

Belleville, Pa., August 27, 1915.

REBERSBURG.

[Continued from page 2, Col. 6.] rear of the pulpit is Jesus in the agony of Gethsemane!

Allen S. Work, of Punksutawney, has finished the fresco in the Lutheran church in a satisfactory manner and remains a guest at the hotel, in expectation of further work in his line. His paintings of portraits which he exhibits to friends are admirable.

On next Saturday evening, the 28th, J. M. Bennett, who has a large reputation as a temperance orator, will speak to an open air meeting in front of the Reformed and Lutheran churches, to which all are invited, not only total abstainers but those who are bibulously inclined and "love their beer."

The Misses Florence and Lucille Bright, twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Bright, returned from Muncy, Saturday, having finished the special course at the Normal, preparatory to entering college. That school, we are told, was established at Montoursville in 1870, one of the professors being W. R. Bierly, of this place.

A. N. Corman, president of the Twelfth District Sunday school association, which held its meeting at Aaronsburg, was re-elected. The following were also in attendance: Hon. C. L. Gramley, Rev. John L. Metzger, Mrs. A. N. Corman, Rev. Kessler, Mrs. James Harbaugh, Norman Dooty, H. G. Miller, Martha Dooty, Mary M. Meyer, who read an excellent paper, Neta Page, and some others. Rebersburg was chosen for the next meeting.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Bright entertained Rev. Solly and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jared B. Kremer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Meyer, at tea a few evenings since. The evening was passed very happily, with music and song by Miss Mary Bright and Miss Annabel Solly. Miss Mary is again in restored health and being entirely in souful rapport, entertained the company for two hours, with the highest classic music. She will return to Temple University in September.

Self Defense, by the Millheim "Sports."

War is on!
"I ne faut jamais defier un fou!"

"Criticism is hard enough, but art is difficult!"

"Wounds from a knife will heal, but not those from the tongue!"

When a scrite gets fight-shot, his reform movements goeth up the spout!
"Sweet Pebe," do not scorn us; do not, Pebe; say that you love us not, but say not so in bitterness.

It is rumored that he is going to spend the rest of his vacation in the honey business with a queen along Singing Brook.

"Rave on, fair one, rave on," and spread, broad-cast over the world, thy musical, literary, and pugilistic fame, but send me back my sister's chewing gum.

We note our friend's comment on the Pleasant Gap Romeo. Perhaps our Gay Lothario forgets that he "thrice" donned the gay attire of a Romeo to woo a Juliet.

A cog must have slipped somewhere. One week our friend, the scribe, is attempting to uplift down-trodden humanity, and the next he is trying to stage a prize fight.

He seems to have made quite a reputation for himself as a stickler on Social laws and rules of order. To listen to him one might think that he really knew something about it.

The fair ones of his town think he looks fine in his everyday attire; simply great in his Sunday "best"; but truly divine in his Prince Albert and bosom shirt, much sweeter than the "Irishman" at his prettiest.

All the home girls just love to fondle and caress him. They call him "Cutie." He is the originator of that famous saying, "Crowd around me, girls, I'm full of fun." He is the most experienced "pleaser" and "fascinator" in his town. "Homo factus ad unquam!"

Our scribe's latest hobby is astronomy. In this ancient and moth-eaten science he is entirely in his element. Perhaps his devotion to this science lies in the fact that astronomers are allowed to stay up all night and pry into the affairs of other people on other planets.

By a careful perusal of his items, last week, one is led to believe that he is aching for a fight. Perhaps he is a faithful follower of Der Kaiser and desires to adhere to his motto: "Do others before they do you." We wonder if he can say as the Kaiser says: "God is with us." Being peaceful and law-abiding citizens, we have only to say in answer to his courteous challenge, "If you want to fight, join the army." Der Kaiser braucht die Manner.

LEMONT.

Wade Evey is home on the sick list. Boyd Williams and bride are visiting friends in New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Mary Bron, of Philadelphia, visited at the home of P. C. Bradford, Monday.

Saturday evening brought a very heavy rain, but it did very little damage and much good.

Misses Pearl Evey and Pearl Grove, of Belleville, visited among friends in these parts last week.

E. W. Evey, one of our hustling farmers, is busy putting up a new silo and will soon go into the dairy business.

The oats seem to be a bumper crop, at least with Wm. Glenn, for what he threshed ran 100 bushels per half hour.

John R. Williams and wife departed for Tottenville, Thursday, where they intend taking a fifteen day's visit among friends.

Our fishermen intend having some game fish in Spring creek, as they put several thousand rain-bow trout in a few days ago.

The Sunday schools of this community will all picnic in Daniel Houser's woods on Saturday, August 28th, to which one and all are invited.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Rev. R. M. Illingsworth is operating a Maxwell car.

Chester Johnson is nursing a big car-buncle on his left arm.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Struble, of Tyrone, are visiting friends in the valley.

The blight has struck the potatoes and the farmers find many rotten.

Mrs. Harry Sunday, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is some better.

J. O. Campbell and family motored to State College and spent the Sabbath.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smeltzer were over Sunday visitors at the J. N. Hoy home.

Prof. Rothrock moved to Port Matilda Tuesday, and will teach the High school there.

Merchant L. D. Fye spent last week in Philadelphia laying in his fall stock of goods.

Miss Lillian Dale, who has been confined to bed with an attack of sciatica, is slowly improving.

O. P. Bloom was compelled to kill one of his best cows the past week on account of a broken leg.

Henry Vogel, of Struble, left for parts unknown last Friday, leaving behind his bride of less than a year.

David Clyde Krebs and family, of State College, motored over and spent Tuesday evening with friends in town.

Bilger and Zimmerman, of Pleasant Gap, were Sunday visitors at the J. B. Whitmer home at White Hall.

L. Mothersbaugh, of Boalsburg, enjoyed a drive down the valley last Friday, among the scenes of his youth.

Robert Gardner, of Pittsburgh, and Harry Gardner, of New York, are greeting old acquaintances hereabouts.

Col. H. S. Taylor, Hon. James Schofield, J. L. Dunlap and Hon. Ellis L. Orvis registered at the St. Elmo Saturday.

After a two week's visit among friends on the Branch Mrs. E. Pyscher and Mrs. Hamilton returned home last Friday.

Grant Charles, traveling salesman, was here last week visiting our merchants. He was accompanied by John Gingerich.

Warren Bailey, wife and family, of New Jersey, have been visiting friends in Centre and Huntingdon counties the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lytle, of Hollidaysburg, were down for the picnic and have been visiting relatives in the valley since.

C. M. Trostle, tenant farmer on the W. H. Goss farm, has rented the Krebs & Corl farm to take possession next spring.

Grandmother Margaret Hartwick, who has been frail of body and mind all summer, was taken to the Danville hospital Friday.

Myton and Scott, of Petersburg, cow buyers, were here Friday and made some purchases, but found stock scarce and high in price.

J. B. Piper, wife and daughter Annie, of Alexandria, were royally entertained at postmaster David Barr's home over the Sabbath.

Aaron Burchfield, a Civil War veteran of Dayton, Ohio, is making his annual visit among the friends of his youth in this vicinity.

Miss Gladys Elder, of Medina, Ohio, and Jessie and Grace Elder were entertained at the A. S. Walker home on the Branch over Sunday.

Samuel Goss, on the clerical force of the Penny at Altoona, was here for the picnic and is thinking seriously of going to farming next spring.

Ed. Martz is arranging to move to the Iron city, where a good job awaits his coming. He will also have an extra job at pitching for a ball team there.

After a visit of several months among her Centre county friends, Mrs. Margaret Meek left on Friday for her home in Altoona, delighted with her visit.

Rev. A. A. Black greeted old friends along the line Sunday, and filled the pulpit in the Pine Hall church Sunday evening, where a large congregation greeted him.

Prof. H. N. Walker, of Susquehanna University, joined his family here Tuesday for a month's outing. He will spend most of the time between the plow handles on his father's farm on the Branch.

Murray Smith went to Philadelphia on Tuesday morning, to enter the Wills Eye hospital for treatment. During the hunting season last year his one eye was snagged and the sight badly affected, which has caused the other eye to weaken.

Prof. Irving Foster and wife and Mrs. W. C. Fatterson left last week on a motor trip to the south. At the Lumber city Rev. Miller and wife joined the party and they expect to visit the battlefields of Gettysburg and Antietam, as well as other places of interest, and will be gone several weeks.

Last week while Clyde Detrow was motoring to Centre Hall his car balked and he was obliged to hoof it to that town for repairs. During his absence some one relieved his car of its kit of tools and his wife's coat, which had been left in the car. The loss was greater than the cost of repairs.

Don't forget that one of the biggest picnics held in Ferguson township will be at Pine Grove Mills tomorrow (Saturday). The grove is only a minute's walk from the railroad depot and offers splendid facilities for a large gathering. Several bands will be present, there will be a base ball game and other sports and special accommodations for the political candidates.

Griffith Lytle, of Downs, Kan., is making his annual visit among his Centre county relatives, with headquarters at the home of his brother, Andrew J. Lytle, at State College. During the Civil War Mr. Lytle was one of the brave boys of the Forty-ninth regiment, mostly enlisted from Centre county, and came out of the struggle a battle-scarred veteran on a battle field as a souvenir to his country. Mr. Lytle will be in the east a month or longer.

The weather man did not smile very propitiously on Saturday for the Baileyville picnic, and the result was a smaller attendance than usual. It is stated that three hundred people, who were already at the Tyrone station, refused to go when the weather appeared so threatening, but notwithstanding the large number of stay-at-homes, the train hauled seven coach loads to the gathering. Quite a number motored to the picnic in the afternoon. During the day the association disposed of ninety gallons of ice cream.

WOODWARD.

Mrs. Kuhlman is visiting her parents, Dr. W. P. Ard's, for a short time.

Miss Sarah Sheesley, of Aaronsburg, visited relatives here for a few days.

Mrs. Charles Grim, of Mazepa, spent a week here looking after her garden things.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fiedler, of Aaronsburg, spent a short time in town on Monday.

Mrs. William Fultz and Mrs. Luther Harris were callers at Millheim Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Charlotte Guisewite, of Philadelphia, is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Emanuel Vonada.

Harris Stover and family were pleasant callers at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. M. Wolfe, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Elias Catherman, of Jersey City, after visiting friends here for a week, returned to Union county, Saturday.

Miss Bessie Vonada, after spending a week here, returned to her work at Reading Thursday.

Allen Hess, wife and two children, of Yeager town, autoed here and were Sunday visitors at the home of her parents, Noah Eby's.

Mrs. Elias Catherman, of Jersey City, N. J., and Mrs. C. M. Fiedler and daughter Lucille were callers at Millheim and Aaronsburg Thursday afternoon.

Carl Vonada, wife and daughter, of Laurelton, and Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and grandson, of Sunbury, spent a short time Sunday with Mrs. Elias Motz.

Mrs. William Fultz, Mrs. Luther Harris and daughter Edna left Monday morning for Sugar Valley, where they will visit and attend camp meeting for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Albright, who spent a few months at the Woodward house during artist work, left Monday morning for Coburn where they will stay for a few weeks.

Krider Stover, wife and son left Monday for their home in West Virginia, after spending a few weeks at the Woodward house with her sister, Mrs. Theodore Hosterman.

WOLF'S STORE.

Apples are scarce.

Peaches are a luxury.

Still the rains continue.

Jesse Snyder, from Madisonburg, assisted Adam Wolfe in hauling oats.

Some people are raising their potatoes. They are reported plenty, but many are rotten.

The oats crop, the best ever grown, is under foot, some having already been threshed.

Luella Gephart, from Rebersburg, spent several days with her friend, Elizabeth Weaver.

Orvis Walker and John Metzger, from Rebersburg, labored for H. M. Walker several days last week.

Edwin Weaver, Russell Auman and Howard Metzger, from Rebersburg, assisted Clayton Auman during oats harvest.

On Wednesday Adam Brungart and Elmer Wolfe went to Union county in Mr. Wolfe's auto. They brought home a load of peaches.

Many were the spring roosters prepared for human consumption at the Sugar Valley Camp on Sunday, but on account of the rainy weather, most of them were surrounded at home, where protection from J. Pluvius was guaranteed.

After enjoying a vacation of nearly one year, the threshing machine is again on the job. Calvin Auman, with his new Huber, is very efficiently threshing seed wheat for our farmers. Farmer Harry M. Walker, by the way, reports 450 bushels of oats from six acres. When we consider that it was handled like hay from beginning to end, our doubting devils are taxed to their utmost capacity.

On Friday evening, the 13th inst., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bierly gave a birthday party for two of their daughters, Helen and Alveta. Those present were Erma and Sarah Strahan, Ruth Stover, Jessie Adams, Leslie Stover and family and Harry Hough and family, from Livonia; Harry Shultz, from Rebersburg; E. M. Conifer and family, Geo. Smith and family, Rufus and Harry Sheesley and family, from Wolf's Store.

Medical.

A Merciless Judge

ONE WHO SHOWS NO FAVOR.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Belleville resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

Mrs. J. C. Johnson, 365 E. Bishop St., Belleville, says: "I suffered from backache and pains across my loins and I could hardly get about the house. Dizzy spells came over me and I nearly fell. I was restless at night and my kidneys caused me a lot of annoyance. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Green's Pharmacy Co., did me more good than anything else. The backache and pains disappeared and my kidneys became normal. I now feel better in every way, as Doan's Kidney Pills certainly cured me." (Statement given October 21st, 1907.)

OVER SIX YEARS LATER, Mrs. Johnson said: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me some time ago has been permanent.

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Johnson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 60-34

Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Whole Body Needs Pure Blood

The bones, the muscles, and all the organs of the body depend for their strength and tone and healthy action on pure blood.

If the blood is impure, the bones become diseased; the muscles become feeble, the step loses its elasticity, unless there is ability to perform the usual amount of labor. The skin loses its clearness, and pimples, blotches and other eruptions appear.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood. It is positively unequalled in the treatment of scrofula and other humors, catarrh, rheumatism, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, that tired feeling. Be sure to get Hood's and get it today. All druggists.

Proposed amendments to the Constitution submitted to the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by the general assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and published by the order of the general assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in pursuance of article XVIII of the Constitution.

Number One.
A JOINT RESOLUTION.
Proposing an amendment to section one, article eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

That it be resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be and the same shall have effect as if enacted in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

"Section one. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject, however, to such laws requiring and returning the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:—"First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month."

"Second. He or she shall have resided in the State one year, or, having previously been a qualified elector, he or she shall have resided in this State for six months, immediately preceding the election."

"Third. He or she shall have resided in the election district to which he or she shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election."

"Fourth. If twenty-two years of age and upwards, he or she shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election."

"Fifth. Whichever of the words "he," "his," "him" or "her" occur in any article of this article VIII of this Constitution the same shall be construed as if written, respectively, "he or she," "his or her," "him or her," and "himself or herself."

A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 1.
CYRUS E. WOODS,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Two.
A JOINT RESOLUTION.
Proposing an amendment to section eight of article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

That it be resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

"Section eight. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as hereinafter provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by the Legislature to incur any new debt, or to increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding seven per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, not shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, nor increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time,