Democratic Matchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., September 10, 1915. P. GRAY MEEK, EDITOR

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION .-- Until turther notice this 1 aper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates :

Paid strictly in advance $1.50 Paid before expiration of year . 1.75 Paid after expiration of year 2.00

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

GRANGE PICNIC BEGINS TOMORROW.day of the forty-second annual Grange Trevillian, of Iowa. She also leaves the in Milesburg. encampment and fair at Centre Hall. By following step-children; John, Cline, and social pleasure.

Sunday-school worker, will deliver the dead but the following: Mrs. Anna lighted, the exhibition buildings in better | Shore. condition, and everything is in more Mrs. Zimmerman was a faithful memcomplete readiness for the encampment ber of the Presbyterian church from than ever before. Owing to the favorable early girlhood. Funeral services were season the agricultural and horticultural held at her home on Tuesday afternoon Joshua T. Folk died at his home on eas man, after which burial was made in years.

All the space in the new exhibition the Hublersburg cemetery. stable has been engaged, which insures a splendid exhibit of live stock.

PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK. Saturday, Sept. 11-Opening day. 7.30 p. m., grand opening entertainment in the auditorium.

Sunday, Sept. 12–2.30 p. m., Harvest a complication of diseases. Home anniversary address by Miss Martha Robison, superintendent of the Rural Department of the State Sunday-Pa., on April 4th, 1841, at her death be-has been such that he was not able to do made in the Grandview cemetery, Tyschool Association. 7.45 p. m., religious ing 74 years and 5 months old. She was any hard work. exercises.

Monday, Sept. 13-Reception of exhibits. 7.30 p. m., moving pictures in the of Bellefonte. She was a member of St. felt, who survives with six children hart, of Centre Hill, are mourning the Tuesday, Sept. 14-2.30 p.m., addresses in the auditorium by members of the Grange. 7.30 p. m., moving pictures entertainment, special music.

Wednesday, Sept. 15-10.30 a. m., adand E. B. Dorsett, Past Lecturer of the and John Paul Jones, at home, and Mrs. Moore, Overseer of the Pennsylvania afternoon by Rev. W. C. Charlton, was made in the Union cemetery. State Grange. 7.30 p. m., moving picture after which burial was made in the entertainment.

Thursday, Sept. 16--Grange and Woman's Suffrage day. 10 a.m., addresses

MCKINLEY .- John McKinley, a native by Hon. James Foust, Dairy and Food of Centre county, died quite suddenly of Commissioner, and Dr. Mary Wolfe, of ZIMMERMAN.-Mrs. Rebecca Zimmer-KREPS .- James Kreps, a well know man, one of the oldest women of Walker veteran of the Civil war, died about non GUN.-On Saturday morning of last week celebrated Labor day pretty generally on Straub, better known to his friends as township, died at her home near Hecla park on Saturday of last week, of general debility. She was a daughter of Mr. and protracted illness with heart disease. tain to Pine Grove Mills. When they were all closed tight in the afternoon. a philosopher up-to-date. During the Mrs. John Meyers and was born in Clearfield county on March 23rd, 1829, hence at Kreps and was born at Martha Furnae cided to stop and inquire after his health. and the Clinton county P. O. S. of A. grain to feed the wild turkeys and the her death had attained the advanced age of 86 years, 5 months and 11 days. She was twice married, her first husband being John Trevillian and after his death K, 110th regiment Pennsylvania volu- house with the top of his head blown off, But there were other gatherings. Wil- ears, when they ask for them. But he she became the wife of Lewis Zimmer- teers and served until the close of the and a shot gun between his legs told the liam Burnside entertained a party of la- gets downright mad when people make man, who has been dead many years. war, having taken part in many had story of the awful tragedy.

active population and by Saturday prac- of Oklahoma, and Mrs. H. C. Robison, of him, however, are the following children: ally lived the life of a recluse. tically all the tent holders will be com- Shy Beaver, Huntingdon county. These John A. Kreps, of Bellefonte; J. C., f He was a member of Company H, were bidden to this outing. subject of the address is "Remember Jersey Shore; Mrs. Samuel Neff, of Phil- o'clock Tuesday afternoon by Rev. A. I. er and two sisters. Always." A large choir will render ex- adelphia; James Meyers, of Mifflin Sprague, of the United Brethren churct, A squad of Capt. Campbell Post attend- Saturday, in the Walker and Lane cars, a cultivated blackberry patch and a year vent cemetery in Boggs township.

FOLK .- Following an illness of some weeks as the result of a paralytic stroke exhibits will be of a better class than for by Rev. Ertley, assisted by Rev. Binga- High street about eleven o'clock last Thursday morning.

Hannah Folk and was born at Milesburg illness with diabetes and blood poisoning.

died at her home on east High street at 10.20 o'clock last Saturday evening. She had not been in good health for some of a blacksmith, an occupation he follow- ago. She had been a resident of Altoona, months and her death was the result of ed a number of years. He served as a however, for almost thirty years. She is She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. more years and was known as a "terror and two sisters, as well as a number of John Warner and was born at Columbia, to evil doers." Of late years his health half-brothers and sisters. Burial was married to Mr. Jones on April 10th, John's Episcopal church and a quiet, un- namely: Edith, of Flemington; Mary, death of their six weeks old son, James ostentatious woman. Ten years or more of Mt. Eagle; Hattie, of East Liberty; Kenneth, who died on Saturday, August ago she lost her eyesight and had since Minnie, of Pittsburg; Robert and John, 28th, after a brief illness with whooping been practically helpless, but was loving- of Bellefonte. He also leaves one brother, cough. Funeral services were held on ly cared for by her daughter, Miss Ella. John Folk, of Bethlehem.

dress by Hon. Wm. T. Creasy, Past Mas-but surviving her are three out of a fam-dist church and of Gregg Post G. A. R., Centre Hill cemetery. ter of the Pennsylvania State Grange, ily of nine children, namely: Miss Ella having served during the Civil war as a services were held at the Episcopal two o'clock on Saturday afternoon by county temperance meeting called by

> STERNBERG .- Israel N. Sternberg, a native of Bellefonte, died at his home in

BLOWS TOP OF HEAD OFF WITH SHOT

Steffey's graveyard.

PARKS .- Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Parks, widow of Daniel Brittain Parks, died at the Nason hospital at Roaring Spring on Deceased was a son of Jonathan and Sunday afternoon after three months JONES .- Mrs. Hannah Warner Jones on February 3rd, 1843, hence at his death She was a daughter of John and Julia was 72 years, 6 months and 27 days old. Jamison and was born in Pennsvalley, When a young man he learned the trade this county, a little over sixty-one years policeman in Bellefonte a half dozen or survived by two daughters, two brothers rone, on Wednesday morning.

1867, and ever since had been a resident in marriage to Miss Melissa I. Shinna- GOODHART-Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Good-Monday morning of last week by Rev. Mr. Folk was a member of the Metho- H. M. Brown, burial being made in the > manifested the temperance sentiment in | ing with Dr. Tate's mother. our own county.

following an illness that dates back to tion was formed, although women are club, on Monday evening, to a few of his eligible to membership. After a portion young lady and gentlemen friends. State College, and Rev. C. H. Brandt, of Pittsburgh. to draft a constitution. While this was number of her friends with a card party, being done the meeting was open for on Tuesday night. general discussion and speech-making. A number of strong appeals were made Wednesday to a number of her girl county dry. The two dry candidates for schools and colleges. Judge-Mr. Dale and Mr. Johnston, being present each made brief addresses. tion of a constitution which was read, voted upon and adopted. The election of officers resulted in Prof. Marshman. of State College, being made president; Titus M. Gramley, of Spring Mills, Prof. Irving Foster, of State College, James H. Potter, of Bellefonte, were chosen as the three vice-presidents; Prof. A. T. Wright, Goodhart, of Centre Hall, treasurer. No endorsements were made nor reso- for college. lutions adopted, but definite plans for active, effective work along temperance

CELEBRATED LABOR DAY .- Bellefonte John Kreps, on east Lamb street, aftera Oak, started to walk across the moun- open a short time in the morning they ander farm above the lime kilns, is surely He was a son of Adam and Jenne reached the John Lightner home they de- The Odd Fellows picnic at Hunter's park hard winter weather he puts out corn and seventy-five years ago. When but twe- They entered the gate and followed the gathering at Hecla park were marred by birds and he always plants enough of ty years of age he enlisted for service 1 path and at the corner of the house the rain, but quite a number braved the corn to feed the squirrels and raccoons, the Civil war as a member of Company found Mr. Lightner sitting against the elements and attended one or the other. and give his neighbors a mess of roasting dies and gentlemen from Saturday until it a practice of going into his corn field She is survived by the following children fought battles. Returning from the wr Lightner, who was an old Civil war Tuesday at his retreat on Muncy moun- and carrying off his corn by the bag full. to her first husband: Mrs. Shuman Zim- he engaged in farming and for may veteran, had not been well for some days tain. Edmund Blanchard was the host In fact, he avers that so much of his merman and Mrs. Ella Martin, of Hecla; years followed that occupation in Bad and this probably accounts for his act. of a stag party at the House of Lords on corn has been carried off this year that Saturday of this week will be the opening Mrs. R. C. Kennelly, Charles and John Eagle valley, finally retiring to a hore He was a son of Matthew Lightner, was Nittany mountain from Saturday until it will hurry him to have enough to fatborn at Charter Oak sixty-nine years ago Monday evening, and J. Harris Hoy, of ten his hogs. And he is now compelled On October 12th, 1865, he was united and lived there all his life. During the Snow Shoe, was general factotum over a to stay at home from church on Sunday the time this paper reaches its readers, William and Shuman Zimmerman, of in marriage to Miss Nancy McAlliste, past fifteen or twenty years, since the camp on Sterling run, in Snow Shoe and watch his corn field to keep the corn Grange Park will be a tented city with an Hecla park; David, of Pittsburgh; Lewis, who died January 1st, 1908. Surviving marriage of his children, he had practic- township, that was open for a week, be- thieves from skinning it clean. "Waxie" fortably located in their canvas homes, sisters also survive, Mrs. Mary Strunk, Akron, Ohio; H. V., of Altoona, and Mr. 148th regiment, and had an enviable war Labor day also furnished a good ex- down, lazy, thieving Americans, and that ready for a full week of out-door living of Cedar Run; Mrs. Catharine McEwen, Ella Cartwright, of Milesburg. He also record. He was also a member of Capt. cuse for motoring parties and among the he knows who they are. Lock Haven, and Mrs. Sarah Miller, leaves two brothers and one sister, nam- J. O. Campbell Post, No. 272, G. A. R., of many was one including Miss Katherine But corn is not the only thing they On the opening Sunday Miss Martha Zion. She had thirty-one half-brothers ly: Harry Kreps, of Pittsburgh; Mr. Pine Grove Mills, and especially well Curtin, Miss Rebekah Valentine, Miss steal from "Waxie." They pilfer his Robison, of Bloomsburg, the well known and sisters, but of this number all are Ella Fetzer and John Kreps, of Altoon, known by many people in Ferguson Katherine Fenlon, Robert Walker, Elliott orchard of its best fruit and even carry Funeral services were held at the township. He is survived by four sons Lane, Stanley Valentine and Harry Cur- off vegetables from his garden and once Harvest Home anniversary address. The Harshberger and Mrs. Hattie Pifer, of Kreps home on Lamb street at two and two daughters, as well as one brothchaperon, drove to Cassanovia, N. Y., this recalls an older story. "Waxie" has cellent music. The park will be better county; Morris and Harvey, of Jersey after which burial was made in the Ac- ed the funeral which was held on Tues- to spend Labor day with Mrs. Bruce Bur- or so ago the bushes gave promise of a day morning. Rev. Mr. Little, of Neff's lingame. The party reached Bellefonte bountiful crop. When it was time for Mills, officiated and burial was made in Tuesday morning, having driven home the berries to ripen "Waxie" visited the by the way of Niagara Falls and Buffalo. patch daily but could get only a quart or > son Harold left here Sunday morning to coming into town one day when he was spend Labor day motoring through the accosted by a woman who wanted to Cumberland valley, with Gettysburg as know if he had any more of those lustheir objective point.

son Peter, and Dr. Eloise Meek left here would like to have some more. By a Saturday afternoon for a motor trip into little cautious inquiry "Waxie" learned New York State; the longest stops be- that a certain woman was picking his ing made at Watkins Glen and Elmira. | berries and selling them at a fancy price, Another party that made elaborate at the same time representing that she preparations for a delightful motor out- was doing the work for him, but the ing was composed of John M. Shugert, money went into her own pocket. The John McCoy, Ad Fauble, H. Laird Curtin next trip she made to the berry patch and Thomas Beaver. They left Belle- was her last as "Waxie" was on the fonte about ten o'clock Saturday night ground with a long string of good, sound with Eagles Mere in view. After spend- advice.

ing the night at the Country club they

CORN THIEVES ACTIVE. - Elmer C. on Saturday at the home of his so, Mrs. Powell and daughter, of Chester Monday. While a few of the stores kept "Waxie" and who lives on the old Alexginning last Friday. One hundred guests further states that the stealing is not done by foreigners, either, but by low-

> Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Gardner, with their two of berries at a time. Finally he was cious blackberries; as she had bought ten George R. Meek with Mrs. Meek, their | quarts of them several days previous and

ANOTHER PRISONER ESCAPED FROM THE were undecided what to do. At last they PENITENTIARY. - Ario de Santis, alias Ari started down Nittany valley but when Desantise, made his escape from the they reached Lamar hit the trail up penitentiary at Rockview at an early Fishing creek, coutinued through Brush hour last Friday morning and at this and Pennsvalleys and crossed the Seven writing has not been recaptured. Santis mountains to Lewistown, where they had was housed in the temporary prison in dinner. They returned to the Club for the stockade and at 2.06 o'clock Friday Sunday night. On Monday they went all morning got permission to go out of the the way to Lock Haven for dinner re- prison. He passed out of the stockade TEMPERANCE LEAGUE ORGANIZED.- turning to Bellefonte late in the after- and went up the hill toward the death State Grange. 1.30 p. m., addresses by Harry Monsel, of Bellefonte. Funeral services were held at his late home at The largely attended and representative noon, completely tired out with their trip. house where he was accosted by another Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Tate and Mrs. guard. The latter told him to return to vania State Grange, and Hon. Frank church at four o'clock on Wednesday Rev. E. H. Yocum, after which burial the Centre county W. C. T. U., which Tate's sister, Mrs. Harmer, returned his quarters and he stated that he would, was held in Petrikin hall, on Wednesday Tuesday from a four day's motor trip to starting at once in that direction. The afternoon, was a good one, indeed, and Clearfield county, where they were visit- morning was very foggy and he soon became lost to sight from the guard, Labor day also ushered in the week's Twenty minutes later when the guard Revere, Mass., on Tuesday of last week, women and practically a men's organiza-given by Henry Keller at the Country returned and a general alarm of his escape was then sent out The men present outnumbered the social doings among them being a dinner reported at the stockade the man had not scape was then sent out. Within a few minutes the big sirene of Scripture had been read by Prof. On Tuesday evening the young friends whistle was put in operation and the Bellefonte over fifty years ago. His boy-Marshman, of State College, and prayer of Mrs. Edward Garbrick gave her a entire countryside warned of the prison-data were dispatched in was like groping for a needle in a haystack. On Friday the prisoner was rehe was reported to have gotten his breakthe Anti-Seloon League, was appointed Mrs. James B. Lane entertained a fast from a woman at Unionville. Guards were sent to both places but failed to find the man. Santis is registered at the penitentiary as A-8603. He is of Italian nationality for active work to be done to make the friends who will leave within a week for and about twenty-nine years old. He is 5 feet 25 inches tall and weighs 130 pounds. His hair is a chestnut brown ber of the girls who are on the eve of and as distinguishing marks the thumb on his left hand is deformed and the first home on Linn street, from three to five finger amputated at the second joint. When he left he wore a white and blue Mrs. J. M. Curtin and Mrs. J. Norman striped shirt, blueish trousers of coarse Sherer entertained with a supper party material, brogan shoes and blueish cap. at the Country club Wednesday evening. He was sent to the penitentiary from Blair county on March 8th, 1915, for not The dance at the Logan hall Friday less than one year and eight months, nor night of last week, was originated by Ce- more than two years and six months for the most trusted ones. FUNK-HINES.-R. L. Funk, of Lamar, and Miss Gertrude G. Hines, of Mingoville, were married at the home of Mrs. William Grenoble, in Lock Haven, at seven o'clock last Friday evening, by Rev. A. F. Weaver, pastor of the United Evangelical church. Mr. and Mrs. Funk will reside at Lamar. CHANGE OF PASSENGER FARE .- September 10th, 1915, the Bellefonte Central railroad will return to the passenger fares in force one year ago, which will make the only candidate for that office on the the round trip tickets between Bellefonte Republican ticket up to Tuesday of last and State College, 75 cents, 5 cents less week, the last day for filing papers, when than now in force. One way tickets, 60 -J. Kennedy Johnston candidate for the office of judge stands for all our people upon an equal justice basis. Charges are being made against him by some, but the source of these charges is conclusive proof that he is the kind of a 60-36-2t

On October 10th, 1881, he was united

Mr. Jones died about sixteen years ago member of the 148th regiment. Funeral Lewisburg, whose subject is "Why Women Should Vote." 2.30 p. m., addresses by Hon. A. L. Martin, Deputy Secretary of Agriculture, and Hon. John McSparran, Master of the Pennsylvania State Grange. 7.30 p. m., the last moving picture entertainment with excellent music. Friday, Sept. 17-Sales day for exhibitors, and social day for campers.

NITTANY FURNACE PARTIALLY DE-MOLISHED. - Following close upon the tearing down of the Bellefonte furnace Minerva Scott and Mrs. Vicey Martin, of the low stack at the Nittany furnace Pittsburgh; Mrs. Anna Luse and Miss plant was thrown last Thursday afternoon and the large stack will be torn also leaves three brothers and one sister, down as soon as arrangements can be namely: Lucien McKinley, of Lewismade to do so. The tearing down of the town; James, of Milesburg; Samuel and Nittany stack was done in the same way as that of the Bellefonte stack a week services were held at his late home at previous, but the fall was not as perfect. Northwood at two o'clock on Wednesday After the underpinning had been blown afternoon by Rev. E. G. Sawyer, followout from under one side of the stack and ing which burial was made in the Granda haul made on the rope, the ponderous view cemetery, Tyrone. stack swung a little to one side and a portion of it crumbled at the foot of the big stack. This debris will all have to be cleared away before the big stack can be pulled down. When the latter is done it will mark the end of an iron industry that started here when the old Logan furnace was built on the site of the Nittany iron company plant away back in 1800. The Logan furnace was afterwards purchased and operated by John a few years and held a position in the Funeral services were held in the Pleas. Dunlop and years later passed under the stationery department of the United ant View chapel on Monday afternoon control of the Valentines, who operated States government at Washington under by Rev. S. S. Clark, after which burial it for half a century, finally changing it the Cleveland administration. During was made in the Advent cemetery. from a charcoal to a regular blast fur- the past few years he filled the office of nace with coke as the fuel. Upwards of thirty years ago the Nittany Iron complant and still later the furnace was Quigley, at home; one sister, Mrs. Bobb, the Empire Furnace company, until its Capt. James A. Quigley, of Blanchard, shut down some five years ago.

COLEVILLE GIRL WINS PONY AND CART. old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George made in the Disciple cemetery. Hollabaugh, of Coleville, is the proud possessor of a pony and cart awarded her by the publishers of Farm and Fireside of July Mrs. John Taylor, of Colyer, sat William H. Doll, George, Frank, Louis ed very much like a regular night-time nal. The Farm and Fireside has a stand- caught a cold, typhoid fever developed and Edward Doll, of Altoona. ing offer of a pony and cart to every boy and after six week's illness she died on and girl who turns in a certain number Friday, August 27th. She was a daughlast Thursday and is now so happy over brother, Charles Fye, of Colyer. her success that she has asked the apoplexy at his home at Northwood, near Tyrone, at 2.20 o'clock on Monday morning. He was a son of Samuel and Elizabeth McKinley and was born at Milesburg on September 15th, 1850, hence was until two years ago when he moved to Northwood.

Union cemetery.

Surviving him are the following children: Carl McKinley, of Howard; Mrs. Maretta McKinley, of Milesburg. He Mrs. Anna Brown, of Bellefonte. Funeral

QUIGLEY .- Frank T. Quigley, a well known resident of Beech Creek, died at 42 years, 8 months and 21 days old. She ten o'clock last Saturday morning as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained children, Julia, Bessie and Freda. She ten days previous.

and was born at Beech Creek sixty years don and Mrs. John Grove, of Bellefonte; ago. Most of his life was spent in that Mrs. George Schreffler, Osceola Mills, place, though he resided in Lock Haven and William McMullen, of Johnstown. assessor for Beech Creek borough.

and Charles Quigley, of Lock Haven.

1 TAYLOR.-During one of the hot days and the following brothers and sister: Bald Eagle valley after midnight, it look-

Funeral services were held in the Zion death. Mr. Moyer made frequent visits right forehead and puncturing his lower blank. ing the church.

Mrs. Adolph Sternberg and was born in within nine days of being sixty-five years ton, D. C., and for several years was emold. He was a roller by occupation and ployed in the government printing office. From there he was to Lowell Mars. a committee composed of F. H. The same evening Miss Carrie Anderworked at the McCoy & Linn iron works From there he went to Lowell, Mass. and accepted a position on the Daily late years he had been employed by the Suburban Gas and Electric company, of Revere. He is survived by his wife but no children. Only a few weeks ago the WATCHMAN published a notice of the death of Mr. Sternberg's father, in Philadelphia, with the names of all of his surviving children.

SHAFFER.-Following a painful illness with elephantiases of the limb Mrs. Arvilla M. Shaffer, wife of "Buck" Shaffer Jr., died at the Bellefonte hospital at ten o'clock last Saturday morning. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMullen, of Milesburg, and was born on December 12th, 1872, being at death is survived by her husband and three also leaves her mother and the following He was a son of the late Judge Quigley brothers and sisters: M.s. Samuel Gor-time.

NIGHTHART .- Mrs. Mary Doll Night-He is survived by his wife and two hart, wife of Charles Nighthart, died at the salted peanut man of Philipsburg. Hall, of this place, on Friday filed the pany was organized and took over the daughters, Misses Helen and Lillian Bellefonte hospital about four o'clock on with A. M. Nesbit, also of Philipsburg, operated by the Centre Iron Co., and of Mechanicsburg, and two brothers, illness with a complication of diseases. of Port Matilda, were victims of a dis-Wednesday afternoon after seven weeks and Misses Hilda and Mildred Williams, She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. astrous automobile accident near How-Louis Doll and was born in Bellefonte and on Tuesday night, and as a result The funeral was held on Tuesday thirty years ago. She was married to Mr. Emory may be a marked man for -Miss Oleta Hollabaugh, the fifteen year afternoon at two o'clock, burial being Mr. Nighthart about eight years ago and life. It may not have been a joy riding he survives with two children, John and party but with four people crowded into Edward. She also leaves her parents a Buick runabout and speeding down for soliciting subscriptions to that jour- on the ground while shelling peas. She Jr., and Mrs. John Pearl, all of Bellefonte, outing.

WATCHMAN to extend her sincere thanks Evangelical church near Colyer on Sun- to Bellefonte and Centre county. Among lip. He was taken to the hospital for to every person who assisted her by giv- day, August 29th, by Rev. Bierly and his survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Eliza- treatment. None of the other occupants ing her their subscription to the above burial was made in the cemetery adjoin- beth Martin, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Sal were seriously hust. The car was almost ligaments in his ankle on Sunday and lie Boggs, of Altoona. a total wreck.

lines were made. The name of the new are going away to school. organization is "The Centre County Temperance League." Twenty-three branch-

BAD AUTO ACCIDENT .- William Emory,

Just this side of Howard where the hood days were spent in Bellefonte and offered by Rev. Brown, of Millheim, the miscellaneous shower, at the home of washing by the miscellaneous shower, at the home of all directions but with the dayse for it meeting was declared open and proceed- her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hazel, all directions but with the dense fog it

Thomas, of Bellefonte; John I. Thomp- son entertained in honor of Mrs. Cassi- ported to have been seen near the Kep-News, a position he held ten years. Of Some Church the Daily son, of Lemont; Prof. Irving Foster, of dy's guest, Miss Martha Mochman, of hart farm on Buffalo Run and Saturday

Miss Eleanore Parker gave a dinner on

Miss Ruth Gamble entertained a num-They were followed by the recommenda- going away to school, at her parents' o'clock, last Friday afternoon.

Thirty covers were laid for the party. of State College, secretary, and G. L. cil Walker, and given in compliment to receiving stolen goods. Santis had althe number of the younger set leaving ways been a model prisoner and one of

> Miss Mary Rankin entertained Tuesday night in honor of her friends who

G. WILLARD HALL WITHDRAWS AS A es have already been formed and the un- CANDIDATE FOR PROTHONOTARY. - Folorganized territory will be visited in due lowing close upon the filing of nomination papers by Ira G. Burkett, of Storms-town, as a candidate for Prothonotary papers of his withdrawal as a candidate for the same office. Mr. Hall had been Mr. Burkett filed his papers. Mr. Hall's cents. Round trip tickets, 75 cents. withdrawal so soon afterwards, leaving Mr. Burkett the only candidate, smells very much of a deal of some kind, though the exact particulars have not yet appeared upon the surface.

FARMS FOR SALE BEING LISTED BY state road ends there is a sharp turn to STATE.-The Pennsylvania Department man that the people need as their judge. MOYER.-Edward Moyer, an old Cen- connect with the old road. The driver of Agriculture is now preparing a bulleof subscriptions and Miss Hollabaugh ter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fye, of Pot- tre countian, died on August 31st at his failed to see the danger spot in time with tin giving a list of farms in Pennsylvania not only sent in the required number but ter township, and was thirty-one years home in Valley Falls, Kan. He was born the result that he ditched his car and all that are for sale. Anyone having a farm enough more to win for her a saddle and old. In addition to her husband she is in Bellefonte in 1833 and lacked only a the occupants were thrown out. Emory for sale, who is willing to dispose of it at candy sale, Saturday September 18th. riding bridle, in addition to the pony and survived by three small sons, Theodore, few days of being 82 years old. He serv- lit headfirst in a barbed wire fence cut- a reasonable price, may receive aid by Generous contributions are asked from cart outfit. She received all the above George and Charles. She also leaves one ed during the Civil war and went west in ting a deep gash in his chin, one on the writing to the Secretary of Agriculture 1866. Pneumonia was the cause of his right side of the neck, another on the at once for a descriptive application

> -Charles Anderson fell and tore the has since been confined to bed.

----The nurses at the Bellefonte hosevery one, as the proceeds will go towards buying supplies for the hospital.

---It is reported that more or less illegal hunting is being done down Bald Eagle valley. Another job for the state constabs.