THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Monday morning's frost was a real "opening of the chestnut burr."
—Dorothy, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Straub, is seriously ill as the result of an attack of the grip.
—The High school football team defeated the Yeagertown High school team last Saturday by the score of 22 to 0.
—Dr. Joseph Helfrich has moved from Dr. Schlad's apartments in Petrikin hall, to the Benner house on High street.
—It was just 423 years on Tuesday since Columbus discovered America but nobody in Bellefonte made any fuss about it.
—Miss Julia McDermott was taken home on Wednesday after being a medical patient in the Bellefonte hospital for a month.
—A bouncing baby boy arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Peters on Sunday night, and the young parents are correspondingly happy.
—The two little children of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Baney have been practically housed up for a month with severe attacks of the whooping cough.

—Gettysburg will be Penn State's opponents on the Beaver field grid-iron at State College tomorrow. Game will be called at three o'clock sharp.
—Rev. L. V. Jones has been returned as pastor of Bellefonte A. M. E. church by the annual conference which closed its sessions at Pittsburgh on Monday.
—A dinner for which fifteen covers were laid, was given by Mrs. John L. Olewine at the Country club, Thursday. Mrs. Olewine also entertained at her home on Spring street, Monday evening.

—The WATCHMAN would like to have a record of the game killed today, especially wild turkeys, and would kindly ask its readers to telephone to this office any time today a list of game bagged in any part of the county.
—Mrs. Jane Tate very quietly celebrated her eighty-eighth birthday Monday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fetterhoff. Mrs. Tate has been ill for the past three weeks, and although better, has not regained her former vigor.
—Eight big bargain days will begin in Bellefonte today. Bellefonte merchants have combined in this sale and the public is to reap the benefit. Nothing like it ever offered before. Buy now and get the advantage of a big reduction in prices.
—Ira D. Garman, who has represented the 46th ward of Philadelphia in select council the past four years, is a candidate for re-election, and we have no doubt he will be successful as he is on the Democratic, Washington and Franklin party ticket.

—The Titan Metal company began work on Tuesday in turning out its first big order. The order is for both round and square rods of Titan bronze. The company also has several additional large orders under consideration, with more in view if they can be filled on time.
—Announcements have been received in Bellefonte of the marriage on Wednesday of Miss Mildred Grimm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Grimm, of Punxsutawney, to John Deibert Kistner, of the same place. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grimm and is very well known in Bellefonte.
—The Penn State football team surprised its most ardent supporters on Saturday by defeating the U. of P. at Philadelphia 13 to 3, scoring all the points in the third period after Penn had made her tally in the second period. Berryman and Higgins were the stars for Penn State with Yeager in the "special mention" list.
—Word has been received in Bellefonte of the marriage on Saturday of last week of Mrs. Cyrus Gordon, widow of the late Judge Gordon, of Clearfield, and Mr. Geo. H. Shultz, a wealthy retired manufacturer of Philadelphia. The marriage took place in Philadelphia and was a very quiet event. Mrs. Gordon is well known by many people in Bellefonte.

—Bellevonters who have not yet secured their season tickets for the Y. M. C. A. Star course should do so without delay. The first number in the course will be on Friday evening, October 29th, when the Davenny Festival Quintet will give a concert in the opera house. This is a musical organization of considerable merit and their entertainment should not be missed by any lover of good music.
—Peter Mendis, the well known junk dealer of Bellefonte, left on Monday for Tampa, Florida, to take charge of that forty-three acre fruit farm he purchased some time ago. His property on east High street was purchased by A. Latina, the shoemaker in Bush Arcade. Mr. Mendis still retains his farm east of Bellefonte which will assure his return to Centre county at least once or twice a year. Over half of Mr. Mendis' Florida farm is already planted in fruit and he expects to begin reaping the benefit in a few months.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS.—Miss Rebecca N. Rhoads, president of the W. C. T. U., was injured in an automobile accident last Saturday morning when her car collided with a train of dinky cars at the lime kilns along the state road north of town. Miss Rhoads was preparing to leave on a motor trip through the western part of the State on Saturday afternoon and that morning had some adjustments made to her car at Sebring's garage. She then decided to test it out and with Richard Weston driving and herself and Edward Zong, her regular chauffeur, all on the front seat they drove around the block and out Linn street and down the state road.
While a number of people saw the accident and two stories agree. It appears, however, that a train load of stone was being hauled from the quarry to the kilns. There were two cars in front of the dinky engine and four in the rear. One of the trainmen held up his hand as a notice of caution but it is claimed the driver mistook it as a signal to go ahead. In any event he drove on at a fair rate of speed and when he realized his danger it was too late to stop or turn out. In fact he claims that the brakes would not hold. The result was the car crashed into the two rear cars of the stone train and Miss Rhoads was thrown out, alighting on her face on a pile of gravel. She sustained one broken tooth and some bad bruises, but no broken bones. Both men escaped injury.
The car was badly damaged. The left front wheel was wrecked, the axle bent, lamp broken, a hole knocked in the radiator and the windshield bent. The car is a Premier, which was purchased this summer by Miss Rhoads. The impact of the car against the loaded stone cars was so great that both of them were broken.

On Sunday afternoon two cars were wrecked in a collision at the three hills this side of Zion, as the result of reckless driving. A Hupmobile owned by a Lock Haven party was going down the road and according to people who saw the affair was being driven at high speed. There was another car ahead and right on the brow of the hill the driver of the Hup attempted to pass the other car. Coming up the road was Luther Stevenson and family, of near Salona, in an Overland car. He turned out to allow the first car going east to pass and as he did so the Hup car swung to his side of the road with the result that they met in a head-on collision.
The Hup car being the lightest was thrown head first up on the bank, the entire front part of it being wrecked. The front part of Mr. Stevenson's Overland was also badly damaged. Mrs. Stevenson, who was in the rear seat, was thrown forward against the front seat by the force of the collision and got a bad bump on the left arm, but fortunately not hard enough to fracture the bone. None of the other occupants of the two cars were injured.

SOME PEACH CROP. This.—There are very few families in Bellefonte who have not had this season one or more baskets of peaches from the famous Allegheny mountain orchard of Charles P. Reese, and yet how few know anything about his orchard. Mr. Reese will clean out his last peaches next week and when this is done he will have disposed of a crop of 11,000 bushels, gathered from an orchard of 8,000 trees. The work of caring for this orchard, picking and marketing the fruit is mostly done by Mr. Reese and his family of five boys and four girls, all of whom are at home. And peaches are not the only fruit raised, as he has a very good black raspberry orchard, which yields a bigger profit with less work than the peaches.
Mr. Reese's mountain home, by the way, is an ideal one. His house is equipped with running water, hot and cold, from a spring high enough up the mountain to give ample pressure. The surroundings are delightful and all in all it is a pleasant place to live. At present Mr. Reese is suffering with a bad cold but that does not prevent him extending wide open hospitality to all his friends.

HON. CHAS. E. PATTON APPOINTED SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE.—Governor Brumbaugh on Tuesday appointed former Congressman Charles E. Patton, of Clearfield, Secretary of Agriculture to succeed N. B. Critchfield. He will assume the office, to which a $5,000 salary is attached on October 15th (today).
According to a statement sent out from Harrisburg the selection of Mr. Patton was made by the Governor after long and careful study of men suggested for the place. Dozens of names were placed before the Governor, including some who had been prominent in political affairs and in agriculture's allied branches. He canvassed every man and had some of them go there to meet him. No appointment at the capitol has aroused so much interest and as the weeks went on while the Governor was studying the men much speculation was indulged in. The department, which had marked time for a little while after the new commission was named, went ahead with its routine work and Mr. Patton will go there finding everything in full blast.
—Mrs. Sidney Keefer, who recently purchased the W. A. Ishler property on east Bishop street, moved into it on Wednesday while William Smith and family moved into the house vacated by Mrs. Keefer.

—Beginning today the merchants of Bellefonte have combined in one of the biggest bargain sales ever offered by any town. The sale will continue for eight days or until the close of business Saturday, October 23rd. Bargains representing a discount of from 25 to 50 per cent are offered on all lines of merchandise and it will pay any person to stock up now.
—Returning from Philadelphia this week M. A. Landsy brought with him from the Antrim & Landsy studio a splendid portrait of the late Richard S. Brouse, which has been much admired by all who have seen it. It is not only a splendid likeness in every detail but is executed with so much skill and technique as to bring out the distinctive expression of the face remembered so well by Mr. Brouse's most intimate friends.
—There is no "watchful waiting" policy pursued at the Scenic. Manager T. Clayton Brown believes in going after things and that is the reason he is now showing so many big features in the moving picture line. He goes on the proposition that there is nothing too good for Bellefonte, and the crowds that attend the Scenic every evening are evidence that the people appreciate his efforts. Every evening a change of program.
—Otto Gano and Todd Williamson, two experienced hotel men, last week purchased the furnishings and good will of the New Crawford hotel at Jersey Shore, from Mrs. R. Bruce Garbrick, and took charge of the same on Monday morning. Mrs. Garbrick is the widow of Bruce Garbrick, who died a few months ago while in charge of the above hotel. She is a resident of Bellefonte and is to be congratulated on having successfully disposed of her husband's interest in the above hotel.
—The State-Centre Electric company started work on Monday morning on installing the new street lighting system. A boulevard system will be installed from the railroad to the Diamond and from Bishop street to Howard street, with an extension from Howard to Linn and west on Linn to Rhoads' corner, citizens on those two thoroughfares having raised a fund sufficient to pay half the expense of installing it. When the new system is completed Bellefonte should be better lighted than ever before.
—Readers of the WATCHMAN are requested to bear in mind the fact that there is a rare treat in store for them on Tuesday evening, October 26th, when that eminent monologue actor, James Francis O'Donnell, will present "The Sign of the Cross" in St. John's Catholic church. Mr. O'Donnell has appeared in hundreds of cities throughout the United States and has always given the utmost satisfaction. Local talent will also appear that evening and the entertainment will be doubly worth the small price of fifty cents admission.

—The Bellefonte Academy football team will have as their opponents on Hughes field tomorrow afternoon the Carlisle Indian reserves. This will be the last game the Academy will play on the home field this season. The Indians that will be here this year must not be compared with the team that was here last year. They were not even good practice for the Academy team but this year they have been putting up a fast game and the Academy will have to play hard to win. The game will be called promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Admission 50 cents.
—Bellefonters who were lucky enough to be near the Diamond about four o'clock on Sunday afternoon were favored with an impromptu concert by seven members of the famous Repass band, Williamsport. The aggregation had been traveling the State in an automobile while taking a vacation and the part of a "Leddie German band." They passed through Bellefonte on Saturday on their way to Altoona where they spent some time. Returning they visited Tyrone and Philipsburg. When they arrived at Milesburg on Sunday afternoon they stopped and wanted to give a sacred concert but some of the citizens of that place objected and also told them that they would not be allowed to play in Bellefonte. But they were, and the few pieces they played were much enjoyed by all who heard them.
—Governor Brumbaugh's "Seeing Pennsylvania First" party, which passed through Centre county last Thursday, got an inkling of life at the new western penitentiary when they were served a luncheon in the new laundry now being used as the prison dining hall; eating off of the same dishes used by the prisoners, waited on by convicts and with a bill of fare only a little more elaborate than is served the prisoners daily. It was a novel experience but the entire party seemed to enjoy it. The Governor's party, by the way, lost no time in superfluous stops, going through Bellefonte at a twenty mile clip, at least. In fact, it is pretty authoritatively stated that the party exceeded the speed limit on most of its run. All the cars were high powered six cylinders and the drivers seemed determined to keep up a speed of anywhere from forty to sixty miles an hour. If the purpose of the trip was to test out the various state highways both the Governor and Highway Commissioner Cunningham no doubt realized the efficiency of the roads for speeding purposes.

MANY HUNTERS WILL GO GUNNIN' TODAY.—Hundreds of hunters in Centre county, as well as invaders from other counties, will invest the mountains of Centre county bright and early this morning to usher in the hunting season. And while pheasants and squirrel will be two kinds of game that will not be overlooked the average hunter will have his eye on wild turkey. It has been three years now since wild turkeys were lawful game in the State of Pennsylvania and if there is anything in protection they ought to be quite plentiful this year. But they are a hard bird to get and lucky will be the hunter who comes home this evening with a turkey as the result of his day's hunt. Pheasants are reported plentiful but squirrel are scarce.
The following list shows the game birds and animals for which the season opens today, the number that a hunter may kill during a season and the date of closing:
Bear, one each season, Dec. 15.
Blackbirds, unlimited, Nov. 30.
English, Mongolian, Chinese and ring neck pheasants, four in one day, 10 in one week, 20 in one season, Nov. 30.
Hungarian quail, four in one day, 10 in one week, 20 in one season, Nov. 30.
Quail (Virginia partridge), eight in one day, 25 in one week, 40 in one season, Nov. 30.
Raccoon, unlimited, Dec. 31.
Ruffed grouse (pheasant) five in one day, 20 in one week, 30 in one season, Nov. 30.
Snipe, Jack or Wilson, unlimited, Jan. 1.
Squirrels, fox, gray or black, six of combined kinds in one day, 20 in one week, 40 in one season, Nov. 30.
Wild turkeys, one in one day, one in one week and two in one season, Nov. 30.
Woodcock, 10 in one day, 20 in one week and 30 in one season, Nov. 30.
The season for rabbits will not open until Nov. 1 and deer Dec. 1.
One of the busiest places in Bellefonte yesterday was the county treasurer's office. Almost the entire day from six to a dozen men stood in line while County Treasurer John D. Miller and two clerks worked like trojans turning out hunters' licenses. On one desk was a pile of one, two and five dollar bills taken during the day, while a big pile of applications and checks represented the licenses to be sent by mail. Up to noon yesterday just 2376 licenses had been granted, almost seven hundred more than last year on the same date. So that if every man who has gotten a license goes into the woods this morning for the opening of the season it will be equivalent to two army regiments on a war footing. And Centre county hunters will not be the only ones on Centre county mountains because a number of automobiles filled with hunters, guns and dogs passed through Bellefonte yesterday afternoon and evening in order to be on the ground bright and early this morning.

CONDUCTOR LENTZ WON THIRD PRIZE.—Conductor George E. Lentz, of Bellefonte, won third prize in the Philadelphia Press' most popular conductor contest which closed on Saturday night. W. P. Whitehouse, of Ridgway, was first with 3,764,605 votes; R. A. Christy, Ridgway, second with 2,682,253 votes and Mr. Lentz third with 2,226,472 votes. Mr. Lentz received as a prize a conductor's standard nickel lantern.
