PINE GROVE MENTION.

Miss Leona Burwell is visiting friends in Tyrone and Holidayburg. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rossman spent Sunday with friends at Tusseyville. W. B. Rankin was here on Tuesday looking after his insurance business. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dale spent the Sabbath among friends in Bellefonte. Mr. and Mrs. John Shuey, of Lemont, were Monday visitors at the J. C. Homan home. T. G. Cronover, who has been ill for several weeks, is able to be up and around. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams were Sunday visitors at the Will Glenn home on the Branch. Master Norman Corl, who last fall was badly injured in an auto accident, is now able to get about. Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Neidigh sleighed to Spruce Creek and Sunday at the D. P. Henderson home. H. M. Grenoble is recovering nicely from injuries sustained when a horse kicked him in the face. J. C. Woodring, the genial traveling man of Tyrone, was here on Tuesday looking after his trade. Frank Reed will break ground for a new residence on Church street as soon as the weather permits. Samuel M. Hess, wife and little son Ernest spent the Sabbath at the E. W. Hess home at Shingletown. Eugene Everhart has been laid up since last Saturday on account of being kicked on the left leg by a horse. Dr. C. T. Aikens, president of Susquehanna University, greeted old friends in the valley the early part of the week. We are sorry to hear of the serious illness with pneumonia of our old friend, Will Swabb, at the home of Harry McClellan. A farewell party was given to Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Bloom at Bloomsdorf on Wednesday evening, prior to their moving from the old homestead. Misses Nan McWilliams and Esther Neidigh and J. E. Trostler will be among the students enrolled at the shippingburg Normal school on April 3rd. George Yarnell, tenant on the Bessie Kimpfort farm, fell from the crossloft on Monday and landed in a corn binder. He was badly bruised but no bones were broken. John Neidigh, son of J. D. Neidigh, fell from the crossloft to the barn floor last Saturday, breaking his left leg. The fracture was reduced and the lad is getting along splendidly. Mr. and Mrs. A. Bowersox entertained a sledding party of about eighty people last Friday evening. The Tadpole string band and orchestra were present and the evening was spent most delightfully with music, games and refreshments. John Mong and family fitted to Peru on Wednesday when Mr. Mong expects to work at the new penitentiary. Lee Brooks fitted to the A. V. Miller home at Pleasant Gap on Monday and Will Stewart succeeded him on the farm. Edward Lyle moved from Bellwood on Sunday in his Overland car and in the Glades bucked a huge snow drift so hard that he wrecked the car and it had to be hauled in for repairs. Clifford Close brought the party to town in his sled. A jolly sledding party of almost one hundred people invaded the Mack Fry home on Monday evening and had a delightful time. The Citizens band and the Corl orchestra were present and vied with each other in furnishing music. Choice refreshments were served. At the J. C. Corl public sale last Friday horses brought $180 and sheep $17.26. The sale amounted to $3,100. At the A. L. Bowersox sale on Thursday horses sold up to $294 and cows $100. His sale amounted to $4,000. Both Mr. Corl and Mr. Bowersox are quitting the farm.

PLEASANT GAP PICKUPS.

Winter still hangs in the lap of spring and roads are drifted fence high. Miss Jennie Miller is visiting friends at State College. She expects to be absent until April 1st. Mrs. Harry Taylor has leased the new house just completed by Geo. M. Tate, near the cross roads, with a view of making Pleasant Gap her future home. George Miller, who was to occupy the Pleasant Gap hotel, has changed his mind and on Tuesday moved to Pitcairn, where he expects to make his future home. Miss Elsie Herman, teacher of the primary grade at Ave. Mann, leaves for Lock Haven early next week with a view of taking the summer course of instruction in the Lock Haven Normal. Bent Bell, of State College, has purchased his mother's residence here, what is known as the late J. G. Larimer old homestead. Mr. Bell will take possession of his newly attained home on April 1st. He will engage in the poultry business on an extensive scale. A number of our citizens prevailed upon ex county commissioner Harry Zimmerman to accept the appointment of justice of the peace to succeed Jasper Brooks. Harry emphatically declined, but assigned no reason for not accepting the proffered honor. The people took it for granted that Harry thought it looked too much like a case of reduction descending. The following letter was received by one of the foreign employees of the Whiteoak Lime works, a few weeks ago. OREGON, AKRON, March 22 twiced. Dear Old Fat Head: As I had nothing to do, and wish to do it, I think I took mine pen and boddle of ink in mine hand and typewrite a few letters. Please excuse dis lead pencil. We are all well at present, except mine brudder, he was kicked in der subtrains last nite by a mool—der mool is not expected to lif. Your rich aunty who died from der palpitation of der heart when you was here, is still dead and doing nicely. Hope this will find you de same. After she wendit dead dey foundit fifteen thousand dollars sewed up in a old busel dat she left behind, so you are derefore no longer a poor man, but a dutchman. Your brudder Bill went to work dis morning; der chop will last about six months, but he mite get out sooner on good behavior. Business has been dull since you left—especially der saloon business. Your wife was tookt to der insanity asylum yesterday—She was grazy to see you. I saw your liddle boy dis morning for the first time and I tink he looks choost like you, but he is all right odderwise, so I would not worry about dat if I was you. I am sending by der Adams Express your oercoat, and as they charge so much a pound to sent it, I cut der buttons off. Hoping dis will prove mit satisfaction. You will find der buttons in der inside pocket. I almost forgot to told you dat I got married last week. I got a pretty good wife. She's from Venia, but I tink I could haf got a better one at Dayton, as dey half a larger stock to select from. As dis is all I got to say, I will klose mine face an expect you to do der same. Hoping dis will reach you before you get it, and dat you will anser before dat. I remain your confectionary second to der last kosen. OTTO MOBILE. P. S.—In case you do not get dis letter, write me and let me know, and I will send it to you at onced. WOODWARD. J. B. Ard made a business trip to Union county on Saturday. Mrs. Harry Sheesley was an Aaronsburg visitor on Saturday. Rev. Breen spent a few hours at the home of L. L. Weaver on Sunday. E. J. Sheesley is around again after having been laid up for some time with the grip. James Smith moved from this place onto the farm recently vacated by Stewart Orndorf. James ought to make a good farmer. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haines and three children, of Scotland, S. D., are visiting Mrs. Haines' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grenoble. Rev. E. L. Kessler and family moved from Rebersburg to this place on Saturday, and all his old parishioners bade them warm welcome. Floyd Sheesley and Harry Haines were at Millheim on Monday assisting the Stamm family in their preparations to move to Union county. A large wild cat visited the Isaiah Boob chicken house one night last week, and though it did not do much damage to his flock it frightened the family. Prof. C. B. Musser kept the Woodward school open last Saturday in order to make up several days the school was closed on account of his recent illness. LITTLE BIRD BLUE. Little Bird Blue, come sing your songs. The cold winter weather has lasted so long. We want to roll hoops, for we're tired of sleds. We're tired of snow banks as high as our heads; Now we're watching for you, Little Bird Blue. Soon as you sing, then the springtime will come. The robins will call and the honey hum. And the dear little pussies, so cunning and gray. Who sit in the willow trees over the way; So hurry, please do, Little Bird Blue! We're longing to hunt in the woods, for we know just where the spring beauties and liverwort grow; We're sure they will peep when they hear your first song. But why are you keeping us waiting so long. All waiting for you, Little Bird Blue? —Youth's Companion. Waiting. From the Hartford Times. "We must stand by the President,"—ex-President William H. Taft. Turn your ear toward the zephyrs of the Caribbean, and listen for the sound of an utterance equally patriotic from the other ex-President. —For high class Job Work come to the WATCHMAN Office.

POETRY IN THE TRENCHES

War Seems to Have Stimulated the Muse of the Men Who Are Doing the Fighting. After all the unpleasant talk about night clubs it is refreshing to know that the sign of the Flambeau and Stars in Devonshire street, Bloomsbury, is favored by soldiers who have run home from the trenches for a few hours. For that is the poetry book shop—and poetry now is supposed to be mere dunnage. But that is by no means the case. There is a demand for neat little books: to fit the tunic pocket. It cannot be said any poet is in more demand than another. What is wanted is a portable volume of the authentic voice, explains Mr. Harold Munroe. To see several soldiers in their Sam Brownes, standing in a dim light before the crowded shelves in the shop where not a single popular novel can be found, even by accident, choosing their wartime poetry, is proof enough that this is no ordinary war. But the poets themselves show that. Not a few of those whose volumes appear on the shelves are in the army or navy, and some already have died on service. War seems to be even a cause of poetry, for there is a colored broadside, "Ballad of the Gloster and the Goeben," by Maurice Hewlett, "Singsongs of the War," by the same author, "The King's Highway" (another broad sheet), by Henry Newbolt, "Antwerp," by Ford Madox Hueffer, one of the finest tributes to Belgium yet written, "Soliloquies of a Subaltern" (war poems written in the trenches), and "Battle Songs for the Irish," in fact poetry does not seem to be at all hit by the war, but rather to be "doing its bit."—London Daily Mail.

LAND IS TO BE RECLAIMED

System of Irrigation Will Restore Fertility to the Valley of the Euphrates. For several years before the war began the Turkish government was building irrigation dams across the Euphrates, reopening the old Babylonian canals which had long been filled with sand, and building new canals to reclaim the country. When the war broke out work upon this great irrigation project ceased. After the war it will doubtless be resumed, and one may easily imagine the changes which will then take place. All of that wonderfully fertile valley will be reclaimed. The wide plains, where now the herds of the Bedouin find scant pasturage, will be dotted with date groves and grain fields, and millions of people will find homes where now but few can gain a livelihood. Again Bagdad, the city of the caliphs, will be as glorious as when the famous Haroun-al-Raschid used to wander in disguise about the streets, and when Shahad the Saffor made it his home. The buried cities will be uncovered, revealing the treasures long hidden among the ruins. The history of modern Egypt will be repeated in Babylonia. The desert and the swamps will again become a veritable Garden of Eden as in the ancient days.—Christian Herald.

Medical.

Clean the Blood. The Spring is the time of year we should put our house in order. We're run down after a hard winter—after gripe, colds, catarrh. It's time to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, purely vegetable and free from alcohol or narcotics. It will search out impure and poisonous matter and drive it from the system. Buy it now in tablets or liquid. It will penetrate into the joints and muscles, and dissolve the poisonous accumulations. It will replace the bad blood it drives out, with rich, pure blood full of vital force. It will clear the skin; eczema, pimples, rash, blotches will dry up and disappear; boils, carbuncles and other evidences of tainted blood will pass away, never to appear again.

Deeds, Not Words

BELLEFONTE PEOPLE HAVE ABSOLUTE PROOF OF DEEDS AT HOME. It's not words but deeds that prove their merit. The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills. For Bellefonte kidney sufferers. Have made their local reputation. Proof lies in the testimony of Bellefonte people. Mrs. John Mignot, E. High St., Bellefonte, says: "I suffered from a dull ache across the small of my back for several weeks. At times when I bent over or lifted, a sharp pain shot through my back. I had heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and I knew that they were good, so I began taking them, procuring my supply at Parrish's Drug Store. They cured me." Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mignot had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 61-12

ROYAL VISIT WORKED WONDER. Wounded Italian Officer Recovered Speech in His Surprise at Seeing King Beside Him. The king of Italy has been responsible for one of the most extraordinary occurrences of the war. His majesty has been constant in his visits to the wounded soldiers, and one day he arrived quite unexpectedly at a certain field hospital. Among the patients there was a young lieutenant who had been stricken quite dumb by the bursting of an Austrian shell. The poor fellow was lying in bed feeling very miserable, when, all of a sudden, he glanced up and found the king standing by his side. In a moment he stared up in amazement at the unexpected honor, and shouted at the top of his voice: "His majesty the king!" and burst into a flood of tears. The emotional shock, coming as it did, so unexpectedly, had completely restored his power of speech, and even the king himself was overcome by emotion at this extraordinary miracle.—Exchange.

With Shell Accompaniment.

This extract is taken from a letter from a private in an English regiment at the front: "I woke up this morning with 'The Tales of Hoffmann' coming from outside—one of our chaps has still stuck to his violin, though heaven knows how. There he was standing in the open, playing as coolly as at home, amid the shriek of shells overhead."

Loss of Appetite

Loss of appetite is accompanied by loss of vitality, which is serious. It is common in the spring because at this time the blood is impure and impoverished and fails to give the digestive organs what is absolutely necessary for the proper performance of their functions. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable all-the-year-round medicine, is especially useful in the spring. Get it from your druggist today. By purifying and enriching the blood and giving vitality, vigor and tone, it is wonderfully successful in the treatment of loss of appetite and the other ailments prevalent at this time. It is not simply a spring medicine—it is much more than that—but it is the best spring medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the rich red blood the digestive organs need. 61-12
