Paid strictly in advance - -Paid before expiration of year -Paid after expiration of year -2.00

Killed on the Railroad.

Joseph Risk, a young Assyrian and at one time an employee of this office, was instantly killed on the Catawissa branch of the Reading railroad about 10.45 o'clock last Friday morning. A little over a year ago Joe went to Milton to work in the shell factory. He was there until about six weeks ago when he went to work in the tool shop of the Milton car works. He quit his job last week and it is believed was on the hunt of another job when run down and killed. Joe boarded at Edward Lauth's, in Milton. He was last seen alive in company with an unknown This was about an hour before the accident, which happened about midway between the Pottsgrove station and West is a sad blow to his mother, who survives | Lodge of Rebekahs. and the following brothers and sisters: Bertha, Florence, Katharine, Bessie Barbara. Dale. Emeline and Haves.

Philipsburg twenty-seven years ago. ing their work with the beautiful and and which is a credit to State College. Prior to her marriage to Mr. Brady on April 18th, 1916, she had been one of KLINGER.-John H. Klinger, a well BARTLEY. - Mrs. Rebecca Bartley, Saturday afternoon, burial being made ery way. in the Advent cemetery.

lives at home, saw a bright light on the in the Union cemetery. stairway and running upstairs found her ipsburg cemetery.

his home on south Water street at 1.50 nell; Green, of Rock View; Mrs. Marga. and sisters: James T. Corman, Mrs. state forests. Maps of the areas suro'clock on Saturday afternoon following ret Coakley, of Yarnell, and Mrs. Ellen Emma Brungart, S. N. Corman and Miss veyed are being made up as rapidly an illness of several years with dropsy Bierly, of Milesburg. Revs. Prentiss and Ella Corman, all of Rebersburg. Rev. as possible, and show every detail of and other complications.

Taylor and was born at Pleasant Gap on ing made in the Advent cemetery. October 17th, 1850, hence was 66 years, 1 month and 8 days old. He was a eran cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

NEW HALL OF THE STATE COLLEGE LODGE OF ODD FELLOWS

man as he passed the Pottsgrove station. State College Odd Fellows Dedicate New impressive ceremony used on such occa-Hall.

Milton. The Reading pusher is the College Lodge No. 1032 I. O. O. F., dedi-same passed absolutely into their posses-Downing, the former Centre countian name of the engine that ran down the cated their new sixteen thousand dollar sion when the Grand Master passed the young man but just how the accident hall with elaborate and appropriate serv- keys to the Noble Grand Milton Shuey. Hoover while attempting to rob the Curhappened is unknown, as Joe's companices, notwithstanding the fact that the ion disappeared and could not be located. cold weather made it a little unpleasant lege avenue, on ground purchased from When informed of the accident on Satur- for the outdoor part of the exercises. A. the Christ sisters less than two years day morning Mrs. Risk went to Milton H. Hartswick acted as chief marshall of ago. The organization was incorporated and brought the remains home on Sun- the parade held in the morning with J. and chartered with the following board The unfortunate young man was a son promptly at 10.30 a. m., and was com- T. Graham, A. H. Hartswick, Clark Her- lieved him to be of unsound mind he of the late Alexander and Lilly Mosher posed as follows: The State College ca- man, W. D. Custard, C. L. Hollobaugh, Risk and was born in Beyrout, Syria, on det band, the Canton, of Tyrone, Citizens Park Homan, G. B. Jackson and Harry April 7th, 1895. When he was a child band of Ferguson township, the Past Woomer. The building is 46x84 feet in be permitted to run at large. Downing his parents came to this country and had Grands and visiting members, and the size and two stories high. The first floor was given an opportunity to speak in his lived at various places prior to coming to State College Lodge. The line of march or basement contains a social hall, recepown behalf and told the court that he Bellefonte about ten years ago. Several was on College avenue to Atherton tion and club rooms. The second floor had very little knowledge of the whole years ago Joe worked in this office and street, on Atherton street to Beaver ave- opens on grade on College avenue and is affair but plead for mercy on account of was always faithful in the discharge of enue, along the latter thoroughfare to occupied by Gentzell & McCafferty's furhis duties. His father died very sudden- McAllister street and thence to the new niture store, one of the largest in State in sentencing Downing, stated that he ly at Pleasant Gap on the 26th of last hall where a splendid dinner was served College. On the upper floor is the large had given the case considerable thought May and now the death of the eldest boy at 12.30 o'clock by the members of the meeting hall, with all the necessary clock and was not convinced that the man presiding. Following the appointment water. Funeral services were held at the home of his staff officers the opening ode was It is richly furnished throughout, the of his mother at two o'clock Tuesday sung, H. M. Koch being musical director Rebekahs presenting the magnificent upafternoon by Dr. E. H. Yocum, after and Mrs. Charles Musser presiding at right piano. Other individual gifts were which burial was made in the Union the piano. Prayer was offered by a set of silver spoons by George T. Grachaplain George Glenn, of Lodge No. 717. ham, and a table by Park Homan for the BRADY.-Miss Netta Brady, wife of selection rendered. Grand Marshall A. Lodge trustees are J. F. Shoop. Al. Isen-Robert H. Brady, died at the Bellefonte N. Dick, of Lodge No. 74, with four her- huth and A. H. Hartswick. The Lodge hospital last Thursday morning after alds, Harry Homan, Edward Chambers, was instituted twenty-five years ago and only a week's illness. Her maiden name Charles Musser and Harry Woomer then now has 134 members in good standing. was Netta Gunther and she was born in proceeded to erect the altar, accompany- with a home that they can be proud of LAFFIN.-Mrs. Michael Laffin, of of Lamb street. He also leaves three Belle, of Bellefonte, and James, of Wil-Philipsburg, died at the Cottage State sisters, Mrs. Anna Cox, Mrs. Jane Mar- liamsport. The remains were brought to hospital on Friday evening from burns shall and Mrs. William Derstine, all of Bellefonte last evening and the funeral sustained that morning. Not feeling very Bellefonte. Funeral services will be will be held at two o'clock this afternoon well she remained in bed that morning held at his late home at three o'clock this from the Episcopal church, of which she after the other members of the family afternoon. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt will was a member. Rev. Malcolm DePrui had gotten up. Some time later her officiate and will be assisted by Revs. Maynard will officiate and burial made considerably on the first of January. Mr daughter, Mrs. John B. Rumberger, who Yocum and Shuey. Burial will be made in the Union cemetery.

mother enveloped in flames. She was BROOKS.-Mrs. Rachael Brooks, wife Danville state hospital on Thursday terribly burned before the fire could be of Orlin Brooks, died last Friday morn- evening of last week of diseases incident extinguished, while Mrs. Rumberger was ing at the home of her daughter, Mrs. to his advanced age. He was a son of badly burned about the hands and arms. Ellen Bierly, at Milesburg, after eight Henry and Rachael Corman and was from 6 to 8 miles wide, has been Mrs. Laffin's night clothes caught fire months illness with a complication of born in Miles township on April 5th, diseases. She was a daughter of Mr. 1842, hence at his death was 74 years. 7 sylvania forest service in the most ac-The unfortunate woman was sixty-six and Mrs. Andrew Heaton and was born months and 18 days old. For a number of curate survey of Pennsylvania's foryears old and a native of Huntingdon at Yarnell on December 16th, 1865, makyears old and a native of Huntingdon at Yarnell on December 16th, 1865, mak. county. She had been a resident of ing her age 50 years, 11 months and 8 of late years had lived a retired life. He main line of the Pennsylvania rail-Philipsburg, however, since 1875. In addays. Surviving her are her husband was a life-long member of the Reformed road near Petersburg, to within five dition to her husband she leaves four and the following children: Mrs. Walter church and an exemplary citizen in every miles of Mifflinburg. It embraces children and five brothers. The funeral Dunklebarger, of Pleasant Gap; Leonard, way. was held at eleven o'clock on Monday of Tyrone; Edward, of Bellefonte; Ray, morning, burial being made in the Phil- Frank, Kenneth, Luther and Dale at home. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: George, of Altoo-TAYLOR.—Henry Irvin Taylor died at na; Johnson, of Runville; Miles, of Yar-Shuey had charge of the funeral which was held on Monday morning, burial bewhich was held on Monday, burial being topography. Springs, roads, trails, fire lanes, streams, camp sites, and elevation can be shown for every acree. He was a son of Curtin C. and Harriet was held on Monday morning, burial be-

HALL.-Robert C. Hall, a well known moulder by trade and worked in the farmer of Union township, died at his Bellefonte foundry for many years. In home on Dix Run at eleven o'clock last politics he was a Democrat and was un- Friday night, of blood poisoning, superswerving in support of his party's poli- induced by a long illness with diabetes. cies. On December 17th, 1871, he was He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. married to Miss Theresa B. Gross who Hall and was born on the old homestead survives with three sons, Harry C. and on January 31st, 1882. He was a farm-Curtin C., of Bellefonte, and Charles P., er by occupation and was the last of his of Bellwood. He was the last surviving father's family. He was married to Miss member of his father's family. Funeral Bertha Logan who survives with four services were held at his late home at small children. Rev. Hawk, of the Free 9.30 o'clock on Tuesday morning by Dr. Methodist church, had charge of the fun-E. H. Yocum, of the Methodist church, eral services which were held on Monday after which burial was made in the Luth- afternoon at two o'clock, burial being made at Dix Run.

sions. This service proved the completion of the splendid new home for this Last Friday evening members of State organization in State College, and the ther, living in Milesburg, one brother man and for many years had been a res- about thirteen years ago but surviving invited. and three sisters, namely: Wilbur F. ident of Bellefonte. He was janitor at her are one son and four daughters, Gunther, of Philipsburg; Miss Nellie, of the North ward school building for a namely: William Bartley, of New York; Tanner's boarding house, got the goose, Milesburg; Mrs. Jacob Spotts, of North period of twenty-two years. He was a Mrs. Anna McArdle, Rebecca, Margaret "Nancy" given away by the State-Centre Philipsburg, and Mrs. Alexander Watson, faithful member of the Reformed church and Mrs. Tessie Whittaker, of Boston. Electric company to the person guessing of Munson. The funeral was held on for many years and a good citizen in ev- She also leaves the following brothers the nearest to the number of grains of and sisters: William Fleming, of Ty- corn it would eat in a week. Her guess He is survived by his wife and two rone; John, of Ohio; Mrs. A. B. Whitta- was 2234. children, Miss Ida, at home, and Edward, ker, of Curwensville; Thomas and Miss CORMAN.-W. H. Corman died at the ed on Hughes back.

The new hall is located on East Colrooms, etc. The building is splendidly

He was married December 17th, 1865, two children, Mrs. H. C. Musser and tour county. Harry E. Corman, both of Rebersburg. burg.

who for many years had been gardener born in Ireland and came to this coun- many's forests so productive. ever since. He was buried at Ebensburg on Tuesday morning. ---For high class Job Work come to the "Watchman" Office.

VANVALIN.-Mrs. Jennie C. VanValin, widow of the late Dr. Waldo C. VanValin, of Unionville, died on Saturday night at the home of her son in Pittsburgh, of paralysis of the bowels. She was a daughter of John and Martha Alexander and was 69 years, 10 months and 15 days old. Surviving her are the following children: Dr. Clyde A., of Unionville; William B. of Turlock, Cal.; Forest D., of Washington, D. C.; Arthur B., of San Francisco, Cal.; Ralph W., of Newberry, Ore.; Raymond F., of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Frank W. Smith, of Unionville. The remains were brought to Unionville for burial.

CORMAN.-Mrs. Harriet P. Corman. widow of Daniel Corman, died of heart trouble at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. M. Heltman, at Mackeyville, shortly before six o'clock on Saturday morning. She was sixty-four years old and was a member of the Bellefonte Reformed church. Her only survivor is her sister, Mrs. Heltman. The funeral was held from the Heltman home at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning, burial being made in the Cedar Hill cemetery.

D. O. Downing Sent to Penitentiary. In court at Clearfield on Monday morning Judge Singleton Bell sentenced D. O. who last summer shot paying teller wensville bank, to not less than two nor more than five years in the western penitentiary. Dr. Mitchell, an alienist from the Warren insane asylum, who made a thorough examination of Down-P. Aikens as aid. The parade moved of directors: Edward S. Erb, George ing, stated to the court that while he bewas unable to determine the grade of his insanity but thought that he should not way home from Lewisburg. was insane when he committed the act. A meeting was held in the new hall at located and modernly equipped with but believed that he did so owing to his two o'clock with Grand Master Shaner steam heat, electric light and running mental condition over financial difficul-

-Joseph Kroudiet, of Wallaceton, was brought to Bellefonte on Tuesday and put in the Centre county jail on a charge of felonious arson, he being sus-"In God We Trust" was another musical use of the secretary and treasurer, The pected of having a hand in starting some of the recent fires in Philipsburg. Krou- Fleck in the pulpit. diet has the name of being a desperate arrest him he ran into a mine drift, but the authorities of the law went after evening fully recovered. him and brought him forth a prisoner. 'Squire Warfel committed him to jail.

-The Ladies Aid Society of the Centre county's most successful school known resident of Bellefonte, died at his widow of David Bartley, died at her Methodist church will hold a parcel post teachers. While living in Philipsburg home on east Lamb street at nine o'clock home in Boston, Mass., on Tuesday, of social, Thursday evening, December brighten the home of Mr. Mrs. John she was a member of the Lutheran on Tuesday night following an illness of diseases incident to her advanced age. seventh, at the residence of Mrs. William into hand the country of Bishard and the country of Bis church and sang in the choir. She was many weeks with hardening of the ar- She was a daughter of Thomas and Re- Dawson on the corner of Bishop and a young woman of gracious and pleasing teries. He was a son of Jesse and Polly becca Fleming and was born at Valen- Spring streets. Contributions of parcels uel Roan farm (better known as the character and her untimely death is sin- Klinger and was born at Greytown, near tine's Forge in 1844, hence was in her that would sell for ten cents are asked David Fye farm) near Pine Hall, for cerely mourned by a large circle of Harrisburg, on December 2nd, 1838, hence seventy-third year. She spent most of from anyone attending the social and $14,000. He will take possession April was within four days of being seventy- her life in Bellefonte but a few years from all members of the church. In ad-In addition to her husband she is sur- eight years old. He came to Centre ago moved to Boston where most of her dition to the parcels ice cream and cake The rainy weather last Thursday did vived by her mother, Mrs. Jennie Gun- county with his parents when a young children are located. Her husband died will be on sale. Everyone is cordially

---Miss Maude Miller, who works at

-On Monday Dr. R. G. H. Hayes underment an operation, at the German hospital, Philadelphia, and the latest ries. word from there is that his condition is very encouraging.

-Farm machinery is to be advanced Perkins of the Harvester trust probably wants to get some of the money he wast-

Maps of State Forest Reserves. A strip of almost solid forest, approximately fifty-five miles long and covered by topographers of the Pennparts of Huntingdon, Centre, Snyder, Mifflin, and Union counties, and takes to Miss Annie Wolfe who survives with ests, an area twice the size of Mon-

The purpose of the surveys is to He also leaves the following brothers secure data on which to base plans for the future development of the made in the Union cemetery at Rebers- On the basis of these maps, the forelevation can be shown for every acre. ests will be divided into compartments, corresponding to the fields of a O'LAUGHLIN.-Terrence O'Laughlin, farm. Each compartment, like each field, can then be given the treatment at the convent of the Sisters of St. make possible a system of intensive its condition demands. This will Joseph at Ebensburg, died on Saturday forest management very much like morning in his ninetieth year. He was the system which has made Ger-try when forty-five years old. Shortly the whole million acres of state forthereafter he came to Bellefonte and for ests have been covered. As soon as a number of years was gardener for Gen. James A. Beaver. He went from will be placed on sale at nominal will here to Ebensburg where he had been prices. The only maps available now are for the Barree Forest, Huntingdon county. Others are almost completed for the following forests: Bear Meadows, Greenwood, Seven Mountains, Penn, Jack's Mountain, Buffalo, Kishacoquillas, and Pennypacker.

County Correspondence

Items of Interest Dished Up for the Delec tation of "Watchman" Readers by a Corps of Gifted Correspondents.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Daniel Harpster is having his home reroofed with cedar shingles. Claude Williams is now J. D. Neidigh's right hand man on the farm. Henry Rockey, of Buffalo Run, is laid up with an attack of appendicitis. Jacob Sunday last week purchased the Clark farm in Halfmoon township.

Mrs. G. E. Harper, who has been ill the past week, is now convalescing.

Farmer D. S. Neidigh is under the doctor's care with an attack of the grip. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fishburn were Sunday visitors at the Mac Fry home.

After April 1st, 1917, Lloyd Ripka will till the J. O. Keller farm in the Glades. J. H. Everts came over from Pitcairn and spent Sunday last with relatives in

Will Kline, of Burnham, is visiting his uncle, John Eves, and hunting small game

Mrs. S. E. Ward has been occupying an easy chair the past week nursing an injured knee.

L. H. Peters is handling his new 5passenger Buick and thus far is getting along splendidly.

G. W. Ward, of Pittsburgh, is here looking after his large rentals that require his attention. S. A. Homan is having his house re-roofed with corrugated iron. Ward and Dunlap have the job. Mrs. J. L. Burwell visited the Allison family at Spring Mills last week on his After April 1st, 1917, Lloyd Ripka will till the broad and tertile acres on the J. Will Kepler farm in the Glades. Samuel Kephart and son William came down from Altoona on Saturday and are visiting the parental home at Boalsburg. J. C Tussey, the popular drover, shipped a carload of fresh coas and feeders to the Lancaster market last Saturday. The Bell telephone line to this place has been completed, and the company is now considering extending a trunk line westward.

Oscar Rishel, the obliging and genial clerk in the E. C. Ross store, spent the Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mong, near State Colluge.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Lutherau church in the even ing of today (Thursday), with Rev. Mr.

Mrs. E. M. Watt, who a month ago character and when the officers went to underwent an operation in a Pittsburgh hospital, returned home on Saturday > Farmer S E. Kimport, of Tioga County, spent several days last week with relatives in the valley. He says they like their new home very much.

A sweet little girl recently arrived to The little Homer Grubb has purchased the Eman-1st, 1917.

not ninder folks from attending the Glasgow public sale, near Tusseyville. the sale totaled up $3200. Last Friday David Houser sold his 230

acle farm to Forest Struble, of State College, for $16,000. It is one of the best farms in the valley and Mr. Struble is to be congratulated on his purchase. The venerable Philip Dale, an old Civil war veteran, fell down stairs the other day while in the act of carrying a sausage grinder to the attic. He got a bad bump on the head but no serious inju-

On December 7th, at 7.30 p. m., Rev. Mr. Eby, of Uniontown, will give an illustrated lecture on "Ben Hur" in the Presbyterian church. It will be under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society.

J. S. Miller and wife are laying cares aside to attend the State Grange meeting to be held in the City of Brotherly Love on December 11th. They will represent Leonard Grange, P. of H., at Rock

That famous bird, the stork, visited Pitcairn last week and left a chubby liitle boy at the George Woods home. the first born to this home and the young parents are happy but not more so than is grandpa, Dr. G. H. Woods, of our

During the terriffic wind storm that swept down the valley last Friday a barn door blew off the hinges at the Frank farm and fell upon the venerable Thomin almost 170,000 acres of state for- as A. Frank. He was knocked to the ground but fortunately sustained no serious injury.

Last Saturday evening Miss Gentzel, who lives with the L. D. Fye family at State College, was out walking with little Richard Fve when both were run down by an automobile on a street crossing. Though neither of them had any bunes broken both were badly bruised and shocked and it is almost a miracle that they were not killed.

While attending the burial of R. H. Stewart, the services being held last Friday at Graysville, W. E McWilliams suffered a partial stroke of paralysis, but his ammunition, at his bearship, when is now improving nicely. At the close of the services the body of Mr. Stewart was taken to WarriorsMark burial grounds, where interment was made. Rev. R. M. Campbell officiated.

Saturday evening while Frank Krebs was out for a spin in his new Ford he in some manner touched the wrong key and ditched the critter. The car landed on its side wrecking the top and fenders and twisting the machinery in general. Nearby neighbors came to his aid and trailed the car back to the garage for repairs. Fortunately for Frank he escaped with no more serious injury than a few scratches.

Everybody who had a gun or could wrecked the plant.

borrow one struck for the woods today before the break of day. The Fleetfoot crew are camped in Shingletown Gap. Goss and Everts are over at the old Lightner place. The Pine Grove club are fixed up in their cosy quarters east of Shalls Gap. The Indiana crew are at their new bungalow at old Monroe. The State College gun club are camping over The threshermen are still busy in this at the Bald Knob. The Modocks are at their old quarters at the Ross place on the headwaters of Stone Creek. Rossman-Gunmo crowd are at their handsome quarters at Shalls Gap. The Roosevelt club went up Salt River and are anchored at the headwaters of Three Springs.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. C. E. Musser and Mrs. Jennie Sylvis spent Sunday in Smullton.

Mrs. Fogleman and son, of Lemont, spent Sunday with Mrs. Fogleman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Koch.

Mr. and Mrs. Stover and daughter Elizabeth, of Antes Fort, were Sunday guests under the parental roof of 'Squire Stover and wife.

Mrs. L. J. Bartlett and daughter Eleanor arrived home from State College, where they spent several weeks as guests of Mr. Bartlett's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Snyder were guests for a short time of H. O. Brown, who is Mrs. Snyder's uncle. They also spent a short time with their friends, Thomas Hull and family.

Rebecca Snyder, who for three weeks has been a surgical patient in one of the Philadelphia hospitals, is reported as improving nicely and will be able to come in about a week. Her many friends will be glad to hear of her improved condition.

Sunday, December 3rd, will be the day when the United Evangelical congrega-tion will again reopen their church after having it repaired. It is a beautiful house wherein to worship God and is a great credit to the congregation, as they are not many in number and has been a great undertaking to them, but by their earnest effort which they are daily applying they will be able to have all settled in the near future. On Saturday evening the Rev. Dr. Gobble will fill the pulpit, also Sunday morning and evening. Rev. John Bowersox, whom we all know, will preach the word. May they meet with unbounded success (in their newly repaired church) in winning many

EAST BRUSH VALLEY.

John H. Day made a flying trip to Sugar Valley last Sunday.

Beautiful weather; long sausage, and Wilson times. Who can't endure it?

C. C. Brungard, the Loganton butcher, ransacted business in our midst on Tuesday. Frank H. Yearick, of Madisonburg, visited relatives in this section one night last week. H. A. Meyer assisted Harry Long in moving his household goods to Madiso nburg, one day last week. Mrs. Wm. Bowersox and daughter, Mrs. F. E. Bressler, were Tuesday visitors at the home of A. S. Winklebleck.

Yesterday ended the month of November, and that day being set apart as Thanksgiving, was observed by many who attended the services at Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Weber and family, accompanied by Mrs. Weber's sister, Miss Grace Smith, left on Saturday for Beech Creek, where they will visit friends and relatives.

Stanley Zeigler, George Day and William Shultz, formerly of this place, paid their parents a visit over Sunday and re-Everything sold at top notch prices and turned to Montgomery, where they are employed in a furniture factory.

Frederick W. Fleitz Dead. Frederick W. Fleitz, formerly deputy attorney general in and a leader in Republican politics in the state, died in a hospital in Scranton, Pa., following several operations that were necessitated by an injury to his hip. Mr. Fleitz was forty-nine years old.

Mr. Fleitz served for a time as journal clerk and reading clerk in the House. He was appointed deputy at torney general by Governor Stone in 1899, and was reappointed by Governor Pennypacker in 1903. He was president of the State League of Republican clubs.

Mr. Fleitz was married in 1891 to Miss Clara A. Mitchell, daughter of former Superior Court Judge John I Mitchell.

Jack London is Dead. Jack London, the author, died at his

Glen Ellen ranch, near Santa Rosa Cal., a victim of uremic poisoning. He was taken ill the evening before and was found unconscious by a servant, who went to his room to awaken

London's condition at first alarmed his sister, Mrs. Eliza Shepard, who summoned physicians from Santa Rosa. It was believed that the author was a victim of ptomaine poisoning but later it developed he was suffering from what his physician, Dr. J. Wilson Shields, of San Francisco, described as a "gastro-intestinal type of uremia." His wife was with him when he died

Kills Bear With Knife.

Joseph Norcavage, of Gilberton, Pa., brought home a 255-pound bear that he killed in Sullivan county after a desperate battle. The sportsman says he fired three shots, the last of the maddened bruin savagely attacked him. After a fierce struggle he finally vanquished the bear by plunging the blade of a large hunting knife into his neck.

Chemical Explosion Kills Three. An explosion on the Aromatic Chemical company plant, at Newark, N. J. killed Stanley Pennock, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a partner in the concern, and injured another partner, Chauncey Loomis, of New York city, Two workmen were killed. The explosion, which occurred during a test,