Veteran Club Reunion Cancelled.

The members of the executive committee of the Centre county Veteran club held a meeting in the grand jury room at the court house at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning with the president, John Hamilton, presiding. Owing to the unsettled condition of the country on account of the infantile paralysis epidemic it was unanimously decided to cancel this year's reunion, which was to have been held at Pine Grove Mills on Saturday, September 2nd. It was further agreed that next year's reunion be held at Pine Grove Mills. The committee voted to contribute ten dollars to the Centre county Soldiers' Relief association for the benefit of the dependent families of soldiers now on the Texas border.

—Dr. David Dale, who as a reserve surgeon in the United States army has been located with the coast artillery at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex., the past two months, was last week ordered to report at Newport, Rhode Island, and by the time this issue of the "Watchman" reaches its readers he will likely have reached that post. Dr. Dale left Bellefonte on July 5th and arrived at San Antonio on July 8th. His being ordered north was a pleasant surprise to his many friends here and naturally is causing considerable speculation as to whether or not it is a forerunner of all the troops being sent home. He was the surgeon in charge of the regular artillery that was transferred from the border to Newport.

—There will be a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Mills Beach this (Friday) afternoon at four o'clock to meet Miss Anna McCue, the suffrage speaker who did very effective work in Philadelphia before the election last fall, speaking every day before the postoffice on Ninth street. All are invited who are interested in Suffrage, and those who are open to conviction should go and hear her talk.

My First Trip to the Ocean.

I left my home among the mountains—in Bellefonte, Penna.—August 24, 1916, to go "down by the Sea" and enjoy the blessings of Ocean Grove, N. J.

After a pleasant ride through dear old Pennsylvania, I arrived in Ocean Grove in the evening. My first thought was to rest and be ready for the busy days that followed. I planned to hear Rev. William Sunday, as well as see the grand Old Ocean. Went to the Auditorium and found the seat that had been secured for me. What a crowd I saw when I attended the reception to Mr. Sunday; it was immense. The galleries all around the building—seating 10,000 people, and crowds standing outside. This was the beginning, the continuing and ending of all the great things that hurried to see and hear "Billy" Sunday.

Every seat was taken and the platform extended to welcome the ministers and the great choir, and the steps leading to it. This was a beautiful sight to behold. The Campmeeting was one of great interest. The Philadelphia choir came on Thursday, hundreds of the singers, in white all wearing red badges. The Ocean Grove choir united with them in singing, to the delight of everybody. I'll never forget the sight.

Billy Sunday is indeed a "live wire," he has his guns well loaded; gives forth the truth; takes good exercise—back and forth on the platform, up on the chair, on the pulpit, giving heart-searching truths. His sermons certainly inspires one. He is in deep earnest. The great crowds are still and listen as he talks of God. The Methodists seem in full blast, sure. It is the old time religion; some of them shout and sing and have a glorious time. It is a feast of great spiritual blessing; a time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord; showers of blessings. A great many preachers were present. I believe the people were christians; they are like brothers and sisters. I came here a stranger and they "took me in" and I found friends.

Then the grand ocean! Splashing and dashing, raging and foaming; waves never at rest. I want to clap my hands and sing, Glory! Hallelujah! The wonderful works of God! Amen! I do not want to go home, but stay here forever. "Bless the Lord, oh my soul and praise His holy name."

The Campmeeting closed with the march around Jerusalem; the great crowd led by Dr. Ballard, president of the association, 95 years old, singing as they marched. I fell in line, not wanting to be left in the great procession.

When you come to Ocean Grove you leave all your troubles behind you and live in harmony with this beautiful place. Everything seems to lift one heavenward.

The people are live wires in christian work, and soul winners. This is holy ground and those attending consecrate themselves anew to Christ and His cause. I shall never forget. I am thankful there is an Ocean Grove and wish all my friends could see this sand spot.

Dear old Ocean Grove and the blessings I received from coming here.

MISS JANE MILLER.

Notice to Merchants.

Out of town parents of boys attending the Bellefonte Academy wish to announce that they will not be responsible for bills incurred by their sons at Bellefonte stores, unless the merchants receive letters of authority from the parents themselves. The reason is obvious. The plan will be a protection both to parents and merchants. 35-2t

—It does not require a brass band or blare of trumpets to draw a crowd to the Scenic. The popularity of this well known picture show is widespread, and when a man or woman wants to see an evening's program of good motion pictures they go to the Scenic. Pictures have been shown there within a fortnight after release and none of the offerings are old and worn out. This is the kind of a place manager T. Clayton Brown will continue to run at all times.

Record Vote Cast in Maine.

Portland, Me., Sept. 12.—The largest vote in the history of Maine was cast in the State election yesterday. The total vote will be approximately 150,000.

These figures have not been approached since 1880, the year the Democratic and Greenback parties fused, when the total was 147,862. In the last presidential year and two years ago it fell below 142,000.

The receipt today of the vote from the border and a few isolated towns increased the plurality of Carl E. Milliken, Republican, for governor, over Governor Oakley C. Curtis, Democrat, to 13,800.

Indicated pluralities for the other Republican candidates were confirmed by a revision of the vote. The Republicans will have solid delegations in both branches of Congress and will easily control both houses of the Legislature.

The country vote, as usual, controlled the election. The cities gave a total plurality of 51 for Governor Curtis, as against a total of 6000 received by him two years ago.

The vote is:

- Governor—Milliken, Republican, 79,002; Curtis, Democrat, 66,547.
- United States senators: Hale, Republican, 78,944; Fernald, Republican, 70,368; Johnson, Democrat, 68,273; Sills, Democrat, 66,832.
- Congressmen: Goodall, Republican, 19,732; Stevens, Democrat, 16,103; White, Republican, 10,510; McGillicuddy, Democrat, 18,880; Peters, Republican, 21,820; Bunker, Democrat, 18,277; Hersey, Republican, 15,066; Pierce, Democrat, 11,013.

By a vote of about four to one the voters approved the State law limiting the employment of women and children to 54 hours a week.

Less Bread for a Nickel or a Dime.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—A reduction by one third in the size of the five cent loaf of bread appeared tonight to have been decided on by Chicago bakers, instead of an increase in price.

City officials announced that bakers had purchased large quantities of municipal stamps for half pound loaves, instead of the three quarter pound stamps formerly used.

United States District Attorney Clyne, who is investigating the bread situation with a view to possible prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law, said tonight that the weight of the five cent loaf had been reduced by some Chicago bakers a week ago.

Governor Brumbaugh and Party

New York, September 11.—E. P. Ripley, president of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, announced here tonight that he would bring suit to test the constitutionality of the recently enacted eight hour law. He was of the opinion that other western roads would do likewise. He termed the law confiscatory, called it class legislation and said it was in violation of freedom of contract. President Ripley came here to attend a directors' meeting.
