

REBERSBURG.

This is a snakey summer. Miffin Moyer is early at the plow. "Whom God loveth, he chastizeth!" Our farmers are anticipating a dry August. "Be ye wise as serpents and harmless as doves." There are none so blind as those who will not see. Our lads who ball it were bawled out at Tyersville. Adam Reish has already plowed for the fall sowing. Our ice creamists sold out early on Saturday evening. It is rumored that Grace has an-nolled single blessedness. Wise and Hubler cried the Hess sale at Woodward on Friday. The Esher camp will open in the Booneville grove on August 18th. Oats are C. O. C., with a bumper crop on the fields to cut the price in two. 'Squire Carlin has put a new roof on the house occupied by Calvin Crouse. "The cause of justice is the good man's care And always to requite the villains' deed!" -EURIPIDES IN ELECTRA. Miss Keifer, of Greenville, Mercer Co., was a guest of Miss Eva Moyer, the past week. The sneak thieves who selected the ham and lard at Wert's must have a family picnic in view. When Snyder and the boys begin to rip up our town laws, then you'll hear some soprano and also chorus! The Millheim "mickies" leave for Lancaster soon to take up their course with the Dutch girls, as well as at F. & M. Mr. and Mrs. Sauer, of State College, during the past week were guests of Mrs. Sauer's mother, Mrs. Chestie Wert. Albert Steinger and son Park, of Altoona, and three others, were Sunday visitors, Park being a native of this burg. Jacob Gephart returned last week from the glorious golden west, all aglow with enlarged ideas of what a big country we have. Miss Mary Bright, of Temple University, Philadelphia, is spending her vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Bright. Arthur Cummins left for Florida on Monday, expecting to spend the winter there, catching alligators for the Philadelphia market. Mrs. Amanda Evans watched so strenuously at the bedside of Mrs. Hartman that she also became ill and attenuated and was quite exhausted. When peaches are so cheap at Philadelphia our enterprising merchants and produce dealers should bring some to our doors. It would pay them. Visitors are so numerous here that we can't mention them all. They come out of the stuffy towns to get some invigorating ozone and red corpuscles! The old weather forecast based upon Mary's going over the mountain with wet skirts and coming back dry shod, after six weeks, seems to be good this time. - We welcome Millheim bread, meat, money, enterprise and virtue, but not its cheap-skate sporting car! As we prize the good name of our beautiful daughters!

What makes dentist Gutelius hold his head so high when he autoes over here from Millheim? The sweet ducahs which our fair ladies contribute to his dextrifical exchequer! The song of the chauffeur of the Millheim Sporting car on Wednesday evenings after prayer meetings: "I gather them in; gather, gather, gather them in!" The Prohibition meeting advertised to be held in the old Evangelical church on Tuesday evening failed to whirl, owing to several causes, among them the wetness of nature. "Evil communications corrupt good manners." The language used by some on the streets, in the presence of youths of both sexes, is not such as to grace a church or Sunday school. Mrs. Helen Bierly and her two little boys, after several months sojourn with her aunts and other relatives at Lima, Ohio, returned on Friday evening in excellent health and spirits. Solomon said: "As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, is a woman who departeth from discretion." Again: "A wise son heareth his father's instruction, but a scorners heareth not rebuke!" Whilst our school dads are willing to have all useful arts of domestic economy taught in our public schools it is their intention to put the ban on kissing and hugging as accomplishments. Harvey Limbert one night last week missed ten pieces of smoked meat from his granary, where he kept it. Harvey is sawing wood and presently there will be a fall in other meat than smoked ham. Miss Mary Meyer, of Paterson, N. J., is spending the summer months with her parents, Hon. and Mrs. Henry Meyer. The European war spoiled a contemplated trip to Germany and a course in Hoch Deutsch!

There are not lacking evidences of the good effect of last week's WATCHMAN'S admonitions to mothers who have daughters at that age when wolves are especially ravenous for lambs which might stray from the fold. The 12th annual district Sunday school convention for the townships of Miles, Haines and Penn, and Millheim borough, will be held at Aaronsburg, in the Lutheran church, commencing August 19th. Program later. The state road builders have used the township ditching machine between Rebersburg and Madisonburg, but have not appreciably improved the uneven surface of the road which can only be done by putting on crushed stone. The Millheim sports are sore and have reached the anonymous letter stage. They will be sorer yet when the Mothers' Protective Union ascertains where the girls are and with whom from nine o'clock until the next day, and some of them over Sunday.

The boys who break window panes in the school houses are taking first lessons in burglary and may eventually graduate as safe-crackers. Their daddies will find that a few raw-hide stripes applied to their backs now will save them from wearing striped pants at Rockview.

Mrs. Eliza Stover, of Coburn, was a guest of Mrs. Wallace Kryder, Mrs. H. H. Miller and other friends of her girlhood, the past week. She was born and educated at Wolfe's Store, being a daughter of Henry Wolf, the farmer who raised a large family none of whom are now residents of that place.

There are some daddies in this town who could improve the civilization of their boys with a good raw hide, well-applied, and thus save the school district of Miles township the money it takes to supply window panes for the High school building. "He that spareth his rod hateth his son; but he that loveth him chastizeth him be-times!"

The parlor recital given recently by Miss Emma Moyer, at the residence of Prof. J. Nevin Moyer, accompanying Karl R. Bierly's violin efforts, was highly enjoyed by those without as well as within, and music of the classic character has received a pronounced boost. Miss Moyer has a select class on the piano, of which she may justly be proud.

Mrs. Frederick Hartman died at the residence of Jacob Gephart, on Wednesday of last week, and her remains were placed entomb on Saturday, according to the rites of the U. E. church, of which she was a member, Rev. Kessler officiating. Mrs. Hartman's maiden name was Mary Minnich. She was born in Brush-valley where she spent her whole life as a Christian woman.

On Monday evening a piano, vocal and violin recital was given at the residence of Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg, the participants being Karl Rees Bierly, violinist; Miss Emma Moyer and Miss Mary C. Hackenberg, accompanists, and Mrs. Helen Bierly, vocalist. It was the occasion of Miss Gladys' first experience in accompanying and all testified that she acquitted herself admirably. The evening was creditably passed by all in genuine refined entertainment.

Miss Avis Cummins brought with her from Florida an intelligent dog named "Snowball," which knows the difference between baker's and home-baked bread. It also appreciates classic music and when it hears such music, sings in accompaniment, and does not engage in noisy twaddle-gabble offensive to harmony and a sense of taste. Although its hair is white, the reverse side of the skin has the proverbial leopard's spots which cannot be changed any more than you can make a silk purse out of the ear of "sus."

The art of a piano accompanist to a soloist, whether vocal or instrumental, is anticipatory. The accompanist must adjust her time and force, not to lead, but just to complement. It is the soloist that gives shade and feeling to the music. If the accompanist rushes him the accord is broken up and the soloist then becomes the accompanist. Take this kindly from one who has heard the greatest of all accompanists and soloists that the world has produced, and profit by it. No "slam-bang" or rag-time player will ever make a thorough, sympathetic musician.

Prof. Noah M. Franck, of Gordon, Schuylkill county, accompanied by his son, a Pottsville lawyer, visited his native place here on Saturday. The Prof. has recently been appointed an assistant school superintendent of Schuylkill county, at a salary of $1,200 per year, after fifty years service as a public school teacher, commencing at Hecla Furnace, this county, in 1865. He received the congratulations of many friends, among them some who, like he, received their upward start in the old Rebersburg school, under Supt. Reuben M. Magee, in war times.

Pray excuse! Last week a compliment well-intended, in Rebersburg effort, was spoiled by the lack of a proof-reading. The LARGO of Handel was printed "Lango" and might as well have read Langhanks. Musicians know that it requires some technique to play the Largo, though its time be slow. Now, the "fiddle-diddle-fo de rol" of the negro syncretists—with its fadadadadeta, may be rattled off on the piano like a boy beats a tenor drum, but one who can conceive the soul of Largo, at first trial, has some music in her soul. That was the point of the paragraph.

Harry Weaver, of Hubersburg, has bought the Jasper Brungart farm north of town for a nice sum, in the neighborhood of $10,000; and, it is said, he intends to farm it himself next spring. This is one of the oldest plantations in this region, having been in part the message of John Ruhl in the end of the eighteenth century, and in part, one row of fields belonging to the plantation of Col. Henry Royer. The town of Rebersburg was built upon lots taken from these farms and the land of Henry Walborn. At one time, one end of the town was called Henrysburg. The original dwelling on the Ruhl farm was a log structure situated at the spring north of the public road which is called the road to Sugar valley. There are still remnants of the pioneer structure to be found there. The early settlers always chose a place near living water for their buildings. Later, wooden buildings were erected by John Ruhl Sr., where the handsome brick mansion now stands, erected by Daniel Brungart.

SPRING MILLS.

J. B. Woods, of Allentown, made us a flying visit on Friday of last week. Mrs. Samuel Wise and grand-daughter, Violet Hagan, are now visiting in Bellefonte. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Diehl, of Mifflinburg, spent Sunday at Mrs. Diehl's home. Grace Dunkle has gone to Altoona to spend some time with her grand-father, J. B. Dunkle. Carl Hassenplug and family, of Mifflinburg, were visitors at the home of C. G. Decker on Sunday. Mrs. Howard Neese and son autored from Auburn, N. Y., and while here were guests of Alice and Elvina Neese. The ball game played Saturday with Boalsburg team was another victory for our boys. Score, fourteen to one. Mrs. Grover Gentzel and children returned to their home in Altoona Monday, after spending a few days with her brother-in-law, Geo. Gentzel. Ruth Smith is at present visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Harter, in Allentown. Luther Smith, wife and son Rossman, and Edgar Gross, of Johnstown, are guests of William and John Smith.

WOODWARD.

Fred Weidensaul was a visitor at Allen Yearick's Saturday. Quite a number from here enjoyed Sunday at Oak Heights.

Harry Sheesley and family came to the old homestead for a few days. Wm. Benner, of Reepsburg, visited his brother here, for a few days.

Edson Fultz and wife, of Pleasant Gap, came to pay his aged parents a visit over Sunday.

Lawrence Miller, of Buffalo, N. Y., came to pay his annual visit with J. N. Weaver.

Misses Grace Boal and Catherine Weiser were over Sunday visitors at Luther Kramer's. Miss Fay Stover, of State College, was a guest over Sunday with her friend, Grace Fiedler.

Master Bruce Sheesley, who was staying with Mr. Slifer, at Lewisburg, was home over Sunday.

Calvin Mingle and family, of near Aaronsburg, spent a few days with his brother, David Mingle.

Miss Bessie Vonada, of Reading, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Vonada.

Mrs. Lizzie Stover and children, of Ma-zappa, are here for a few days, visiting her mother, Rebecca Barner.

Warren Boop, now of Mifflinburg, called on his parents, Sunday, on his way home from seeing friends at Coburn.

Mrs. Geo. Immel and children, of Spring Mills, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boxerow, over Sunday.

Miss Lydia Hosterman returned home after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Harry Zieme, at Johnstown.

Wm. Bowersox and family, of Wolfe's Store, spent the Sabbath with his brothers, Howard and Campbell Bowersox.

Mrs. Elias Catherman and niece, of Jersey City, called on old acquaintances in this, her former home, over Sunday.

Frank Irvin and wife and Harry Gotschall and children, of Mifflinburg, autored here and spent Sunday with C. M. Fiedler.

Reuben Sheesley and family, also Katie Trutt, of Hartleton, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Sheesley, over Sunday.

Harvey Charles and Charles Vonada, of Hartleton, spent from Saturday until Monday with Mr. Charles' daughter, Mrs. C. M. Fiedler.

Mrs. Kridter Stover and son, of West Virginia, have come to enjoy a visit with her sister, Mrs. Theodore Hosterman, at the Woodward house.

Bruce Motz, who is employed at Buffalo, N. Y., is here to enjoy the cool breezes of his native town and spend a few days under the parental roof.

Misses Bertha and Katie Keiser, of West Milton, came to enjoy the P. O. S. of A. festival and spend some time with their cousin, Mrs. J. B. Ard.

The festival held Saturday evening by the P. O. S. of A., was a grand success, bringing large crowds from the surrounding country to see who would get the "chance cakes" that came from Buffalo, N. Y., and the lucky one was Miriam Vonada, of Laurelton, Union county.

Mankind's Queer Ways. Men are seldom as wicked as they would have women believe. As little boys are ashamed of their virtues and proud of their naughty deeds, so do men endeavor to hide good qualities and advertise the bad ones.

Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Everybody Needs Pure, Rich Blood

Pure blood enables the stomach, liver and other digestive organs to do their work properly. Without it they are sluggish, there is loss of appetite, sometimes faintness, and in general all the symptoms of dyspepsia. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood, and this is why it is so successful in the treatment of so many diseases and ailments. Its acts directly on the blood, ridding it of poisons and other humors. It is peculiarly coating of blood-purifying, nerve-toning, strength-giving substances.

Constitutional Amendments

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to section one, article eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:— That section of article eight, which reads as follows:—

"Section 1. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, and to be registered as electors as the General Assembly may enact:—

"First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

"Second. He shall have resided in the State one year (or, having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen of the State or county, he shall have resided in the district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

"Third. He shall have resided in the district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

"Fourth. If twenty-two years of age and upwards, he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election."

"Fifth. Whenever the words 'his,' 'him,' and 'himself' occur in any section of article eight of this Constitution the same shall be construed as written, respectively, 'his or her,' 'him or her,' and 'himself or herself.'"

Number Two. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to section eight, article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following be an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amend section eight, article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, except by the consent of the electors thereof at a public election; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the condition that such debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenues in excess of the interest on said debt or debts, and the amount of said debt or debts may be excluded in ascertaining the amount of such assessed valuation; provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be provided, and maintained, so that it shall read as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, except by the consent of the electors thereof at a public election; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the condition that such debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenues in excess of the interest on said debt or debts, and the amount of said debt or debts may be excluded in ascertaining the amount of such assessed valuation; provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be provided, and maintained, so that it shall read as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, except by the consent of the electors thereof at a public election; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the condition that such debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenues in excess of the interest on said debt or debts, and the amount of said debt or debts may be excluded in ascertaining the amount of such assessed valuation; provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be provided, and maintained, so that it shall read as follows:—

Number Three. A JOINT RESOLUTION. Proposing an amendment to section twenty-one of article three of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amend section twenty-one, article three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:—

"No act of the General Assembly shall limit the amount to be recovered for injuries resulting in death, or for injuries to persons or property, and in case of death from such injuries, the right of action shall survive, and the General Assembly shall prescribe for those benefits such actions shall be prosecuted. No act shall prescribe any limitations of time within which suits may be brought against corporations for injuries to persons or property, or for other causes different from those fixed by general laws regulating actions against natural persons, and such acts now existing are avoided," so that it shall read as follows:—

The General Assembly may enact laws requiring the payment by employers, or employers and employees jointly, or reasonable compensation to be made to employees arising in the course of their employment, and for occupational diseases of employees, whether or not such injuries or diseases result in death, and regardless of fault, and employer of employee, and fixing the basis of ascertainment of such compensation and the maximum and minimum limits thereof, and providing special or general remedies for the collection thereof; but in no other cases shall the General Assembly limit the amount to be recovered for injuries resulting in death, or for injuries to persons or property, and in case of death from such injuries, the right of action shall survive, and the General Assembly shall prescribe for those benefits such actions shall be prosecuted. No act shall prescribe any limitations of time within which suits
