Bellefonte, Pa., July 2, 1915. To CORRESPONDENTS.-No com ed unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

No Paper Next Week.

Next week being the Fourth of July holiday season no paper will be issued from this office, in accordance with the custom of taking a mid-summer holiday. Coming at this time it enables everybody connected with the paper to participate in the Old Home week celebration. The office, however, will be open all the time and the WATCHMAN'S many friends are invited to make it their headquarters when in town. The next issue of the paper will be on July 16th.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

---Hot buttered popcorn and fresh roasted peanuts.—CANDYLAND.

---Hazel Bros. grocery put into commission a new Ford delivery truck last Friday. -Miss Snyder's reduction sale of all trimmed and untrimmed hats, which has been going on this week, will be continued until tomorrow night.

-- The season tickets for the Bellefonte Chautauqua are now in the hands of Miss Catharine Musser, who will have them on sale every day during the week. Secure yours early.

---Col. H. S. Taylor has very generously offered to entertain the State College troops of Boy Scouts, which will appear in Monday's parade, at his home on east Linn street.

--- Annual July sale at AIKEN'S, commencing Saturday, July 10, for one month only. Ten per cent. off on all goods Great reduction in spring and summer

-"Where Cowboy is King," is the name of a feature film which will be shown at the Scenic tomorrow (Saturday) night. It is one of the biggest pictures that has come out of the wide west.

-F. Potts Green's drug store in this place, has been named as the free depository of the State for tetanus antitoxin, a liberal supply of which is always of July.

—The musical selection, "Our Starry | tion most happily. Flag," by Alfred Beirly, of Chicago, will be played by the Tyrone P. R. R. concert band, during Old Home week. Mr. Beirly has very generously contributed the music for the band as his part of the

----According to a statement issued from the State Highway Department on Wednesday Centre county will have $45.871 for state highway work during 1915-'16. Of this amount $21,063 will be for maintenance and $24,807 for new state-aid construction.

-Bass fishermen down Bald Eagle valley are meeting with fair success. A few catches have been made of from a four. Most of the bass so far caught have been of good size.

---While on his way down Bishop street last Thursday Paul Cronemiller, young son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cronemiller, fell on the pavement and fractured both bones in his right forearm. the same arm at the same place.

to New York city and both have some very attractive offers to make to the people of Bellefonte and Centre county. Consult the advertising columns of this .week's paper and see for yourself.

and Mrs. James Noonan, of Bellefonte, the arbitrators give their decision. finished third in the fifteen yard dash.

-A degree team of nineteen members of the Hospitallar Commandery, Knights Templar, of Lock Haven, motora fraternal visit to the Moshannon Commandery. They stopped in Bellefonte counties in the State and the above numlong enough to have dinner at the Brockerhoff house.

---Heirs of the late War Governor, to Gregg Post No. 95, G. A. R., the flag that floated over the Governor's mansion in Harrisburg during the time Gov. Curtin occupied it as Governor of Pennsylvania. A formal presentation and ac-

R. band arrived in Bellefonte last Friday monument and the temple of justice. the Oak Grove cemetery, Tyrone. This week it has been painted and fixed up like new, and it is there this famous band will give its daily concerts during formed people and their friends, will be Wednesday two of his brothers went to the Old Home week celebration.

BADLY HURT IN AUTOMOBILE WRECK. -Horace Sherman Jr., of Williamsport, is in the Williamsport hospital with three broken ribs, a punctured lung, and serious body cuts and bruises as the result of a bad automobile accident he figured in late Tuesday night. Mr. Sherman is a manufacturer of soft drinks in Williamsport, and also travels the central counties selling his product. He came to Bellefonte on Tuesday morning in his eight cylinder Cadillac car, and after transacting business here made a trip to Snow Shoe and return. N. C. Culver, of Williamsport, came in from Snow Shoe with Mr. Sherman and they both had supper at the Brockerhoff house. Mr. Sherman left on his return trip to Williamsport at 7.30 o'clock and wanted Mr. Culver to go along, but the latter did not care about making the trip at night. Sherman stopped in Lock Haven and at Jersey Shore and about 11.30 o'clock at night while driving along near Newberry he met another car. Both cars had electric headlights and both drivers were blinded by the strong light. The driver of the strange car turned out far enough to run into the bank, though not resulting seriously. Seeing this Sherman turned out further to give more room and got out so far that his car went over the bank. It turned over three times and finally stopped with Mr. Sherman un-

The occupants of the other car saw the mishap and at once went to Sherman's assistance. They got him from under the car and then took him to the Williamsport hospital. While his condiknown in Bellefonte.

POTTER-HOY CO. INSTALL PERMANENT REST ROOM.—The Potter-Hoy Hardware company has fixed up a room on the second floor of their store building as a permanent public rest room, where out-oftown people can go to take a rest when they are in town and tired out with shopping. The room faces Water street and the room a delightful place in which and is cosily furnished with a table, couch, rocker, chairs, washstand, mirrors, toilet, etc. The floor is covered with linoleum and rugs to give it a very Price, 10 cents. cheerful and comfortable appearance. Entrance to the room is up the stairway in the Potter-Hoy store room and the public is invited to use the room whenever they feel like it. The young ladies employed in the store will cheerfully look distributed the week prior to the Fourth after the comfort of any ladies desiring to take advantage of this very generous ----Miss Adela Potter, one of the most | innovation on the part of the Potter-Hoy successful street talkers, sent out by the company. The idea was given to Mr. Pennsylvania Suffrage organization in its Potter by Mrs. Jas. W. Herron, wife of campaign work, will talk each day, dur- the superintendent of the penitentiary, ing Old Home week, on the streets of who saw the town's need of rest rooms Bellefonte, in the interests of Suffrage. for ladies and he acted upon the sugges-

> THE CITIZEN'S FIRE COMPANY OF LOCK HAVEN WILL BE HERE.—President Harry Bottorf, of the Citizens Fire Co., of Lock Haven, has advised the WATCHMAN that his company will be here to participate in the big parade on Monday.

> It is coming, forty men strong, in full uniform with $3000.00 worth of apparatus and a team of $900 black engine horses. This company is one of the best drilled and equipped in Central Pennsylvania and will prove a feature of the parade.

out to help make our big celebration bigger is notice to us of the good will of her ment of Labor and Industry of which John residents and that the community of in- Price Jackson is the head, and will superdozen to fifteen bass, but the average terest started during those old inter- vise the work of the various factory infisherman is satisfied to get three or county picnics is still cherished in the charming little Susquehanna City. Let us make them all glad they came.

LONG DRAWN OUT CASE.—On Monday of last week M. S. McDowell, of State College; Frank P. Blair and M. I. Gard. ner, of Bellefonte, sitting as arbitrators Just about three months ago he broke heard evidence in the case of the W. L. Steele heirs vs. the Whiterock quarries, an action involving the right and title to -Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gephart re- 175 acres of limestone land in Spring turned this week from a purchasing trip township, claimed by the defendant company under an alleged purchase in 1905. The hearing was continued all day on Saturday and also on Tuesday of this week. The plaintiffs were represented by W. G. Runkle and Gettig, Bower & The Young Woman's Christian Zerby, of this place, and ex-Judge Clinton Association of Williamsport, held field B. Savage, of Sunbury, while Blanchard day exercises at the Susquehanna Canoe & Blanchard are looking after the defendclub grounds on Monday afternoon and ants' interests. The case is a long drawn Miss Margaret Noonan, daughter of Mr. out one and it may be some time before

BIG ATTENDANCE AT SUMMER COURSE. -The six weeks summer course for teachers at The Pennsylvania State College opened on Monday and up to noon ed over to Philipsburg on Monday to pay on Tuesday just 817 teachers had been enrolled. They represent most of the ber will likely be increased to one thousand or over before the end of the week. From the big attendance it is evident Andrew G. Curtin last week presented that many teachers prefer State College to other educational institutions in the

McKee. Bernard McKee, father of Joseph McKee, of Snow Shoe, died at his ceptance will be held at some future He was eighty-one years old and was a native of Ireland. For thirty-three years ington, D. C., last Tuesday on account of born in Potter township, and was 89 -The band stand of the Tyrone P. R. he worked for the Pennsylvania railroad their persistence in demanding to see years, 4 months and 17 days old. His company at Tyrone. He is survived by President Wilson. Both Williams and wife died eight years ago but surviving and was erected on the north side of the eight children. The funeral was held on Ellman declared they had messages to him are the following children: Jane E. court house yard, between the soldier's Monday morning, burial being made in give the President on how to end the of Jackson, Miss.; Clara A., of Nittany;

My Own Bellefonte.

BY MATTIE M. GIVEN, OF PHILADELPHIA.

Bellefonte, Bellefonte! My own Bellefonte; My heart for thee is longing And memories of bygone days

All tenderly come thronging. I love thy hills and shaded woods; I love thy tree crowned mountains; The fairy Spring, whence comes thy name, Thy fair and sparkling fountain.

Oh, deep, clear Spring-whence flows the creek, Where oft my childish feet have strayed With loved companions-long since gone, For joyous hours I have played.

And life holds naught of joy like thine, Dear home of happy childhood; Oh, would I could, with friends of yore Roam once again thy wildwood.

But Fate decrees my weary feet Shall wander from thee, ever; Yet deep within my heart thou'lt dwell, My own Bellefonte, forever.

-- The Olive Branch Sunday school will hold a festival at Coleville on Saturday evening, July 17th. Proceeds will be for big trout and he always knows just used to purchase a carpet for the church.

-The pastor and consistory of St. John's Reformed church were pleasantly entertained at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Royer, last Monday big ones, but that was only an incident. tion is serious it is not necessarily criti- evening. After a regular business meeting cal. No blame can be attached to any of the consistory, the guests were served one for the accident. Sherman is well with refreshments and a social hour was spent. The party autoed out in the cars side of the creek when his attention was of Messrs. E. E. Ardery and Curtis Y.

-The Scenic will be open morning, afternoon and night during Old Home week, and when you grow tired of the outside show go in and see the motion pictures. You will find them interesting to spend an hour or two. Big features, interesting dramas and rollicking comedies, will constitute each day's program.

um at the Academy on Tuesday, July the shore for perhaps five seconds when 6th, at 11 a.m. All old students of the a big flop of the fish landed both back in Academy who will be back for Old Home | the creek. Then there was another vioweek are urged to attend this reunion, lent lashing of the water which finally as an Academy Alumni association will grew less and less until both fish and be organized at that time. As no special muskrat sank out of sight and only a invitations are being sent out students few ripples upon the surface of the water are requested to regard this notice.

The state road between Bellefonte and Milesburg was oiled last week and from the amount of oil put on there fight to the death or merely a draw. should be no trouble about dust on that ction during Old Home week, H. D. 80% crude asphaltum he is certain that day there and return to Curtin where congratulations. they will camp for the night. Sunday morning they will hike to Bellefonte and spend the balance of the day in camp on Beaver's field. The hike is being taken to cure any horse shyness members of the troop may be afflicted with.

---Jeremiah J. Coffey, of Osceola Mills, was last week appointed as one of the four district supervising factory inspectors provided by a recent Act of the Legislature and will have charge of the The way Lock Haven is going to turn district of which Centre county is a part. He will be connected with the Departspectors in his district.

-Dr. and Mrs. George P. Bible, who came to Bellefonte from Philadelphia for the Old Home week celebration, have decided to make their home here permanently and will not return to the Quaker city only to pack up their belongings. Dr. Bible has not yet secured a location here, but if he cannot rent a suitable place he will build a home. Both Dr. and Mrs. Bible are old Bellefonters and they naturally feel more at home here than anywhere else.

-Centre Hall residents will celebrate the Fourth tomorrow (Saturday) when the Centre Hall Lodge of Odd Fellows will hold a big demonstration. The Pleasant Gap fantastics will ride over the mountain and be a feature of the celebration. On Monday afternoon the Gap base ball team and band to the new play the penitentiary nine. This will be the first innovation of that character to be held at the new penitentiary.

-The 15th annual reunion of Re- Williams' friends were notified and on was made at Jacksonville on Tuesday. held at Hecla park Tuesday, July 20th. | Washington and brought him home.

where to get them and about the right time in the day—or rather evening, to go ing last Friday evening he went up above the railroad trestle and caught four nice,

The excitement of the trip was furnished by a terrific fight between a fish and a muskrat. Lew was fishing on this very unexpectedly attracted by a violent commotion in the water close to the shore of the opposite side of the stream. In less time than it takes to tell it the what was his amazement to discover that it was a fight between a muskrat and a big fish, but it was too dark to distinguish whether the fish was a carp or a trout, but Lew declares it was two feet long or longer. They were locked horns in some way, the muskrat having the fish by the head or the fish having the -The Bellefonte Academy will hold rat's snout in its ponderous jaws, at any a reunion of old students in the auditori- rate they flopped around on the edge of could be seen.

Mr. McQuistion made an investigation

EY—Norris. — A quiet wedding Rumberger, of Philipsburg, agent for the took place at high noon on Wednesday, oil. supervised the work and as it is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Norris, at Fillmore, when Mr. Norris' it will prove much more satisfactory than youngest sister, Miss Mabella Alberta the lighter oils we have been using on Norris, was united in marriage to Harry S. Rimmey, of Olean, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank W. Lawson, of Stormstown. The attendants were Roy Mingle and Miss Edna Mingle, while Helen Norris officiated as flower girl. Only a few friends were present to witness the happy nuptials. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Norris, of Fillmore, and during the past two or three years was teacher of English in the grammar school at Juniata. She is also an accomplished musician and a charming woman in every way--Capt. W. H. Brown will leave The bridegroom is also a native of Bellefonte tomorrow morning with Troop | Fillmore but is now an engineer on the L, in full marching order, for a hike to Pennsylvania railroad and located at Howard. They will spend most of the Olean, N. Y. The WATCHMAN extends > HOUTZ-SNYDER.-On June 24th, 1915, at the United Evangelical parsonage, by the Rev. E. Fulcomer, Mr. James O. Houtz, of Lemont, and Miss Verna M. Snyder, of Oak Hall, were united in holy matrimony. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

MARITAL TROUBLES EFFACED .- Wednesday's Altoona Times contained the following item:

Disproving statements made by his newly acquired mother-in-law that he was the husband of another woman, Fred R. Tate, of this city, who secured a mar-riage license to wed Margaret J. Martin, of Centre county, yesterday exhibited a decree of divorce from his first wife, issued by the court in Centre county, in 1913. Mrs. Martin objected to her daughter's marriage on the ground that Tate was not divorced. The license was granted, however, and the couple wed, the divore decree disproving Mrs. Martin's contention.

The young man in question is a barber by occupation and has frequently worked in Bellefonte. He was last employed fantastics will accompany the Pleasant by John L. Nighthart but left Bellefonte quite suddenly about three weeks ago, penitentiary where the ball team will and from the above he is now evidently located in Altoona.

ZEIGLER.-Henry Zeigler, one of the oldest residents of Marion township, died -Jacob S. Williams, a well known at his home at Jacksonville last Saturresident of Port Matilda, and Wolf Ell- day, of general debility. He was a son man, a Russian, were arrested at Wash- of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Zeigler, was European war. Both men were locked Michael N., of Altoona; John T., of Mill up in the Washington asylum hospital. Hall, and Frank, of Howard. Burial

-Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. Andrew J. Engle, Jr., was in Altoona last Friday on a shopping expedit -Claire Lyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Lyon, of Penn street, is visiting friends at Mount Carmel this week.

-Miss Eleanor Haupt returned last Saturday from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Edward Latham and family, of Harrisburg.

-Miss Tammie Cross went to Clearfield Monday, expecting to visit for a month with relatives there and at Curwensville.

-Dr. Seibert was in New Bloomfield over Sun day, having gone down to see his brother, who has been ill for the past week.

-Miss Blanche Underwood spent from Friday until Sunday in Renovo as a guest of her brother, Irvin Underwood and family. -Mrs. Francis Musser will return to her home at Waddle this week after a two days visit with her brother, Dr. Reuben Meek, at Avis. -Miss Agnes McGowan completed her month's vacation on Tuesday and left for Rochester, Minn., where she is a nurse in the Mayo Bros.

-Walter Grange, head of the Pittsburgh branch of the Thompson-Starrett company, was up at the penitentiary at Rockview vesterday seeing how the work is coming along.

-Mr. and Mrs. James Noonan and two daughters, Misses Margaret and Geraldine, went to Corning, N. Y., on Tuesday, called there by the death of Mrs. Noonan's brother, M. S. Melvin.

-Mr. and Mrs. William A. Moore, of North Tonawanda, N. Y., motored from Homer, N. Y. FISH AND MUSKRAT IN TERRIFIC COM- to the Country Club on Monday evening and BAT.—Lew McQuistion has a penchant will make it their headquarters during Old Home week.

-The Misses Anne and Caroline Valentine left Bellefonte Wednesday, Miss Valentine to go to Nantucket and Miss Caroline to Ogunquit, after them. Just as twilight was gather- Maine, where they will spend a part of the > south of town. Bellefonte on Wednesday and one of his first Club. Mr. McCargar has qualified for all of the visits was at the WATCHMAN office. He has quite a number of relatives in this vicinity and will spend a week or ten days here so as to see all there is of Old Home week.

> -A Stine Walker, one of Ferguson township's up-to-date farmers, was a business visitor in town on Monday and showed no ill effects of having driven that new Ford machine of his into a telephone pole.

-Claude Dawson, of Philadelphia, brought his little daughter Gertrude to Bellefonte last Friday to spend the summer with her grand parents Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Griffith, at Axe Mann. Mr. Dawson returned home on Tuesday.

-Harold Ward returned to Bellefonte Monday from a two weeks trip of inspection with the combatants were out upon the shore and | Junior class in horticulture at Penn State. The time was spent visiting all nurseries and greenhouses in north-western Pennsylvania and Ohio. -A motor party including Mr. and Mrs. Wil-McClain as their guest, drove from Curwensville Sunday, spending the day with Mr. and Mrs.

Thaddeus Cross, on their farm a short distance

-Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKnight, with their two daughters, Helen and Dorothy. will spend a us older folks knew years ago. He started as a week or ten days at the home of Mr. McKnight's "bell hop" at the Bush House, for years was head sisters, Misses Martha and Margaret McKnight, chef at the Arlington in Washington, D. C., open, on Buffalo Run, and take in the best parts of the Old Home week celebration.

-Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hull, of Tyrone; Mrs. Clayton Baney and her daughter, of Niagara Falls, and Harry Hull, of DuBois, came to Belle: but could find neither fish nor muskrat fonte early in the week, owing to the illness of and is unable to say whether it was a Mrs. Mary Hull, who has been in a serious condition since Monday morning.

-Mrs. Sudie Wooden, who has been spending winter in Philadelphia and Reading with her nieces, Mrs. Seixas and Mrs. Harris, came to Bellefonte Monday, having with her Mrs. Harris' son Charles. Mrs. Wooden will be with her sister, Mrs. Smith, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharpless Walker, of Miles City, Montana, with their two children, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are returning home from Chester county where they have been for three weeks visiting with Mr. Walker's mother and her family. -Jack Lyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, arrived home very unexpectedly on Sunday morning. The plant he was working at in Rochester, N. Y., closed down for two weeks to make some much needed changes and he took advantage of the opportunity to make a visit

-Mrs Wade Cruse and three children, of Allentown, is in Bellefonte this week visiting her brother, Claude Herr and family, having come here from Salona where she has been since last week with her mother. She will return to Salona to spend another week or two before returning

-Miss Bertha Laurie will go to Cape May on the 9th of July, to visit during her two weeks vacation with her sister, Mrs. Samuel Eldredge Miss Julia Iyes, of Philadelphia, Miss Laurie's aunt, will come to Bellefonte upon her niece's return, intending to visit her during the month of August.

-Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bellringer and three children arrived in Bellefonte on Monday evening, having made the trip from Jamaica, N. Y., by automobile. They will spend one month at the Centre Hall hotel but next week expect to motor over to Bellefonte every day for the Old

-Raymond Culver, who did so much toward making last winter's evangelistic meetings a success, spent a part of the past week with his friends in Bellefonte. Mr. Culver came here Thursday from Eagles Mere, leaving Tuesday to continue his work in Buffalo. During his stay he was the guest of Henry S. Linn.

-Miss Mary Synder is arranging to spend the summer in Panama, expecting to sail sometime early in the month of July. Miss Snyder will be the guest of her niece, Mrs. H. A. Pearce, from the time she leaves Bellefonte until her return in September. Miss Jeanette Cook, of Baltimore, will accompany Miss Snyder to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Pearce. in Panama.

-Mrs. H. D. Meek and her two daughters Margery and Ruth were in Bellefonte Saturday on their way up the country, expecting to visit for a month with relatives at Waddle and State College. Mr. and Mrs. Meek have been living in Williamsport since entering their daughters at Dickinson seminary, but will return to the College immediately after their graduation next

-Landlord A. W. Rokenbrod, of the Spring Mills hotel, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Monday and a caller at the WATCHMAN office. Mr. Rokenbrod is making very extensive improvements at the above hotel and the people of that vicinity as well as the traveling public will appreciate his efforts to give them all the comforts and conveniences that go with an upto-date hotel.

-T. Clayton Brown, manager of the Scenic will leave on Wednesday of next week for Chicago where he will join a party of moving picture theatre managers who will be given a twenty day trip to California by the Selig Motion Picture company. The trip provides for a three days stay at the Pan-American exposition, San Francisco; three days at Los Angeles, one day at San Diego, and side trips to Denver, the Grand Canyon, etc. A two reel feature will be made on

-James M. Moyer, of Potters Mills, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Monday -John J. Claire, of Syracuse, N. Y., was a business visitor in Bellefonte several days this -Miss Mildred Fulcomer will return tomorrow from a weeks visit with friends in Lock -W. Alva Welsh, of Williamsport, will spend the early part of next week in Bellefonte with his sister, Mrs. W. S. Mallalieu. -Richard Sebring, of Philadelphia, spent part of the past week in Bellefonte, a guest of John Sebring and his son, Dr. Sebring. -Mrs. Jacob Hassel, and her son, will come to Bellefonte week after next to visit for two weeks with Mrs. Hassel's father, Abram Baum.

-Spurgeon Fulcomer, Harry Wetzel and Gideon Payne autoed to Tyrone last Thursday in the Fulcomer car and spent the day with friends. -Dr. Walter Stewart came up from Wilkes-Barre on Wednesday on account of the very serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Miller Stewart. -W. O'Harra Woods, of Pittsburgh, will come spend the week-end and Fourth as Mr. Morris' -Mrs. Cyrus Gordon, of Clearfield, has been in Bellefonte within the past week, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Montgomery and Mrs. Geo. L. Potter.

to Bellefonte Saturday with T. K. Morris to

-Mrs. Robert Roberts, of Johnstown, with her small son, will come to Bellefonte for Old Home week and for a summer visit with her mother, -Mrs. James W. Elliott has returned to her home at Barnesboro, after spending a week in Bellefonte with Mr. Elliott's mother, Mrs.

George Elliott. -Mrs. John Harrison has been in Pittsburgh for two weeks, having gone out to be with her daughter, Mrs. Carl Beck, who has been in ill health for some time -Mrs. Rose Witcraft, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Beezer, will leave tomorrow for Rochester, Minn., to enter the nurses training school of St. Mary's hos -M. A. Landsy returned from Franklin on Wednesday evening after being away on a three week's business trip. On his way home he passed through two Old Home week towns and three Chautauquas, but he said Bellefonte has all of them beaten a mile when it comes to decorations and preparedness to handle the thousands of visitors who will be here.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCargar will leave today for Rochester, to join the Edward A. Woods agency of the Pittsburgh district, Equitable Life Insurance Co., on their 17th. annual outing. The party will leave Pittsburgh on a special train for lard Brown and their family, with Mrs. James the Adirondacks, where they will spend a week at the "Paul Smith Hotel," going from there to Montreal, Quebec, Lake Champlain, Lake George and down the Hudson river. Mr. McCargar will leave them at Albany to go to Portsmouth, N. H. -Mr. C. D. Young, of Kermoor, arrived in for the 4th annual outing of the Eastern Century seventeen outings of this company:

-Among the Old Home guests in Bellefonte, notable are Mr. James Nolan, with his wife and daughter Bernadette, who are at the Brockerhoff house. Mr. Nolan is the Jimmie Nolan many of ed both the Gotham and Nassau hotels in New York city and is now culinary master at the Du-Pont in Wilmington, Del. He has a name in his profession that is most enviable. His wife and daughter will probably spend most of the summer here as both are in poor health.

-A car load of young women passed through Bellefonte on Saturday, delegates from Pittsburgh to the state convention of the Young Woman's Christian Association at Eagles Mere.

-A few desirable building lots still for sale. Easy terms. Fronting High and Wilson streets. Inquire Humes Estate.

-Ladies $4.00 Pumps, Colonials and Oxfords, reduced to $2.48, at YEAGER'S Shoe Store.

ROR RENT.-Small store room at No. 60 Pine St. Inquire at this office.

Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer. The prices quoted are those paid for produce Potatoes per bushel Eggs, per dozer Butter per pou

> Bellefonte Grain Markets. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,

The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press. Rye, per bushel..... Corn, shelled, per bushel orn, ears, per bushel Oats, old and new, per bushe Barley, per bushel.....

The following are the closing prices of the Corn -Mixed new

The Best Advertising Medium in Central Pennsylvania.

A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and with ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eightpage form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be discontinued until all arrearages are settled, ex-cept at the option of the publisher. ADVERTISING CHARGES:

nited amount of advertising space will be the following rates: LEGAL AND TRANSIENT. All legal and transient advertising running for eks or less.

ness Notices, per line BUSINESS OR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS

The following discounts will be allowed on accertisements continued for

Advertisers, and especially Advertising Agents are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless