TWITMYER.—Prof. Harvey B. Twitmyer, a native of Centre county, died quite suddenly of apoplexy on Monday afternoon, while in his office at Knoxville, a suburb of Pittsburgh, where he was principal of the Union High school. Prof. Twitmyer had just given instructions to one of the teachers when he was stricken and died in a few minutes.

Deceased was a son of Emanuel and Lucy Gephart Twitmyer and was born in Walker township, this county, fifty-nine years ago. He was educated in the public schools and later graduated from the University of Michigan. For a number of years he taught in public schools and Academies in western Pennsylvania and finally was selected as principal of the public schools at Greensburg. He remained there a few years then went to Knoxville as principal of the Union High school.

Prof. Twitmyer was a member of the Knoxville Presbyterian church and of the Washington Lodge No. 253, Free and Accepted Masons, as well as many educational societies. He is survived by his wife and one son, J. Harvey Twitmyer. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Dr. J. N. Twitmyer, of Sharpsville; Jeremiah V., of Brookfield, Ill.; Mrs. Mary E. Schreffler, of Wilkensburg; Edwin, of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Samuel Decker, of Bellefonte, and Miss Mary G., of Pleasant Gap. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, burial being made in the South Side cemetery, Pittsburgh.

OSBORN.—Mrs. Ella Wilson Osborn, a former resident of Bellefonte, died at her home in Geneseo, Ill., on Saturday, October 16th, following an illness of several years. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilson and was born in Northumberland county on April 12th, 1844, at her death being 71 years, 6 months and 4 days old. When a girl her parents moved to Centre county and located on a farm in Buffalo Run valley, known as the William Lutz farm. They lived there a number of years and then sold the farm and moved to Bellefonte, occupying a house on south Thomas street.

Following the death of her parents Miss Wilson went west and in 1896 was married at Paw Paw, Ill., to Frederick Osborn, who died five years ago. She leaves no children but is survived by one brother, J. C. Wilson, of Corry. The funeral was held on Monday of last week, burial being made at Barstow, Ill.

FARBER.—Henry Ellsworth Farber, a well known dispatcher on the Pennsylvania railroad, died at his home in Altoona on Saturday morning following several months illness with chronic nephritis. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Farber and was born in Halfmoon township, this county, on December 5th, 1861, making him 53 years, 10 months and 18 days old. When a young man he learned telegraphy and later accepted a position as train dispatcher for the Pennsylvania railroad.

He is survived by his wife and four sons, Raymond, Clarence, Hughes and Ernest. He also leaves two brothers, Jerry and John, of Philipsburg; his mother, Mrs. Margaret Wike; and a half-brother, G. M. Wike, both of Altoona. Funeral services were held at his late home on Tuesday afternoon, after which burial was made in the Oak Ridge cemetery, Altoona.

SUMMEY.—Following an attack of heart disease Daniel C. Summey died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. S. Jones, of Altoona, last Friday afternoon. He was born in Fulton county and was in his sixty-eighth year. He was a carpenter by occupation and for many years lived at State College, moving to Altoona only two years ago. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and the United Workmen of America. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. John S. Dale, of State College; Mrs. A. S. Jones, of Altoona, and Mrs. E. F. Stoddard, of Hyattsville, Md. The remains were brought to Centre county on Monday morning and taken to the Shiloh church where funeral services were held and burial made.

WOLFE.—Mrs. Anna Gahala Wolfe, widow of the late Oliver H. Wolfe, died at her home at Wolfe's Store at 6:45 o'clock last Thursday evening, following an illness of some months with cancer of the liver. Deceased was a daughter of Henry and Rosetta Weaver and was born in Haines township on February 8th, 1855, making her age at death 60 years, 8 months and 13 days. On November 21st, 1871, she was united in marriage to O. H. Wolfe, who died a few years ago. She was the mother of two children, Mary Rosetta, who died less than a year ago, and Edwin R., living at Wolfe's Store. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. C. C. Bell, of Huntingdon; C. A. Weaver, of Coburn; George Weaver and T. A. Weaver and Miss Maggie Weaver, of Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Wolfe was a faithful member of the Lutheran church all her life. She was an ideal wife and mother, an exemplary neighbor and will be greatly missed in the community in which she spent most of her life. The funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Rebersburg on Monday afternoon. Rev. J. L. Metzger officiated and was assisted by Rev. E. L. Kessler. Burial was made in the Union cemetery at Rebersburg.

MIGNOT.—LeRoy Mignot, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mignot, of east High street, died at 11:30 o'clock on Sunday night following an operation for peritonitis. He had been sick less than a week. He was fourteen years old on October first and was unusually bright for his age so that his death is a severe blow to the afflicted parents. He also leaves one brother and a sister, Phillip and Margaret. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church at ten o'clock Wednesday morning by Rev. Father O'Hanlon, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

LOEB.—Albert Loeb, a native of Bellefonte, died in a Chicago hospital on Tuesday following an illness of eleven months with a complication of diseases. He was a son of Adolph and Rosa Loeb and was born in Bellefonte forty years ago. When seventeen years of age the family moved to Chicago and he was in business there up until his late illness. He never married but is survived by his mother and one brother, Herbert Loeb. Burial will be made in Chicago.

KILLED A MONSTER BEAR.—Ira Packer, of Marsh Creek, is just now the hero of that section of Centre county, because he not only killed the first bear in Centre county this season, but it was the biggest bear killed in many years. Mr. Packer, with his brother-in-law, Henry Confer, and several other Marsh Creek hunters, went out into the foothills of the Allegheny mountains on Thursday night for a raccoon hunt. Along toward midnight their dogs treed an animal of some kind, or at least acted as if they had. Naturally the men all gathered around the tree and were discussing the best and easiest way of dislodging whatever was up the tree.

Suddenly there was a crashing of underbrush and before the men realized what was happening a monster bear rushed out of the brush almost upon them. Packer had a gun but the bear was too close to deliberate or take aim and thrusting the muzzle against the bear's head, fired. The animal fell dead in its tracks. It was too big to take home that night so stringing the carcass up as safely as possible the men went out Friday morning with a two horse wagon and hauled it home. The bear dressed 357 pounds. After distributing some of the meat among residents of Marsh Creek Mr. Packer brought some of it to Bellefonte on Friday and disposed of it here.

The hunters are now of the opinion that what they supposed was a raccoon treed by the dogs was really a cub bear and the mother made her rush upon them in defense of her young.

—The State College football team passed through Bellefonte yesterday noon on its trip to Cambridge, Mass., for the game with Harvard tomorrow.

FAIR PLAY—THAT'S ALL

In plain words the Woman Suffrage movement is a plea for a square deal. In a man's world the fellow who does not believe in a square deal, and live up to it, does not stand very high.

If you had no vote, how would you feel about it?

Well, that is the way the women feel about it.

Everybody is going to benefit by woman suffrage—the men as well as the women. But if there were no arguments in its favor other than the single one that it is But Simple Justice, that one alone ought to secure the vote for women in a State where the standard of intelligence is as high as it is in Pennsylvania.

The Suffrage Amendment is Number 1. Vote for it before you turn to "the ticket."

The Centre County Banking Company.

"STOP, LOOK, LISTEN!"

A Lawyer received $10,000 for suggesting these words to a railroad. The sign, "Stop, Look, Listen!" saved the road many thousands of dollars in damages. It's a good sign. It's worth $10,000. Wise people are often warned by a similar sign on the road of extravagance. They stop in time. How about yourself? Think this over seriously. A bank account is the Best Kind of Security at any time. If you haven't a bank account now, start one at once. Any account, however small you are able to begin with, will be welcomed and carefully conserved at
