

HUGE G. O. P. ANIMALIC SYMBOL, HAPPILY DOCILE; WILL PARTY AID WOMEN?

Here are shown Miss Julia Powers, seated on elephant's head, and Miss Portia Willis at the side. These suffragists are rehearsing "Jennie," the elephant for the part she will play in Chicago when suffragists parade as an appeal for the insertion of a plank in the Republican platform.

STATE WOMEN WILL MARCH IN CHICAGO SUFFRAGE PARADE

Special Trains Will Carry Pennsylvania Delegates—40,000 Will Be in Yellow Line.

In charge of Miss Ethel Austin Shrigley of Landsdowne, special trains bearing Pennsylvania suffragists from the eastern and western parts of the state will leave Philadelphia on June 5, for Chicago where they will participate in the suffrage parade June 7, in which large delegations from throughout the country, aggregating 40,000 women, will march.

Miss Ethel Austin Shrigley

The object of the parade is to influence the Republican convention to insert a suffrage plank in the platform it adopts.

Clad in yellow and white, the 40,000 women will parade to the Chicago Coliseum where the Republican delegates will be in convention. In line, as a feature, will be a living G. O. P. symbol. This will be "Jennie," a huge elephant already amenable to the directions of two suffragists, who will drive her. "Jennie" is to be a "hint" to the Republican Party that the 40,000 women with her expect the delegates to "march along" progressively, also.

In charge of train reservations in the eastern part of the state is Mrs. George A. Dunning of 1723 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. In western Pennsylvania, Mrs. H. Talbot Peterson of 5551 Columbo street, Pittsburgh, will

ROOSEVELT ANNOUNCES AS "OUT-AND-OUTER," CHEERS SUFFRAGISTS

As an "out and outer" for national wide woman suffrage—one who has been and may again be President of the United States, takes his stand He is Theodore Roosevelt and, here with, rings his appeal for "Truer Nationalism—Voting Not Abridged on Account of Sex."

I believe that the time has come for a greater and truer nationalism in this country. I believe in the nationalization of the issues which affect not only men, but women also.

I, therefore, heartily indorse any Federal amendment which shall substantially provide:

That the right of the citizen of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States on account of sex.

"Former President Roosevelt's announcement is particularly gratifying," the Pennsylvania State Suffrage president, Mrs. George B. Orlandy, said at Harrisburg, when she received the news, because it shows that at least one man of presidential timber is fearless enough, progressive enough to stand for what he and all other leaders know truly is the "truer nationalism," a nationalism that bars no one from the ballot because of sex—a nationalism that gives every person a voice in the government that governs women as well as men.

be in charge of the delegates' train and arrange reservations.

Arrangements also are being made for a suffrage "Walkless Parade" in St. Louis, June 14, in an effort to have the Democratic convention put a woman suffrage plank in its platform. Instead of parading as in Chicago, 40,000 women will line the streets from the big hotels to the Democratic convention hall.

PHILADELPHIA SUFFRAGISTS USE THE METHOD POETIC

In their appeal for support in their movement to secure the insertion of a woman suffrage plank in the Republican Party platform in Chicago, June 7, the women of Philadelphia have adopted the method poetic.

Distributing May Day flowers May 1, the suffragists of the eastern part of the state called at the home of each prospective delegate to the Chicago convention, left a bouquet, a yellow plank, nine inches long, bearing the inscription, "Woman Suffrage Party of Pennsylvania," and the following poem:

MAY DAY GREETINGS!

We're told your heart is kind and mellow—
We're sure you are a right good fellow;
We'll see you're thanked
If your Platform's planked
With a strip of Suffrage yellow.

When next you go to legislate
As you would wish to serve the State—
Place Equal Suffrage on the roll;
Let Women have their Votes to poll
So Justice heads your campaign slate.

—From the Suffrage Side of Your Constituency.
