Germany has accepted the declara tions of the United States in the sub

"In view of the clearness of the less to make any comment in regard question; it is quite as common as "What is new to be a recognition of the fundamental principle for which we have contend-

Count Bernstorff's announcement that the policy had been decided upon before the sinking of the Arabic agrees with statements by officials in Berlin upon which American officials had been depending. Soon after the dispatch of the last Lusitania note President Wilson understood there would not be enother such dispatch of the people and for the people the name of J. The sinking of the Arabic, therefore, came as a double shock.

Inasmuch as it seems to have been established that the submarine which sunk the Arabic has been destroyed by a British patrol boat, the exact circumstances may never be determined, To the Electors of Centre County: and American sources.

The German government's state had been ordered to sink no more passenger ships without warning may be taken as a disavowal of that act.

The question of reparation for the Americans who lost their lives on the Lusitania, the Arabic and other ships which have been torpedoed probably will be the next step in the proceed.
