

Anti-Saloon Speeches.

Rev. J. Mitchell Bennetts, of Philadelphia, superintendent of organization Penna. Anti-Saloon League, an unusually forceful and convincing as well as entertaining public speaker, will come into Centre county next week to deliver open-air and in-door temperance speeches in sixteen different places in the county as follows: These towns please take note: Phillipsburg—Monday evening, August 23rd. Sandy Ridge—Tuesday noon, August 24th. Snow Shoe—Tuesday evening, August 24th. Unionville—Wednesday evening, August 25th. Blanchard—Thursday afternoon, August 26th. Howard—Thursday evening, August 26th. Centre Hall—Friday evening, August 27th. Spring Mills—Saturday, 2:30 p. m., August 28th. Rebersburg—Saturday evening, August 28th. Millheim—Sunday a. m., U. Evangelical church, August 29th. Coburn—Sunday afternoon, August 29th. Woodward—Sunday evening, August 29th. Lemont—Monday afternoon, 4 o'clock, at station, August 30th. State College—Monday evening, August 30th. Milesburg—Tuesday afternoon, August 31st. Bellefonte—Tuesday evening, August 31st. Mr. Bennetts is so much in demand that his time is all taken for weeks in advance. Centre county is fortunate in securing him for this week. Henry McCracken, D. D., LL. D., Ph. D., Chancellor Emeritus North University says of him: "A man of exceptional ability, literary attainment, felicity of speech, happy mode of expression always sways his audience. He appeals to their sympathy and evokes their applause. He will interest and entertain any audience." C. C. Gaines, Eastman's Business College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—"A real talent for public speaking, forceful and entertaining." Wm. L. Watson, LL. D., D. D., London, England—"Every-one should turn out to hear him—those for and against. It will be worth while." At Bellefonte, remember, in Diamond and Court house, Tuesday evening, August 31st, 7:15.

A BIG TIME IN METHODISM.—The Methodists of Stormstown and upper Halfmoon valley are having a big home coming and reunion this week of former pastors and church members, who are now scattered throughout the State. The meetings are being held at Gray's church and the old pastors back include Rev. R. H. Stine, of Catawissa; Rev. Willis Hartsock and wife, of Camp Hill, Harrisburg; Rev. Edwin L. Esslinger, of Roaring Springs; Rev. George M. Glenn and family, of Tyrone; Rev. Robert L. Tressler, a student at Dickinson College; Rev. Robert W. Runyan, of Yorktown Heights; Rev. E. J. Biddle, of Tyrone; Rev. Earl Jacobs, of Port Matilda; Dr. J. Vorhees Thompson, of Evanston, Ill., secretary of the National Sabbath school board of the Methodist church. Among others who are back are Dr. Layman and family, of Williamsport; Mrs. W. E. Gray, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Thomas Gray and family, of Wilkensburg; Mrs. Margaret Grube, of Dayton, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sellers, of Altoona.

—On Monday Paul Wagner, a line-man in the plant department of the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania, was working on the lines on Thomas street and was cutting the insulation off of a wire to make a splice when his knife slipped and he received a deep gash in the right wrist which severed an artery. A tourniquet was put on the forearm until a physician could be secured and the severed artery picked up and sewed. Mr. Wagner is now at his home on east Bishop street and will be off duty for some days.

—So far Centre county has been allotted two of the 116 state highway patrolmen whose duty it will be to look after and keep in repair a certain stretch of state road. The appointments are William Zimmerman, of Mingo, who will have charge of route No. 56, from the Clinton county line through Nittany valley to Bellefonte; and William J. Rossman, of Pleasant Gap, who will have charge of route No. 58, from Pleasant Gap to State College.

—Thomas Beaver threshed the wheat off of a nine acre field on Monday which averaged 24 bushels to the acre. John Yearick threshed the wheat off of two acres and got 52 bushels. He also stated that seventy-five shock of oats, ten sheaves to a shock, yielded 110 bushels. There are some farmers in Centre county who are expecting an oats crop of one thousand bushels.

—The members of the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks have been invited to spend next Tuesday at "Rosemont," the summer camp of Frank Kern and Jacob Barlet, up Spring creek. They have accepted and expect to pull off a program of athletic events.

—While helping with the hay making on his farm below Howard, on Monday afternoon William J. Musser fell off of a load of hay and fractured several ribs. He is now confined to his home on east Lamb street.

—There will be a cafeteria supper given by the Woman's Suffrage party, at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, Thursday, August 26th, beginning at 5 p. m. Excellent food will be served at prices to suit both lean or fat pocketbooks.

—An important meeting of the Bellefonte W. C. T. U. will be held in the rooms of the Union Thursday afternoon, August 26th, at 3:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

—A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Knapp, on Monday.

With the Churches of the County.

Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY. Service Sunday 11:00 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m., 9 1/2 E. High street.

U. B. CHURCH NOTES. There is being installed in the basement of the United Brethren church a much needed improvement in the shape of a sink with running water and seven connections.

Plans are under way which it is hoped will result in general repairs to the church, and it may be necessary to appeal to the people of Bellefonte for help, which in the past they have shown themselves willing to render.

Please remember the Wednesday evening prayer meetings. It is your meeting. Your class leader and your pastor will be glad to see you.

Let our ladies rally to the assistance of the Ladies Aid society in closing up their work for this conference year, which is rapidly drawing to a close.

Services as usual on Sunday, morning and evening. The best seat in the house is yours if you get it. Try it and see.

A. B. SPRAGUE, Minister.

LAST UNION VESPER SERVICES. The sixth and last Union Vesper service will be held next Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock sharp, in front of the High school building. This service will be conducted by the Rev. W. M. B. Glanding, pastor of the Lutheran church. The people of the community have manifested much interest in these Union meetings for worship.

WM. M. B. GLANDING. In the absence of the Rev. E. Fulcomer, of the United Evangelical church of Bellefonte, who with his family will be in York City and county for ten days from August 16th, visiting friends, Rev. Mr. Tressler will preach for him in the morning of August 22nd and the congregation will take part in the union vesper services in the evening.

EAST BRUSHVALLEY. Stray dogs around; farmers watch your sheep.

Old Mary returned at last with all her bells and splendor. Don't forget the S. S. picnic Friday, August 27th. Ul-b-glad-u-kum.

C. J. Auman, the eastern thresherman, is making his annual round through this vicinity.

Miss Margaret Kirk, of Rebersburg, spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Ethel Meyer, of this place.

Mr. Roy Miller, who is employed with H. A. Meyer, on account of sickness spent last week with his family in Sugar Valley.

Several oats fields through this end of the valley have been furrowed out for plowing, while the binder was being operated.

Our state road crew consisting of H. H. Royer, C. J. Weaver and Geo. B. Waite, assisted Sam. Mowery in housing part of his oats crop.

Rumor has it that the night thieves are hungry for spring chicken and are pressing this way with measured tread. "Let him that stole, steal no more."

Mrs. C. O. Mallory and daughter Pearl, of Pittsburgh, are spending part of this week, visiting friends and relatives at Williamsport and near-by towns.

Miss Pearl Royer, of Madisonburg, but who is employed at the Ladies Cottage at State College, spent a short time in our midst visiting her sister, Mrs. S. C. Yearick.

Many roosters will have crowed on Saturday for the last time, and will be placed in the morgue until Sunday when they will be put to rest at the Booneville camp meeting.

That scribe from High Valley was on the job when he said "before election was the only time the rich man and the poor man came in contact. Other times he is not recognized." We think High Valley is out of date and can no longer be found on the map of Pennsylvania, but you need not tell those people that the European nations are at war.

REBERSBURG. [Continued from page 3.] The Overseers of the Poor say they have a nutty case on their hands.

The pastors' wives have set a good example in regard to social vigilance which all mothers may well follow.

A specimen of oats seven feet tall, may be seen at Clarence Long's inn. It was raised here by William Bowersox on the old George Weaver farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Nichols, of Sunbury, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frank. Walter has charge of the pneumatic electric devices at the Pennys yards in Northumberland.

Boys, be gentlemen always. Have deep respect for the girls and do not jeer even though you may know that they are being led astray. Let us not have to blush for shame at your conduct in Rebersburg, the seat of High School training and musical culture. Listen!

When the Roman matron was asked, "Where are your jewels?" She pointed with pride to her children and answered: "These are my jewels!" It requires a brave and noble mother to go out on the street at night and rescue her beloved daughter from the contaminating course of wanton boys. We have such in this place.

When ship after ship of Cervera, in the Santiago battle, was being besched and shot to pieces, the men on the Oregon began to cheer. Her great Captain Clark said to them: "Men, don't cheer, don't you see the poor fellows are dying!" So, boys, don't jeer. The cowards are dying, now. Pray for them as did Captain Clark for the Spaniard.

On Sunday evening Rev. Solly spoke of the fiery import of the word "Lost" used by Jesus in his speech to Zaccheus. Its application to vicious phases of human activity and character was dwelt upon by him with fervid eloquence and every one was moved by his description of the anguish the mother must feel over her lost child, whether it be a son or daughter.

Germans to Rebuild Belgium. The assistant architect of the city of Cologne has been chosen as supervisor of the rebuilding of Belgium. It will be his duty to pass on the question of how cities destroyed or injured during the war shall be reconstructed and to prevent introduction of bad or mediocre architecture.
