General Ruzsky is firmly holding back the German left wing on the Dvina front; General Evarts' army escaping the toils of the Vilna salient is successfully continuing its retrograde movement from the Vilna front aoward Minsk, inflicting heavy losses on the pursuing enemy; General Ivanoff's troops are gaining ground against the Teutonic right wing, composed of Austro-German forces, in Volhynia and Galicia. Taken all in all, the positions of the great Russian armies are highly favorable. This summary of the military situation was made by a high official of the Russian war office. At the same time he expressed the belief that the German offensive on the front between the Baltic and the Pripet marshes was nearing its end. To corroborate this he cited information to the effect that three German corps (120,000 men) had disappeared from the front. It is probable that these troops have been transferred to the Serbian front, he said. The Germans apparently fear to entrust the Austrian army again with the task of conducting an invasion of Serbia. The official confirmed reports that General Evarts army had extricated itself from the German enveloping movement of General von Hindenburg and Prince Leopold. "The German efforts to surround a large part of our forces resulted in complete failure," he asserted. "The Bavarians suffered terrific losses in their advance south of Slonim. This halted Prince Leopold until he could receive reinforcements, and when these arrived the German time table had been upset. "The Russian army is intact. Their morale is unimpaired. It is a characteristic of the Russian soldier that he fights well on retreat as well as on advance. Never has this shown in larger measure than in our recent campaign of steady withdrawals."

Russian Dvinsk Line Pierced.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg's troops have pierced the Russian positions over a front of nearly two miles southwest of Dvinsk (Dunaburg), it was officially announced by the German war office.

The Germans captured nine officers, 2000 men and eight machine guns. Troops of the command of Prince Leopold have stormed the Russian positions on the Myschanka river, on both sides of the Brest Litovsk-Minsk railway, capturing 1000 prisoners and Stuttgart, capital of the kingdom of Wurtemburg, according to the French official communication. They dropped about a hundred shells on the royal palace and the station. They also droped bombs at different points along the way. The official statement issued by the war office thus describes the affair: "In retaliation for the bombardments by the Germans of open towns and civilian populations of France and England, a group of aeroplanes set out to bombard Stuttgart, capital of Wurtemburg. About a hundred shells were dropped on the royal palwhich cannonaded different points Goiters Successfully Removed ace and the station. Our aeroplanes, along the line, returned in safety to

POUNDING GERMAN LINES

Allies Rain Continuous Hail of Artillery on Foe's Trenches.

The artillery fighting along the western front, so prevalent in the past few weeks, has extended to Be: gium, according to the French official General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief and the allied commanders on this front-Field Marshal Sir John French and King Albert of Belgium-are developing a new plan of campaign that involves the almost continuous use of artillery on a vast scale along the whole line.

Masses of artillery have been employed by both sides since the beginning of operations in preparing for infantry attacks, pounding their adversaries' works for an hour or two, then suddenly suspending fire and assaulting with infantry.

The allies are now methodically maintaining their shell fire for days at a time without infantry attacks, dropping projectiles upon the charred front into every fifty-yard square, and repeating the process-a deadly, autounceasing pounding. The heavy calibred guns send their storms of shells upon encampments of first reserves behind the lines, and upon the bridges and provision trains.

Official reports show that parts of the opposing lines which have been subjected to this unceasing bombard ment have been rendered entirely un tenable and that the best the Germans can do is to reoccupy their abandone i works after the bombard. ments have let up and then leave quickly when the showers of projectiles begin to fall again.

FALLS DEAD ON STREET CAR

Woman Had Fortune in Money and Jewels Concealed in Clothing. A plainly dressed middle aged woman boarded a south-bound Sixth avenue car in New York at Forty-second

When the car reached Fortieth street she suddenly pitched forward to the floor, and when she was picked up she was dead.

It was not until an hour later, at the West Thirtieth street police station, after $50,000 worth of jewelry and more than $12,000 in cash had been removed from the lining of her corset that her identity was revealed. She is Mre Annie Vaughan Watson, wife of Henry W. Watson, former congressman from the Eighth Pennsylvania district, whose country estate is at Langhorne, in Bucks county. Heart failure was the cause of her

Mr. Watson called at the police station and nearly collapsed when told his wife was dead.

The cash found upon the dead woman totaled $12,186.85; $11,600 was in bills of $100 denomination and the remainder in smaller bills and gold pieces, each wrapped separately. The money was not all together, but the neat, crisp bills were contained in French Aviators Bombard Stuttgart double silk water-proofed envelopes of about $1000 each.
