hughes field, on Wednesday and Thursday, June 9th and 10th. These will be two games Bellefonte fans will want to see without fail. The strong Juniata College team will play the Academy next Tuesday afternoon at 2.15 o'clock. This will be a hot game.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Miss Belle Confer spent Sunday in Howard with her brother, Jacob Confer. -Miss Virgie Robb, of State College, spen several days of last week with her Bellefont friends

-Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clements and two children, of Zion, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte.

-Miss Baer will leave today for her home a Rock Island, Ill., where she will spend the summer vacation. -Harry Landis, of Pittsburgh, has been in Bellefonte this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al. Landis. -Miss Josephine White went down to Wiljamsport on Saturday to spend Sunday with her sister. Miss Marie White. -Mrs. Charles Lesher, of Philipsburg, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Garman, while in Bellefonte for a short visit last week. -J. P. Harbold will take his son Gordon to York tomorrow, where the child will spend the ummer vacation with his grandmother -Mrs. Grace Weaver, of Zion, was an over Sunday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

William McClellan, on east Lamb street. -C. M. Harter and son Earle, of Jacksonville, were in Bellefonte on Saturday looking after some business matters and visiting friends. -Mrs. Hiram Hiller was in Bellefonte over Sunday, having come here Friday from Chester, with Mrs. William P. Wilson, who had been visiting with Mrs. Hiller and her family for sevwith his relatives and friends in the east, before returning to Nebraska. -Miss Cora Campbell has been spending this week in Bellefonte, attending the commencement exercises at the High school, her nephew, Philip Barnhart, being a member of the graduating class. Miss Campbell expects to return home today, and will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. James K. Barnhart, who will visit in Punxsu-

-Thaddeus Longwell arrived in Bellefonte Monday, from Des Moines, for a ten days visit with his mother, and to attend the commencement exercises of the High school, his daughter Sara being a member of the graduating class. Miss Sara Longwell, who has been in Bellefonte with her grandmother, for eight years, will go to Iowa with her father, to visit for an indefinite

-Capt. W. H. Fry, of Ferguson township, w a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday, the first tim since last fall. When the captain left the farr this spring and moved to a home on the Whit "Real Ice Cream." They use nothing Hall road we naturally thought he was going take life a little easier.but he is so enthused in his profession as a veterinarian that he answers every call, be it night or day, and consequently he is on the go most of the time. And now he is endeavoring to arrange a reunion of the old students of the Pine Grove Mills Academy for Old Home week.

> -Jesse Stewart, who will be remembered by a number of the older residents of Bellefonte, is a guest of his brother, William Stewart, at Axe Mann, Mr. Stewart left here twenty-five years ago, the 12th, of March, to join Mrs. Stewart and her sister, Miss Alpha Corman, in Seattle, this being his first visit to Pennsylvania since leaving. From Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart moved to Clarion, Iowa, and it is there he lives a part of the time, his winters being spent in California Mr. Stewart will visit with his friends in the east, until after Old Home week.

-Mrs. I. D. P. Smithgall and two children Helen and Drew, came in from Franklin last Thursday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Pelt until Saturday afternoon when they went over to Centre Hall for their summer vacation with Mrs. Smithgall's grandmother, Mrs. John Spangler. Mr. Smithgall will of necessit; remain in Franklin until the close of the public schools about the middle of June when he will go to New York city for a summer's course at Columbia University, after which he will join his wife and children at Centre Hall.

-A motor party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, their son Walter and his wife, with another son and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Harter and Mrs. T. H. Wilson, all of Nescopeck, came to Centre county on Sunday morning and took a look at the wonders of Penn's cave. They were leeply impressed with its natural beauty and considered it one of the most remarkable sights in Pennsylvania. After eating a lunch picnic fashion they came to Bellefonte and spent the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rice, on Pine street, leaving for Nescopeck on Monday morning.

-A. A. Dale Esq., will leave on the 1.23 train tomorrow afternoon for Gettysburg where, on Monday he will be the Memorial day orator on that historic battlefield. And not even the fact that excursions are to be run there from Maryland and various towns around in that section of the State with the prospect of a twenty thousand audience, nor the shades of such orators as Wendell Philips, Henry Ward Beecher, or any of the rest of those silver-tongued old-timers who preceded him as Gettysburg orators have been able to send the shivers of apprehension up and down his spinal column or shake his confidence in his ability to shed the proper amount of lustre upon the occasion.

it the balance of his life. If he lives until De cember he will enter upon his eightieth year. but one would not think it to look at him, and in appearance he is good for fifteen or twenty more years.

-Dr. William S. Glenn Jr., was in Bellefonte Friday on his way home from Cincinnati, where he graduated two weeks ago from the Eclectic Medical College. Dr. Glenn will be at State College for two months, before going to Brooklyn, for a year's hospital work. During his stay at home he will have charge of his father's practice, while Dr. William S. Glenn Sr., his wife, Dr. Nannie Glenn, Dr. Thomas O. Glenn, of Bradford with Mrs. Glenn and their daughter Elizabeth, are in California at the Exposition.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

100000
12.33	Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Groces	10
1 7	be priced weekly by R. S. Diouse, Gloce
	'he prices quoted are those paid for produ	ce
Pot	atoes per bushel		5
On	ions	e	ě
Fa	no pon donon	Φ
ER	gs, per dozen		1
Lai	d, per pound		1
But	tter per pound		2
			-
0.00.000	The first of the second s

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER. The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press. Thursday eve Red Wheat..... White Wheat... $1.45 Rye, per bushel. Corn, shelled, per bushel Corn, ears, per bushel 80 80 80 55 60 Corn, ears, per bushel..... Oats, old and new, per bushel Barley, per bushel.....

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the madelpina markets on wednesday ev	ening.

Wheat-Red$	1.57@1.62
" —No. 2	1.52@1.57
Corn —Yellow	79@801/
-Mixed new	76@781
Oats	581/2@59
Flour — Winter, per barrel	6.50@6.7
"-Favorite Brands
Rye Flour per barrel	6.25@6.5
Baled Hay-Choice Timothy No. 1
" Mixed No. 1
Straw	9.00@13.5
and the second se

The Best Advertising Medium in Central Pennsvlvania.

A strictly Democratic publication with indepen-dence enough to have, and with ability and cour-age to express, its own views, printed in eight-page form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsi-ble people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate: A strictly Democratic publication with indep

Paid strictly in advance..... Paid before expiration of year.... Paid after expiration of year.... Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be discontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex-cept at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING CHARGES: A limited amount of advertising space will be sold at the following rates:

LEGAL AND TRANSIENT. All legal and transient advertising running for eks or less.

BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS

The following discounts will be allowed on ad ents continued for Four weeks, and under three mos..10 per ct. Three mos. and under six mos.....15 per ct. Six mos. and under 12 mos.......25 per ct.

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless d by the cash