Nominating petitions for any of these offices will be furnished upon application to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Harrisburg, Pa. ROLAND S. MORRIS, Chairman.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

DAY—GLINZ.—A quiet wedding was celebrated at the Lutheran parsonage at ten o'clock yesterday morning when Dr. Albert E. Day, of Pittsburgh, was united in marriage to Miss Elvira E. Glinz, Rev. W. M. B. Glanding performing the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of landlord and Mrs. August Glinz, of the Garman house, and is a graduate of the New Kensington High school. The bridegroom is a registered pharmacist and spent a year or so in Bellefonte when he was in charge of Krumrine's drug store. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Garman house and at 1.07 Mr. and Mrs. Day left for Pittsburgh, the present home of the bridegroom.

RESIDES—BAILEY.—Ellis Resides, of Snow Shoe, and Miss Flora May Bailey, of Cedar Springs, Clinton county, were married at the home of the bride's parents on Thursday morning of last week by Rev. Wilson, of Snow Shoe. Miss Grace Bailey, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while a cousin of the bridegroom acted as best man. About fifty guests were present for the ceremony and big wedding breakfast. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Resides were taken by motor to Mill Hall, whence they went direct to Snow Shoe to their newly-furnished home.

BRADY—GUNTHER.—Robert Brady, of Milesburg, and Miss Netta Gunther, of Phillipsburg, were married on Tuesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jane Gunther, by Rev. Earl J. Bowman, of the Lutheran church, the ring ceremony being used. Only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride is an accomplished young woman and during the past winter taught school in Milesburg. Mr. Brady is engaged in farming near Milesburg and it is there they will go to housekeeping after a brief wedding trip.

ROCKEY—HOY.—Ralph Rockey, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rockey, of Boalsburg, and Miss Edna Hoy, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hoy, of Ferguson township, were married at noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Mr. Flack, of State College, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends. The young couple went direct to their home on the Stamm farm near Boalsburg, which Mr. Rockey Sr. purchased last week.

DEARMIT—HASTINGS.—Clarence Dearmit and Miss Athalia Hastings, both of Gatesburg, this county, were married at the parsonage of the Lutheran church last Wednesday, by the pastor, Rev. W. M. B. Glanding. The couple returned home the same evening where a wedding supper and reception were tendered them.

SAXON—HUGG.—John Saxon, of Unionville, and Miss Maude Hugg, of Milesburg, were married on Wednesday of last week and are now on a trip to western cities. Upon their return they will go to housekeeping at Unionville where Mr. Saxon is employed by the Pennsylvania railroad company.

LONG DRAWN OUT FISH CASE ENDED.—Last week's WATCHMAN contained an item relative to the dismissal of the case against Irvin J. Dreese, Elliot Armstrong and William E. Musser, on the alleged charge of dynamiting fish in Spring creek by Judge Henry C. Quigley and the re-arrest of the three men the next day on the same charge. The case had been hanging ever since May, 1915, and the arrest last week was the fourth time the men were called upon to answer to the law on the same charge.

At a hearing before justice of the peace S. Kline Woodring on Friday morning one new witness was brought forward who testified that he saw the men near the scene of the dynamiting on the night in question. The Commonwealth finally agreed that if one of the men would plead guilty, pay the stipulated fine and all the accrued costs in the case the charge against the other two would be withdrawn. Consequently Armstrong pleaded guilty and a fine of $100 and costs, amounting to $45.00 or a total of $145, were paid and the cases against the three men closed on the 'Squire's docket.

KILLED BY A FALL OF ROCK.—Fortunoreto Verrecchia, an Italian, was so badly crushed in a fall of rock at the Armer Gap quarries of the American Lime & Stone company, at noon last Thursday, that he died at the Bellefonte hospital shortly after four o'clock the same afternoon. Verrecchia and a companion remained after the twelve o'clock whistle blew to clear away a place where they wanted to put in a blast in the afternoon. They had hardly started work until there was a fall of rock and Verrecchia's legs were caught and he was thrown violently backwards on some loose rock. While his legs were badly crushed there were no other external injuries, but he was injured internally, which caused his death.

Deceased was thirty-three years old and was born in Italy. Prior to coming to this country about seven years ago he spent fifteen years in France. He is survived by his wife and a fifteen months old daughter. Also one brother, Polie Verrecchia. The funeral was held at ten o'clock on Saturday morning from the Catholic church, burial being made in the Catholic cemetery.

VONADA.—Benjamin Franklin Vonada, of Jacksonville, was found dead on Wednesday morning near the old Hogan cider press in the Jacksonville Narrows. He was in Bellefonte on Tuesday and though he recently had suffered one or more slight strokes of paralysis, he was feeling fairly good. He left Bellefonte on the 8.33 train in the evening and went to Howard, intending to walk through the Narrows to his brother's home. The next morning his dead body was found, and the supposition is that another stroke caused his death.

Deceased was a son of Samuel and Mary Orndorf Vonada and was born in Marion township about sixty-five years ago. He followed farming most of his life. He is survived by his wife and three sons, Clyde at home, and two living in Los Angeles, Cal. He also leaves one brother and two sisters, J. J. Vonada, of Marion township, Mrs. Emma Shaffer and Mrs. Henry Tibbens, of Bellefonte. The funeral will be held at ten o'clock tomorrow morning, burial to be made at Jacksonville.

WARD.—William A. Ward, for years a well known resident of Phillipsburg, died at the soldiers' home at Dayton, Ohio, last Thursday evening. His death was due to blood poisoning.

Deceased was a son of Simon and Elizabeth Ward and was born at Gatesburg, this county, almost eighty years ago. He is the last of a family of ten brothers and one sister, six of the brothers having served during the Civil war at one time, two of whom were killed in battle. William enlisted in 1864 as a member of Company L, 2nd Pennsylvania heavy artillery. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and a good citizen in every way.

Surviving him are four daughters, Misses Mary and Ella, at home; Mrs. John Young, in Kansas, and Miss Susanah, a teacher in the schools of Minneapolis, Minn. The body was taken to Phillipsburg on Saturday and burial made on Monday afternoon.

BEEZER.—Mrs. Catharine Kohler Beezer, widow of the late Joseph J. Beezer, died at the Thomas Bertram home on Spring creek at 10.30 o'clock last Thursday morning of a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of Michael and Mary Kohler and was born in Alsace, Germany, on December 25th, 1842, being in her seventy-fourth year. She came to this country when a girl and most of her life was spent in this vicinity. Her husband died eleven years ago but surviving her are three children, Mrs. Thomas Bertram, of Spring creek, M. J. and Lewis Beezer, of Seattle. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Mary Whitman and Mrs. Lena Gregory, of Strasburg, Germany. Funeral mass was held in the Catholic church at ten o'clock on Monday morning by Rev. Father McGarvey, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

KNAPP.—Merrill Knapp died at his home on Phoenix avenue at four o'clock on Monday afternoon, after six months' illness with heart trouble. He was born in Bellefonte and was thirty-one years old on March 27th. Prior to his recent illness he was a clerk in the John Meese store. He was a member of the Macca-bees and the Loyal Order of the Moose. Surviving him are his wife, who prior to her marriage was Miss Minnie Grove, and a small son, Harold. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Charles, Milton and Russell, in Canada, and Mrs. Lillie Peters, of Bellefonte. Revs. Fulcomer and Foss had charge of the funeral which was held at his late home at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

BABB.—Mrs. Blanche Elsegood Vincent Babb, wife of Maurice J. Babb, died at her home at Ardmore on Wednesday of last week. About twelve years ago Mr. and Mrs. Babb lived in Bellefonte, he being an instructor in the Bellefonte Academy. Mrs. Babb is especially remembered because of her sweet voice, she being a member of the Methodist church choir while here. From here they moved to State College and later Ardmore. Burial was made at Ardmore on Saturday.

GATES.—John H. Gates, chief of police of Medina, Ohio, was shot and instantly killed some time Monday night in the public square of the town, his body being found on Tuesday morning. A gaping wound in his head told the manner of his death. Not far from the body two empty shot shells were found. A marshal of the same town is missing and suspicion points to him as the murderer.

The murdered man was a son of Solomon and Elizabeth Gates and was born at Gatesburg, this county, about sixty years ago. Most of his life was spent in this county but about twelve years ago he moved to Medina. He was a member of the Lutheran church, Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows. A few months ago he captured a young man from Julian who secured money and clothing in Tyrone on bogus checks. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Catharine Elder Gates, and the following children: David, William, Mary, and Effie, all of Medina. He also leaves one brother and a sister, Isaac Gates and Mrs. Henry Harpster, both of near Tyrone. Burial was made in Medina yesterday afternoon.

NORTHAMER.—Mrs. Hannah Northamer, widow of the late George R. Northamer, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Griffin, at Stormstown, at 10.30 o'clock on Sunday night of diseases incident to her advanced age.

Her maiden name was Hannah Wetzel and she was born in Chester county on May 30th, 1827, making her age 88 years, 10 months and 17 days. With her husband and children she came to Centre county about fifty years ago and located in Halfmoon valley where they resided until twenty years ago when they moved to Phillipsburg. Since the death of her husband Mrs. Northamer has made her home with her children.

Her surviving children are Mrs. Jacob Griffin, of Stormstown; Mrs. John Cowher and James W., of South Phillipsburg; Mrs. Joseph M. Bates, of Stormstown; Martin, of Pittsburgh, and Dorsey, of Elkins, W. Va. The body was taken to Phillipsburg on Tuesday, evening and the funeral held from the home of her son on Wednesday morning, burial being made in the Phillipsburg cemetery.

WATSON.—Mrs. Lemuel Watson died at her home in Snow Shoe at noon on Wednesday after a brief illness with pleuro-pneumonia and heart failure. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Peters and was born at Snow Shoe Intersection on August 25th, 1883. She was married to Mr. Watson on January 17th, 1903, and ever since had resided in Snow Shoe. In addition to her husband she is survived by four children, Gilbert, Harold, Ambrose and Mildred. She also leaves her parents and the following brothers and sisters: Charles, of Lewisport; Edward, of Bellefonte; Harry, of Milesburg; Mrs. Scott Walker and Mrs. A. E. Swartz, of Snow Shoe. Funeral services will be held in the Methodist church at Snow Shoe tomorrow afternoon. Rev. R. Frank Rook will officiate and burial will be made in the Advent cemetery.

FYE.—Mrs. Elizabeth Fye died at her home at Howard on Tuesday afternoon after an illness of some weeks with liver trouble and dropsy. She was aged fifty-five years and is survived by her husband, two brothers and four sisters. Funeral services will be held in the Disciple church at ten o'clock this (Friday) morning, after which burial will be made in the Marsh Creek cemetery.

ROBINSON.—Samuel Robinson, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, of Port Matilda, died on Friday after only a week's illness with spinal meningitis. The boy had been in the best of health up until his last illness, and being a bright and interesting child his untimely death is a severe blow to his parents. Burial was made at Port Matilda on Saturday.

EASTER ENTERTAINMENT.—An Easter entertainment was held at the Krumrine school house, in Ferguson township, on Sunday evening. It was in charge of Claire Duffer, a student at State College, and Miss Maud E. Houtz, teacher while Miss Mary Spotts officiated as organist. Among others who took part in the musical part of the program were F. Krumrine, W. Woomer, N. N. Hartsock and daughter Ethel, and Dorothy Dreibleis. There were also several mandolin selections and recitations. All in all the entertainment was very interesting and pronounced a success by the more than one hundred and fifty people who heard it. At the close the children were presented with brightly colored Easter eggs.

OPENING OF THE BASEBALL SEASON.—Two fast games of baseball next week are scheduled to open the season in Bellefonte. On Wednesday, April 26th, at 3.45 o'clock p. m., the strong Williamsport A. C. nine will play the Academy nine on Hughes field. This will afford a pleasing number for the entertainment of the large crowd of Odd Fellows who can enjoy a good ball game after the parade and drills are over.

On Saturday, April 29th, at 3 o'clock a crackerjack nine of former Academy stars, including Beattie, Symms, Jamison, Dillon, Negley, Bloyd, Carlson, Eisenbeis and others will play the Academy. Both of these games should draw large crowds. Admission to each, only 25 cents.

TRIAL LIST FOR MAY COURT.—The trial list for the regular May term of court and the special term was made up this week, and includes twenty-four cases. A number of the cases are of considerable importance and at least one of the cases will be of more or less interest to the people of Milesburg. It is the case of Toner A. Hugg vs. The State-Centre Electric company, an action in trespass. It appears that quite a number of cellars in Milesburg have had considerable water in them of late, some to a depth of three feet, and they blame it on the dam of the State-Centre Electric company, hence the above case was brought as a test case to determine if that company is liable. The outcome will be watched with considerable interest. The full trial list is as follows:

FIRST WEEK—MAY 15, 1916. R. B. Taylor vs. Louisa Bush, appeal. State-Centre Electric Co. vs. Toner A. Hugg, appeal.

SECOND WEEK—MAY 22, 1916. Priscilla A. Fye vs. Simon Zimmerman, trespass. Samuel Grant Dale vs. Moshannon Coal Co., trespass.

Claire C. Heverly vs. Reuben Glossner, appeal.

BIG ODD FELLOWS GATHERING.—Everything is in readiness for the big Odd Fellows gathering to be held in Bellefonte next Wednesday. Decorators are hard at work putting the town in gala attire and when finished it will be a fitting meeting place for the members of this ancient order. From present indications thousands of people will be here from all over the district, which is composed of twenty-one counties. A special train will be run to Bellefonte from Clearfield and other points. At least a dozen bands will be here and many lodges will be here in full. The entire program as published in the WATCHMAN last week will be carried out in detail, and the gathering will be one worth coming miles to see.

PROCLAMATION. Owing to the large crowd expected in Bellefonte for the Odd Fellows convention April 26th the following traffic regulations must be observed:

No parking in the Diamond until after the parade. Parking will be allowed on all side streets, but cars must be parked in all cases on the left hand side of the street, pointing into the curb.

EDMUND BLANCHARD, Burgess.

The scholars in the Bush addition schools recently gave a most interesting entertainment in their school house and it was voted so fine by those who were fortunate enough to have been there, that they have consented to repeat the performance. It will be presented again on the evening of May 2nd next. This time the student actors will have Garman's opera house for the setting of their play and much better equipment for the display of their talent. All the proceeds are to go to the Bellefonte hospital so remember to go to this show if you want to see how Bush addition young folks do things and help the hospital, as well.

Mr. H. B. Eberly, city controller of Williamsport and secretary of the Central Pennsylvania Odd Fellows' association was stricken with paralysis on Wednesday evening, at the home of N. A. Miller, on south Water street, where he was staying while in Bellefonte looking after the arrangements for the big celebration next week. He was at once removed to the Bellefonte hospital and his sister in Williamsport notified, who with her husband motored here Wednesday night.

Jesse C. McLanahan, of Potters Mills, and Miss Edith R. Houtz, of Spring Mills, were among the couples married at Hagerstown, Md., last Saturday.

The members of the Junior class of the Bellefonte High school tendered their annual reception to the Seniors last Friday evening.

Dr. S. G. Coons will leave Stormstown the first of May and move to Dry Run, Franklin county.
