

ZONG.—Philip Zong, a native of Centre county, died at the Nason hospital at Roaring Spring last Thursday morning as the result of injuries sustained at Claysburg the day previous. Mr. Zong was chief engineer for the Standard Refractories company at Claysburg and was superintending some work on a high building at the plant when he slipped and fell to the ground, a distance of forty feet. In an unconscious condition he was taken to the Roaring Spring hospital where it was found that he had suffered the fracture of several ribs over the heart and a broken ankle. He lived sixteen hours after the accident.

Deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael M. Zong and was born near Hubersburg forty-nine years ago. Most of his life since he grew to manhood had been spent outside of Centre county. About twelve years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Martha R. Dunkle, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Dunkle, of Walker township, who survives with no children. He, however, leaves four brothers and one sister, namely: Jacob Zong, of Stormstown; Samuel, of Axe Mann; Oscar M., of Hazleton; Lee, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Robert Harnish, of Hecla Park.

The remains, accompanied by a delegation of fellow workmen, were taken through Bellefonte on Monday to the home of John Dunkle, at Hubersburg where funeral services were held at twelve o'clock on Tuesday by Rev. W. H. Shultz, after which burial was made in the Hubersburg cemetery.

KOCH.—Amos Koch, a well known resident of Centre county, died at his home in Aaronsburg on Wednesday of last week following a long illness with heart trouble and dropsy.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Koch, pioneer settlers of Gregg township, where he was born on January 10th, 1846, hence at his death was 71 years and 21 days old. When a young man he learned the saddler trade at Centre Hall but later in life he engaged in farming, an occupation he followed for many years. When he quit the farm he moved to Boalsburg and conducted the hotel at that place until a few years ago when he retired and moved to Aaronsburg.

In 1869 he was united in marriage to Miss Harriet Condo who survives with the following children: Frank, in the regular army in the Philippines; Mrs. M. Neese, of Spring Mills; J. Daniel, of Sunbury; Mrs. I. O. Campbell, of Fairbrook; H. N., of State College; Mrs. Lizzie Rossman, of Millheim; George, of Fairbrook; Mrs. Maude Pogleman, of Lemont; Mrs. Mabel Mothersbaugh, of Aaronsburg, and Mrs. Ruth Coxey, of Altoona. He also leaves one brother, James Koch, of Spring Mills.

Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Aaronsburg at ten o'clock last Saturday morning by Rev. W. D. Geesey, after which burial was made in the Lutheran cemetery.

MOYER.—Miss Eva Moyer, for years a well known school teacher of Centre county, died at her home at Rebersburg on January 29th, following a prolonged illness with tuberculosis. She was a daughter of Joseph K. and Mary E. Moyer and was forty-seven years old. When a young girl she became a member of the Reformed church and was a faithful and active attendant all her life. Surviving her are her mother and the following brothers and sisters: J. N. Moyer, of Rebersburg; Bruce and Jason, of Corning, N. Y.; Mrs. Flora Lambert, of Rebersburg; Mrs. William Bray, of Freeland, Pa.; Mrs. Henry Kreider, of Toledo, Ohio; Mrs. E. A. Zeigler, of Mont Alto, and Miss Miriam Moyer, at home. Funeral services were held in the Reformed church last Thursday by Rev. J. D. Hunsicker, after which burial was made in the Rebersburg Union cemetery.

STOVER.—Following an illness of two weeks with pleurisy Mrs. Luther A. Stover died at her home at St. Mary's at one o'clock on Tuesday morning. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gunsallus and was born at Nittany about sixty-one years ago. She was a life-long member of the Baptist church and a woman greatly esteemed by all who knew her. Surviving her are her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Edward Bryndal, both of St. Mary's. She also leaves one brother and a sister, William Gunsallus, of Mill Hall, and Mrs. Jennie Cassidy, of Lock Haven. The remains were brought to the home of O. J. Stover, at Eagleview yesterday and burial will be made today in the Baptist cemetery at that place.

ROBB.—Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Robb, of Pleasant Gap, are mourning the death of their eighteen days old baby, which occurred last Saturday. On January fifteenth a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robb died of diphtheria and the baby was born a few days later. Burial of the infant was made at Snyderstown the day of its death in order to allow the family to get out of quarantine.

HOY.—Mrs. Catharine A. Hoy, widow of the late George S. Hoy, of Marion township, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Susan M. McClintick, at Hubersburg, on Thursday of last week following a brief illness with lobular pneumonia.

She was a daughter of John and Salome Rishel Yearick and was born in Miles township on June 14th, 1832, making her age 84 years, 8 months and 19 days. After her marriage to Mr. Hoy she lived in both Walker and Marion townships. Her husband died many years ago but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. Tolitha Gates and Mrs. Samantha Gates, both of Coalport; Samuel C. Hoy, living near Bellefonte; Mrs. Howard Vonda, of Zion; Mrs. Matilda Glossner, of New Castle; Mrs. M. S. McClintick, of Rockaway, N. J., and Mrs. Susan M. McClintick, of Hubersburg.

Funeral services were held in the Reformed church at Hubersburg at two o'clock on Monday afternoon by Rev. Harvey C. Crow, a former pastor, assisted by Revs. Gass, of Howard, and Foss, of Hubersburg, after which burial was made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

McWILLIAMS.—Miss Martha McWilliams died at her home in Philadelphia on Thursday of last week following an illness of over a year. She was a daughter of Judge and Mrs. Jonathan McWilliams and was born in the Glades in Ferguson township in 1835, making her age about eighty-two years. Most of her life was spent in Centre county, she moving to Philadelphia about thirty-five years ago. She was the last of her father's family and a little bit of romance is attached to her never having married. In Ferguson township sixty years ago the McWilliams and Campbell farms lay side by side. Miss McWilliams and John O. Campbell were not only lovers but engaged to be married. When the Civil war broke out Mr. Campbell volunteered for service, was elected captain of Company E, and killed in the battle of the Wilderness. His body was never found and all her life Miss McWilliams remained true to her soldier lover. Her remains were buried in Philadelphia Sunday.

DAUGHENBAUGH.—John Daughenbaugh, almost a life-long resident of Port Matilda, died on Monday of last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ellis Poorman, at Bell's Landing, Clearfield county, aged 82 years, 2 months and 18 days. He was a veteran of the Civil war, having served as a member of Company D, 188th Pennsylvania volunteers. His wife died some years ago but surviving him are eight children, as follows: W. J. Daughenbaugh, of Philipsburg; H. E., of Youngstown, Ohio; J. F., of Tiffin, Ohio; Howard, of Altoona; Mrs. E. C. Poorman, of Bell's Landing; Mrs. Esther Jones, of Ceres, N. Y.; Mrs. Ellen Hollabaugh, of Wallaceport, and Mrs. Minnie Sprankle, of Portland, Ore. The remains were taken to Port Matilda and on Thursday of last week laid to rest in the Black Hawk cemetery.

KEEN.—Rev. Emanuel D. Keen, a well known United Evangelical minister, died at his home in Wrightsville on Sunday, after an illness of some months with Bright's disease. He was born in Penn township sixty-eight years ago and entered the ministry thirty-seven years ago. He is survived by his wife and one son, Rev. Paul Keen. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: John D. Keen, W. E., Mrs. D. L. Zerby and Mrs. A. F. Kreamer, of Millheim; Mrs. Kate King, of Laurelton; Mrs. M. I. Jamison, of Williamsport; Miss Ada Keen, of Boalsburg; G. W. Keen, of Melnota, Ill., and Frank Keen, of Pleasant Gap. The remains were taken to Millheim on Wednesday and the funeral held yesterday morning, burial being made in the Millheim Union cemetery.

MARTIN.—Mrs. Jennie Martin, wife of William C. Martin, died at her home in Spring township, about a mile east of Bellefonte, on Tuesday morning following an illness of some weeks with Bright's disease. She was a daughter of Samuel and Margaret Beightol, was born at Huntingdon and was just two days less than fifty-seven years old. She is survived by her husband and one son, Charles W. Martin, at home. Rev. W. M. B. Glanding will have charge of the funeral services which will be held at ten o'clock this morning, burial to be made in the Union cemetery.

PARKER.—Following many months' illness with an affection of the heart Mathias Parker died at his home at Centre Furnace last Saturday morning. He had been a resident of that locality a number of years and was quite well known. He is survived by his wife and a number of children. Burial was made in the Pine Hall cemetery at three o'clock on Monday afternoon.

Word comes from Wilkinsburg to the effect that Mrs. Allison O. Platts is quite seriously ill, with the possibility of her recovery quite remote.

The Extravagance of Buying Cheap Tires.

Caution by Arthur Brisbane, Noted Editor.

Geo. A. Beezer, of Beezer's garage, Bellefonte, in speaking recently on the subject of tire economy, referred to a timely editorial by Arthur Brisbane that appeared recently in all the Hearst newspapers.

Mr. Brisbane, who is probably the highest paid editorial writer in the world and who is himself an ardent motorist, has strong convictions on the tire question, and his views are well worth reprinting for the information of others who are desirous of getting the most value possible when they buy tires. The Brisbane editorial says in part: "Automobile extravagance is based oftener on the buying of tires and tubes without character than on any other department of automobile."

The making of tires is an absolute science, to which engineers and manufacturers have devoted years of study and millions of dollars in experiments.

The well-made tire represents actual cash invested. It has its fixed value, and do not let anybody persuade you to the contrary.

Beware of a dealer who tells you that he can sell you "this tire cheaper and just as good." It has no name on it that you ever heard of before. "But it is made by a big factory," says the dealer, "and they sell it to me cheaper."

Such talk is misrepresentation and cheating.

Study the tire question for yourself; act in the purchase of tires as you would in the purchase of materials for your business. Buy of reliable concerns that have millions of dollars, years of experience and a reputation more valuable than their invested capital back of their product.

To buy cheap tires, cheap tubes, wastes money and destroys pleasure.

This applies especially to the man who owns one of the lower priced cars and drives it himself. To him the bursting tire means money, and hard work.

The man driving his own car knows that a well-made tire is one-half of the pleasure of automobiling.

Fortunately the makers of the best tires devote special attention to the light cars. There is nothing more extravagant than a cheap, poorly made tire on one of the lower priced automobiles.

Dollar for dollar the good tire will give more than double the mileage and five times the pleasure."

Mr. Beezer, who is the local Michelin dealer, says that his business this year has been better than ever before. He attributes a large measure of his success to the Michelin Universal Tread, which is a tire of the very highest quality, yet the price is extremely moderate. Mr. Beezer agrees with Mr. Brisbane, that a good tire represents so much invested cash, so much fixed value, so that it pays to buy the best, especially now that you can get a tire like the Michelin Universal Tread, a tire that has an international reputation for quality and that is sold at such a moderate price.
