CENTRE COUNTIANS BANQUET. - Just one hundred and fourteen past and present residents of Centre county attended the annual banquet of the Centre county association of Philadelphia at the Hotel they had the evening must have been replete with music and good cheer.

As usual, the menu was quite elaborate and there is little doubt but that all present did ample justice to it. Select councilman Ira D. Garman, president of the association, presided as toastmaster and the invocation was made by Rev. M. K. John Francies, warden of the western $12,545.32, with an additional cost of paving on a concrete foundation.

At the meeting on Monday evening Dr. Brockerhoff introduced a resolution that council endorse the proposition when the signatures of two-thirds of the abutting property owners have been secured, subiect to any changes or modifications the council may deem advisable. Mr. Seibert called attention to the fact that a concrete foundation on Water street would make it very difficult to get at the water pipes in case of a leak, but this is a matter that will later be worked out with the Highway Department, and on motion of Dr. Brockerhoff the resolution was passed unanimously.
