Notes of Interest to Church People of all Denominations in all Parts of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.
Service Sunday 11:00 a. m. Wednesday 8 p. m., 9½ E. High street.

Regular church services will be resumed in St. John's Episcopal church on Sunday under the direction of the new rector, Rev. Maynard. Communion services will be held at 8 o'clock a. m., and preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school will be at 10 a. m., as usual. The public is invited.

MARRIAGES.

SEANOR-PAYNE.—A wedding of interest to many readers of the "Watchman" was that on Thursday of last week of Paul Blackburn Seanor, of Norton, Va., and Miss Edith Ellen Payne, a daughter of Mrs. Mary Payne, of this place. The ceremony took place at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church in Hollidaysburg and was performed by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Orr. The only attendant was Mrs. William B. Wallis, as matron of honor. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Seanor motored to Bellefonte and are spending some time at the home of the bride's mother on east High street. They expect to leave in a week or ten days on a motor trip along the New England coast after which they will go to Norton, Va., where Mr. Seanor is engaged in the automobile business.

DARCEY-CUNNINGHAM.—James F. Darcey, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Elizabeth A. Cunningham, of Bellefonte, were married on Monday in St. Paul's Cathedral, Washington, by Monsignor James Makin. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Helen Cunningham, and the bridegroom's brother, Henry Darcey. The bride is a daughter of Frank Cunningham but since the death of her mother has made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cunningham, until about a year ago, since which time she has been with her sister in Washington. The young couple arrived in Bellefonte on Wednesday morning on their wedding trip, at the conclusion of which they will take up their residence in Washington, D. C., where the bridegroom is a successful electrician.

BROUSE-MOERSCHBACHER.—Richard S. Brouse and Miss Mary Moerschbacher, both of Bellefonte, surprised their many friends by getting married in Sunbury at 4:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon of last week. Miss Moerschbacher, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moerschbacher, had been away for five weeks visiting friends in the eastern part of the State. Mr. Brouse left Bellefonte on Tuesday morning ostensibly to attend the Milton fair but in reality to get married. The young couple returned to Bellefonte on Thursday evening and as now planned will spend the winter at home of Mrs. R. S. Brouse on Thomas street, expecting to go to housekeeping for themselves next spring.

VOGT-KELLEY.—Fred J. Vogt, of Tyrone, and Miss Justina Kelley, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Kelley, of Snow Shoe, were married in St. Mark's Catholic church, Snow Shoe, at seven o'clock on Wednesday morning, by the rector, Rev. Father Conley. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Vogt motored to Tyrone where they took the train for a wedding trip south. Returning they will take up their residence in Snow Shoe where Mr. Vogt is an engineer in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company.

RHOADS-KELLERMAN.—Leonard Rhoads, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoads, of Coleville, and Miss Esther Kellerman, also of Coleville, were married at the United Brethren parsonage at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening by the pastor, Rev. T. Hugh MacLeod. The young couple will reside in Coleville, where the bridegroom is a clerk in Garbrick's store.

BROWN-BECHDEL.—Charles W. Brown, of Bellefonte, and Miss Mary Jane Bechdel, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bechdel, of Blanchard, were married at five o'clock last Saturday evening by Squire S. Kline Woodring, at his office in Crider's Exchange.

Lovers of good, clean entertainment will have another opportunity tomorrow, matinee and night, to witness a performance at Garman's that will surely delight all. It will be Joseph L. Kernan's adaptation of "Mother Goose" into a musical comedy that is both pleasing and interesting. J. C. Mack, well known to theatre goers of Bellefonte, is the star of the production and this is sufficient evidence that the part will be well taken. During the past month the company has been playing to capacity houses in eastern and central Pennsylvania and the newspaper notices received by the production have been very flattering.

The steam heat was turned on about four o'clock on Monday afternoon, to the delight and satisfaction of those patrons who had been shivering in their shoes for about a week previous.

Bucknell at State College Tomorrow.
Penn State's victory of 55 to 0 against Westminster last Saturday gave the coaches greater confidence for the outcome of the game with Bucknell, on Beaver field tomorrow afternoon. State and Bucknell have not met on the gridiron since 1910 and in that time both teams have scored some wonderful victories against teams of nation-wide prominence. But there is no way to get an estimate on the relative strength of the two teams this year, and when they line up for tomorrow's contest there will be no certainty as to which one will come off the victor. This very uncertainty will make it a game worth seeing, as some of the old spirit of rivalry that in years gone by existed between State and Bucknell is sure to crop out in the struggle of both teams to win. Tomorrow's game will probably be one of the best that will be seen on Beaver field this season.

Two New Industries at Philipsburg.
Philipsburg merchants and business men are very much elated over the fact that the town is to have two new industries, a textile plant and a clay products plant for the manufacture of high grade facing brick. The latter will be built almost entirely by local capital and work on the same is to be started at once so that the plant will be in operation by next spring when the building boom starts. I. L. Harvey, now with the Centre Clay and Brick company, at Orviston, is to be general manager of the plant.

It will doubtless interest the friends of Miss Ruth Altenderfer to learn that she has returned to Philadelphia to resume her musical studies at the Combs Conservatory of Music. Miss Altenderfer is studying piano under the supervision of Gilbert Reynolds Combs, founder and director of the institution; and is expected to appear in concerts in Philadelphia during the season.

Ford Says Wilson Will Win.

New York, Oct. 5.—Henry Ford, who took luncheon with President Wilson at Shadow Lawn, Monday, gave out the following signed statement upon his return to New York Monday night:

"I believe that President Wilson has solidified the independent vote of the country in his support as a result of the remarkable speech which he delivered on Saturday. It was a trenchant, rallying cry to the men of conscience who are going to put aside party ties and vote their own convictions on election day. The nation will be surprised by the numbers of these independents. I am convinced that the November election will witness an upsetting of party lines unprecedented in the history of American politics. I was born a Republican, you know, and voted the Republican ticket for many years, but I shall vote for Mr. Wilson in November.

"I have talked with many other Republicans who have resolved to do likewise. Mr. Wilson is assured of the undivided support of the real progressives of the nation, regardless of the party commitments to which they formerly subscribed."
