GREAT PROGRAM PREPARED FOR METHODIST DAY.—The enjoyment of a program par excellence will be the reward of those who attend the Methodist Day occasion at Lakemont park, Altoona, on Thursday, the 29th of July.

All the exercises will be held in the spacious and comfortable theatre, and will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning with a sermon by the Rev. George Edward Reed, S. T. D., LL. D., ex-president of Dickinson college.

At 2 o'clock, Bishop William Burr, S. T. D., LL. D., L. H. D., will discourse on "Modern Italy." Just now this subject will be timely, and will elicit special interest.

At 8 o'clock in the evening, the platform attraction will be the Rev. Purley A. Baker, D. D., LL. D., national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

Special music is being planned, both vocal and instrumental, and some of the best talent in the community will have part in the program, with a half hour's orchestral concert preceding the evening speech.

RAIN HARD ON FARMERS.—The hot, sultry weather of Monday and Tuesday brought a succession of hard thunder storms with a torrential downpour of rain. During the storm at noon on Tuesday lightning struck the telephone pole in the rear of Temple court, wrecking both telephone and electric light wires.

The abundance of rain that has fallen within the past few weeks is hard on Centre county farmers. The grain is quite ripe, but the fields are so soft that it is almost impossible to get into them the hay fields some place are too soft with a binder. Even for hauling hay.

Big POLANDER ELECTROCUTED.—Andrew Plewka, alias Planka, of Doylestown, was electrocuted at the new penitentiary at Rockview on Monday morning. Only the official witnesses and officers were present.

Plewka is a Poland and on Christmas day, 1913, he killed two sailors on the Delaware river and robbed them of 66 cents. He was about thirty years old, weighed 230 pounds and was six feet two inches tall.

STOLEN SEVENTY-FIVE DOLLARS.—Last Thursday evening Clyde Blackford counted up his cash, $55.00 in bills and $20 in change and put it in a money sack ready to bank the next morning. Being called to the kitchen he laid the sack on his desk and went out. When he returned the sack, money and all was gone.

The big celebration is over and while it has seemed very quiet this week in comparison to last week, the people of Bellefonte and community need not suffer for good, clean amusement while the scenic is in operation. As an up-to-date motion picture theatre it stands among the best in the central part of the State.

Miss Isabel Gray Goheen, of State College, will give a recitation in the I. O. O. F. hall at Pine Grove Mills on Saturday evening, July 24th, under the auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian church of that place. Admission, 15 and 25 cents.

OLD HOME WEEK

DECORATED AUTOMOBILE PARADE. The decorated automobile parade took place at 8.30 o'clock on Tuesday evening. All told there were forty-six cars in line, two of them containing bands.

Whether it was the anticipated big industrial parade or interest in the free attractions cannot be known, but more people came to town on Wednesday than were here on Tuesday. The industrial parade took place promptly at 10.30 o'clock and was made up as follows, with Lieut. H. Laird Curtin as chief marshal and Capt. W. H. Brown chief of staff.

Our Boys Band. Melvin Cherry with dog and cart, representing a "jitney bus." Prof. C. L. Gooding, on horseback, heading the State College exhibits.

Agricultural Department of State College, big float drawn by eight horses, and representing the farm, the garden and the dairy. Engineering Department of State College, float drawn by four horses, carrying an exhibit of the engineering schools.

State-Centre Electric company. McCoy & Linn Iron Co., with a miniature furnace, forge, etc., a complete representation of all the buildings at their plant.

The Titan Metals company, represented by W. P. Seig driving an old mule and cart. Bellefonte Engineering company, with a miniature machine shop and foundry complete, on wheels.

Cluster's Store, with a well gotten up float. Lauderbach-Barber Co.—Their big delivery truck loaded with merchandise.

Hazel & Co., a very unique float bearing a log cabin built out of various rums, with door-windows, etc. Hazel Bros., a pyramid display of groceries on float.

Atlantic Refining Co., with a horse drawn and a motor drawn delivery tank, showing the old and the new way. M. C. Cephart, a piano float.

The Basket Shop, three displays, a line of young men carrying banners, a cart full of girls and a cordon of young ladies in white, the most artistic display in the parade.

Bellefonte Fuel & Supply Co., a big float loaded with coal, grain and hay and showing a miner at work on a large lump of coal.

The John Meese Store, displaying groceries and dry goods. The Pennsylvania Match Co., a big float built of match boxes.

T. R. Hamilton, a planing mill on wheels. Brouse's grocery, a delivery truck nicely trimmed and representative of their business.

The United Telephone Co., a float in which floated a bevy of its operators. A big auto advertising the Bellefonte Chautauquo.

L. H. Gettig, meat market. H. P. Shaeffer, a float with ranges and hardware.

The Family Shoe store. Miss Elizabeth Cooney, millinery display.

A. L. McGinley, displaying painting and paper hanging. A. G. Morris Jr., a float representing his coal and grain business and one his cement business.

Rhoads & Knisely, concrete work. Sunbury I. O. O. F. band. Potter-Hoy Hardware company, a float advertising tinware and one with a big display of baskets.

Forrest Bullock, carriages and buggies. The American Lime & Stone Co., stone, lime and cement.

The Eagle Iron company, three floats, one representing their charcoal furnace, billets and real Curtin pigs, another float representing their farms, and one advertising their famous buckwheat.

The Variety Shop, a float containing the entire Harmonic orchestra. A float proclaiming against woman suffrage.

The Palace Garage, displaying automobile supplies. Isaac Underwood, an oil engine and thresher and a float advertising stock food.

Milesburg Brick Co., a miniature house of bricks. George A. Beezer, two floats with International Harvester company machinery.

pour of rain during the early part of the day but in the evening several thousand people motored to Bellefonte to see who would get the big Mitchell car. The drawing took place at nine o'clock and was made by Charles Koontz, the blind man.

The judges were Col. W. F. Reynolds and Dr. J. M. Brockerhoff, of Bellefonte, and Major C. G. McMillen, of Dayton, Ohio. The car went to T. E. Griffith, of Phillipsburg, on ticket No. 3744. Mr. Griffith, who is driver of the Atlantic Refining company's wagon in Phillipsburg, came to Bellefonte on Friday and with the assistance of a chauffeur took the car home.

THE FREE ATTRACTIONS. One of the things which contributed largely to the stupendous success of the week was the admirable character of the free attractions provided.

Aviator J. E. Richter, of the New York Aero club, faithfully lived up to the reputation that preceded him. While he was unable to make a flight on Monday he made three on Tuesday, two Wednesday and two on Thursday, and he was up high enough and long enough to be seen by everybody in the surrounding country.

Next to the aviator the exhibition that was most enjoyed was the Aerial Howards; especially in their evening performance given in connection with a pyrotechnic display. It was well worth a trip to Bellefonte to see.

Nervo, the high diver, who made his first dive from the top of the Bush house on Monday afternoon, was also a thriller to the crowd was anxious to see. But in his first dive he miscalculated the air pressure and alighting on his chest on the edge of his landing board, rolled off when he struck the middle section and fell into the street.

Edward Gheer also did fine work as a high aerialist on the swinging trapeze in the court house yard, but his act lacked the real thrills that characterized the others.

THE MIDWAY. The Midway on the Island was probably the only part of the celebration features that was not liberally patronized, and that was owing to the rain, which kept the ground damp, and the location being away from the general course of the crowd.

At that there were several attractions there worth seeing.

ONLY ONE ACCIDENT. Only one accident occurred to mar the pleasure of the week, and this notwithstanding the fact that over one thousand automobiles were here on Monday and hundreds of them the other days.

The accident occurred on Monday when Robert Rothrock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rothrock, of Tyrone, fell from the Ferris wheel and broke his right arm between the elbow and shoulder.

The hospital tent erected alongside of the court house had only two calls during the week and that was on Monday when one man and a woman became exhausted and were given attention there.

POLICE RECORDS SHOW ORDERLY CROWD. The crowds here during the week were exceptionally good natured and well behaved. The town was well policed, there being five extra policemen in uniform and five state constabulary.

The records for the week show one arrest on Friday, two on Saturday, two on Sunday, none on Monday, four on Tuesday and two on Wednesday, a total of eleven. Nine of the eleven were arrested for drunkenness and two for fighting. There were no cases of pockets being picked and not a loss of any kind was reported to the police, a record probably never equalled in any town in the State.

CREDIT WHERE CREDIT IS DUE. While the seven young men mentioned at the beginning of this article were the instigators of the movement which ended in such a successful Old Home week they were only a part of the organization that worked so faithfully to bring about the stupendous results.

As chairman of the Old Home week association burgess Edmund Blanchard deserves great credit for his untiring energy and implicit confidence at all times. The big crowds demonstrated that Donald S. Wallace, as chairman of the Publicity committee, performed his work well, while the high standard of the free attractions must be credited to Lewis Daggett, chairman of the Amusement committee.

To Col. H. S. Taylor and his co-workers belongs the credit for the big parades, while J. Will Conley was commended on all sides for his adaptation of the street decorations. Register J. Frank Smith, as chairman of the Music committee, not only provided an abundance of music but he was right on the job during the entire week, properly placing the bands and looking after the comfort of the members.

There were many other good workers such as George T. Bush, John J. Bower, Robert F. Hunter and all members of committees and sub-committees, so that it is impossible to name them all, but the WATCHMAN accords credit to every man.

ACCOMMODATIONS. Another thing of which Bellefonte can be proud is the way in which the big crowds were taken care of. So far as known every man, woman and child in attendance got all they wanted to eat and drink. All the hotels were naturally crowded, the Bellefonte Academy gave daily accommodations to about forty people while the numerous eating stands around the town were amply sufficient to feed the crowds.

The dozen or more sanitary drinking fountains around the town furnished ample accommodations for the thirsty ones. By the time this issue of the WATCHMAN reaches its readers every vestige of last week's big time will have been cleared away and Bellefonte will have only the happy remembrance of ul-b-gladium and how well you were taken care of while here.

OLD HOME WEEK NOTES. The hurdy-gurdy man and the mega, phone singer and whistler always got a crowd, no matter where they held forth.

The Mill Hall band came to the big show on Monday voluntarily and was just as liberal with its music as if drawing down a big day's pay.

The Rescue Fire company of Curwensville had some drill team, but both the Lock Haven fire companies looked the part of real fire fighters.

The train service both to and from Bellefonte during the week was most efficient and prompt, most of the trains moving on schedule time.

The state constabulary complimented the Old Home week crowd by saying that it was the most gentlemanly and easiest to handle of any they ever came in contact with.

The Teddy bears, doll babies and Indian blankets were a constant attraction to the crowd, and the man or woman who did not have one tucked under their arm was considered unlucky.

The various rest rooms around town were well patronized, and the attendants carefully looked after the comfort and welfare of all who sought a few minutes relaxation from the stir and bustle on the streets.

The concerts of the Tyrone P. R. R. concert band were highly appreciated when it was quiet enough to hear them, but when it came to winning the plaudits of the crowd Our Boys band of Milesburg got the biggest share of hand-clapping.

Prof. Franks, the strong man, left Bellefonte in disgust on Wednesday. He was the idol of an admiring crowd in his stunts on the street until he failed to throw Prof. Flack's pet bull at the ball grounds on Monday afternoon, when his popularity waned and so did his collections.

The camera men were in town in force and reaped a rich harvest from those willing to have their "pictur" taken while they wait. Representatives of the National Photographic association were also here and took many splendid pictures of buildings around town and portions of the various parades.

BELLEFONTE CHAUTAUQUA JULY 24TH TO 30TH.—Season tickets for the Bellefonte Chautauqua will be on sale at the Y. M. C. A. every day until noon July 24th, at $2.00 each. After that hour full price will be charged for each entertainment.

Seven joyous days worth $4.25 at the low price of $2.00, if the tickets are secured by noon. Following is a list of the Chautauqua guarantors:

An opportunity for an evening of genuine pleasure is offered the people of Bellefonte next Thursday, through the efforts of those who have succeeded in securing the O. S. Wright Saxophone Orchestra, of Columbus, to play for a dance to be given in the armory. The orchestra is just ending a most successful tour of the United States, stopping here on their return to Ohio.

The dance will begin promptly at seven o'clock, tickets of admission being $2.00 a couple for the dancers and fifty cents each for all others, who may go to hear the music.

LAST DAYS TO REGISTER.—Next Tuesday and Wednesday, July 20th and 21st, will be the last days to register and declare your party affiliation in order to vote at the fall election. The various registration assessors will be at their district polling places on both days to register voters, as required by law.

HULL.—The sad and rather sudden death of Mrs. Mary Hull occurred at her home on south Allegheny street at ten o'clock last Thursday morning, following an attack of acute indigestion which developed into pneumonia.

She was a daughter of Thomas and Catharine Flack and was born at Howard on November 5th, 1839, being at her death 76 years, 8 months and 3 days old. Her husband preceded her to the grave a number of years ago but surviving her are the following children: Harry, of DuBois; Mrs. H. C. Baney, of Niagara Falls; Arthur, of Tyrone; Miss Mary, Herbert and Fred, of Bellefonte.

She also leaves these brothers and sisters: Mrs. Harland Saylor, William, Katharine and Harry Flack, all of Bellefonte. Mrs. Hull was a splendid neighbor, a kind and loving mother and had a wide circle of friends. She was a life-long member of the Catholic church.

Funeral mass was held in the Catholic church at ten o'clock on Monday morning by Rev. Father Caprio, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Those who were here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hull and children, of DuBois; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Baney and daughter Ruth, of Niagara Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hull, of Tyrone; George Poorman and daughter Blanche, of Windber; Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Mara, of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Kelley and M. D. Kelley, of Snow Shoe; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Saylor and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Saylor, of Altoona; Miss Annie Glenn, of Snow Shoe; Misses Rachael and Elizabeth and Edward Ammerman, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Kroft, of Tyrone.

RISHEL.—Mrs. Lida Rishel, wife of Willis Rishel, died at her home at Montgomery, Lyncoming county, at noon on Tuesday, following an illness of a number of weeks with a complication of diseases.

She was a daughter of the late David H. and Sarah S. Ruhl and was born at Spring Mills forty-five years ago last month. She has resided at Montgomery a number of years, Mr. Rishel being in the hotel business there. She is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Sarah Ruhl, of Spring Mills, and two brothers, William Ruhl, of Spring Mills, and Harry, of Bellefonte.

The remains were taken to Spring Mills on Wednesday and the funeral held at ten o'clock yesterday morning, burial being made in the cemetery at that place.

LIGHTNER.—William Henry Lightner, a veteran of the Civil war, died at his home near Petersburg, Huntingdon county, on June 30th, after an illness of some years. He was born at McAlevy's Fort on October 5th, 1842, hence was in his seventy-third year. On August 15th, 1862, he enlisted at Milesburg as a member of Company F, 148th regiment, and served throughout the war, having taken part in most of the battles of the Army of the Potomac. He was married in 1868 to Miss Sophia Johnson, who died some years ago. Surviving him are five children, two brothers and three sisters. Burial was made at Petersburg on July 2nd.

COPENHAVER.—Walter John Copenhaver died at his home at Bald Eagle at one o'clock on Sunday afternoon as the result of an abscess on the brain. He was born in Taylor township, this county, and was thirty-four years old. He was a farmer by occupation and a man respected by all who knew him. Surviving him are his wife and four small children; also six sisters and three brothers, one of the former being Mrs. R. H. Houser, of Snow Shoe. The funeral was held at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning, burial being made at Bald Eagle.

GROVE.—Edward Grove died at his home at Milesburg on June 30th after three months illness with dropsy. He was a son of William (deceased) and Hannah Grove and was born on September 27th, 1879, making his age 35 years, 9 months and 3 days. He never married, but is survived by his mother and one sister, Miss Julia Grove, of Milesburg. The funeral was held on July 4th, burial being made in the Trczylyny cemetery.

CONRAD.—Mrs. Mary Augusta Conrad, wife of Edward Conrad, died at the Bellefonte hospital on June 29th, of exhaustion, after an illness of some weeks. She was a daughter of Cyrus N. and Francis Morrison and was born on March 10th, 1875, being aged 40 years, 3 months and 20 days. Surviving her are her husband and two children. The funeral was held on July 2nd, burial being made at Unionville.

APPOINTED ASSISTANT COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—The recently enacted school code provides for assistant county superintendents of public schools and the last Legislature passed an appropriation sufficient to provide salaries for same. The appointment of an assistant is left to the county superintendent and on Wednesday of last week superintendent David O. Etters appointed Milford E. Fletcher, of Howard. The salary will be $1,200 a year. Mr. Fletcher will make an able assistant, as he has been prominent in educational circles for a number of years, and is known throughout Centre county.

Henry Weaver and Wilbur Baney spent the fore part of the week on Spruce creek fishing and returned home with twenty-four nice trout.

REUNION OF PINE GROVE MILLS ACADEMY STUDENTS.—Upwards of one hundred and fifty old-time students of the Pine Grove Mills Academy attended the reunion held at the High school building on Tuesday of last week. There were two sessions, morning and afternoon, but the morning session was devoted chiefly to renewing old friendships. Most of the Centre county delegation brought big baskets of lunch and a regular picnic dinner was served in the spacious hall in the school building.

W. Miles Walker, president of the association, presided at the afternoon session. Dr. C. T. Aikens, of Selingsgrove, led in prayer and the address of welcome was delivered by Col. D. F. Fortney. Letters of regret were read from Rev. William Gemill, Rev. H. A. Thompson, LL. D., Rev. D. M. Moser, P. B. Cooper, Charles A. Ramsey, Rev. Henry Webb LL. D., Miss Katharine Moser, Rev. A. A. Kerlin and Theodore Thomas Zimmerman.

Brief addresses were made by Hon. L. C. Thomas, Dr. C. T. Aikens and others, while reminiscences of Daniel McBride, of Hobart, Oklahoma, and one or two others, were read and much appreciated by all present. It developed during the meeting that out of seven hundred students who attended the Pine Grove Mills Academy in the early sixties only five survive. It was decided to hold the next reunion at Pine Grove Mills, at the old academy building, in 1916. Before adjourning a vote of thanks was extended the Bellefonte school board for the use of the High school building in which the meeting was held.

Some of the reminiscences were quite interesting but lack of space forbids their publication. However, we herewith print a poem dedicated to the alumni of the Pine Grove Mills Academy and Seminary, written by Miss Kate L. Moser, an alumna:

REVELLE,—CONFLICT,—TAPS. The reveille called, and bade us haste Where Learning's halls had opened wide. Come, drink from fountains deep and chaste In this hamlet by the mountain side— Till fitted for life's battle strife Each one a soldier—or maybe—wife.

Again we pass in grand review And note achievements—good and great That mark the years since '52— Of students—boys and girls—of late. Chant praises of praise for Mentors too Who proudly led this army through.

Fair Clio's pen can well indite— Great heights to which the brave ones strove. Some fell in thickest of the fight. Others toiled on—brothers to save— Broad fields of conquest mark the fray Where life's best heroes won the day.

From humble seat to high in State We call, but miss their answer—"Here!" There work is done—not "all too late" As crowns we see, with many a star. Memorial day has dawned sincere. So let us pause—and draw a tear.

Reunions now seem but a name (Since '97—of hallowed fame.) But this live body, who still show The official badge—as pure as snow. Are winning laurels fresh—perhaps. In duty's line—yet, must yield to—Taps.

STRUBLE—MCCLENCY.—On Friday evening, July 2nd, Ralph Struble, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Struble, of this place, and Miss Celia McClency, of Milesburg, were united in marriage at the parsonage of the United Brethren church in Tyrone, by the pastor, Rev. E. G. Sawyer. Both young people are quite well known in Bellefonte, Mr. Struble being a graduate of the Bellefonte High school. He is now a mail agent on the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad with headquarters in P. 'tsburgh. The young couple spent their honeymoon in Bellefonte taking in the Old Home week celebration, later going to Pittsburgh where they will make their home.

CHERRY—HAINES.—Harold M. Cherry, of Altoona, and Miss Barbara Catharine Haines, of Rossiter, Pa., were married at Cumberland, Md., on July 2nd. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Martin Haines and a niece of Mrs. George Ingram, of this place. She frequently visited in Bellefonte and is a very engaging young woman. The bridegroom is in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad with headquarters in Pittsburgh.

DAVY—DAUGHENBAUGH.—George Davy, of Blanchard, and Miss Alma G. Daughenbaugh, of Howard, were united in marriage at the home of John Schadt, in Castanea, on Saturday evening, July 3rd, by Rev. H. E. C. Wahrman. The young people will make their home at Blanchard.

EPISCOPALEAN PICNIC.—The congregation of St. John's Episcopal church will picnic at Hecla park on Friday, July 23rd, and an athletic program has been arranged as follows: 9 a. m., baseball game; 11 a. m., boat race; 11.30, 100 yard dash for girls; 11.36, 100 yard dash for boys; 11.40, contest between winners of above; 3.00 p. m., swimming race, to be followed by peanut race, potato race, sack race and a nail driving contest for girls.

—Harold Gardner, a chemist in the testing laboratory of the Pennsylvania railroad company at Altoona, is one of a party of chemists sent this week by the company to the big steel mills at Gary, Ind., to test a big consignment of steel rails being made there for the railroad company. Inasmuch as Mr. Gardner has been in his present position only six months this mission of trust shows that the company has confidence in his ability.

—They are all good enough, but the WATCHMAN is always the best.
