Judge Orvis Replies.

Bellefonte, Pa., Sept. 7, 1915. TO MESSRS. JAMES H. POTTER AND C. C. SHUEY.

Gentlemen:-A statement purporting to be signed by yourselves appeared in last week's issue of the Republican. Though it was neither addressed to myself nor any one in particular, it purports to ask a series of questions which imply, at least, reflection upon myself. I do not believe you desire to know the real facts, because if you did you would have taken the trouble to have inquired of me personally, or at least examined the records at the Court House. But in order to satisfy the honest voters of the County who have a right to be informed, I wish to address to you in the most public manner possible, that every implication and injurious inference that can possibly be made from your insulting questions are entirely false.

To be more specific I here state, that I have never received a penny of income or revenue from any liquor business or any business allied with the manufacture or sale of any intoxicating beverage, not even a patent medicine having for one of its principal ingredients wine and alcohol. I have not received for my campaign expenses any money from any licensed or unlicensed person in the county, nor have I the promise from any. In fact, no one has subscribed to my campaign, and I am paying my campaign expenses out of my private resources. The records will show that I have refused many applications for license because of remonstrances and, as a fact, I have never ignored any remonstrances where there has been any pertinent facts alleged and proven. As I propose to publish this in the several newspapers of the County, I will regard further statements or questions of this kind hereafter as malicious falshoods. I beg to remain, Very truly yours, 60-36-1t ELLIS L. ORVIS
