PLEASANT GAP ITEMS.

John Herman, who is employed at Burnham, was home over Sunday. Our new P. O. S. of A. lodge now has over fifty members, with new accessions weekly.

Mrs. Wm. Crider, of Punxsutawney, is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Irvin.

Mrs. Frank Kanarr, of Bellefonte, spent a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O. Hile.

Dan Sloteman returned from the Hewitt-McNitt lumber camp for a few days recreation at his home at the Gap.

It's hard to make people understand that, if they get a reward in Heaven, they'll have to take it along with them.

W. H. Noll Jr. & Co. just completed the repapering of their extensive store. A great improvement is the result.

Mrs. James Bilger and little daughter have been indisposed for the past ten days, but are much improved at this writing.

We experienced below zero weather for the past eight days. All are looking forward to the time the blue birds appear again.

The grammar school will hold a box social Saturday evening, February 17th, the proceeds to be used for school purposes.

Mrs. Griffith, wife of the storekeeper at the penitentiary, left on Wednesday last for an extended visit to her former home in Pittsburgh.

Miss Bertha Rimmer, one of our leading society girls, left for Altoona on Wednesday last on a combined trip of business and pleasure.

Lagrippe is quite prevalent at the Gap, and many are in consequence necessitated to remain in doors. Our doctor is extremely busy. It's an ill wind, etc.

Abram V. Miller, after a most serious seige of sickness, is again able to be out and taking his usual promenades. He is surely blest with a remarkable asset of vitality.

The three little daughters of Jared Evey have been under the doctor's care for a week past, but are recuperating nicely. The father was also out of requisition for a few days.

The Whitaker lime quarries are still running full time, with an abundance of good orders being booked right along. The below zero weather caused some of the outside workmen to abandon work for a few days the week just passed.

There's a little old lady lives over the sea, Germanica's most of her name; She's busy just now as a big tumble-bee Beating up another old dame.

Germanica says, as she hands out a slum, That knocks off the old lady's lid; I'd hate to do this to my dear Uncle Sam; But he'd knock her was hit, if I did.

Our hotel is acquiring quite a reputation as a chicken and waffle resort. Dancing is also indulged in. Three to four parties are being pulled off at the old land-mark weekly. Since the hotel has been refitted throughout and steam heat installed, it is quite a comfortable place to assemble at. Quite a bunch of good people are availing themselves of the comforts afforded on the premises.

War Styles for Men.

Styles for men's clothing were adopted by the International Custom Cutters' Association, which held its thirty-seventh annual convention at Columbus last week, and according to William G. Witlin, of Philadelphia, chairman of the Fashions Committee, military cuts may be expected on account of the threatened war.

"Some shops already are featuring the trench coat, an exact duplicate of the coat worn by English officers on the western front," Witlin said. Trousers will be even narrower than they are now and the popular shades for spring are brown and green.

Twenty suits are being overcoats a year since the requirements of a well-dressed man, tailors attending the convention say.

The Big League.

"What do you think of this idea of a world league?" asked the student of international events.

"Great," replied the baseball fan—"that is if we can stir up a little more foreign interest in the game.

An Incidental Consideration.

"Would you marry a man for his money?"

"No," replied Miss Cayenne. "I merely insist that he have a lovely disposition. But I'd take into consideration the fact that a man without money is very likely to be worried and ill-natured."

HEALTH OF WOMEN

WRECKED BY IGNORANCE

A Prominent Pennsylvania Woman's Advice.

Franklin, Pa. — "When passing through the symptoms which come to women of 45, I used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is just right for that period of life, and I do not hesitate to recommend it."

Mrs. MARY E. LUCAS, No. 1163 Otter St., Franklin, Pa.

For every disease or ailment of a womanly character, no matter how recent or long standing, the one sure, reliable remedy of proved merit is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Women should never experiment with unknown preparations; the risk is too great. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is prepared from nature's roots and herbs and does not contain a particle of alcohol or any narcotic.

Women are earnestly advised to take it for irregular or painful periods, backache, headache, displacement, catarrhal condition, hot flashes, sallow complexion and nervousness.

For girls about to enter womanhood, women about to become mothers and for the changing days of middle age Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription should always be on hand.

Any medicine dealer can supply it in either liquid or tablet form. Write Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free, confidential medical advice, or free book on Diseases of Women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little Liver Pills. These tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules—the smallest and the easiest to take. One little "Pellet" for a laxative—three for a cathartic.

Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Pepsin, Nux, Iron

And Sarsaparilla

A Magnificent Combination—Finest Course of Medicine.

Physicians and pharmacists have long known the desirability of combining iron—a superlative tonic—in a blood-purifying, building-up medicine.

The combination of the iron with Hood's Sarsaparilla has now been secured through the happy thought of prescribing Pepsin Pills to be taken in connection with the Sarsaparilla—one before eating, the other after.

In this way the two medicines work together most harmoniously and beneficially, supplementing each other, and giving a four-fold result in blood-cleansing and up-building.

You get blood-purifying, appetizing, liver-stimulating qualities in Hood's Sarsaparilla and great tonic properties in Pepsin Pills.
