BY ANOTHER "PRISCILLA."

Town of the beautiful fountain, Nestled down in the heart of the hills, Surrounded by mountain on mountain, Filled with music from deep hidden rills.

Home of our Governors, and Statesmen, Patriots, whose names known to fame, Pioneers of the State's habitation, How proudly we honor their name.

Away from the turmoil of cities, Away from the jarring of them, Safe clasped in the arms of His mountains, God's peace seems to rest upon men.

We love thee, thou town of the fountain, So quaint, like the Swiss Alpine town, With thy peace, thy rills, and thy mountain, In the heart of the hills nestled down.

REBERSBURG.

Don't forget the date, July 10th, Rebersburg Street Carnival. The Lock Haven Band at the Carnival afternoon and evening.

Don't forget the date, July 10th, of the Rebersburg Street Carnival. Cherries and strawberries are ripening fast—what there is of them.

Many friends of Mrs. Yearick motored to Madisonburg on Monday to attend her funeral. Everyone is letting his grass grow as long as it will. At that it is going to be short enough.

Miss Gladys Hackenberg is visiting at Sunbury with Miss Josephine Winters, for several weeks. Don't forget the date, July, 10th, Rebersburg Street Carnival.

The Misses Lucille and Florence Bright have gone to Muncy to take a two weeks course at the Normal. The corn is doing splendidly with no one reporting any damage done by the several hail storms of last week.

Chas. Mallory and wife, of Pittsburgh, visited Shady Side last week, and incidentally said Hello to some of his many friends in this part of the State. It is rumored that Clem has promised his grandson that bunch of "road machinery," if he will stick to the Republican party when he grows up. It maybe that when his grandson grows up he can help build this same Republican highway.

Don't forget the date, July 10th, Rebersburg Street Carnival. There are some chauffeurs that are good drivers but once in a while you see them behind chains guided by Fords. Why not have a Ford and always come home. Clarence Long, Will Haines and others can tell you how the walking is from Penn Hall to Millheim.

We renewed the acquaintance of his family last Saturday. He drove up to the door of his abode in that newly purchased "Ford and Fanning Mill," and said Hello and Good Bye. He confided to one of his friends that he might stay long enough to play a game of croquet the next time.

Don't forget the date, July 10th, Rebersburg Street Carnival. Lee Kidder left on Monday last for Burman, Pa. where he is employed in helping one of America's largest foundries turn out a $1,000.00 car wheel order for new "rolling stock" on one of Russia's Trans-Continental railway systems. Mr. Kidder moved his family and belongings, as it is a permanent position, one that he filled satisfactorily for the same company at a previous date.

The Rebersburg baseball club is out for a town hall. They are an energetic lot of young men and are to be commended as well as helped financially in this enterprise for the advancement of this community. Now, all together, gentlemen. Give them every assistance. The first step will be a big Street Carnival and the attendance must be the largest in the history of the town. It will be a novelty here and every one will enjoy themselves.

Don't forget the date, July 10th, Rebersburg Street Carnival. On Sunday evening, while returning in a buggy from Medisburg where he held services, Rev. Metzger was run into by Harry Confer with his auto, completely demolishing the rear of the carriage. The accident happened at a very bad place on the new state highway, always referred to as the Rockville Hill. It is a very steep on the western incline and a car coming up cannot be seen by one approaching from the eastern side until it is within twenty feet of the summit. The road being very narrow at this point that a fractious animal can pass a car. In this particular accident, Mr. Confer was on the buggy before he saw it, and Rev. Metzger's horse was not moving fast enough to be pulled to the side of the road. The fender of the auto was Mrs. Isaac Orndorf, daughter and son, of Jersey Shore, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Sheesley. During the week one hundred and three people registered at the Woodward house.

The tabernacle services at Millheim are drawing very large crowds from our community. Hope the good work that is extended to all long may linger in the memory of both christians and non christians. Visitors at the home of Mrs. R. M. Wolfe and daughter, Sunday, were Charles Miller, wife and son Howard, from Rebersburg; and Glen Walker, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Howard Miller, of Rebersburg; Mrs. J. William Keller and sons Harry and Ned; Misses Edrina Mildred Weiland, of Linden Hall.

LEMONT.

The cold nights have kept all vegetation from growing, and especially the corn. The wheat is slowly ripening but there will be very little of it ripe enough to cut by the 4th inst. Prof. P. A. Noll and family went to Bellefonte, Monday evening, to spend a few days among friends. A few of the farmers are making hay, but by all reports it will be a short crop, as the grass is light. Morris Klinger's house and the post office building are nearing completion, and will soon be occupied. Hamill Holmes was awarded the contract to build the Center Furnace school house, which was destroyed by fire early last spring. Monday evening a large crowd of teachers who intend attending the summer sessions at Pennsylvania State College came in on the Lewisburg train. The College township school board elected teachers for the following schools: Oak Hall, Henry Hosterman; Lemont primary, Miriam Dreese; Dale, G. W. R. Williams. They will elect for the other schools this week.

They are all good enough, but the WATCHMAN is always the best.

Medical.

All Wrong THE MISTAKE IS MADE BY MANY BELLEFONTE CITIZENS. Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause. If its weak kidneys you must set it to the kidneys working right. A Bellefonte resident tells you how. Mrs. J. T. Gordon, 130 E. Beaver St., Bellefonte, says: "I had backache and a dull, constant ache across my loins. I was in misery at times and in the morning was sore and lame. I dreaded to begin my household work. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Parrish's Drug Store, made my kidneys normal and relieved the backache. I have had no return of the trouble. Another in my family has also found great benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills. Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Gordon had. badly bent but none of the occupants of either vehicle were at all injured. Let us hope that the State eliminates this hump when they begin active operations in this section. Don't forget the date, July 10th, Rebersburg Street Carnival. It seems that the ladies of Rebersburg have organized a walking club for the purpose of exploring the north mountain, and incidentally to keep in touch with Nature and exercise their vocal organs (also mouth organs). A synopsis of last Thursday's program follows: Scene 1: Woodpecker Point. Wading In The Dam—by Miss Maggie Winters, (also the discovery of one very large water snake by aforementioned lady). Chorus—Many Ohs—by balance of party. Scene 2: Hubler's Gap. Very much talking (in unison) Scene 3: Summer Mountain Road. Discovery of a large rattlesnake near the old Bottorff home. Very much bravely displayed—by Maggie Winters immediately dispatching the reptile with a large flat stone, lending courage to the balance of the club. Scene 4: Advance on the Houtz Home. Petite Depredation of cherries—by entire squad. Scene 5: Homeward bound—(Very much lightning with crescendo on the Thunder and Rain) Sequel—Wet feet, too many unripe cherries, a dampened ardor—enlistment of one lonely man with a 10 ga. Blunderbuss to escort them past the rattlesnake the squad of suffragists had so valiantly conquered. For membership, confer with Mrs. W. J. Carlin, Mrs. Snyder Miller, Miss Maggie Winters and Miss Rebecca Metzger. Fees—ownership of mouth organ or a propensity for doing the Indian wing in a lonely mill or dismantled lumberman's shack.

On Sunday night, July 4th, the Reformed congregation will hold their Children's day exercises. The community picnic which was held in the Fisher woods, last Thursday, was very largely attended. EAST BRUSHVALLEY.

Hay making is on the tongue of nearly every farmer. The crop will be short and thin through here. On Wednesday of last week the last tribute of respect was paid to Harvy A. Miller, who was buried at Rebersburg. J. V. Brungard and family, of Smullton, and W. D. Brungard, of near Rebersburg, spent Sunday afternoon at Ira Brungards. Every thing is in a fine growing condition. Nice showers almost daily. Last week some of the fields could have been navigated instead of cultivated. Mr. Fred Esterline and lady friend, Miss Fairy Stover, spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday at Green Burr, Sugar valley, visiting at the home of Samuel Esterline. Wm. Torbert and C. B. Mallory and wife are at present visiting at Shady Side, at the home of C. O. Mallory. Cal is an all around good fellow and it is believed that he would feel better at times if that bridge were put in a passable condition.
