Old Home Week a Pronounced Success.

Two Thousand "Old Homers" Back. Fifty Thousand Attend Big Celebration.

A Complete Account of the Greatest Gathering Ever Held in Bellefonte. Every Part of the Big Program Carried Out to the Letter. Vast Crowds Pleased With Big Free Attractions.

On the evening of March 3rd seven enterprising young business men of Bellefonte, namely: A. G. Morris Jr., Lewis Daggett, Hassell Montgomery, Donald S. Wallace, Robert S. Walker, William H. Brouse and Harry Ruhl, met at the Bush house to discuss the feasibility of getting up a big demonstration for the Fourth of July. Each young man contributed fifty cents, purchased postal cards, had them printed with an invitation calling a meeting at the court house on Wednesday evening, March 24th, and that was the beginning of the movement which ended last week in the blaze and glory of the Centre county Old Home week celebration; a gathering the like of which has never been seen in any town the size of Bellefonte in all Pennsylvania. In fact so assiduously and earnestly was the work of every person connected with the association performed that the celebration far exceeded the expectations of the most enthusiastic, and brought back to Bellefonte and Centre county from fifteen hundred to two thousand "Old Homers" and had an aggregate attendance for the week estimated at close to fifty thousand people.

THE DECORATIONS MAGNIFICENT. Bellefonte never looked more inviting than it did for last week's celebration. The town was clean and had been freshened up with paint wherever needed. In addition, the decorations were on an elaborate scale; the street decorations showing off especially beautiful at night, when the thousands of electric lights seemed to form a regular canopy over High and Allegheny streets from Howard to Bishop. All business places and many private residences also bore ample evidence of the decorators skill.

INFLUX OF "OLD HOMERS." Old Homers began to gather about the middle of week before last and every train brought its quota of guests until Friday and Saturday when the influx reached its height. Of course old Centre countians continued coming in until the beginning of the week and there were few homes in Bellefonte that did not have their quota.

OFFICIAL OPENING. The celebration was formally started at 9:30 o'clock on Friday morning, July 2nd, when Our Boys band of Milesburg gave a concert in the Diamond. Rain interfered with the official opening exercises in the Diamond and they were held in the court house. Dr. E. H. Yocum made the opening prayer after which burgess Edmund Blanchard, in a brief but well worded speech, extended an official welcome to Bellefonte's guests and metaphorically gave them the key of the town. Col. H. S. Taylor was introduced and spoke for the citizens of Centre county. The Colonel's address was highly appreciated by all who heard him. Friday evening a public reception was held at the residence of Burgess and Mrs. Edmund Blanchard, but a hard rain falling at the time made the attendance limited, but those who were willing to brave the elements were fully repaid in the cordial reception extended.

THE AERIAL HOWARDS. The first surprise the public received of what the association had provided in the way of free attractions was Friday evening when the Aerial Howards gave their pyrotechnical high wire bicycle and trapeze act from the Temple Court to the Brockeroff house. The performance in itself was daring enough but the climax came when the fireworks display was set off toward the end of their act. It was a brilliant and beautiful sight, and no doubt had much to do with drawing the crowds on succeeding days, as every evening they performed thousands crowded the Diamond and Allegheny street to see them.

ATHLETICS SPOILED BY RAIN. Saturday was to have been athletic day and Dr. R. C. Weston had arranged a good program of various sports but it rained frequently during the day and it was impossible to pull off a single event. Rain also interfered with Saturday night's program.

SUNDAY'S SERVICES. The church services on Sunday were just as given in the program published in the WATCHMAN two weeks ago. At 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon the Tyrone P. R. R. band gave a half hour concert on the band stand in the court house yard, and at three o'clock a union meeting was held. Dr. George E. Hawes presided and made a brief talk on the church history of Bellefonte. He was followed with brief talks by Rev. Frank Wetzel, Dr. M. K. Foster and Rev. George E. Emehnziger. At the close of the services the band continued its concert. Another concert by the band was given in the evening.

A BIG CROWD ON MONDAY. While the weather on Sunday was delightful a hard rain fell Sunday night and Monday morning and there were grave fears that it would spoil the attendance that day. And perhaps hundreds were kept away by the inauspicious weather but as it was the Monday crowd was the biggest ever gathered in Bellefonte. The streets were literally packed and while it was difficult to estimate the number, it was placed at from fifteen to eighteen thousand. Seven bands were present and they all were very liberal with their music. In fact it can be said that this was a characteristic of all the bands here during the week. The good nature of the crowd seemed to be infectious and the band caught the spirit and gave it forth in inspiring strains of music.

SENATOR PENROSE'S ADDRESS. A public meeting was held in the Diamond promptly at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. Burgess Blanchard presided and introduced Major Robert A. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, who as an old Centre countian, told how he appreciated the privilege of thus extending a public greeting to his old-time friends. He then introduced Senator Penrose. The Senator reviewed briefly the early history of Centre county, talked of its natural resources, and of the eminent men it had given to the country while yet in its infancy. He paid a tribute to its three Governors and the ready response of its citizens every time there was a call for soldiers to defend the sanctity of the Union. He also spoke of the educational work of The Pennsylvania State College and pledged fealty to it as long as he lived.

CIVIC AND FIREMEN'S PARADE. At the conclusion of Senator Penrose's speech occurred the civic and firemen's parade. Capt. M. J. Locke was chief marshal and Lieut. Phil D. Foster chief of staff. The parade was made up as follows:

The attraction on Monday afternoon was the base ball game between the Renovo and Altoona railroad teams. Between three and four thousand people witnessed the contest which resulted in a score of 11 to 6 in favor of Altoona. The $20 in gold offered to the young lady who sold the most tickets to this game was won by Miss Ruth Woods.

FRATERNAL PARADE TUESDAY. While the crowd on Tuesday was not nearly as large as on Monday it is estimated that from eight to ten thousand people came in by train and auto. The first thrill of the morning came at ten o'clock when aviator J. E. Richter made his first flight from Beaver field. He circled over the town two or three times as gracefully as a bird, landing on the aviation field without a mishap.

The fraternal parade took place about eleven o'clock. J. Will Conley was chief marshal with Lieut. Thomas Beaver chief of staff. The parade was made up as follows:
