THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Mack's Associate Players at the opera house all of next week.

—Miss Elizabeth Walker succeeds Miss Winifred M. Gates as stenographer for Harry Keller and J. Thomas Mitchell Esqs.

—Rev. W. M. B. Glanding will deliver the memorial address before the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks on Sunday afternoon, December 5th.

—The Bellefonte Academy football team closed its season last Saturday by defeating the State scrubs on Hughes field by the score of 7 to 0. The Academy won six games and lost two during the season.

—The Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a Christmas sale in the chapel on Thursday, December 9th. Home-made bread, cakes, pies and candy, as well as aprons and fancy work, will be on sale.

—Conductor George E. Lentz recently received from the Philadelphia Press a seventeen jewel Hamilton watch, in a gold case, in recognition of his work and high standing in the popular conductors contest conducted by that paper.

—Mack's Associate Players will open a one week's stand at Garman's Monday evening, November 29th. A change of program nightly, with a Saturday matinee. High class vaudeville between acts. Popular prices. Seats at Parrish's.

—The attention of the public is called to the advertisement in this paper for the public sale of the real estate of the late Laura E. Williams, which will take place at the court house on Saturday, December 4th, at eleven o'clock a. m.

—Sheriff A. B. Lee has twenty prisoners in the county jail and gave them all chicken for their Thanksgiving dinner, a fact they no doubt were thankful for. Some of them, perhaps, would not have fared so well had they been at large.

—Col. H. S. Taylor will deliver the memorial address before the Clearfield Elks at their annual lodge of sorrow on Sunday afternoon, December 5th. The Milton Lodge also desired his services but he had already been engaged by the Clearfield Lodge.

—The Bellefonte High school team put up a good game against the Bellwood High school football team last Saturday afternoon, holding them to a 6 to 6 score. The high school band was out and led the parade to new Hughes field, where the game was played.

—George Bobb, of Coleville, had his celebrated butchering on Tuesday, with the usual big dinner for which Mrs. Robb is so famous, but unfortunately some of the invited guests forgot all about it and failed to get there. But then, that was their loss, not Mr. Robb's.

—Rev. Dr. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, who has been at Clinton, N. Y., since last July for the benefit of his health, was so bad the latter part of last week that several physicians were in attendance. Early this week, however, he rallied and is now somewhat improved.

—Last Sunday's Philadelphia North American published a page of pictures of Pennsylvania women who had been closely identified with the recent woman suffrage campaign and among them was one of Mrs. Robert Mills Beach, of Bellefonte, chairman of the Suffrage party of Centre county.

—The Bellefonte Lodge of Moose gave a banquet and smoker on Saturday evening at which Judge-elect Henry C. Quigley was guest of honor. On Monday night Mr. Quigley and Republican county chairman J. Linn Harris were among the guests at an ox roast held by the Republicans at Snow Shoe.

—According to the signs on the indicator P. H. Gherry will be the next postmaster of Bellefonte. It is generally reported that he was promised the appointment two years ago and now that postmaster Harry Valentine's term is nearing an end it is natural to conclude that Mr. Gherry may be appointed any time.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Grove had as guests over Sunday Mr. Grove's three sisters, Mrs. Amanda Houser, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Julia Shuey and Mrs. Sarah Ethers, of Lemont. It was the first time in a number of years that the brother and three sisters were together for a day and they all enjoyed the gathering very much.

—Centre county has had a real touch of winter during the past week. Beginning last Thursday evening it blew up cold and for several days an unusually high wind prevailed. It continued cold throughout the week and Wednesday morning the ground was covered with snow, the first of the season to lay any length of time.

—Landlord James Noonan, who underwent treatment in the city hospital, Williamsport, for several weeks, returned home last Saturday considerably improved in health. Of course he is not entirely well but his condition is such that he is able to be around the office in the Brant house and look after the hotel management to a certain extent.

EVANGELIST STARKE ENDS CAMPAIGN SUNDAY NIGHT.—The evangelistic campaign conducted the past two weeks at the Methodist church by evangelist Lee Starke, of New York, will close Sunday on which day the evangelist has agreed to deliver three addresses as follows: At 11 a. m., "Seeing Jesus" is to be the topic; at 3 p. m., he is to talk to men only. Subject, "Man Wreckers," and at 7 p. m., the subject of his farewell address to the people of Bellefonte is to be, "The Second Coming of Christ." This is to be one of the evangelist's supreme efforts.

Mr. Starke will preach every night this week at 7.30. His subject for tonight is, "I Love You," and on Saturday night "Does it Pay to Serve Christ?" At this service the evangelist will make a short talk, and then the meeting will be thrown open for Christian men and women to witness for Christ by answering the question, "Has it Paid Me to Live the Christian Life?"

A record breaking crowd should hear the evangelist, not only in his farewell address, but throughout the remaining addresses of this week. Few men have ever preached in our midst who have aroused greater interest in spiritual things than has Mr. Starke. He has labored faithfully and earnestly, and his sermons have been blessed in the conversion of many souls, in the reclamation of backsliders, and the reviving of Christians generally; and it is believed that the good work done during the meetings will continue its effectiveness, and the great religious experience and awakening through which the church has passed will live long.

Mr. Starke's fearless and manly manner of preaching, together with his intense love for his fellow man, has won for him a vast number of friends, who will be genuinely sorry to see him leave. On Monday the evangelist will go to Hastings, Pa., to conduct a series of meetings similar to those about to be concluded here.

HUSTON TOWNSHIP YOUTH ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—John Campbell, the fourteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, of Huston township, is in the Bellefonte hospital suffering with a gunshot wound as the result of the careless handling of a gun that was not supposed to be loaded.

The shooting occurred on Friday evening. The family butchering had been completed at the family home and Frank Dillen, a neighbor, was handling the revolver which had been used to shoot the hogs in the morning. He had been told that it was not loaded and naturally was not as careful as he otherwise would have been. Young Campbell was standing in front of him when there was a report from the accidental discharge of a loaded cartridge in the gun. Campbell dropped to the ground. A physician was hastily summoned who found that the bullet, a 32 calibre steel tipped one had penetrated the youth's abdomen about an inch below the navel and coursing down-wards and obliquely through the lower part of the body came out of the right leg just below the thigh bone.

The wound was dressed and bandaged and Saturday morning Campbell was brought to Bellefonte for further treatment. The fact that he has been getting along splendidly and has developed no bad symptoms shows that no vital spot was penetrated by the bullet in coursing through his body and his early and permanent recovery is anticipated.

APPOINTED AGENT AT PHILIPSBURG.—Wilbur E. Burkholder, who for almost thirteen years has been assistant to passenger agent Harry L. Hutchinson at the Pennsylvania railroad depot in this place, was last week appointed agent at Philipsburg to take the place of Alexander Pearse, deceased. He went to Philipsburg on Friday evening and took charge of the company's affairs there on Saturday morning. John I. Scholl was promoted to succeed Burkholder at the Bellefonte depot and John Shiele, of Clearfield, was appointed to Scholl's position.

During the years Mr. Burkholder has been in Bellefonte he has proven a very capable man and he and his wife have made many warm friends who are sorry to see them leave the town. That he will get along splendidly in his new position no one doubts for a moment and everybody wishes him success as well as commends him to the people of that community. Mr. Burkholder will move his household goods to Philipsburg as soon as he can secure a suitable house.

DREAMS OF STAGELAND.—The following item from Tuesday's Lock Haven Express refers to a Bellefonte "comedian," though he is now located in Lock Haven: Cecil Overton, a well known colored gentleman of this city, will be one of the leading soloists to perform in Cumberland, Md., Christmas. He is taking all the leading tenor solos in the Christmas play entitled "Santa's Prescription." He was one of the prize winners at Mishler's Theatre, Altoona, last year. He is also known as one of the best comedians among his race.

ORCHARD DEMONSTRATIONS.—Beginning next Monday the fall series of orchard demonstrations will be carried throughout the State by the bureau of Economic Zoology. The demonstrator for Centre county will be J. C. Wilson and the dates and places as follows: Monday, November 29th, on the farm of A. J. Gephart, Millheim.

Tuesday, November 30th, on the farm of Newton C. Neidigh, State College.

—As the time for the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. fell on Thanksgiving day, it was postponed until this afternoon, so that it now will be held today, at the usual hour.

—The Ladies Aid society of the Buffalo Run Presbyterian church will hold an oyster supper in the church hall Saturday evening, December 4th. In addition they will have ice cream, cake, candy and nuts on sale. Everybody is cordially invited to attend, have a delightful social evening and help these good women along financially.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rummel, who for a year or more have been located in New York city, have gone to Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Rummel when in Bellefonte was head clerk with Sim, the Clothier, while Mrs. Rummel before her marriage was Miss Maude Campbell. Since leaving Bellefonte they have been constant readers of the WATCHMAN and thus keep posted on all that transpires in Bellefonte and Centre county.

—"I would rather go to the Scenic than the average show," a young lady was heard to remark on the street the other evening; "because I get more for my money than I can in any other place of amusement in Bellefonte." And that's just the reason the Scenic is so well patronized. Manager Brown is giving more for the money than you can get anywhere else. He believes that there isn't anything too good for scenic patrons.

—Six prisoners were taken from the new penitentiary at Rockview back to the old penitentiary at Pittsburgh on Saturday. The men had not engaged in a fight or anything like that, but refused to work on account of the cold weather. Evidently they failed to take into consideration the abundant supply of oxygen they were getting in the gales of pure air which poured across the prison grounds during the stormy days last week.

—The WATCHMAN has thus far omitted to make mention of the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Bartley with their daughter Ruth, of Lock Haven, have come to Bellefonte to make their home, for a time at least, with Mrs. Henry P. Bartley in Bush's Addition. Mr. Bartley's health is such that he has been compelled to relinquish his work with the Clark Printing company, of Lock Haven, in the hope that continued rest will prove beneficial.

—On Saturday of last week William Ronan, of Altoona, was arrested at Howard on a charge of horse stealing preferred by J. C. Burns, of Altoona. Ronan took Burns' horse, buggy, robes, etc. from his stable on Friday afternoon without even asking for it and drove off. He was traced to Tyrone and down Bald Eagle valley finally being arrested at Howard. He was taken back to Altoona and held in five hundred dollars bail on the charge of horse stealing.

—Shortly before six o'clock on Monday evening John Yearick in his automobile collided with a buggy in which were the Misses Margaret, Elizabeth and Barbara Rosenhoover, as they were rounding the corner of the Bush Arcade on their way out Water street. The ladies were all thrown from the buggy, Miss Elizabeth alighting on the hood of Yearick's machine. Miss Barbara was thrown against the machine and had her neck and side injured, while Miss Margaret also sustained injuries to her side.

—The Panther hunting club left over the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania yesterday morning for their annual hunt at the head of Big Bear run in the Allegheny mountains. They went out at this early date in order to get properly established in camp and have a few days bird hunting before the opening of the deer season next Wednesday. The party this year includes W. C. Cassidy, A. Linn McGinley, Edmund Blanchard, Henry Kline, William H. Brown, William H. Brouse, James Clark, David Washburn, August Glinz and Charles Osmer, of Bellefonte, and Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia.

—Traffic on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad between Bellefonte and Sunbury has increased to such an extent since the line was taken over by the Pennsylvania railroad company a year or so ago that some extensive improvements are necessary to keep the road in first class shape. Thousands of dollars are being expended in putting down new ties and rails, building new bridges and generally equipping the road so that it will stand the very heaviest motive power. Section foremen are being furnished motor cars to replace the old handcar, and a complete telephone system is being installed along the entire branch.

—The two train crews on the Pittsburgh and Susquehanna railroad, better known as the "Allepooper," which runs from Philipsburg to Fernwood, Clearfield county, a distance of sixteen miles, went on a strike last Friday evening and as a consequence business on the road has been tied up ever since. The road is used by a large number of miners who live in and around Philipsburg and work in the neighborhood of Houtzdale and as they had no means of transportation the mines have been short-handed. The Allepooper railroad was brought into prominence a year ago when Ellis Freeman staged the big railroad wreck for moving pictures.

IN THE SOCIAL WHIRL.—Among those who entertained within the week was Mrs. J. L. Spangler, at whose dinner, Thursday night of last week, twelve covers were laid. The dinner was followed by cards, and given in compliment to Mrs. McMillen, of Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Spangler's house guest, and Mrs. Hibbs and her daughter, who are visiting Mrs. Richard.

Monday night Mrs. Louis Grauer gave a children's party in celebration of the thirteenth birthday of her daughter Estelle. A scenic party followed by a supper at the Grauer home on Linn street, where everything that might appeal to a child's fancy was given them, constituted the entertainment for those who were so fortunate as to be guests of little Miss Grauer that evening.

Mrs. E. F. Richard was hostess at a card party Monday evening, at which the honor guests were her aunt and cousin, Mrs. Hibbs and Miss Hibbs, of Philadelphia. Fourteen of Mrs. Richard's friends were her guests.

Tuesday night Mrs. Austin O. Furst gave a dinner for which eleven covers were laid. An evening of flinch followed the dinner.

The same night Mrs. James B. Lane was hostess at a card party, at which three tables of five hundred were in play.

Mrs. Frank P. Bartley entertained a party of eight from Lock Haven, on Tuesday evening.

—The address, "Render Unto Caesar," by the Hon. Michael J. Fanning, on Sunday afternoon, was enjoyed by a very appreciative audience. His statistics were rather unusual and showed a great deal of time and thought had been spent on the subject. Unlike most reformers, he concedes to others the right of private judgment and can be listened to with pleasure by those who differ in opinion. A number of honorary and active members were signed up for the local union.

—Four years ago Henry Schenk, of Lebanon, presented the Bellefonte Academy with fifteen football blankets. About ten days ago, or shortly after the game with St. Francis, at Loretto, one of the blankets disappeared. Mr. Hughes will pay a liberal reward for its return or any information leading to its discovery.

—They are all good enough, but the WATCHMAN is always the best.

Morris Jr., with Mrs. Morris' two sisters, the Misses Sara and Elizabeth Barnhart, who were among those going out to the game yesterday, left Pittsburgh late in the afternoon to go on to Columbus, Ohio. The three sisters having planned the pleasant surprise for their other sister, Mrs. Arthur G. Harper, whose guests they will be until leaving Sunday to return to Bellefonte.

—William Griferer, of Centre Hall, was in Bellefonte Saturday, so much of a stranger that we almost failed to recognize him. He had business in town, of course, else he wouldn't have been here. William is not given to doing much running around unless it counts and he gets about all he wants of that, too. With all due respect to the rest of them who surely is the boss fender builder of Centre county and that's why he gets so much running around that counts. His services are in demand everywhere, as we would infer from the fact that he is nearly always booked the greater part of a year ahead.

—James Waddle, of Jersey Shore, on his way to Tyrone on Tuesday morning, hopped off the train at the Pennsylvania railroad passenger depot and shook hands with his friends who happened to be near at hand. This personal item would be very commonplace if it were not for the fact that the man referred to was none other than "Jimmie" Waddle, for years the popular freight conductor on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad until his retirement twelve years ago, and the fact that he will be eighty-two years old next February and "hopped" off the train is evidence that he is just as sprightly and in as good health as ever.

—Miss Bella Confer went out to State College on Monday to spend some time with relatives.

—Mrs. J. C. Davis and little son, of Tyrone, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Gherry.

—Isaac Mitchell, Miss E. M. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter Lyon and their son George, motored to Burnham yesterday to join the family party entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mitchell. Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell were also members of the party, having gone there by train.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Twitmore went to Millersville Wednesday, to have their Thanksgiving with Dr. and Mrs. Pickle and their family. Spending several days in Lancaster, visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Twitmore and with Mr. and Mrs. Gouhanauer, and at Lititz with Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Brachbill. They will stop at both Sunbury and Williamsport on their way home.

—Mrs. Robert Beach and Miss Mary Blanchard went to Philadelphia this morning, where Miss Blanchard with Jack Lane Jr. will have charge of the annual Christmas sale from the Bellefonte Basket Shop, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The remainder of the week Mrs. Beach and Miss Blanchard will attend the State Suffrage convention in session there, at the Adelphi.

—Mr. Charles B. McCormick, of near State College, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday and made sure that the WATCHMAN would be a regular visitor at his home during the coming year as it has ever since it was started. Mr. McCormick stated that as a boy he read the WATCHMAN and he has never missed one number year-end there and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al. S. Garman.

—Mrs. John N. Lane accompanied her son Elliott and daughter, Mrs. Robert Fay, of Altoona, and her little daughter, Mrs. Robert Fay, to Baltimore last week to visit her son, John H. Lane and family. They left Bellefonte on Wednesday and arrived in Baltimore the next day. That evening Mrs. Lane fell down a flight of twenty-eight steps. Fortunately she sustained no broken bones but was considerably shocked and bruised so that she was confined to bed two days. While Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Fay remained in Baltimore Elliott motored to Sweetbriar, Va. where two daughters, came to Bellefonte over Sunday.

—Among those who went to Pittsburgh on Wednesday for the State-Pitt football game yesterday were Judge-elect and Mrs. Henry C. Quigley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beaver, Mr. and Mrs. A. G.
