	Democra	emocratic Matchman.
-	Bellefonte,				1916.
P.	GRAY MEEK,	1675	.0T.	(EDITO
=	TERMS OF SUBSC	DIDTI	N -T	Intil 4	tusther noti

ANTI THE AND A MARKED

his paper will be furnished to subscribers at the wing rates : Paid strictly in advance $1.50

1.75

2.00

.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

Paid before expiration of year -

Paid after expiration of year

W. C. T. U. Convention. The thirty-first annual convention day and Friday, with a good attendance. Miss Rebecca N. Rhoads, president of the Union, presided. Following the preliminary opening a greeting to the convention delegates was delivered by Mrs. A. L. Wright, of State College, the response being by Mrs. A. M. Schmidt, of Bellefonte. Mrs. Lora S. LaMance, of Missouri, national organizer and lecturer, addressed the convention briefly. She was followed by Dr. E. E. Sparks, and Capt. J. O. Campbell Post, of which before he got out of the woods and then Ben Franklin Insurance company, an address of welcome, and then as a fitting diversion Miss Gladys Dunkle, of wife being Miss Ellen Williams, to whom ready falling. State College, sang a beautiful solo. The roll call showed thirteen out of as follows: Mrs. J. A. Hines, of Altoona; for a walk one morning and came across ny, the policy bearing the clause that seventeen Unions in the county repre- Mrs. Ira D. Slagle, of State College; Mrs. W. C. Snyder, who was examining some the "assured was the absolute and seventeen ontons in the county topic was the about the assured was the about the appointment of the various com- is, of Calgary, Can.; Robert, of Ham- stopped for a chat with Mr. Snyder and mittees Miss Rhoads delivered her an- mond, Ind., and Joseph, of Columbus, in course of their conversation complainnual address. Dr. Fred Lewis Pat- Ohio. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. S. ed of not getting enough exercise. In a dispute over the title to the property tee was introduced and made a very D. Gordon, of Albeon, Pa. In December, joking way Mr. Snyder told him that if it encouraging talk to the ladies, which 1907, he married Miss Anna Ward, who was exercise he wanted he could take a was followed with the annual report survives with no children. of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Anna M. Clees, of Philipsburg, which home at ten o'clock on Tuesday morn- thinking for a minute that Rev. Wolf showed an increase in membership ing by Rev. Mr. Nearhoff and burial in would attempt to do it. But he started during the past year. The report of Meek's cemetery was made with the to follow the single strand of wire the county treasurer, Miss Savilla honors of war. Rearick, of Centre Hall, showed a comfortable balance in the treasury.

SMITH.-Mrs. Eliza Melissa Smith, wife Following another brief talk by Mrs. of Adam Smith, farmer on the Humes LaMance Mrs. Frank Gardner, of farm south of Bellefonte, died quite sud-State College, consumed a few mindenly of apoplexy on Saturday evening utes explaining the provisions of the at 9.30 o'clock. Mrs. Smith and her Mothers' Pension bill. maid came to Bellefonte earlier in the

At Thursday evening's session the evening with Mr. Smith and attended speakers were Dean Thomas Blais- the Scenic. When they were ready to dell, of State College; Mrs. LeMance go home they decided to walk out as the and Galen Wood. A feature of this evening was nice. When they reached session was the singing of a band of the brick school house Mrs. Smith com-L. T. L's., (children) and music by plained of feeling badly and the two the college orchestra and male quar- women sat down on the steps a few moments to rest. They then continued tette.

their way and had just reached the At Friday morning's session Miss Gladys Dunkle, of State College, was Frank Clevenstine home on Burnside elected superintendent of the county street when Mrs. Smith staggered and would have fallen had not her compan-Y. P. B.; Mrs. Ida Harter, of Rebersion caught her. She managed to get her burg, superintendent of the flower mission department; Miss Freda Baionto the steps of the Clevenstine house where she died. ley, of Centre Hall, superintendent of Deceased was HESS.-Claude B. Hess, a long time YINGLING.-Henry M. Yingling, an old resident of Ferguson township, died very soldier of the Civil war, passed away at suddenly and unexpectedly at his home his home at Bald Eagle of diseases inciat Baileyvile last Saturday evening of dent to his advanced age.

neuralgia of the heart. He retired to He was born at Bellwood on Novem-

Claude Buchanan Hess was a son of two months during the Civil war as a Lewis and Sarah Slack Hess and was member of Company H, 143rd Penna. inborn near Centre Hall on July 26th, fantry, being wounded in the battle of 1839, hence at his death was 77 years, 9 the Wilderness. In 1871 he located in months and 24 days old. His early life upper Bald Eagle valley and engaged in was spent on the farm and in the spring farming, an occupation he followed all of 1861 he entered the Pine Grove Mills his life. He is survived by the following Academy. When the Civil war broke children: A. J. Yingling, of Osceola out he gave up his studies and enlisted Mills; M. F., of Tyrone; Mrs. John W. in Company I, Fifteenth Penna. regiment. Morgan, of Summerhill; Mrs. Frank of the W. C. T. U. of Centre county On July 2nd, 1863, he was made a prison- Owens, of Gold Beach, Oregon, and was held at State College last Thurs- er at the battle of Winchester, in Vir- Charles at home. Funeral services were ginia, and spent almost two years in Lib- held in the Bald Eagle Methodist church by and Andersonville prisons. at ten o'clock on Saturday morning by Returning from the war he again en- Rev. D. P. Hoover, after which burial tered the Pine Grove Mills Academy and was made in the Bald Eagle cemetery. fitted himself for teaching, a profession be followed for twenty years, and was quite well known in educational circles at that time. Later he engaged in farm- pastor of the Presbyterian church at ing in Ferguson township, an occupation Snow Shoe, had a thrilling experience Harry McAulay, administrator of years ago. He was a member of the became lost on the Allegheny mountains Verdict for the plaintiff for $830.35. Fairbrook M. E. church, of Centre Grange and wandered around most of the day Samuel B. Weaver vs. National he was a chaplain.

Mr. Hess was twice married, his first from home and the shades of night al-stroll around their land and see that the wire fence and posts were all right, not Funeral services were held at his late through woods and brush and continued on and on, as the number of acres enclosed runs into the thousands. Noontime came and passed and by that time the reverend had lost his bear-

Snow Shoe was located and, in fact, was pretty well bewildered. His judgment, to John N. Krumrine and brother for tisement of "The Birth of a Na- had been meeting clandestinely. however, told him that to get off of the the benefit of his creditors. Later tion," D. W. Griffith's masterpiece. It then he did not know in what direction Mr. Decker's claim was that he was ices of thousands of people to stage the law. lay Snow Shoe.

In his dilemma he picked out the crease. The plaintiff was represent- lars. Gordon Heights, seventeen miles from Spangler and ex-judge Ellis L. Orvis. ent generation a lesson in history that at 10 a. m., and together with Gregg Post his starting point. He was not only tired After hearing part of the testimony they have never dreamed of. The march to the U.B. church to hear the Second Week of Court.

Melvin Bassett, of Philadelphia, a Claire Tressler, the ten year old son of The second week of the May term of court convened on Monday morn- grand-son of Rev. James P. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tressler, of Shiloh, ing and after disposing of a number and Ernest Poole, of Reading, two was knocked down and run over by a of motions and petitions the trial list students, of the Academy this year Ford car driven by N. S. Westbrook, of bed at 9.30 o'clock, was taken sick after ber 28th, 1832, hence was past eighty- was gone over and all cases not open have been very successful in passing Altoona, on the street near Beezer's meat three years of age. He served twenty- for trial marked continued. The fol- the recent examination for admission market between four and five o'clock on lowing cases were disposed of: Mary E. Krape vs. Ellis L. Miller, at Annapolis.

> executor of G. Woods Miller, deceased, mortgagor with notice to E. L.

Miller and Albert Eves, occupant. uled for tomorrow afternoon at Verdict for the plaintiff for $1663. Hughes field between the strong State Frank K. Lukenbach, B. D. Gray Freshmen nine and the Academy. The and H. L. Orr, executors of H. M. State lads have been defeating all Gray, assignee of Harry Keller, J. comers. Game will be called at 3.15 Kennedy Johnston and J. Thomas sharp. Mitchell trustees of the estate of W.

A. Thomas, deceased, vs. Ellis Miller, executor of G. Woods Miller. Verdict for plaintiff of $2281.33. Thomas J. Lee, trustee, vs. Maude

L. Hale and Florence Shoop Faulk-LOST ON THE MOUNTAINS .-- Rev. J. J. ner, a scire facias mortgage. Wolf, formerly of Milesburg but now dict for the plaintiff for $6304. He broke the interscholastic record it was to find himself seventeen miles action to recover on a fire insurance policy for $600. The case is from prize debate will be held at the Acad-Taylor township and the plaintiff had he had six children all of whom survive, As the story goes Rev. Wolf went out his barn insured in the above compaemy next Monday afternoon at three o'clock to which all friends of the school are most cordially invited. The question to be debated is a most popular one: "Resolved, That the occupant thereof." The evidence United States should adopt a system of compulsory military service modeled after that of Switzerland." The but that the plaintiff did not occupy the same at the date of the burning of the barn. The court directed a verdict for the defendant.

W. D. Carskadden, executor, Academy by Robert F. Garman, of Tyrone, an alumnus of the Academy.

Charles E. Decker vs. John U. Krumrine, A. H. Krumrine, W. H. Kerstetter, and Charles A. Kerstetter, being an action in ejectment to recover about five acres of land in State College borough. The land had originally been owned by ings and did not know in what direction the plaintiff and meeting with finanentitled to at least a part of the in- it, at an expense of a half million dol-

Bellefonte Academy Notes.

A good game of baseball is sched-

BOY RUN OVER BY AUTOMOBILE .into the United States Naval academy Saturday afternoon, sustaining a broken left arm, an injured spine and some bad bruises, but fortunately no critical injuries.

Mrs. Tressler and children had driven into town in a two horse spring wagon and when ready to go home happened across Samuel Fravel, of Axe Mann, and invited him to go along out. Mr. Fravel willingly consented and volunteered to drive. Leaving the Diamond they started down High street but stopped oppo-

Frank Speer, an Academy student, site Beezer's meat market, as the Tressattended the interscholastic meet at ler's wanted to get some meat. The boy Pittsburgh last Saturday and won the jumped off the rear of the wagon and quarter mile run from many contesthad only taken a step or two when Mr. ants, representing schools of Ohio. Westbrook in his Ford car ran between Ver- West Virginia and Pennsylvania. the Tressler wagon and the curb, knocking the boy down and running over him. and will be the first student to have Westbrook protested that he was not he followed until his retirement a few about two weeks or more ago when he etc., an action to revive a mortgage. silver "Point" cup presented to the dent corroborated his statement and aver his name engraved on the handsome running fast, and witnesses of the accithat he was entirely blameless.

Westbrook was placed under arrest by constable Howard Smead and held pending the boy's injuries. He was not lock-A most interesting and instructive ed up, however, his car being held as collateral. On Monday the case was settled by Westbrook paying a portion of the physician's charges, the hospital bill, buying the boy a new suit and paying the justices' costs, etc., the total cost to him being about forty dollars.

0

DID THEY ELOPE?-Paul Waite, the eighteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. affirmative will be upheld by George Samuel Waite, and Miss Anna Heisey, Neesham, of Crafton, and William the sixteen year old daughter of Mr. and Motter, of York, while Elliott Thomp- Mrs. Harry Heisey, both of Pleasant son, of New Castle, and Edwin Thom- Gap, have been missing since Sunday and as, of Lewistown, will defend the neg- so far no trace of their whereabouts has been secured. Naturally the parents of both are inclined to the opinion that they Two students will enter West Point eloped. Young Waite, who has been operating a steam shovel at the penitentiary, had been paying attention to Miss Heisey, but her father some time ago objected and forbade him coming to the cial reverses he made an assignment "Watchman" and read the big adver- house. Since then, it is alleged, the two

On Sunday they were both seen commountain and into the lowlands would the real estate was sold at assignee's is the greatest conception of realistic ing toward Bellefonte and when Miss surely result in finding a road, and that sale, the sale confirmed by the court facts ever perfected and deals with Heisey's father learned the fact he telewould lead to somewhere. Taking the and the entire matter supposed to be one of the most critical stages in phoned the police here to take them into sun as a guide he picked out a certain closed. The property was improved American history. Nothing like it in custody. But the police couldn't find direction and followed it, finally coming and is today worth at least one-half the motion picture line was ever at- them and they evidently managed to get to the Beech Creek railroad, but even more than it brought at the sale and tempted before. It required the serv- away without falling into the clutches of

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES. - Memorial wrong direction and after walking until ed by Clement Dale and H. M. Mc- The Ford theatre scene alone is Lieut. George L. Jackson Camp No. 70, almost exhausted he finally came to a Clure, of Lewisburg, while the de- worth the price of admission, while Spanish-American war veterans, by the station and village, which proved to be fendants were represented by N. B. the whole picture teaches to the pres- Camp turning out on Sunday, May 28th, press work, and Mrs. Walter Dudley of Blanchard, superintendent of the medal contest work. Mrs. Clees announced that the next contest would be for a gold medal instead of silver, ago to Adam children: Harry Thompson as formerly. The various superintendents then submitted their annual reports.

Dr. Irving L. Foster told of the recent campaign work in Centre county and Mr. Hamilton gave an illustration showing that prohibition does prohibit. All the old officers were re- Bois; William, of Big Run; Mrs. Mary their success. elected with the exception of the Loudon, of Cloe, Pa.; James and Robert, county treasurer, Miss Savilla Rearick, of Centre Hall, who by the way will soon be married and leave the Myrtle Hawk, of Big Run. county, and Mrs. Melissa Kapp, of State College, was elected in her place. The officers elected are as fol- by Dr. E. H. Yocum, of the Methodist department and is getting along splendid-Rhoads, Bellefonte; vice president, the Union cemetery. Mrs. John P. Harris, Bellefonte; corrosponding secretary, Mrs. Anna M. Clees, of Philipsburg; recording secretary, Mrs. C. V. Ridge, of Blanchard.

At Friday afternoon's session the silver medal contest was held which was participated in by the following members of the Loyal Temperance Legion: Lois Foreman, of Bellefonte: Richard Hoffman, of Howard; Evelyn McClellan, of Unionville; Helen Bechdel, of Blanchard; John es and they awarded the silver medal to Lois Foreman, honorable mention to Richard Hoffman and silver monogram "M. C." pins to the other contestants. Lois Foreman, the winner of the silver medal, is a daughter of University where he played on the reprothonotary and Mrs. D. R. Fore- serve base ball team, died at his home in man, of this place.

resolutions was adopted as read. The closing address to the convention was Lock Haven. The young man was twenmade by Dean Arthur Holmes, fol- ty-three years old and was a son of Mr. lowing which there was a half hour's and Mrs. Joseph Dreese, of Middleburg. "open forum," and then the conven- He was buried at Middleburg on Wedtion adjourned after one of the most nesday. successful gatherings ever held in the county.

-Mrs. John Kreamer has receiv- died at the Altoona hospital on Saturday ed word from her husband, who went evening, after a brief illness with heart west several weeks ago on account of trouble. She was a daughter of James his health, that he had arrived in R. and Mary Ellenberger and was born Denver, Col., and has secured em- in Centre county forty-seven years ago. ployment which he can do very easi- She is survived by her husband and three ly and is already better. His children; her mother, two brothers and Bellefonte friends will be glad to one sister. Burial was made in the Car- County Commissioners, has been off ard Steel works at Burnham, is quite learn that his future outlook is so son valley cemetery on Wednesday after- duty the past three weeks on account of ill in the Lewistown hospital with ience along this line and will doubt- parsonage, by the pastor, Rev. W. M. B. encouraging.

Elizabeth Weaver and was born in Jefferson county almost sixty-three years ago. She was married forty-four years ago to Adam Smith who survives with Smith, of DuBois; Mrs. Laura Jennie Wike, of Endicott, N. Y.; Mrs. Rose Annetta Armstrong, of Clearfield; Mrs. the evening for the concert by the High and the plaintiff asked remuneration Elizabeth Joanna Ritchie, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Minnie May Coulson, of Nettleton, Pa. She also leaves these broth-Go out and patronize the young people ers and sisters; Henry Weaver, of Du-and make them feel you are interested in able for the woman's support. The of DuBois; Mrs. Hannah Means, of Punx-

Funeral services were held at her late at Schenectady, N. Y., has been promothome at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning ed to the alternating current engineering lows: President, Miss Rebecca N. church, after which burial was made in ly with his work.

> CARNEY. - Mrs. Katherine Carney, widow of the late John Carney, of east Logan street, died at the borough home at eight o'clock on Monday morning, of old age. She was a daughter of Patrick and Rosa Burke, and was born in Ireland ninety years ago. She came to this country when a young woman and forty years ago was married in St. John's Catholic church, Bellefonte, to John Carney, who preceded her to the grave several years ago. She had no children and so far as Holmes, of State College; Gerald Da- known no surviving relatives. Funeral vis, of Bellefonte, and Miriam C. mass was held in the Catholic church at Foss, of Centre Hall. Three members 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning by of the college faculty acted as judg- Rev. Father McArdle, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

> 1 DREESE .- George B. Dreese, a one time student of the Bellefonte Academy but recently attending the Susquehanna Middleburg on Saturday of pneumonia,

The report of the committee on which developed from a cold contracted two weeks previous while playing ball in

IRWIN-Mrs. June Myrtle Irwin, wife

of William J. Irwin, of Canan Station, properly fed and refreshed, then kept him all night and the next morning he returned to Snow Shoe, well satisfied that for one day at least he had had an ample sufficiency of physical exercise.

-Don't overlook the fact that this is school orchestra, at the High school for her support. The defendants conbuilding at 8 o'clock. Admission 25 cents. tended that they had given Mr. Corthe plaintiff. -Raymond R. Jenkins who, since sutawney; Jacob in the west and Mrs. his graduation from State College has been with the General Electric company costs.

-The Pennsylvania railroad company has ready for distribution a forty page folder descriptive of the seashore and mountain resorts reached by its lines which it is distributing free, either through its ticket agents or by mail postpaid. Anyone contemplating a summer outing can secure a lot of valuable information from the above folder and ought to secure one without delay.

-Robert T. Garman, the well known jeweler of Tyrone, recently presented to the Bellefonte Academy a beautiful gold lined silver loving cup, on which will be engraved the names of athletes making the largest number of points during the year. At the big interscholastic meet at Pittsburgh last Saturday Frank Speer, an Academy student, won the 440 yard dash over quite a number of contestants, and has thus won the honor of having his name the first to be engraved upon the cup. Both the faculty and the student body appreciate Mr. Garman's gift very much.

-If you really enjoy a big circus come to Bellefonte next Wednesday. The WATCHMAN is perfectly honest and candid their "Children of Fifty Years Ago" in stating that it is the biggest show that entertainment in the chapel last Frihas been in Bellefonte since Ringlings day evening. The proceeds will be dewas here seventeen years ago. For years Bellefonte has been getting from twelve voted to repairing and tuning the piano now in use in the Sunday school to twenty-one car shows. Need we tell you more than that the Hagenbeck and room which will then be installed in Wallace railroad manifest calls for sixtythe primary department, Mrs. W. P. five cars. This is not a paid advertise-Wilson being he generous donor of a ment. It is a voluntary statement on the new piano for the Sunday school part of the WATCHMAN for the benefit of room its readers who enjoy a good circus. This will be one worth taking a day off to see.

fonte this week that Arthur Haupt, -----Nevin Cole, second clerk to the who has been employed at the Standpneumonia.

but almost famished, but kind friends Mr. Orvis asked for a non-suit and picture must be seen to be appreciat- Memorial sermon by Rev. MacLeod. In after due argument it was granted. Haines had been an inmate of the tisement. Corman family for a number of years ative.

Pleasant Gap Items.

in June by the Academy certificate.

The Birth of a Nation.

Turn to the sixth page of today's on Sunday, May 28th, at five o'clock L. Jackson. By order of p. m., by a detail of Gregg Post No. man notice that they would not be li-95, G. A. R., assisted by the Pleasant Gap band and members of the Luthjury returned a verdict of $410 for eran and Methodist churches. Church members and citizens are requested The case of Nora Zerby vs. Penn collect damages for injury on the public road. Case settled by the su-On Wednesday morning Matthew Wagner landed a twenty-five inch Should the weather not permit the concert will be in the hall. The combrown trout from Spring creek just > Local U. S. Marine Afloat. Ploughing the seven seas on board the superdreadnaught Pennsylvania, Judge Quigley to not less than ten nor the largest, most powerful and formidable fighting ship afloat, is a local U. S. Marine-John G. Baudis, brother of Mrs. Emma Slagle, of State College, this county.

Young Baudis enlisted in the United States Marine Corps at its Pittsburgh recruiting station on December 16th, 1915. Marines wear a distinctively military uniform, and they perform a soldier's duties while roving the seas aboard ship. They are always first landed when trouble threatens, and they bear the brunt of -The ladies in charge of the primary Sunday school cleared $55.00 at with any situation that may arise army to assist.

-Mrs. Maurice Yeager has rented the hotel at Pleasant Gap and will take charge some time between the lon and is well and favorably known in first and fifth of June. In addition to running it as a hotel proper she will have on sale at all times ice cream and will give special attention to

-Word was received in Belle- serving light lunches, such as sandless be a success in her new venture. Glanding.

ed and every person who can do so the afternoon the members are asked to the Diamond where at 1.30 p. m. the parade will form and proceed to the Union cemetery where services will be Memorial services will be held here held at the grave of the late Lieut. George

> S. D. GETTIG, Commander. A. J. NEALIS, Adjutant.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES. - The county board of farmers' institute managers will meet at the County Commissioners' township, an action in trespass to to assemble promptly at 4.30 o'clock office on the second Tuesday of June, to at Noll's hall, and proceed from there arrange for the place where institutes to the cemeteries. Prior to the Memo- are to be held this season. All of our pervisors of the township agreeing to rial services a sacred concert will be people who desire institutes, ought to atpay nominal damages and all the given by the band and church choirs tend this meeting and present their at 3.30 o'clock. All persons taking claims. This board is composed of the part are required to assemble at three local member of the State Board of Ago'clock prompt. The concert will be riculture, and one representative from in charge of J. Thomas Harrison, each county agricultural society, the Pomona Grange, County Alliance and other kindred organizations. If you find that below the falls. Several weeks ago mittee in charge consists of W. H. you cannot attend this meeting, address he caught one equally large. All told Noll Jr., William Bilger and W. A. a letter with your request to the chair-man of the board of institute managers, Wagner has caught 115 trout this Hoover, and the public is invited to care of County Commissioners.

JOHN A. WOODWARD.

-Last Saturday counsel for B. Paul Swartz, who was last week sentenced by more than fifteen years in the penitentiary for sending threatening letters and attempted extortion, took out a certiorari to the Superior court, the rule returnable the first Monday in June. While the rule is returnable at that early date the case will not be heard in the higher court before the first week in October, and in the meantime Mr. Swartz will have to remain a prisoner in the Centre county jail, unless he is able to give sufficient bail to secure his release.

CULVER-SCANLON. - A quiet wedding was celebrated at the parsonage of St. the initial fighting. Usually these John's Catholic church on Wednesday "soldiers of the sea" are able to cope afternoon when Ernest Culver, of Snow Shoe, was married to Miss Agnes Scanlon. abroad without having to call in the of Axe Mann. Rev. Father McArdle performed the ceremony and the couple were attended by Miss Mary Gross and John McDonough. The bride is a daughter of the late Patrick and Bridget Scan-Bellefonte. Mr. Culver holds a responsible position with a coal company in Snow Shoe and it is there they will make their home.

SWARTZ-SHUEY .- Roy E. Swartz, of wiches and coffee, and to the enter- Pleasant Gap, and Miss Minnie M. Shuey, tainment of automobile parties. Mrs. of Benner township, were married on Yeager has had considerable exper- Saturday of last week, at the Lutheran season, the majority of which exceed- attend. ed ten inches in length. Yesterday morning a very good friend of the "Watchman" called this office and told us that young Smith had just caught a trout down near the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania depot that measured twenty-nine inches, and that he had caught it by using a live swallow as bait. In fact the trout was reported to have swallowed the swallow, feathers and all. Of course this is a good story but the "good friend" who telephoned it in forgot that the man who originally told the story was somewhat of a fisherman himself, with all the qualifications.

Two Fish Stories.

John Corman vs. the Overseers of ought to see it at Garman's May 31st accompany the old soldiers to Meyers', the poor of Howard township, an ac- and June 1st, with a matinee on the Shiloh and Pleasant Gap cemeteries. On tion to recover six hundred dollars for last named day. Prices will be within May 30th the members will report at the the maintenance of Eliza Haines. Mrs. the reach of all. Read the big adver- Post rooms at one p. m., and march to