8 Bulgar Armies

Press Serbs Hard.

Foe is Within 35 Miles of Nish-Rus sia in Bitter Manifesto Declarer War on Bulgaria.

Latest reports from the near eas indicate that Serbia is in deadly dan ger of being overwhelmed by the ar mies of her neighbor.

No less than eight Bulgarian forces have crossed into Serbian territory

Serbia faces the further peril of at attack by a Turkish army, with am ple' artillery, according to Salonika which reports the Ottoman forces to be marching along the Greek-Bulgar border. Previous Athens advices in dicated the concentration of Turkisl forces near Dedeagatch.

On the other hand Russia, which declared last week that a state of war existed between herself and Bul garia, by reason of the latter's attack on Serbia, issued her formal declara tion of war, accompanied by a mani that the ministers from Uraguay, Bo festo filled with bitter denunciation livia and Guatemala and the ambasof King Ferdinand.

The latest Bulgarian success report ed is the capture of Egri Palanka southeast of Vranja, where the Bul garians have already succeeded in cut ting the Salonika-Nish railway. Egr. Palanka is thirty miles from the rail way, and its capture offers the route for another advance on the railroad

The Austro-German forces are ad vancing slowly but steadily, their lat est claim being that a junction has been effected to the west of Semen dria and Vranja.

Violent fighting is in progress be tween Anglo-French troops and Bul garians in the vicinity of Vranja, i' is reported from Salonika, where many wounded have arrived. Istik is reported to have been occupied by the Bulgars.

The main Bulgarian army under General Boachteff is only thirty-five miles from Nish, the Serb capital.

Serbia, as a result of the swift ad wance of the enemy, is severed from all communication with the world and until the allied troops, advancing by forced marches to her aid, restore the railway line, cut at this point, she must depend on her own resources alone

Within three days, military men be lieve, Bulgaria, with the railroad from Vranja northward to Nish in opera tion, should be able to throw a large army before the capital.

The Bulgarian army which occupied Kotchana is continuing westward in spite of obstanite resistance, its evi dent objective being Uskub in the Vardar valley. Uskub lies at the juno tion of the Salonika-Nish railway and the railroad from Milervoitza.

Hundreds of civilians at Vranje are reported to have been shot by the Bulgarians. The town was set 01 fire and partly destroyed.

facto government of Mexico by the United States, in a note sent to Eliseo Arrendondo, Carranza's confidential agent in Washington, by Secretary of State Lansing. The note said the government of the United States was glad to recognize the government of which Carranza is the head, and that it is ready at any time to receive an ambassador from that government, and it will send a United States ambassador to Mexico City as soon as possible. Ar redondo was asked to communicate this information to Carranza. Secretary Lansing's note was taken to Carranza's agent by a state department messenger. It was then learned sadors from Brazil, Chile and Argentina, had taken similar action. Each envoy wrote his own note, although they were generally alike in wording. Mr. Arrendondo conferred with Mr Lansing, but said he had called only to pay his respects. It is said he probably will be named ambassador by General Carranza. Henry P. Fletcher, ambassador to Argentina, is among several who are being urged for this post. Fietcher served in the army in Cuba and in the Philippines, and in minor diplomatic posts in China, Portugal and Cuba. No decision has been reached as to an embargo. Mr. Lansing said it was likely an embargo will be placed on all arms and ammunition for Mexico. except to those addressed to the Carranza government. The $1,000,000 of customs duties collected by the Unit ed States at Vera Cruz, and now heid in New Orleans banks, will be turn ed over to Carranza soon. Arrendondc will start for Mexico soon, personally to deliver the notes of recognition tc

General Carranza. Great Britain, France, Spain, Ger many, and Japan, which have awaited the action of the United States, are expected to resume diplomatic rela tions with Mexico soon. The new Chinese minister to Mexico, who re cently arrived in this country, will be accredited to the Carranza gov ernment without delay.

Arms for Villa. President Wilson Issues Proclamation

Forbidding Munition Shipments, Ex cept to Republic's Executive.

ACT Puts Embargo On

President Wilson declared an em bargo on the shipment of arms and ammunition to Mexico.

He signed a supplementary order however, which excepts General Car ranza's government from the embar go, and permits munitions to ge through to him unhampered. The prohibition applies to the factions op posed to the government which the United States has recognized.

The president's proclamation is based upon the authority conferred by congress in 1912, and follows close ly the terms of ex-President Taft's proclamation issued when the revolu tion was on against Madero. It read:

Youth Kills Hunter 1916, let us send you free the Forecast for 1916. Mistaken for a wild turkey by one of his companions, Thomas Kemerer twenty-seven years old, a hunter re siding at Southfork, Pa., was slain instantly near Lewistown when a heavy charge of shot struck him full in the face at cloe range. Clarence Grier, of McVeytown, twenty years old, did the shooting. An inquest was conducted by Justice of the Peace W. F. Roche, of McVeytown, and the jury rendered a verdict of accidental shoting. Grief promised never again to handle a gun. Kemerer had a family. Philip Hertzler, of Port Royal, was the victim of a similar accident, a load of shot striking him in the ab domen and leaving the man in a pre carious condition.

Explosion Maims Student

An explosion in the laboratory caused a general scare among the 600 scholars in the Easton, Pa., High schaal building. A num ber of girl students fainted, and confusion was general. Robert McKim with several other students was in the laboratory under the supervision of Instructor George R. Miller. In disregard of rules, McKim began to make an explosive, an explosion followed, tearing off two of his fingers and injuring him so seriously that he was sent to the hospital. Prof. Miller, Stanley Shriner and Sarah Cheese man also were injured, but not seri ously.
