Pleasant weather prevailing a delightful concert will be held in the Baptist church at Milesburg tomorrow (Saturday) evening by the Penn State quartette, assisted by a violin and mandolin, a singer and reader. Admission will be free but a silver offering will be lifted. The public is invited to attend and enjoy the concert.

Miss May Turner, head waiter at the Bush house, narrowly escaped death at noon on Monday. She was on her way to the train for a visit in Tyrone and did not notice the train coming in on the east siding. A stranger standing by saw her danger and pulled her from the track. How narrow her escape was can be judged from the fact that when the man jerked her from the track the locomotive struck her foot as it was in the air, but fortunately she escaped without injury.

Yeager's shoe store will be full of some worth-while bargains tomorrow. Just because it will be St. Patrick's day Mr. Yeager is going to offer a lot of shoes at unusual prices. This will be especially true of children's shoes of which he will offer a large variety at very low prices. Shoe bargains are rare these days and if you are wise you will buy shoes when they are cheap, whether you need them or not, for they will be much higher a year from now than they are at this time.

HINDLE LICENSE REVOKED.

Selling to Minors the Cause. Six More Licenses Granted.

At a court hearing on Friday afternoon Judge Henry C. Quigley revoked the license of William H. Hindle, for the Central hotel, Philipsburg, and without leaving the bench reopened the applications of Joseph Dugan, for a license at the Continental hotel, and Koudrat Juschik, for a license at the Ramsdale house, both of Philipsburg and both of which had been refused at the regular session of license court, and granted the same. He later granted wholesale licenses to Harry S. Reel and George Parkes, of Philipsburg, the Philipsburg Brewing company and the applications of J. W. Runkle, for a license at the Centre Hall hotel, leaving four applications yet to be acted upon.

Hindle's license was revoked on the charge of selling liquor to minors. He was arrested over a month ago on information made by F. J. Green, secretary of the Philipsburg Chamber of Commerce, and a rule was at once taken out requiring him to show cause why his license should not be revoked. Friday afternoon's hearing was the result of this rule, and a large number of witnesses were heard on both sides.

One of most important witnesses against Hindle was Elizabeth Warr, a fifteen year old girl who is now in charge of the probation officer of Centre county, who testified that on several occasions she had been served beer and drank the same at the Central hotel, and one of the times the beer had been served by Hindle, himself. Mrs. Warr, the girl's mother, testified that she had been with her daughter when she was served the beer and saw her drink it.

Pearl Brown, an eleven year old girl, and Annie Hansell, aged fourteen, testified to having been in the drinking room on several occasions but that they drank no beer. Other witnesses testified that the Central was a customary gathering place for husband and wife with their children.

In his own behalf Mr. Hindle swore that the Warr girl had never been served beer at his hotel and he had been very particular not to sell to minors. He also had quite a number of witnesses who gave testimony in his behalf. At the conclusion of the evidence the court asked Hindle's attorneys, M. Ward Fleming and W. Harrison Walker Esqs., if they had anything to say and Mr. Walker asked that the testimony be written out so that they would have an opportunity to review it carefully and prepare their argument.

Judge Quigley told him that in this case he did not consider such a proceeding necessary. That the court had taken the trouble to personally inquire into this case and was satisfied that there had been a wilful violation of the law. The Judge stated that so far he had made no extra rulings for landlords in Centre county to the follow although he expected to make a very few in the near future. That the Brooks high license law was ample to cover everything, and while the court might be disposed to overlook technical infractions he under no circumstances will tolerate the wilful and persistent violation of the law by any landlord in Centre county. That in any and all such cases brought before him the license will be promptly revoked, and for that reason this license (Hindle's) was revoked to take effect at once.

The court then announced that because of the revocation of the Hindle license he would reopen the applications of Mr. Dugan and Mr. Juschik and grant both of them.

Social Doings of the Week.

A dinner dance given by Theodore Davis Boal at his home at Boalsburg, Saturday night, was in compliment to his son, Lieut. Pierre Boal, of the aviation corps of France, who is in the States on a short furlough. Some of Lieut. Boal's friends from both Bellefonte and State College were included in the eighteen guests entertained.

Mrs. Russell Blair was hostess at an evening dinner given at her home on east Linn street Wednesday.

Mrs. H. C. Quigley entertained with a dinner Wednesday evening. Mrs. Quigley being unable to leave Bellefonte last week, will join Judge Quigley in Pittsburgh to-day.

Monday night will be the scene of one of the closest and most exciting games of basketball ever seen in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The Stag club, of Lock Haven, will play the Academy that night and are so anxious to win that they are not only assembling a crack team wherein they can locate stars, but are planning to bring a large crowd of "rooters." The Academy boys will take seats under the gallery to give the home and Lock Haven fans the gallery seats. The invincible Academy team has given Bellefonte plenty of advertisement this winter by reason of its splendid victories over all comers. Bellefonte sports should be on hand to witness the fun. Admission, 25 cents.

E. H. Richard has been elected president and general manager of the Whitelock Quarries, to succeed the late T. A. Shoemaker.

Col. J. L. Spangler and Col. W. F. Reynolds were in Pittsburgh during the fore part of the week, attending the organization meeting of the new company that is to operate the nickel-steel mills at Clearfield, which Dr. Chas. F. Hennig acquired last fall. We understand that both Col. Spangler and Col. Reynolds are on the board of the new company.

The body of a deer was found in the reservoir of the Citizens Water company of Philipsburg, on Sunday. The reservoir is located in Rush township, about two miles from the town and it was only by chance that the dead deer was discovered. How long it had been there has not been determined. Health officer Samuel M. Sankey, of Philipsburg, was notified and he had the carcass removed.

Did you see Pearl White in the first episode of "Pearl of the Army" at the Scenic on Tuesday evening? If you failed to do so you missed the opening part of one of the best motion picture serials so far produced. It is replete with interesting situations and has enough thrills in it to hold the attention of every one. This serial will be a weekly offering at the Scenic, but there will be many other high-class pictures.

Frank Woogoch, a Polisher, was brought to Bellefonte from Philipsburg on Monday and landed in jail on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. Woogoch was a member of a party playing cards at a Polish boarding house at Retort Saturday night. A dispute arose during the game and Woogoch stabbed three other Poles. Though their condition is not considered serious Woogoch was arrested and in default of $1,000 bail was sent to jail.

Tomorrow will be St. Patrick's day, spring will begin on Wednesday of next week, All Fool's day is only about two weeks off and the trout fishing season will open in just thirty days. The bluebirds and robins are here, the lilac buds will soon be bursting, Easter comes on the 8th of April and before we realize it the farmer will be following his plow and the long, cold winter be a thing of the past.

Pennsylvania railroad officials announce that the railroad wreck at Bristol, Pa., on February 25th, in which three Williamsport men were killed and J. H. Detwiler, of Centre Hall, lost three valuable Hambletonian horses, was caused by a hot box which burned off a journal on the eleventh car from the engine on the freight train, derailing that car and ten others. The railroad management also expresses the belief that the wreck furnishes a practical demonstration of the truth of the contention that the "extra crew" laws not only fail to increase safety, but actually encourage indifference to duty.

Harry Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher, of south Water street, will leave Bellefonte tomorrow for New York city where he will join Lieut. Pierre Boal and just one week later, or on Saturday, March 24th, they will both sail for France. Mr. Fisher, who served one enlistment in the United States navy and took a full course in the aviation corps, has already signed up as a lieutenant in the British Royal Air corps which is doing such efficient work in France. Upon his arrival in that country he will naturally have to take a short course in learning the handling of the British and French aircraft, as they are very much more sensitive to the touch than the American made machines, but as soon as he becomes adept in handling the airplanes he will go into active service in the flying corps.

County treasurer David Chambers was so busy talking to a friend in front of Green's drug store last Friday evening that he did not see the Snow Shoe train pull out until it was too far gone to catch it. Then he telephoned home for a car. The car arrived in course of time and Mr. Chambers and son started for home. On the way up the mountain the roads were so bad that they broke the transmission in the car. Young Chambers then walked up the mountain to the Reese farm where he telephoned for another machine and in the meantime got the assistance of Mr. Reese and his team to pull the disabled machine up the mountain. When the other machine arrived they put out a tow-line and towed the broken-down machine home, but it was after midnight when they finally reached Clarence and home. Fortunately the night was not cold so they did not suffer in this respect.

Big Prices for Farm Stock and Machinery.

One of the biggest and best sales held in Centre county this spring was that of T. E. Jodon, near Pleasant Gap, last Friday. L. Frank Mayes was the auctioneer and he must have had the crowd hypnotized from the prices he got for everything. His seven head of horses averaged $260 apiece. Cows sold as high as $114. A brood sow with eight six weeks old pigs brought $96.00. Shoats weighing ninety pounds sold for $11.75. Geese sold as high as $4.00 a goose and chickens brought $1.25. Harness that Mr. Jodon purchased three years ago for $61.00, sold for $74.75. Farm machinery that he bought when he went to farming four years ago brought more than he paid for it at that time. In fact there were no bargains at all, as is evidenced by the fact that the sale totalled just $7,434.32. In addition to the above Mr. Jodon sold his crops in the ground at private sale for a little over five hundred dollars. The spring-like weather on Friday brought out an unusually large crowd and the large number of bidders had no doubt a lot to do with the high prices received.

Auctioneer Mayes stated that it was the best sale he ever cried, and he has officiated at a large number during the twelve or fifteen years he has been at the work. All told this year he has between thirty and forty sales, and he anticipates that when the last one has been disposed of he will have sold over one hundred thousand dollars worth of farm stock and machinery this spring. And that will probably be less than half of such property that will change hands this season through the medium of the public sale.

Out in the World.

Yesterday morning the overseer of the poor of Elizabeth, N. J., with a district nurse arrived in Bellefonte with a family of six Slavish children, ranging in age from three to thirteen years, and thereby hangs a tragic story.

Less than a year ago Mr. and Mrs. John Pasovick with their several children left Snow Shoe township for Elizabeth, N. J., the father no doubt lured there by the prospect of higher wages. Some time ago the father killed his wife and youngest child, but there must have been some extenuating circumstance in the case as after conviction last week he was only given a penitentiary sentence.

During his incarceration in jail his six children were taken care of by the authorities of Elizabeth but now that the father's case has been disposed of the authorities sent them back to Centre county, their old home.

When they arrived in Bellefonte yesterday morning they were taken to the Garman house and district attorney James C. Furst notified. He in turn sent for Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell, president of the Children's Aid society of Centre county. The latter at once proclaimed her willingness to try to get homes for the unfortunate waifs.

In the meantime county treasurer David Chambers learned of the children's plight and knowing that Snow Shoe township was liable for their keep he got active. By noon time he had secured homes for two of them and felt very confident he could place them all. So taking the six children he left Bellefonte at two o'clock on the big Emerick bus, went to Mill Hall and out to Clarence on the New York Central train, doing the work as cheerfully as if he were in the treasurer's office receiving a ten thousand dollar deposit.

Mrs. Parsels' Campaign in Centre County.

The six day's campaign of Mrs. Parsels, National W. C. T. U. lecturer and organizer, was a wonderful success, bringing great results in spite of the unfavorable time of year for such work. She spoke thirteen times in eleven different places, conducted an institute at Centre Hall, organized one new Union—Boalsburg—(the only unorganized territory where she spoke), started four Young People's Branches—Millheim, Rebersburg, Spring Mills and Boalsburg—gained one hundred and sixty-three new members (membership means pledging one's self to total abstinence and the payment of annual dues), and left a substantial bonus for the county treasurer after all expenses had been paid from the generous collections donated.

Splendid audiences greeted her, audiences remarkable for the number of men and boys present and the number who joined the ranks of the various Unions. The Pennsylvania W. C. T. U. last year had a membership of forty-nine thousand, six thousand and of this number being men. Mrs. Parsels was astonished at the marvelous increase of temperance sentiment in Centre county over her last tour of this region eight months ago.

Such a coincidence—Princess Pat on St. Patrick's day. Don't fail to see her.
