-The annual Valentine card party, under the auspices of the Woman's auxiliary of the Bellefonte hospital, will be given at the Elk's home, Tuesday evening, February 15th. Bridge, five hundred, and euchre will be in play and parties can be made up for any of the games, which may be played either at the Elks or in your own home. The price of the tickets will be fifty cents, this to include light refreshments.

-Only those who are regular attendants at the Scenic comprehend the class of pictures now being shown there. State College; vice president, John S. The Triangle, Paramount and Pathe gold rooster are among the highest class pictures obtainable, and manager T. Clayton Brown is showing weekly productions of all of them. These are the pictures that cannot be seen any other place in Bellefonte, and they are worth double the price of admission charged to see

-Robert Patterson, aged fifty six years, of Dorsey Ore Mines, Huntingdon county, was knocked down by an automobile on Pennsylvania avenue, Tyrone, about ten o'clock on Saturday night. The car was owned by Kepler and Smith, of Pine Grove Mills, and they were exonerated of blame as Mr. Patterson became confused and stepped right in front of the machine. Fortunately his injuries were not serious and he was able to go home the same night.

----What promises to be the most elab orate dance of the season will be given by the young men of Bellefonte, Friday night, February 18th, in the armory, where Meyer Davis and his orchestra of six pieces will furnish music for both a concert and dance. Mr. Davis' orchestras have a standing that places them in the leading hotels of all our larger cities, consequently, a treat is in store for the Bellefonte people. Tickets will be $2.50 a couple for dancing and 50 cents each for the concert.

----Although the fact has just become known in Bellefonte, announcement was made at Christmas time of the engagement of Thomas B. Hamilton, of New York, and Miss Mary M. Quilgan, of Brooklyn; the wedding to take place in June. Mr. Hamilton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Hamilton, of this place, but holds a good position with the Equitable Life Insurance Company, of New York. During the month of December, the company conducted a special campaign for writing insurance in New York city and Mr. Hamilton headed the list with ten applications. In fact he is given credit with being a leader in every campaign conducted by that company.

All the oid officers were re-elected as follows: President, William K. Corl, of Yearick, of Spring township; secretary and treasurer, Isaac Underwood, of Bellefonte. The association then adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

UNION CEMETERY MEMORIAL GATE FUND PLAY .- "The Amazons" is a merry, fantastic, farcical romance in three acts written by Arthur Pinery. It is a play in which the author permits himself to dally with the "mannish woman" idea in the lightest and gentlest spirit of satire. The freshness, delicate humor, and unconventionality of the piece, and the quaint prettiness of the girls' masculine attire captivates the play-goers. The success of the presentation at the opera assured in the following cast:

It was a great day for the congregation, as well as all other house on Friday evening of next week is church people of that thriving little town.

> Rev. B. C. Conner, president of the Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, preached the morning sermon and conducted the finances in such a masterly style that the people contributed most generously. Mrs. C. W. Crain presided at the organ at all the services.

> In the afternoon Rev. J. Earl Jacobs. the hustling young pastor of the church, presided and Rev. Gordon Arch Williams made the address. Simon Harper, superintendent of the Sunday school, led in prayer and the scripture lesson was read by Harold Shope. A. J. Thompson presented greetings from the Presbyterian Sunday school and A. S. Williams from the Baptist. Rev. Conner continued the work of raising money to pay the debt on the church and all told just $2,465.57 were pledged at the morning and afternoon services and this amount was augmented by a number of liberal subscriptions at the evening service.

The evening sermon was delivered by Dr. E. H. Yocum, of Bellefonte, and all who heard him were deeply impressed with his masterly and powerful elucidation of his subject. The new church is a one-story brick structure costing $5,400 and constructed along modern lines.
