THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The annual Thanksgiving market will be held in Petrikin hall by the ladies of the Reformed church Tuesday and Wednesday of Thanksgiving week.

J. Millard Hartwick has been appointed a clerk in the Bellefonte post office as successor to W. Fred Montgomery, and A. R. Everett has been made a regular parcel post carrier.

At their fair and supper on Tuesday afternoon and evening the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church cleared just $70.00. The money will be deposited in the general church fund.

George Kustaborder has been transferred from Warriorsmark to Bellefonte as night watchman at the P. R. R. station. He will move his family here as soon as he can secure a suitable house.

Two big games of football will be played on the new Hughes field tomorrow. At 2.30 the Renovo and Bellefonte High school teams will meet and at 3.30 the Bellefonte Academy and Lewistown Athletics. These are two games Bellefonte rooters should not miss under any circumstances.

"Lady Luxury," the comic opera that will appear at Garman's tonight is owned by Geo. Wilson, of Tyrone. The very fact that Mr. Wilson is behind the company is a guarantee that it will be first class, for he is a man of great means and of such character as to stand for only the best things.

The election is now a thing of the past and in settling down to routine business once again don't forget the Scenic. Manager T. Clayton Brown is still doing business at the old stand and showing up-to-date programs of motion pictures every evening. They are always worth seeing and cheap amusement at the regular price of admission.

Persons who are pledged to contribute to the Womans Needlework Guild of America, through the Bellefonte organization, are asked to send their contributions to the different heads as promptly as possible. Give liberally of what you have, as this charity reaches the poor of the community, the hospital and the Red Cross of America.

Saturday of next week is the last day for filing applications for liquor license for 1917. Most of the old applications have already been filed and in addition the following new ones: Samuel Markowitz, for a license at Hannah Furnace; Edward L. Gillen, for the Kohlbecker house, Milesburg; J. R. G. Allison, for the Millheim hotel; and Edwin G. Henderson, for Howard.

Penn State literally swamped Geneva on Beaver field last Saturday when they ran up the unprecedented score of 79 to 0. It was the biggest score ever made on Beaver field, notwithstanding the fact that the game was played in rain and mud. Though State has been defeated once she has scored next to the highest number of points of any football team in the east, 297 to 24. Vanderbilt is ahead with 302 to 0.

On Wednesday afternoon four young men from Lock Haven made a trip to Bellefonte in Dr. Ball's car, with the latter's chauffeur as driver. On the way home they had a tire puncture at Cedar Springs with the result that the car turned over twice. All four men were thrown out and rendered unconscious. Several of them were badly cut and bruised. They were given first aid treatment and later removed to the Lock Haven hospital.

Residents of Bellefonte and Centre county are asked to bear in mind the fact that Thanksgiving is approaching, the time when it is customary to make a donation to the Bellefonte hospital. Those who keep in touch with the good work of this institution will gladly give what they can at that time to help along in its good work. And to those who know nothing about it we can give assurance that it is not only worthy but in need of anything you can give.

Cards have been received in Bellefonte announcing the marriage of Miss Mary Jane Rhinesmith, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Rhinesmith, of Clearfield, to McGrover McCorkle, of Akron, Ohio, but formerly of Clearfield, the wedding taking place on Wednesday, November first. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Daniel Rhinesmith, of Benner township, and has many friends in and about Bellefonte. Immediately after the wedding the young couple went to Akron, Ohio, where they will reside at 1019 Leroy avenue.

On Sunday evening shortly after dark Harry Garbrick and family, of Coleville, were coming up the state road from Lock Haven in an Overland touring car and at the cross roads at Lamar they collided with a Ford car driven by John Slagel, of Fairpoint. Mr. Garbrick's Overland suffered to the extent of two front wheels broken, a broken spring and bent fenders, while aside from a bent fender the Ford was not damaged and when the driver ascertained that no one in either car was hurt aside from a shaking up he went trundling on his way.

Troop L. Engaged In Mimic Battle.

Many of the Boys Peppared With Powder But All Unhurt. One Member of the Troop Missing. Other Interesting Happenings.

By Corp. Harry J. Cohen.

Camp Thomas J. Stewart, El Paso, Texas, Nov. 4.

Just as I was about to start this letter my attention was attracted by an unusual amount of cheering and hurrahs coming from the direction of the railroad, and this being the open season for politicians, I thought at the moment that perhaps either Wilson or Hughes were the cause of all this unnecessary commotion, but upon investigation we were delighted to find that the Massachusetts cavalry had entrained and were speeding on their way north. Is it then any wonder that the boys were in this happy frame of mind, full knowing that the Massachusetts outfit had only preceded us to the border by not more than a week. I would love to tell of a few of the many hundreds of rumors that are floating now, but knowing the cost of white paper is so prohibitive, it actually would be the needless waste of good American coin.

On Monday of this week we were ordered out as per schedule that had been posted for the entire week, for a mounted inspection of the entire regiment, by the Colonel and his staff. This having taken up the entire morning, the inspection of our quarters, that followed, took place just about the time that we would, under ordinary conditions, have been eating our dinner. Dinners of course are not allowed to interfere with any military programs, so by the time mess was announced it was a hungry mess that was anxiously awaiting to be served.

Another famous review was booked for Tuesday and that it was a famous review, cannot be denied. The entire seventh division, including every branch of the service, even down to Terry Boal's machine-gun troop was in line and paraded before the disciplinarian eyes of Generals Clement and Bell. The day was a gala one for the onlooker and quite tedious for the participants, but we know such affairs cannot be staged every day and are glad for the change from the ordinary drill periods. The places of the First, Third and Tenth regiments, which have gone home, have been ably filled by the troops of the North Carolina infantry that recently arrived, and as a making of history let it be said that it has been the first time that the soldiers or the State of North Carolina have marched together with the fighting hosts of Pennsylvania, a fact that we are proud to record. They are a very sociable and pleasant lot of chaps, and it's their lingo but because they were too far away to shoot at.

Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick, John L. VanPelt, Dr. C. A. VanValin, L. H. Gettig and Willis Shuey motored to the Seven Mountains last Friday on a bird hunt and returned with twelve pheasants. They saw quite a number of birds they didn't get—of course it wasn't because they couldn't hit them but because they were too far away to shoot at.

A distinct falling off in the number of automobiles usually parked in the Diamond on Saturday evenings was distinctly observable last Saturday evening; and yet with a fewer number of cars one driver carelessly backed into another car that was standing near the crossing at the First National bank and shoved it back a sufficient distance to bend the iron post on which the mail box is fastened about a foot out of plumb. The rear light on the one machine was also broken by coming in contact with the iron post. Aside from that no material damage was done.

Big Masquerade at High School. One of the most delightful social gatherings of the Halloween season was the big masquerade party and dance held at the High school building last Friday evening. The committee in charge consisted of Misses Martha Haines, Rebecca Yergler and Eleanor McCusley, and they were assisted in their arrangement by Miss Maude C. Baer, a teacher in the High school. The affair was very largely attended and proved a big success socially and financially. The corridors were elaborately decorated with autumn leaves and Japanese lanterns, making a very tasteful appearance. The proceeds, which will be devoted to the High school athletics, amounted a little over $27.00.

Mr. Thaddeus R. Hamilton had almost a miraculous escape from death on Tuesday afternoon in his planing mill in the rear of his house on Howard street. He worked all day until about 4.15 o'clock in the evening when he quit and was in the act of turning the power off when his clothing caught in the shafting of the moulding machine and he was thrown with such force as to break one of his left ribs and seriously injure his left shoulder. The only thing that saved his life was the fact that he was wearing an old coat and the garment was torn in two so that he was not whirled around the shafting. His cries attracted the attention of a fellow workman, who threw off the power and stopped the motor. Mr. Hamilton was able to walk to the house and call his daughter, Mrs. Broderick, of State College, on the telephone, who came down the same evening. In the meantime his shoulder swelled quickly and at this writing the attending physician has not been able to determine just how badly it is injured. Mr. Hamilton was eighty-one years old in February and will naturally feel his injuries more than a young man.

tillery, infantry and machine guns as they smashed our lines and gave us a crushing defeat. The boys will never forget the wild excitement of the hostile major, as he drew his pistol and demanded our officers to take the troop in the rear of their lines. This sure was a wonderful day from the standpoint of enthusiasm and will add materially to our knowledge of warfare.

We are at a loss to know what has become of private George Young. He left last Tuesday and up to this time has not reported back. Military law allows a man nine days without leave of absence before he is declared a deserter, and we sincerely hope George will show up before that time.

This being the limit for this time will close with best regards to all, assuring you that all the boys are as usual enjoying the best of health.

The Bellefonte Academy football team went down to defeat before the strong Indiana Normal team at Greensburg, last Saturday, the score being 9 to 0.

Joe Hronetz, a Slavish miner, of Cato, is in the Centre county jail on the charge of eloping with Elsie Houdeshell, a fifteen year old girl of the same place. Both Hronetz and the girl were arrested in Pittsburgh on Wednesday of last week.

A Christmas sale by the A. I. society of the Presbyterian church will be held in their chapel on Thursday, December 7th. Aprons, fancy work, cakes and candies will be on sale. The patronage of the public is solicited.

A meeting of the board of road and bridge viewers will be held in the grand jury room on Monday, November 27th, at ten o'clock a. m., to hear testimony on the application for a new inter-county bridge between the borough of Phillipsburg and Chester Hill, in Clearfield county.

The Renovo High school football team will play the Bellefonte High school team on old Hughes field tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at three o'clock. Go out and give the High school team a boost as they are soon due to play that game with the Lock Haven High as the first of that series for the beautiful Griffin loving cup.

Big Fire at Lemont.

The barns of I. J. Dreese and Elmer Ross, at Lemont, were totally destroyed by fire at an early hour on Tuesday morning and that of George Shuey damaged to some extent. The fire broke out in Mr. Dreese's barn and was discovered about two o'clock in the morning by Mrs. Schreck, a neighbor. By the time an alarm was given the entire building was a mass of flames and shortly thereafter the fire communicated to the Ross barn on the left. Without any ample means of fighting the fire both buildings burned rapidly and were quickly destroyed. The barn of George Shuey, to the west of the Dreese barn, was damaged to the extent of about seventy-five dollars.

Mr. Dreese used his barn as a garage and stored therein were his own and his daughters' automobiles, both of which were burned. His total loss is in the neighborhood of $3,500, but it is practically covered with insurance. Mr. Ross' loss is $600, with $200 insurance, while Mr. Shuey's loss is also covered by insurance.

The only explanation of the fire is that it was the work of an incendiary. Mr. Dreese had been away all day on Monday and neither his nor his daughters' car and been out of the barn that day. The last person in the building was the man who does chores around the house who carried the porch swings to the second floor about six o'clock. But he had no light nor fire about him, so that incendiaryism is the only explanation.

Fire Near Clarence.

About eight o'clock on Sunday evening the engine house of Morgan & Hoy, located at the brick works near Clarence, caught fire in some unknown manner and burned to the ground, together with the dinkey engine used by Morgan & Hoy in their coal mining operations. There were several barrels of oil in the building and when they ignited the flames shot many feet in the air. Fortunately no other buildings were in close proximity and the fire died out after the building and contents were consumed. The loss, however, to Morgan & Hoy is considerable and the burning of their dinkey engine very unfortunate at this time when they have been struggling hard to supply the demand for their coal. The junior member of the firm is J. Harris Hoy, formerly of Bellefonte, and his many friends here sympathize with him in this bit of hard luck.

Big Show at Garman's Tonight.

That merry, melodious, musical comedy, "Lady Luxury," will be the offering at Garman's this (Friday) evening. It comes here with the original cast and production that appeared at the New York Casino. "Lady Luxury" is a collaboration of Rida Johnson Young and William Schroeder, two of the leading play writers of the present day. Included in the twenty odd musical song hits are "When I'm With You" and "Dream On, My Princess." The Symphony orchestra will be under the personal direction of Vernon E. Bestor. Yra Jean, the popular young prima donna, will sing the title role, and supporting her is Inez Bauer, the premier danseuse. Others in the cast are Ann Sheppard, John Osborne Clemson, Harry MacDonough, and others of equally brilliant reputations. The feminine members of the "Lady Luxury" company will appear bedecked in the latest Lucille creations especially designed by Lady Duff Gordon. Manager Garman personally recommends this attraction as a very good one. Prices, 35, 50 and 75 cents, $1.00 and a few at $1.50.

Lost in New York.

The attraction which will hold the theatre going public's attention at Garman's tomorrow evening, November 11th, is that popular sensational scenic drama "Lost in New York," which abounds in heart throbs, stirring situations, surprising climaxes, hearty laughs and a mighty river of real water, which covers almost the entire stage—this realistic scene has boats sailing around, a brilliantly illuminated view of the city of New York in the background, and a hair-raising finale, which is one of the biggest sensational climaxes seen on the stage. Kitty O'Neil, as the heroine, has a most congenial role, while Leonard Grover, Jr., lends valuable support. The company is a large one and thoroughly competent. Prices, 25, 35, 50, and a few at 75 cents.

Teachers' Institute Next Week.

The seventieth annual session of the teachers' institute of Centre county will be held in the court house, Bellefonte, next week, beginning with the enrollment of teachers on Monday morning. The list of instructors and evening entertainments were published in this paper two weeks ago.

The school directors' association will hold their annual meeting on Tuesday and Wednesday. Tuesday morning will be spent in the institute and the Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday sessions will be held at the new High school building. A good program has been prepared for this meeting. The present officers of the association are as follows: President, Rev. H. S. McClintock, Phillipsburg; vice presidents, M. S. McDowell, State College, James E. Harter, Coburn; secretary, Charles F. Cook, Bellefonte; treasurer, A. C. Mingle, Bellefonte.

Bountiful refreshments were served during the evening.

A number of bets were made in Bellefonte on the result of the election but the most unique of all is that of Harry F. McManaway and C. H. Buckius, of the State Highway Department. McManaway is of course an ardent Democrat and Buckius a Republican. If Wilson is elected Buckius will have to roll a peanut on the Diamond down High street to the railroad with a twenty-foot pole, and if Hughes is elected McManaway will have to do the rolling. The performance is to start promptly at one o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon.

"Lady Luxury," at Garman's tonight, promises to be a worth-while attraction. We are of the opinion that lovers of good comedy and music will be repaid for attending.
