PLEASANT GAP ITEMS.

Miss Violet Irvin left Monday for State College for an indefinite visit. Mr. William Irvin spent a few days last week with his brother at Tyrone. Miss Myrtle Deitrick spent the week-end at her home in Hublersburg. Mrs. Harry Grove, of Tyrone, is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Herman. Mrs. May Cox, of Bellefonte, spent a few days last week at her home at this place. Henrietta Gettig and Henrietta Dunkelbarger are spending a few days at Curtin. Mrs. George Showers and little daughter spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Milesburg. Miss Alice Herman, of Fillmore, visited a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. John Herman. Mr. and Mrs. Rimmey and two sons, from Jersey Shore, spent Sunday with friends at this place. Wm. H. Noll and family motored to Altoona, Sunday, and spent the day with Mr. Noll's daughter, Mrs. Paul Keller. Mrs. Raymond Mebray has returned home again after spending several weeks with her husband at White Haven. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Appleby and little son, of Harrisburg, came to this place Saturday to visit with Mrs. Appleby's grandmother, Mrs. Charlotte Eckenroth. A maiden lady residing within the confines of Pleasant Gap accosted your correspondent a few evenings ago with a rather abrupt harangue. She seemed highly incensed against the newspapers for not showing up the bachelors in their proper dilatory light. She said the press columns always contained a lot of unimportant literature that was of little interest to the public, and concluded by saying, "why don't they tell us something about the bachelor and what use he is to society. Living only for his own comfort, a hot-house plant to be nurtured and cared for by others, he is appreciated only by a doting mother and a maiden sister. Please give us his good points, if he is possessed of any, that we may learn to endure, and perhaps embrace, what we have heretofore almost despised." To begin to enlighten the lady we can think of some good purposes for which he might be used, but the government has evidently never thought of them; or at least, it has not considered them. He might be put in those positions which are attached with the most danger; there, if few were lost, there would be few to mourn. He might be heavily taxed, for certainly no others have as much right to bear the public expense as those who have none depending upon them. When drafts are made to fill up our armies, the President's proclamation might read: "Draw on the bachelors." They might be made gas inspectors, dynamite supervisors, assigned any position in which it would be dangerous to put a great and good man. Now, then, taking the opposite side of this topic, it must be admitted that the much-abused bachelor is possessed of some very good traits. He generally has a dozen or more of other people's children to look after, which he does carefully and it makes him feel good to be called uncle, regardless of age, sex or previous condition of the self-styled nephews and nieces. Young ladies when preparing to entertain company or enter society like bachelor uncles to practice upon. They think with the rest of the world, that these old lads have no hearts, and may be used as lay figures. Any young girl is glad of the chance of going out with a bachelor uncle, because he takes such good care of her and knows where the nicest suppers and lunches are to be found. However, they do not like the bachelor for a beau—only for an uncle. It is a mistake to think bachelors are heartless. How could they become so popular with children and young people if they were? Only those who are bachelors because they can get no one to marry them are cranky and ungenial. Could you look into the hearts of many of those who wear the name of bachelor you would find it a misnomer, hidden away from the gaze of the world, and out of sight of trusted friends, is the image of a soul wife to whom they are true and faithful; whose memory is fondly cherished, and whose honor they respect. Upon the altar of the heart there burns with undiminished brightness the flame that was kindled in the noonday of youth, or in manhood's early morn, while yet love was young and ardent. Years have come and years have gone, and still the shrine has been kept pure. Years may come and years may go, yet every day will find the faithful votary there with his offering of white doves. Now a parting salute to our maiden friend in question, who it is quite evident has not made a superficial study of the bachelor. The best thing she can do is to cultivate the acquaintance of those who are such from choice and not from physical or mental defect. She will in that event, no doubt, find them delicious. And, as to the bachelor, there is little doubt that marriage would make him a much happier or a far more miserable man than he is.

Some of our graduates of the class of 1917 on Saturday intend going to the Central State Normal school, at Lock Haven. Those who expect to go are Misses Marian Eisenhauer, Helen Bower, Rhoda Brown and Maude Brown, who taught the primary grade the past term.

On Saturday, April 28th, Mrs. Henry Mowery gave a birthday dinner in honor of her husband, Henry Mowery, who on that day celebrated his 69th birthday. It was intended to be a complete surprise but somehow on Friday some fairy must have whispered the secret to him for he knew it, but nevertheless, he seemed to enjoy the affair at any rate. Mrs. Mowery served a most delicious dinner, having all the good things of the season. Every one present did full justice to her delightful dinner. Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mowery and two granddaughters; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wentzel, all of Loganton; Ray Stricker, of Yeagertown, (Mr. Mowery's grandson); Mrs. H. C. Stricker, Mrs. Howard Aaron and daughter Lulu, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Krape, Mrs. C. E. Musser and son James, Mrs. Thomas Hull, Miss Jennie Hull, all of Aaronsburg. All returned to their homes, having had a most delightful day and wishing him many more such happy birthdays.

LEMONT.

Saturday and Monday were pleasant spring days.

J. C. Etters is busy soliciting for the Ensign Oil Co.

Wm. Fogleman spent Sunday at the home of his mother.

There is promise of a large fruit crop, if the frost does not injure it.

Floyd Palmer and family came to town Saturday to visit a day or two.

The stork left a big son at the home of Frank Beaver's, one day last week.

Mrs. Etta Martz, who has been quite ill of late, is much better now and is able to be out again.

James M. Grove, who has been confined to his house for more than two weeks, is able to be out again.

Clayton Etters has ordered a new motor truck to do his hauling for his mill, and will dispose of his horses and wagons on the 19th of May.

The farmers are busy plowing and seeding and are putting out a larger acreage than usual. The greatest drawback to putting out potatoes this year is the scarcity of seed potatoes.

State College Releases Seniors for Farm Work.

Seniors in The Pennsylvania State College school of agriculture, who are ready to take places on farms, will be permitted to leave college immediately and receive their diplomas at the June commencement.

The action was taken at this time by the college authorities in view of the critical situation in the production of the nation's farm products. Many requests have come to the agricultural school for trained men to assist in specialized farming operations this summer.

That Dull Aching

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and aching backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this statement.

Mrs. C. Young, Potter St., Bellefonte, says: "For more than a year I suffered from a dull ache in the small of my back. It was sore and tender and if I bent over, I could hardly get up again. I never felt able to do any housework. I had a languid feeling all the time and in the morning I didn't feel like getting dressed. I was troubled a lot by dizzy spells and the kidney secretions were unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills had helped so many people around here that I procured some at Green's Pharmacy Co. The first box cured me. It has been three years now since I have had any trouble from my back or kidneys."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Young had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 62-18

White soaps are usually made of olive oil, cottonseed oil or other fine vegetable oils and carbonate of soda. Common household soaps are usually made of soda and tallow, and yellow soap is generally composed of tallow, resin and rosin to which palm oil is added in some cases. Marine soap, or "sea soap," which will lather and dissolve in sea water, as well as in fresh water, is usually made of coconut oil, soda and water. Soft soaps are made with whale oil, seal oil, or the oils of linseed, rape seed, hemp seed or cotton seed with the addition of a little tallow.

Hood's Sarsaparilla.

YEAGER'S SHOE STORE

SHOES FOR THE FAT LADY

I have taken the agency for AUNT POLLY'S OUT SIZE Shoes for stout women.

This line of shoes is scientifically constructed to fit the stout woman with short, fat feet and wide ankles. The average woman who has a foot of this kind, must get a shoe two or three sizes longer than her foot in order to get the width, but with a pair of AUNT POLLY shoes she can get the shoe just the right length.

A pair of AUNT POLLY shoes number 7 will not look any larger than a number 5 of the ordinary shoes. I have all sizes from 3 to 10.
