BAD WRECK ON PENNSY.—One of the worst wrecks that has occurred on the Pennsylvania railroad in years occurred at 10.38 o'clock last Thursday evening when the Manhattan limited from New York to Chicago crashed into a freight wreck, killing the fireman of the passenger train and so badly injuring the engineer that he died at his home in Altoona Friday afternoon.

The accident was occasioned by the bucking of a wooden freight car, throwing it against a moving freight train. Thirteen cars were piled up and before a flagman could be sent out the Manhattan limited crashed into the wreck.

The impact tore the passenger engine loose from the train and it rolled down over a forty foot embankment. The limited was made up of all-steel cars and while five of them were derailed they withstood the impact, hence the small casualty list.

On account of the wreck all passenger trains were run east and west over the Bald Eagle valley railroad and by way of Williamsport and Sunbury to Harrisburg. The main tracks were cleared for traffic Friday evening.

GOOD OUTLOOK FOR AUTOMOBILE BUSINESS.—Despite the fact that gasoline is now selling higher than it ever did before the outlook for the automobile business in Bellefonte and Centre county is better than it has ever been at this season of the year, and the indications are that a large number of new cars will be delivered to Centre counties during the summer.

ANOTHER PHILIPSBURG FIRE.—Philipsburg had another bad fire on Monday morning when the Majestic theatre building owned by the McGirk brothers was entirely gutted by fire, only the brick walls remaining.

The fire was discovered about 4.45 o'clock in the morning by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hamilton, who occupied apartments on the second floor. At that time the flames were in the rear of the theatre floor but they spread so rapidly that the Hamiltons were compelled to vacate their apartments as quickly as possible, hardly having time to properly clothe themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Schmidt also had apartments on the second floor and all they were able to save was the clothing on their backs.

After the Barnes block fire on February 3rd Representative Harry B. Scott opened fine offices on the second floor of the Majestic building, and his loss was complete.

While he carried some insurance the loss of his private papers, records, books, among the latter being the books of the Citizens Water company, is something that can't be made up by insurance.

The McGirk's loss is estimated at $8,000, partially insured; A. J. Fleckenstein, who conducted the moving picture show, $3,000 with $1,000 insurance.

While Representative Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt carried some insurance it will not nearly cover their losses.
