

A Very Good Suggestion. A Young Men's Christian association suggests that the man who must drink have his wife buy a supply and retail the stuff to him. It adds: "Should you live ten years and continue to buy booze from her and then die with snakes in your boots, she will have money enough to bury you decently, educate your children, buy a house and lot, marry a decent man and quit thinking about you entirely."

This Robin Likes Bacon. Close to the master's desk, in one of the new class rooms at Bradford college, a pair of robins have built their nest. The cock bird is exceedingly tame, and breakfasts every morning with the secretary of the college, Henry Money. It likes bacon better than anything else for breakfast.—London Times.

The Two Classes. The late Charles Frohman used to divide Americans into two classes—those who dine in evening dress and those who dine in their shirtsleeves. "Or, to put it better," Mr. Frohman would say, "the two great American classes are, first, those who dress for dinner, and second, those who undress for dinner."

A Trying Ordeal. "Colonel," asked the beautiful girl, "when was the most trying moment of your life?" "It was when I went to my wife's father for the purpose of asking him to let me have her. He was very deaf, and I had to explain the matter before twenty clerks!"—Answers.

The Dog and the Fly. "The dog cares not whether his master is rich or poor, but is as faithful to the stranger as to the owner of a mansion." Same way with the housefly. Never deserts a house because it is humble.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Lock the Bottles to the Door. Louis Levitt and Isidor Randelman of New York have obtained a patent for a means by which the milkman can lock milk bottles to the door of the house to which he delivers them, so that they cannot be removed until the door is opened.

Man is not only of few days and full of prunes, but he is an insignificant mutt at his wedding, his wife's parents are the heroes when the first baby comes, and after that his wife takes over his pay envelope every week.—Houston Post.

Worth While Quotations. "Be not anxious about tomorrow. Do today's duty, fight today's temptation and do not weaken and distract yourself by looking forward to things which you cannot see, and could not understand, if you saw them."—Charles Kingsley.

A Bit of Poetry. Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, don't fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for the refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Prof. Charles Elliott Norton.

The Quiet Chap. Wonder if it ever occurs to the conceited chap that while he is spending his time bragging about his ability the quiet little chap is busily earning his way to another raise in salary?

To Clean an Iron Bed. A tablespoonful of turpentine in a cup of milk makes the best mixture for cleaning an iron bed. Apply with a piece of cheesecloth and polish with flannel.

Future Reform Work. When the modern reformers finish preparing girls for matrimony they might devote their attention to teaching ducks to swim.—Washington Post.

Mankind Classified. Mankind is divided into two classes—those who earn a living and don't get it, and those who get a living without earning it.

Daily Thought. A lie always has a certain amount of weight with those who wish to believe it.—Rice.

Women in Tobacco Factories. There are 3,000 more women than men working in the tobacco factories in Pennsylvania.

No Joke. Brevity may be the soul of wit, but when a man is short it's no joke.

Experience. A boy of ripe experience is too wise to monkey with green fruit.

A Great Summer. This has been a great summer not to camping.

Diplomacy. "Look here, Charlie," said one young undergrad to another, who had been asked to run his eye over a letter which his friend had written to his father, in which there was the inevitable request for money, "you've spelled jug, g-u-g!" "I know," said Charlie; "but you see I need the cash, and don't want the old man to think I'm putting on airs. That's how it spells it."

Ancient Dentistry. Dentistry seems to have been practiced on this side of the ocean almost as early as in Europe or Asia. It is quite likely, indeed, that the art of filling teeth was first discovered here. At any rate, pre-Columbian skulls from both Ecuador and Mexico are in evidence having teeth richly inlaid with gold and in some instances precious stones.

Banana Juice for Snake Bite. In snake-infested countries banana juice is being exploited for snakebite. To test the efficiency of this simple remedy, F. W. Fitzsimmons experimented with the venom of cobra, puff adders and other serpents, trying the banana juice upon animals bitten by the snakes. In no case could he discover that the alleged "cure" had any beneficial effect.

Found Wanting. A New York visitor called us a "hick" because we have never seen a game of golf, but at the same time he confessed that he never saw a watermelon on the vine and couldn't tell when one was ripe. He was indignantly dismissed from our bucolic presence.—Houston Post.

A Hint to Speeders. "Ya-as," said the Maine Philosopher, as the touring car flashed through the town at a 40-mile clip, "ez the Poet Pifficus once said to his lady friend Annesia, them ez hikes too rapid on the ruds of life lose a lot o' fust-class briled lobster that might be et on the way."

Grieving Cow Adopts Eight Lambs. The maternal affection of a cow at the Morton Sheep company's ranch, near Douglas, Wyo., has been satisfied by the adoption of eight motherless lambs. The cow grieved when she lost her calf, but her new family appears to please her greatly.

An Empire Ranch. We hear often of "captains of industry," "Napoleons of finance," and "land barons," but what title is imposing enough to fit the Australian cattleman who owns or controls 28,800,000 acres of ranch land—a domain as large as Pennsylvania?

Should Suspend Judgment. A Detroit woman in suing for divorce because her husband threw money at her. This is one of the cases where the nation should suspend judgment until all the details are made known.—Youngstown Telegram.

A Church Census. Two hundred and twenty thousand American churches served as auditoriums for 170,000 clergymen during 1914. The congregations are estimated to have totaled 40,000,000.

Census of American Birds. A recent national bird census gives about twelve hundred birds to the square mile, or nearly two to an acre. About one-tenth of all the birds were English sparrows.

"Yes," said the confirmed player, with tears in his eyes, "I do. If he hadn't got in the way I'd have made that hole in one less than 'bogey.'"—Judge.

Gaining Knowledge. Even the man who tries the electric fan with his finger has good intentions. His intention is the acquisition of knowledge.—Minneapolis Journal.

Derivation of "Amethyst." In ancient Greece amethysts were worn round the neck to prevent intoxication; hence the name, which means "unintoxicated."

Turtles and Tortoises. About three hundred species of turtles and tortoises are known. Some of these attain a very large size.

Daily Thought. Manners must adorn knowledge and smooth its way through the world.—Chesterfield.

One Way Out. The only way to beat your wife in an argument is to avoid having the argument.

Always. The musician who plays by note has to face the music.

Well Fixed. A wealthy actor must be a "fixed" star.

And Don't Get It. None but the bald deserve the hair.

Judging Cloth by Noise It Makes. The ear can be trained to accustom itself to the sound of the tearing of various materials. The noise accompanying the tearing of cotton is unlike that of linen. The warp has its voice and the filling quite another, the former being shrill while the latter is apt to be dull.

Obviously Misleading. Passing a swimming pool in a small city one day two country women read this sign at the entrance: "25,000 Gals. In and Out Every Hour." "That's all nonsense," said one of the women. "There ain't that many women in this whole county."

Store-Window Advertising. Portions of store windows can be converted into blackboards for sign writing by sandblasting the outside of the glass and painting the inside.

Good Excuse. "John, what possessed you to buy this chow-chow dog?" "I don't know, Maria, unless I was picked."

You Should Know This. The world will have to get along without you some day, don't think that it can't do now.

They are all good enough, but the WATCHMAN is always the best.

Medical.

Take It In Time

JUST AS SCORES OF BELLEFONTE PEOPLE HAVE. Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect kidney backache. Urinary troubles often follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney backache, and for other kidney ills. Bellefonte citizens endorse them. Mrs. B. Holter, Pine St., Bellefonte, says: "Whenever a cold or strain catches a dull, constant ache across the small of my back, I use a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and get relief. Another of the family has also been benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Holter had.
