THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

—Victor talking machines, records and supplies.—Cohen & Co. 17-1t
—Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick is now driving a new four passenger Cole 8 roadster, the first of the kind owned in Bellefonte.

—The Parent-Teachers' association will hold a meeting in the High school building this (Friday) evening. A full turnout is desired.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hennig entertained Monday at the Country club in celebration of their birthdays, both coming on the same date.

—Governor Brumbaugh on Monday appointed M. S. McDowell, of State College, a member of the statewide Public Safety committee.

—Fireman Lemuel Hampton got a bad fall at the Chemical Lime company's plant on Tuesday morning, receiving some bad body bruises.

—About thirty women from Bellefonte will go to Boalsburg for the county convention of Women's clubs, to be in session all day tomorrow.

—The Bellefonte Academy minstrels will give their annual entertainment in Garman's opera house on Friday evening, May 25th. See the big bills for particulars.

—The Potter-Hoy Hardware company has ordered five hundred rose bushes and hydrangeas from Dreer's same as last year. Place your order soon. 17-1t

—About sixty dollars were realized from the Red Cross dance given in the armory on Friday evening of last week, which was considered very good by those who had it in charge.

—The Centre county Threshermen and Farmers' Protective association will hold a meeting in the court house to-morrow (Saturday) April 28th, at ten o'clock a. m. It will be to the interest of all threshermen and farmers in the county to attend this meeting.

—Announcements have been received in Bellefonte of the marriage, in Dorchester, Mass., on April 19th, of Miss Margaret Jane Bartley and Karl Walker Turner. The bride is a native of Bellefonte, having been a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Bartley, but for a number of years has made her home in Massachusetts.

—Among the recent graduates of Pierce Business College of Philadelphia, was Miss Helen S. Chambers, of Kennett Square, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Chambers. Miss Chambers is a graduate of the Kennett Square High school, has taken a course at Drexel and has now completed the secretarial course at Pierce.

—Lawrence D. Whiting, a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Whiting, of this place, and who has completed his work as a Senior at The Pennsylvania State College, on Monday morning accepted a position as teacher of science in the faculty of the Juniata High school. He will return to the College at the June commencement to receive his diploma.

—Bellefonte is not lacking in patriotism and the scenic has not degenerated as a drawing card for lovers of the motion pictures. The big auditorium is crowded each evening and everybody goes away satisfied that they have gotten their money's worth and seen a program of moving pictures that they wouldn't have missed for anything. Are you one of the regulars?

—Word has been received of the approaching marriage of Miss Margaret Wood, of San Diego, California, and Arthur A. Norse, of Minneapolis. Miss Wood is the only daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John A. Wood, who went to the Pacific coast from Bellefonte some time ago, having since made their home with their son, Judge Perry Wood. Miss Wood will be married in June.

—Some vandal or intoxicated individual tore down the large flag in front of W. A. Lyon's residence on High street one night last week, and as evidence that the act was intentional the flagstaff was broken in the act. Mr. Lyon has gotten an inking as to the identity of the person and a prosecution may follow, as the man is not only guilty of theft but of desecration of the flag, as well.

—In the annual report of the Bellefonte Central railroad president Robert Frazer calls attention to the fact that 71 per cent. of the profit on freight was lost in conducting passenger service, which includes mail and express. Gross earnings for the year ended December 31 were $81,833, and the year's surplus $7,521. Operating costs show a profit on freight of $19,834, but a loss in passenger service of $14,175.

FARMERS MUST HAVE HELP.

So Reported by Public Safety Committee at Meeting on Tuesday Evening.

A good attendance of representative citizens from all parts of the county was present at the weekly meeting of the Public Safety committee of Centre county in the grand jury room of the court house on Tuesday evening. Chairman Theodore Davis Boal presided and called on chairman D. F. Kapp, of the agricultural committee, for a report on last Saturday evening's county wide meeting. Chairman Kapp had prepared a very comprehensive report which was read by the secretary, Geo. R. Meek. In it he stated that the situation among the farmers of the county is such that an immediate survey should be made to find out just what farmers are in need of help and a survey made of the various High schools and schools regarding what help can be secured for the farmers.

Fourteen meetings were held throughout the county last Saturday evening and the attendance ran from forty, the lowest, to as high as six hundred, the total attendance at all the meetings being twenty-three hundred and eighty seven. Considerable interest was shown by the farmers present and it is believed that the holding of those meetings alone will result in much good.

The attendance at the various meetings was stated as follows:

Bellefonte 109. Boalsburg 150. Centre Hall 150. Hubersburg 40. Howard 450. Millheim 600. Potters Mills 100. Port Matilda 107. Pine Grove Mills 100. Rebersburg 150. Rock Springs 50. Spring Mills 175. Stormstown 50. Unionville 100. The meetings scheduled for Philipsburg and Snow Shoe were not held.

Regarding a survey of the county to find out the farmers in need of help Mr. Gramley, of Millheim, suggested that the best way to do that work will be by some man in each township finding out the conditions and report to chairman Kapp. He stated that he personally had looked over the situation in Miles, Haines, Penn and part of Gregg townships and found the situation there normal. Dean R. L. Watts, of the College, volunteered the services of a man to do the clerical work necessary to tabulating the survey and it was the sense of the committee that he be assigned to chairman Kapp and the work be left in his hands.

Harry Keller Esq., appointed at the last meeting to interview the County Commissioners regarding their appropriation toward the expenses of a Farm Bureau, formally reported that he and several other gentlemen called on the Commissioners last Wednesday morning and after they put the matter up to them in what they believed the right light the Commissioners agreed to increase their appropriation from $300 to $1,000, and make the money available at once. On motion Mr. Keller was continued as chairman on special finances to ascertain if any money would be available for the work in Centre county from the $2,000,000 appropriation passed by the Legislature for home defense and preparedness.

Robert F. Hunter, chairman of the Motors Mobilization committee, stated that so far he had done little because he did not know what was expected of him. Secretary Meek stated that in due time the state committee on Public Safety would send out more definite instructions for this branch of the work and until that is done about the only thing to do is to compile a list of motor cars and trucks in the county and names of owners.

Chairman Blanchard, of the Publicity committee, had nothing of special importance to report.

Chairman H. S. Taylor, of the committee on Home Defense, stated that he had most of the county organized and in addition had enrolled one hundred men in Bellefonte to be used as a home guard if Troop L is called out, and the same can be requisitioned for service in any part of the county, if needed.

The secretary read the report of Judge Henry C. Quigley, chairman of the Sanitation and Red Cross committee, in which that gentleman stated that he had made a partial survey of the county and found that Philipsburg, State College and Bellefonte has already become interested in the work. State College has a Chapter with from one to two hundred members. Philipsburg has about one thousand members enrolled and intends organizing a Chapter and Bellefonte has over one hundred members enrolled and will also organize a Chapter. He also suggested a complete canvass of the county in an effort to have both men and women enroll as yearly contributing members. Judge Quigley also advised that inasmuch as he will be away from home the ensuing two or three weeks that Col. J. L. Spangler be elected chairman to succeed him and he also suggested the names of people in Philipsburg, Bellefonte, Howard and State College whom it would be advisable to keep on the committee. Col. Spangler was consequently elected chairman and empowered to appoint any others he desired on his committee.

At the suggestion of Dr. E. E. Sparks, president of The Pennsylvania State College, a report of how the work is being carried on in Lycoming county was read after which the committee adjourned.

The various standing committees of the Public Safety committee for Centre county as at present constituted are as follows:

GENERAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
W. Fred Reynolds, Geo. R. Meek, C. S. Avery, J. L. Holmes and Ward Gramley.

AGRICULTURAL RESOURCES.
D. F. Kapp, William Allison, Dr. Walter Kurtz, R. L. Watts.

ESPECIALLY FOR FARMERS.
If the farmers of the county need help or scientific advice they are urged to get into touch with D. F. Kapp, of State College, chairman of the Agricultural committee. He has in charge the immediate activities of the new County Extension worker and by this time their plans have been worked out far enough to permit them to give you much valuable, if needed, assistance.

Farm Bureau to Open Next Week.

As now planned the Centre county Farm Bureau will be opened up and the work started next week. The agricultural department of State College has selected R. H. Olmstead as the farm agent to carry on the work.

Mr. Olmstead was born and reared on a Susquehanna county farm. He attended his home township school and prepared for college at the Keystone Academy, Factoryville, Pa. He graduated from the college in the course in animal husbandry several years ago. Following his graduation he returned to his home farm. Last fall he came to State College as an instructor in animal husbandry. Since that time he has been teaching at the College and has had charge of some of the experimental work. Mr. Olmstead has a very pleasing personality and we feel sure he will render excellent service to the farmers of the county. His work will be carried on in conjunction with that of the committee on agricultural resources of the Public Safety committee of the county.

Seven More Farm Bureaus Organized.

Spurred by the universal demand for maximum farm crop production, seven more counties in this State have organized farm bureaus and have had assigned to them agricultural experts from The Pennsylvania State College. R. L. Watts, dean of the school of agriculture, yesterday announced the following appointments as county agents: Dauphin county, H. G. Niesley; Cumberland county, Paul L. Edinger; Lebanon county, A. G. Berger; Clinton county, M. H. Keeney; York county, G. G. Weber; Adams county, H. F. Hershey, and Centre county, R. H. Olmstead.

All of these appointees will take up their work of pushing scientific agriculture in their various counties within the next week or ten days. In each instance they will cooperate with local farm bureaus and the County Commissioners, who have appropriated funds for maintaining the farm experts. Salaries of the men are paid by the college from State and Federal appropriations.

There are now forty-three counties in this State with representatives of the State College agricultural extension department aiding the farmers to solve their problems.

Executive Committee for Preparedness League.

The officers elected two weeks ago when the Preparedness and Defense League of Bellefonte was organized have appointed the following executive committee: James H. Potter, Edward H. Richard, J. Will Conley, John Noll, W. T. Kelly, James R. Hughes, C. C. Shuey, C. Y. Wagner, W. L. Daggett, H. F. Gerberich, A. Linn McGinley and W. Homer Crissman.

Talking about shoes—why do you continue to patronize exclusive shoe stores, and pay exclusive prices, when you can get serviceable, stylish shoes right here at prices that are really 15 and 20 per cent. lower than you can buy them elsewhere. If you're from Missouri, let's show you.—Cohen & Co. 17-1t

—Miss Catharine Musser has accepted a position as stenographer for Col. W. F. Reynolds.

A PLAGUE OF THIEVES.

Halfmoon Valley Farmers Are Up in Arms Over Many Robberies.

Last Saturday night robbers broke into the meat house of Orris Harris, who lives next the Frank C. Clemson home on Buffalo Run and stole three hams and two shoulders. The same night the home of John I. Gray near Stormstown, and the homes of two of the Eves brothers west of Stormstown were raided and meat and potatoes stolen.

The same night or the night previous some person attempted to steal chickens from the hen house of Frank Spicer, who lives at the Stony Point school house, but the noise made by the chickens awakened Mr. Spicer who grabbed his gun and ran out. The man evidently heard him coming and made off. Mr. Spicer took a shot at him, but so far as known failed to do any injury.

A highway robbery was also pulled off in that section a few days ago when an old man was stopped on his way across Bald Eagle mountain from Halfmoon valley to Port Matilda and a quantity of potatoes, canned fruit, etc., taken from his wagon by masked men.

Residents of that locality are watching several suspects and township officers believe they are hot on the trail of one or more of the men who have been doing the robbing, and an arrest is likely to be made any day. The farmers are also up in arms and are sleeping with one eye open and their forefinger on the trigger of their favorite gun, so to speak, and if the robberies continue somebody is liable to be shot.

Deer Pays Farmer a Midnight Visit.

Along about midnight on Sunday night Samuel H. Hess, a well known farmer of Ferguson township, was awakened by a furious barking of dogs and with visions of an attack by some mysterious foe he hastily donned his clothes and grabbing his trusty rifle hastened down stairs and out into the night.

Great was his amazement, however, when he found himself confronted by a deer in his garden. The deer had already been so badly harassed by the dogs that it was so dazed it did not know what to do. Mr. Hess drove the dogs away when the deer jumped into the lane, but there it stopped. Mr. Hess also got into the lane when the deer walked slowly down to a little stream that flows through the Hess farm, where it stopped. Mr. Hess followed thinking to frighten it to the mountain but the deer waited until he got almost close enough to touch it when it turned quickly and walked back toward the house. Retreating his steps Mr. Hess walked around the animal and finally got it headed toward the mountain, but he had to follow it almost to the edge of the forest before the deer seemed to get its bearings and make direct for the mountain.

Whether the animal was blind or was simply so tired out by having been run by the dogs Mr. Hess is unable to say, as he could not see it well enough in the dark to tell.

Many Foreigners Want to be Naturalized.

A list of twenty-five foreign-born citizens who want to be naturalized as good subjects of Uncle Sam is on record in the prothonotary's office for hearing at the June session of naturalization court. Among the number are Rev. T. Hugh MacLeod, pastor of the United Brethren church, a professor and a secretary at State College.

An examiner from the U. S. naturalization office in Philadelphia was here several days ago examining the final papers of the various applicants. Before coming here he visited Philipsburg, where there are three applicants, Munson, where there are two, and Snow Shoe where there are seven.

An amusing incident occurred here while examining the applicants. One foreigner was asked who is Governor of Pennsylvania, and after scratching his head a minute he said: "Why, Mr. Inspector, his name just slipped my mind." Thinking to help him out the examiner said: "What does your wife use when she wants to sweep?" "Broom," promptly replied the foreigner. "Well, what comes next?" asked the examiner. "Handle," said the man, and the laugh was on the examiner.

Rural Carrier Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the county of Centre, to be held at Philipsburg and Bellefonte, on May 26th, 1917, to fill the position of rural carrier at Philipsburg, and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other postoffices in the above mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a postoffice in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

—John L. VanPelt has been promoted from manager of the S. and H. trading stamp store in this place to traveling representative of the company. During the past three weeks he has devoted his time to South Bethlehem and adjacent towns but the district he will cover is quite large, in fact most of the eastern middle part of the State. Though his headquarters will be in South Bethlehem he will continue to live in Bellefonte as most of his time when away from home will be spent on the road. Mr. VanPelt's promotion does not mean that the S. and H. store in this place will be closed up, but is in line with the company's recently announced decision of consolidating the small districts under the management of the Scranton office, leaving the different stores in charge of a young lady attendant, which means that Miss Potter will continue in charge of the Bellefonte store.

—"Clean up Bellefonte" is the slogan to be used by every resident of the town this summer. The annual campaign will begin Monday, May 7th, and it is to be hoped no one will let up in this chase after dirt, until there is not one unsightly spot left in Bellefonte. Do your share that it may be said of us, that ours is the cleanest as well as the most patriotic town in Pennsylvania.
